HAMILL GENEALOGY - DAVIDSON SECTION:To Follow Page
DAVIDSON A.Data Page on WILLIAM DAVIDSON, JR - MARY CLENDENNING.

(From "History of Lawrence County, Penna.") : Relates to the Davidson Family, moving across the mountains from McKeesport, Penna, to North Beaver Twp, Lawrence Co, Penna (Non Valley District), in April 1794: ".....At Beaver they rested a short time with their sister, Lydia Davidson-Alexander (#7). The Family now consisted of William Davidson, Jr (#1) and his wife, Mary Ramsey Davidson, James (#12) and Rosanna (#11), Elizabeth (Esther?) (#13), and Mary (#14). The father led one horse, across whose back was adjusted a wallet containing two small children, Esther and Mary. In addition to the children, the bedding and other necessary articles were heaped on the back of the horse. The Mother rode another horse, carrying her 6-weeks-old Lydia (#15). While crossing a rocky ridge, the Mother's horse stumbled and fell, pitching her over his head. She threw the infant ahead of her, trying to save it. Full of dire misgivings, the parents rushed to the spot where the baby lay, and to their utter surprise, found it sleeping as if nothing had happened. As they previously had a narrow escape from drowning, the Mother remarked: "Well, Lydia is not born to be drowned or hanged."

(Compiler's Note: Our Davidsons came to America after the Revolution - so the Davidsons mentioned in this letter could not be ours. Ours came in 1786-7, or 1790. This letter is included here for purposes of record.)

"WAR DEPARTMENT - Record and Pension Office.

"Mr Albert McCalla, Chicago, Ill. Washington, DC, May 23rd, 1901.

"The records of this office show that one William Davidson served as 1st Lieutenant in Capt. Lennox's Company, 3rd Penna Regt, commanded by Col. Lambert Cadwallader, Revolutionary War. His name appears on returns dated October 4th and 11th, 1776, with remark showing him absent with leave in Phila, and on a "list" with remark showing he was paid to September 1776. The records also show that one William Davidson served as 1st Lieutenant in the 4th Penna Regt, Revolutionary War. He was commissioned January 5th, 1776 and his name appears on a list, not dated, of officers on the Supernumerary list with remark: "To be especially recommended."

The records show further that one James Davidson served as Surgeon in the 5th Penna Regt, commanded by Col. Francis Johnston, Rev. War. He was commissioned April 5th, 1777, and his name appear on the rolls of that organization to Sept. 1, 1780, without special remark relative to his service. It is also shown by the records that one James Davidson served as Private in Capt. Alexander Parker's Co, 7th Penna Regt, commanded by Col. Wm. Irvine, Revolut. War. He enlisted 12/5/1776, to serve during the war, and his name last appears on the roll of that organization dated 9/9/1778, without remark. No further information relative to these soldiers has been found of record. Two applications for the Rev. war record of James Davidson of Pa. have heretofore been made to this office. One was received from Fannie Davidson, Harbor Hills, Penna, 4/12/1898, and one from Rev. Thomas L. Sexton, Seward, Nebraska (H-125-1), 7/8/1898. By Authority of the Secretary of War, (Louis Robert Hamill (Henrietta Bofill) (H-121-51) of Hattiesburg, Miss, wrote ) (on 7/16/1932, and on 9/12/1938): "...Have just received much Davidson, Hamill, Dungen and Ramsey Genealogy from Sylvia Caven (H-124-115) Mrs A.J. Caven) of 1620 Nevada St, Cering, Neb. She is Great-Granddaughter of James Hamill (H-124), and a Niece of Sylvia Crawford Franklin (H-124-12). Do you remember several years ago I told you the story, as told me by Aunt Minerva Hope (nee Hamill-H-124-5), about the first to come over was a widow and 2 sons, and you said it sounded like Davidson. Now I have several reasons for believing it was a Hamill. We know that the Davidsons came over in 1785-6, so it could not be them, if our Great(2) Grandfather Nathaniel (see check side)..." (4/26/1947).

recd May 1972

Hamill(H-1) was born 9/7/1747 in Big Cove, (?), Milton or Bedford Co, would deduct the following: That his parents had 2 children in Ireland, the father died, then the widow (who was with child), came to America. What do you think of this?

Mary Davidson(nee Clendenning)(Davidson A) came to America in 1785-6, and settled first at Harrisburg, Penna, in 1804. A Davidson(H-1) was granted 400 acres of land in Beaver, now Lawrence Co, Penna. This makes me believe that Great(3) Grandmother Mary Davidson(nee Clendenning) may be buried close by.

Miss Delli Davidson, 319 Locust St, Newcastle, Penna, has much Davidson history, and she is of our line. Have written to her.

When you visited Mon Valley in 1927, did you contact any of the Davidsons? I have just received a letter from Miss Mary Delli Davidson(above). She is a 2nd Cousin of our parents a generation ahead of us. Now I deducted that Mary Davidson(nee Clendenning)(H-1) was buried in the Union Cemetery, 1/2 mile west of the White Church at New Galilee. The following is an extract from her letter of 8/17/1938. "Last night we went down to the Union Cemetery, and it got dark before we left - will go again soon - the Union Cemetery is kept up very well. Besides the Davidson lot, there are 3 graves with the slab markers fallen flat, and we are inclined to believe one of them is Mary Clendenning Davidson's marker. The letters are indistinct and it got dark, too dark for us to see, so will return later and see what we can decipher."

(Same--Letter of 2/21/1938): "Mr Wm. H. Davidson, RFD 1, New Galilee, Penna, who is a 2nd Cousin of our parents ..... states that our Great(2) Grandparents, Wm. & Mary Davidson( ) are buried in Union Cemetery, 1/2 mile west of the White Church at New Galilee. He lives on the old Davidson Homestead, the Deed of which is dated 1804, so would say that was the year our ancestors settled there."

(Mr John L. Stewart (Stewart B-134), of Harrisburg, Penna, wrote on 1/4/1896 to Miss Helen Wayne MacGalla, (H-125-61) of Chicago, Ill: (See Data Page "B" - Stewart (Stewart) Section):

".....My Grandfather, Robert Stewart, (Stewart B-1) came to this country about 1789 or '90, or it may be a few years earlier, and was married to Margaret Davidson, (Davidson 5), in the town of Carlisle, Penna, in 1790. I have always understood that grandfather and grandmother Stewart (B-1), came to this country together, and that they came from the same locality in which the Hamill and Davidson people lived in Ireland, but were not here until after the close of the Revolutionary War. (Compiler's Note: My Mother, Mrs Eleanor Hamill MacGalla (H-125-6) said: "They were related in Ireland.")

".....My father's sister, Aunt Lydia McGeehon, (Stewart B-18), remembers something of the Davidsons in early years. Grandmother Stewart, (Stewart B-17), who was Margaret Davidson, (Davidson A-5), had 3 brothers, Robert, James & William, and 4 sisters, Sally, Polly, Lydia and Hester. Sally married John Blaine, but had no children. Polly married a Mr Irwin and had 2 sons who lived in Youngstown, Ohio. Lydia married John Gibson who lived near Youngstown, Ohio. They had several daughters and one son named Findley. One of the daughters, Ella, married a man named Jas. Sproat. This daughter, Ella, was Aunt Minerva Taylor's step-mother. Aunt Minerva Taylor was the wife of Uncle Joseph Taylor who lived near Keokuk, Iowa, and who knew your Grandfather, (Smith Hamill-H-125), of course, quite well. Our Aunt Lydia McGeehon, (Stewart B-18), does not know anything of Hester Davidson..

Robert Davidson had a family and lived in or near a place called Cadiz, which my Aunt, (Stewart B-18) says was in Penna, but I am inclined to think was Cadiz, Ohio, but do not know positively. James Davidson was married and lived near Youngstown, Ohio. Some of his descendants now reside in Lawrence Co, Penna, and in Kansas. Wm. Davidson lived in Western Penna. I remember very well his son, James, who lived on a farm adjoining my father's place, and which is still in the Davidson family. I know personally nearly all the members of that family. All are now (1896) dead. Jane, the last one to survive, died a few months ago at an advanced age.....

( Compiler's Note: This listing of the Davidson children does not agree with the listing as we have it in our records here. Maybe Mrs Lydia McGeehon, at 83 years of age, did not remember accurately - but (maybe our listing is wrong).

William Davidson, Jr., was a Farmer of New Galilee, Penna.

William Davidson, Jr.: The Davidson Family Bible claims "died 8/30/1826, aged 68 years" - which would make him born in 1758. Other dates had been given previously as born "about 1743" and died 8/10/1826 "at 83 years old." These latter dates were evidently wrong.

RAILL GENEALOGY - DAVIDSON SECTION

Wm. Davidson, Jr., emigrated to the US with his wife and the first 3 children, and with his mother, 3 brothers and 5 sisters, supposedly in 1736-7, or more likely in 1790. They settled first at Redstone, near Carlisle, Penna, for several years, then went to McKeesport, Penna, where they stayed a short time, and in April 1794, moved on to Enon Valley, Lawrence Co, Penna, settling near New Galilee, Penna.

(From Mrs Albert J. Caven's (H-124-115) Genealogical Chart-(#C)-3/3/1947): "William Davidson, Jr, born 1758, Londonderry, Ireland; Died 1826 in America aged 68. He married Mary Ramsey Ramsey, who died in 1851, aged 74 years. Her maiden name was Ramsey, and she married a man named Ramsey, and had 2 children, who both died in infancy. The children were Thomas and Barbara Ramsey. When the husband died. Both (Wm. Davidson, Jr and Mary Ramsey Davidson) are buried in Union Cemetery, 1/2 mile east of White Church, New Galilee, Penna." (Compiler's Note: Old information from other sources, showed that Wm. Davidson, Jr, was born in 1743, died 8/10/1826, and was 83 years old - which differs from Mrs Caven's record).

Mary Aiken Ramsey married a man also named Ramsey, and is said to have had 2 children by this first husband, named Barbara and Thomas, both of whom died young. Another legend however says that one daughter, who was very beautiful, married General Irwin, and went to Youngstown, Ohio, where her Grandchildren now live. (See also note on Data Page A and Item #9).

(Letter 1/1/1933 from Mrs. A. C. Crawford (Mrs. McGill) (H-124-1) to Mr. (Mrs. Clinton Franklin (Sylvia L. Crawford) (H-124-12): "...You are all wrong about Martha Beckett (H-1) being married to a Ramsey. She was not a widow before our Great-Grandparent married her. It was Great-Grandfather Davidson (Wm. Davidson, Jr-H-1) that was married to a Ramsey, and had 2 children, a girl and a boy. The boy died shortly after she married a Davidson, the girl married a man by the name of Irvine. I do not know anything about her now. Perhaps Anna Stewart ( ) will find out all that can be found at this late day...."

William Davidson, a Great-Grandson of #1, was living at RFD #1, New Galilee, Penna, on 1/1/1937.

Rosanna Davidson (H-1) was 7 years old when she came to this country (1790) (See Letters Section - "Miss. McGill Letters H-1) (See also Data Page H-12).

Capt. James Davidson (H-12) - Elizabeth (Dolly) Houston: Their Grandsons were living (1924-30) near Enon Valley, Penna. "Capt. James Davidson had 6 children: William, Thomas, James, Samuel, Jane, Maria Davidson. Samuel had 2 children of his own, Dell Davidson, of Newcastle, Penna, and Will Davidson. The home was built in 1842." (#C - Copied from Genealogical Chart of Mrs (Albert J. Caven, (H-124-113).

Elder Davidson (H-13) - John White: They lived at Mt Jackson, Penna. A Daughter lived (1924-30) near Enon Valley, Penna. Norman White, Alice and Elizabeth White were living (1924-30) in H. Beaver Twp, RFD #2, Enon Valley, Pa. Alice White, another sister, is dead. They were said to have had 7 children, the eldest of whom was William White, who had 6 children. (Sylvia Gray (ford Franklin (H-124-11) wrote): "John White's daughter, Margaret White, married Adam Hope, and the Hopes and Macills intermarried." (See Hopes see (Pages H-121-6, H-35, H-358, H-358-4).

Mary Davidson (H-14) - Thomas Simpson: They lived in Little Beaver Twp, Lawrence Co, Penna. They built a brick house on a farm owned by a Grandson, Joseph G. Russell. They had a large family of daughters, and 1 son, all dead. Maria, one daughter, married James Simpson, a farmer of Little Beaver Twp. He owned a farm near Enon Valley, Penna, now owned by Charles Buchanan. (Sylvia Gray (ford Franklin (H-124-11) wrote): "They had a large family, many dying young, and are buried in White Church Cemetery, near New Galilee, Penna. Before the Civil War, Thomas moved to Vandalia, Ill. Sons (See OTHER SIDE). (4/26/1947).

John and William and daughter went with them. Sons fought in the Civil War. Daughter married, now dead. Lydia Silliman, another daughter of Thomas Silliman, married James Merrill (H-124), farmer, of N. Beaver Twp. Minerva Silliman, another daughter of Thomas Silliman, married John H. Russell, farmer, of Little Beaver Twp, on 12/28/1843. Sam Davidson (#14) is also said to have died 8/1/1881, and to have been married in 1814.

Lydia Davidson (#15) - Jeremiah (John?) Wilson: Moved to Newton, Iowa, and often visited the Smith Merrill (H-125) home in Keokuk, Iowa. They had 2 sons, Wright and John Wilson, who were in the Civil War. Mrs Kate Brown, who is supposed to be a sister of Wright Wilson's wife, is still living (1924-30) in Newton, Iowa. John Wilson is supposed to be still living (1924-30) at Buffalo Lake, Minnesota. Lydia Davidson (#15) is also said to have married William Silliman, instead of Jeremiah (John?) Wilson. (#C).

Martha Davidson (#16) - Charles Silliman: He was a farmer, of Little Beaver Twp, Penna, on the farm now (1924-30) owned by William Bronson. Their children were: William, Benwick, Alexander, Margaret, Mary, Sarepta, Lucinda, Rosanna and Isabella Silliman. Benwick Silliman moved in 1855 to Winterset, Iowa. (See Data Page H-124 for Silliman Records).

Jane Davidson (#17) - Alexander Silliman: He was a farmer of Little Beaver Twp, Penna, on the farm now (1924-30) owned by James McNettle. He moved to Ohio. They had several children, among them Mary, Alexander and Stewart Silliman - address unknown. Jane Davidson (#17) is also said to have married Jeremiah (Joseph?) Wilson, instead of Alexander Silliman. (#C) (See Page H-124 for Silliman Records).

The Silliman Family: Little is known of the parents of Thomas, Alexander and Charles Silliman, but they had a sister, Isabella, who apparently married a Joseph Wilson, and a sister named Jane Silliman, whose marriage is unknown. The earliest records show the Sillimans as farmers in Beaver County. Isabella Silliman-Joseph Wilson lived on the North end of the old farm, and had several children living near New Brighton, Penna. (Compiler's Note: Some later information on these Sillimans is contained on Data - (Page H-124)).

(Louis Robert Merrill (H-121-51) wrote on 2/21/1958): ".....A present day Davidson is William M. Davidson, RD 1, New Galilee, Penna, who is a Great-Grandson of William and Mary Davidson (#1).

Rev. Thomas Lawrence Sexton, DD (H-125-1) claimed that there was also a Samuel Davidson in this family(?).

Thomas H. Stewart, of Enon Valley, Penna, claimed there was a John Davidson in this family (who would be #18), and he was probably the son of William Davidson, or (#1), and that he never married and lived on the farm of Robert Stewart (#5), near Enon Valley, Penna.

Re: Mary Allen Ramsey: Sylvia Crawford Franklin, (H-124-12) claimed that Mary Allen Ramsey had no children by her first marriage. (Other records, however, seem to show that she had 2 children by her 1st husband).

The McCalla Genealogy - Hamphill Section-Family A-Page Hemp. "A" - there is mention of a Margaret Ramsey. She came from County Derry, (Londonderry), Ireland, was a Scotch woman, and was the daughter of William Ramsey. She became the second wife of John Hamphill, Sr., (Hemp. "A"), in Ireland, and after his death, (probably After 1787), she came to America to join some of her children who had emigrated here. She made her home thereafter with her son, Rev. John Hamphill, Jr., DD, (Hemp. A-5), noted Pastor of Hopewell Assoc. Ref. Church, near Chester, South Carolina. Her birth and death dates are unknown, but her husband died after 1787, and her eldest son was born in County Derry, Ireland, about 1745.

(Letters to The Compiler, (Paul H. McCalla (A-125-65)-2320 Cottage Grove Ave, ) (Apt 3)-Chicago(16), Illinois) - from Mr Robert Wilkison Evans, (Davidson A- ) (121-311-1)-131 Lakeside Drive, New Concord, Ohio. Student-U. of Chicago-1905)
(E. 60th St-Chicago, Illinois):
(Letter of 10/28/1948): "Robert Wilkison Evans, 1005 E. 60th St, Chicago (37), Illinois. Oct. 28, 1948. Dear Mr McCalla: I received your letter this afternoon and thought perhaps I should waste no more time in answering.
I was most interested in The Hamill Genealogy, and think that you have done a really superb job. Of course the real problem, and one which ~~is~~ most genealogies simply are not equipped for, is keeping the material up to date. It was with great interest that I read some of the letters which you have included and found in one a reference to the Biographical and Genealogical History of Beaver County, Penna. I had often wished to use this book, since I felt sure that one side or another of my family would be in it, but it has no index, and consists of two large volumes, much too long for casual perusal. This reference however was for volume one, which cut the job in half, and I proceeded to leaf through until I came to the McCalla family article, which had some very useful material. I am trying now to get in touch with the present generation of this family to find up to date information. Ofcourse with your system, this material can easily be inserted in the proper place.

In the article mentioned above there were some useful dates which belong on page A-12 of the Davidson Section, which you may wish to copy in:
Wm. F. Davidson, (A-121), b 2/26/1812, Lawrence Co, Pa, d 11/16/1873, Keokuk, Ia.
Thomas Houston Davidson, (A-122), b 2/2/1816, d 2/2/1889, Jamestown, Penna.
James Ramsey Davidson, (A-123), b 11/1/1813, d 2/22/1893, New Castle, Penna.
Samuel Davidson, (A-124), b 3/2/1820, d 2/2/1890.
Jane Davidson, (A-125), b Dec 1813, d Sept 1895.
Maria Davidson, (A-126), b 6/19/1817, d 9/3/1881, Married 5/25/1847, James McCalla, b 11/20/1820 in Ireland, d 9/23/1905 in Lawrence Co, Penna.
The "McCalla" had three children, all boys.

I hope that you will hear from my Cousin Dell, but she does not use the typewriter, and is rather handicapped thus in sending information of any length. I hope to see her at Christmas time, and will maybe be able to add dates at that time. I sent her a chart recently and when she returned it to me a few weeks ago I copied the information which she had included onto the sheets that I handed you the day we met at the library. Which reminds me to ask you if on those sheets I mentioned anyone by the name of Croskey.
The copied that I had with me that day were the ones which I had filled out previously, since I didn't know that I would see you, and I thought perhaps there was information there that I hadn't copied off anywhere else. Recently I ran across some notes on a Davidson family in Cadiz, Ohio, which may be that of Robert Davidson, whom we know lived there. This man married a Croskey, and I was certain that I had seen the name before, but now can't put my finger on it.

I have heard from Mrs Caven, who wrote me a nice letter and sent a Chart to me. (Mrs Caven is A-124-113). I have given her what I know about the descendants of Captain James Davidson and Betty Houston, and must send it along soon. I have some new information and will make out sheets for you at the earliest moment I have free.

If you are ever near the corner of 60th and Ellis, particularly in the evenings, I should be most glad to see you again and discuss this business further. A library is not a very good place for stirring up an acquaintance due to the necessity for whispering. Must close and return to my studies.
Thank you again for your letter and your help. Will get new sheets typed for you soon. Very Sincerely, BOB EVANS. (Davidson A-121-311-1).

DAVIDSON
A-121-311-1.

ROBERT WILKISON EVANS, PhD, M.A., (Only child of Katherine Eva Wilkison).
( Head Librarian, Muskingum (UP) College, New Concord, Ohio) (Genealogist).

Born: 4/25/1930, at Pontiac, Michigan.
Died:

Robert Wilkison Evans, PhD, M.A., in 1948-52, was a Student at the Univ. of Chicago, taking a Librarian Course, and had a 4-year Scholarship from _____ and has supplied much data on this Davidson Family A, on Durgans (See H-114), on Young Family A, and on other lines. In this, he has had much help from his Cousin, Miss Mary Dell Davidson, (Davidson A-125-2) (Deceased), 219 Locust St, New Castle, Penna, and also from Mrs Herbert _____ Davidson, (Anna Florence Moore) (Davidson A-126-13), of New Castle, Penna, who are also interested in Family History, particularly on the Davidson lines. Robert is becoming a very thorough and fine Genealogist, and some day should become noted in this field.

Robert, while a Student at the Univ. of Chicago, lived (5/17/1950) in Room 428, U of C Dormitory, 1005 E. 60th St, Chicago (37), Ill. On 9/27/1949 he lived with his room mate, Mr _____ Wickman, at 5467 So. University Ave, and later at Apt 608, 5430 So. Cornell Ave, and at Apt 526, 5510 Kenwood Ave. Robert left (6/26/1950) for a Student's Summer trip to Europe - to France, Italy, England, Wales, Scotland, etc. On 12/16/1951, to 5/23/1952, he lived at 6032 So. Ingleside Ave.

Robert graduated (6/1950) with the PhD Degree, (Bachelor of Philosophy) as a Librarian, from the College of the Univ. of Chicago. On 5/23/1952 he completed his studies for the M.A. Degree, from the Graduate Library School of the Univ. of Chicago, intending to complete his Thesis later. He became (7/1/1952) Circulation Librarian of Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill. He served in the US Army (10/1952 to 10/1954) in the 5th Armed Division, later with the Headquarters Co, 8232nd Armored Unit, seeing service in Korea and Japan. In January 1955, he was back at the Library School of the Univ. of Chicago, completing his Thesis for his M.A. Degree. On 6/13/1955 he had been appointed Head Librarian of Muskingum College, (U.P.), New Concord, Ohio - of which his Father is Chaplain.

Robert Wilkison Evans, PhD, M.A., (Library Science), is Head Librarian of Muskingum (U.P.) College, and lives (7/4/1955) with his Parents at 151 Lakeside Drive, New Concord, Ohio.

(Letter of 4/27/1949 from Chicago): "Mr Paul H. McCalla, 2320 Cottage Grove Ave (Apt 3) - Chicago (16), Ill. 4/27/1949. Dear Mr McCalla: Thank you for your letter and for the information included. I'm sorry that I can't be of any help just now concerning this Evans family in Butler Co, (Penna). (See Hamill Family "Q" - Other Hamill Section - Hamill Genealogy). My own line is as follows:

Evans-Evans.

Samuel E. Evans, married 1853 to Jane Kitts. Arrived in Boston, Mass, from Liverpool, England, shortly thereafter.

Henry W. Evans, married 1893 to Elizabeth Ballows in Pittsburgh.

Henry S. Evans, married 1934 to Katherine Wilkison in Newcastle, (Pa)

Knowing this line as I do, and knowing that it goes straight back to Wales I have never bothered to collect material on the Evans who were early in America. However, Valentine Evans, (See Hamill Family "Q"), seems to strike a familiar note, and I believe that I may have seen the name at some time while going through a Butler County (Penna) History. As these volumes are not always available, I shall take the first opportunity to check this Hamill family with the one in Harper Library, (Univ. of Chicago), and then send the results of my search, if any, to Mrs Caven (A-124-113), and a copy to you. I have some of Mrs Caven's letters relating to the Davidson family, and must return them quite soon.

I was interested in the Crawford and Vance letters from Mrs Morris, (See Hamill Family "Q"). I have corresponded with her in a vain attempt to find the descendants of Lydia Davidson and James Alexander. One of the sisters of my Great-Grandfather, Joseph Wilkison, married Norman Vance, whose family is in that Jordan's History of Beaver County, (Penna), and another sister married J. A. Crawford, who was an uncle of the Mr James Crawford, who is Dell Davidson's, (Davidson A-125-3) adopted brother, and I think perhaps a nephew or Great-nephew of the Betty Houston who married Capt. James Davidson, (Davidson A-12), as Betty had a Crawford sister. Hope this complicated sentence is intelligible.

Recently I have been side-tracked by several things. I have not had much time to spend on Genealogy, and then what I have done has been mostly on my Robinson and Sherer lines. I had quite a bit of luck with them during March (1949), and at present, I'm not on the trail of another Robinson ancestor. But since Spring vacation, I have had to drop the whole subject and confine almost all my attentions to my studies. We have our comprehensive examinations the first part of June, and the days go by so rapidly.

Hope to hear from you again soon, and if I happen to discover anything about this family in Butler Co, (Penna), I'll send you a copy. My best wishes to your family and to your work, Very Sincerely, ROBERT EVANS.

(Letter of 5/12/1949 from Chicago): "Dear Cousin Paul. I'm sorry to say that I didn't have any startling success with the family you sent me recently. (See Hamill Family "Q" - Other Hamill Section - Hamill Genealogy). I did locate a quotation in a History of Butler Co (Penna) which mentioned that John Hamel had come there from Westmoreland County (Penna) in 1814. In 1883, when the history was published, four of his children were still living, only one, John, I believe, still in Butler County. In 3 or 4 of the other townships, the other names, -oaks, Critchlow, Evans, Martin, etc, were all very common, and it is possible that this book would be of use to the ladies working on the family. I wrote what I had found, a more complete citation than this, to Mrs Caven (A-124-113), who wrote me this morning that she would send it on to Mrs. Barish. (See Hamill Family "O"). I still have my eye out for William Valentine Evans. The Evans City, (Evansburg in 1883) was founded by a Thomas Evans, and one of his close neighbors was a Squire Robert Boggs.

The enclosed sheet, (Davidson A-121-3), is one of several that I have had in preparation for you for some time. Aunt Hattie Wimmer, (Davidson A-121-7), and Uncle Will A. Davidson, (Davidson A-121-8), both of California, both died during February (1919). They were the last of the brothers and sisters of my Great-grandfather, Thomas D. Davidson, (A-121-3). The duplicate set of sheets on the Davidsons that you sent me some time ago, I have been working on quite a good deal. I have filled in numerous dates and places and in some cases added a generation or two here and there. However I know that there is a great deal more information awaiting me in New Castle (Penna) this Summer, so I shall not return it till I come back to school in the Fall, if that is agreeable with you. I know how busy you are with your other lines, and of course there is nothing in the way of string attached to anything that I send you. However I would sort of like to put a lot of work on the Davidsons this Summer, and try to get them out of my own way as much as I can, and then be free to work on some of my other more remote lines.

This brings up a request that I rather hesitate to make of you. If I understand aright, there is a 4th copy of the Hamill Genealogy, which you have in your possession at the present. Would you be willing to loan this to me for the Summer, when I won't have access to one at Newberry (Library-Chicago)? As I said, I intend to do some plain and fancy work on this family during the Summer, and it would be a great help to me to have this vast source of information handy. I would also like to show the work to my Cousin Nell (Davidson A-125-2), and I know that Mrs. Florence Davidson, (???) Davidson --- who has given me so much help, would be very eager to read the old letters and so on that you have included at so much expense to yourself. Her own work would be aided a great deal, I know, if she could see some of these things. I want to sit at her feet for a good many hours, and just hear all the many things that she knows about the family and hasn't ever had time to set down on paper. Then as I pick up information, I could copy it onto a separate sheet of paper and clip it to the appropriate sheet in your book, return it to you when I return to the city in October. Then you could go through and use as much of it as you please.

I realize that this is asking a good deal, to trust an almost perfect stranger with a book of so much value - particularly when it only means more work for yourself. But it would be worth a great deal to me to have at my fingertips all the available information as I work, to save copying, and to save wondering to myself: Does Mr. McCalla have this in his Hamill Genealogy? At least, I hope you will take the matter into consideration, and look on the sheet enclosed as a sample of what might be done. And as I said, there is hardly a sheet in the group you sent me, to which I haven't added dates and other information.

My comprehensives begin in about 2 weeks and continue on until the middle of June. Then I shall go home to relax and recoup a little of my energy, and of course, one of the first things to do will be a visit to Grandmother Wilkison, (A-121-31) - and I hope to numerous others in New Castle. If there are any particular problems you wish taken to the Courthouses and Libraries of Lawrence and Beaver Counties, please let me know, as I shall be only too glad to do what I can to repay you for your help and the painstaking work of your books. Very sincerely, ROBERT EVANS.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY
RESEARCH REPORT NO. 1234
JANUARY 1965

1. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this report is to describe the results of the experiments conducted during the past year. The experiments were designed to investigate the effect of temperature on the rate of reaction between the two reactants. The results show that the rate of reaction increases with increasing temperature.

2. EXPERIMENTAL PROCEDURE

The experiments were conducted using a standard procedure. The reactants were weighed and placed in a reaction vessel. The temperature was controlled using a water bath. The reaction was initiated by adding a catalyst. The time taken for the reaction to complete was measured.

3. RESULTS

Temperature (°C)	Time taken for reaction to complete (s)
20	120
30	80
40	60
50	45

4. DISCUSSION

The results of the experiments show that the rate of reaction increases with increasing temperature. This is expected, as the rate of reaction is proportional to the kinetic energy of the reactants. The activation energy of the reaction can be determined from the Arrhenius equation.

5. CONCLUSION

The experiments have shown that the rate of reaction increases with increasing temperature. This is due to the increase in the kinetic energy of the reactants, which allows them to overcome the activation energy barrier more easily.

LETTERS FROM ROBERT DAVIDSON EVANS:

DAVIDSON A-121-311-1.

 Dear Cousin Paul: As you've probably noticed, I'm writing you this time from a new address (5467-University Ave). During the Summer I decided that I did not want to return to my room in the dormitory, and so when I returned to school, I found a friend who was willing to share his apt. with me.....I worked about half-time during the Summer, and did as little as possible during the rest of the time. I took the opportunity to get my Davidson Genealogy in somewhat better shape....finally into a binder. It took a tremendous amount of typing, and I often wondered how you had ever accomplished so much on both sides of your family.....I did spend one 3-day vacation in New Castle (Penna), nearly every minute of it working on family. I visited 6 cemeteries in Lawrence Co, and copied many graves. At Bethel, I thought of you often as I ran across the stones of Amills, and others that I was familiar with through your work....My father had preached at Bethel a number of times while he was in the Ministry in Pittsburg, and he remarked how beautifully the place had been kept up, and enlarged by the congregation. Westfield, too, has recently undergone some changes, but its cemetery was in rather sad shape compared with that of Bethel.

Additions to Davidson descendants were mostly in the line of James Davidson (A-2) of Coitsville, but Mrs Robert Davidson, (Lawrence Co, Penna - A-126- ) has quite a bit of new material, and in particular, information about the descent of Father Davidson (A-13-of Mt Jackson, Penna) and John White, which is rather extensive. There is also a new printed Fullerton Genealogy, which I believe would interest you. I have a copy, which I would be glad to show you some day. The Fullertons lived near Mt Jackson and went to Westfield, and this book overlapped with our families to quite a large extent. The Willmans, Hoslies, and Stewarts are quite frequently met in the Fullerton book, and they were also connected with my Clarks (also buried at Westfield). I do want to thank you for letting me borrow your book, and it has been very useful to me. I'll be glad to return it to you at your earliest convenience....Also, any time you feel like tackling something more, I'd be happy to show you my Davidson material..Thank you again, and I hope to hear from you soon;..ROBERT EVANS."

(Post Card of 11/6/1950): "Dear Mr McC: My phone number is Westfield 82 9563.....I also had the good fortune to discover that the University Library had acquired Hagen's "History of Lawrence County (Penna)" during the Summer.... and I have had much enjoyment from reading it, and have been able to use much information from it. Two biographies are of Horace and Emmet Dungan, (A-114-2 & A-114-3), and if they contain any information not in your book, I'd send it along. Was glad to hear of your good fortune with the "Amphills, (See McCalla Genealogy), and have only recently had a bit of luck with my Clark family. Don't work too hard - even on Genealogy, you can get terribly worn out..R.W.E."

(Letter of 2/14/1950): Dear Mr McCalla: Here are the 3 "Young" men (See Note-at end of this letter) from the Lawrence Co, (Penna) History. I'm glad to be of service. I feel that it is only fair to warn you though, that you can't put much faith in this book. Like too many County Histories, it was written largely from memory, or rewritten from the early history by Durant (1870 something), without checking facts at the Courthouse. It does give a pretty good picture of the men though, and at least some hints that could be used in record searching, if you wished to have that done at New Castle. Another drawback to this book is that the index is only to the biographies in the back, and there is much material that may be useful in the first few chapters of general interest and the histories of townships, which are un-indexed. If I read through this thing again soon, I'll keep my eye out for Dungan, and send my notes to you with the proper page references, in case you wish to verify them. If there are any other families or individuals that you would like me to watch for, please don't hesitate to let me know. - hope one day to own this book as well as the old-Durant history, and when I do I'll compile an index to both of them. Till then, I just make a list of things I want to know, and begin at the beginning and go through to the end.

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

(6/30/1950).

I hope you won't have any ill effects from your trip out here this evening in this rain and rain.... You'll hear from me with... new material... for the Davidson section of the Hamill book.... Mrs Davidson got as far East as Carlisle last summer, and solved the mystery of Mary Davidson Junken(?) at least partially. She has also... on descendants of Father Davidson and John White, who intermarried with the "Indians".... thank Mary and Morrison Young must be one of my ancestor relatives.... this line goes back to some old Washington County Indian fighters. Sincerely, Bob Evans.

This is held up, because we cannot connect it with Wm. Young, Jr, who was supposedly grandfather of Chas. W. Young. Our records do not show a Miller Young (grandfather of Chas. W.) as having been a son of Wm. Y., and we will have to get more data on this before being able to write it up in our records.

(Post Card of 8/17/1950): "Dear Mr McGalla: I'm sorry I haven't kept more closely in touch with you this winter, but my studies have demanded a great deal of my time, and just lately I've spent some in getting ready to go to Europe this summer. I sail from Quebec on June 26 (1950), and arrive back in New York on the 15th of Sept. In the mean time, my address has been changed. I'm now living at the Carolina Hotel, 5430 W. Cornell Ave (apt 608). The phone number is RAipfax 4-7400. In case I don't see or hear from you till Fall, I hope that you'll have a very pleasant summer. I'm not going to try to discover any ancestors while I'm abroad, but to content myself with seeing where they lived. The genealogy will have to wait for another trip. Sincerely, BOB EVANS."

(Robert Evans had moved again, on 8/17/1950, to the Glenwood Gardens Apts, 5519 S. Glenwood Ave - which has no phone. His roommate, Mr Wickman, had moved with him. A couple of days later he left for New Concord, Ohio - and for his trip to Europe.

(Letter of 2/20/1950): "Dear Mr McGalla: Your letter arrived this afternoon, and I thank you very much for the White data. (See Page Young "A" - Young Sett.) I'll send this on to Mrs Florence Davidson, (Davidson A-133-1 A-1) who has spent much time this Fall on the Whites. She has the advantage of working on the scene and knowing people who have family records. She obtained the White family charts, and copied the information and has been getting ready to send it to me, but has been held back by sickness among her grandchildren, and her husband as well. Here are the two articles about the Hamill from Lawrence Co., (Penna) History. (20th Century History of Lawrence Co., (Penna), by A. W. Hagen. (Richmond-Arnold, Chicago-1908). (From Page 455-Horace B. Dungan. See Page H-114-2-Hamill Genealogy). (From Page 801-Ernest Wilson Dungan. See Page H-114-3-Hamill Genealogy). One of my Christmas presents was: "Ancestry of Jeremy Clarke of Rhode Island and Dungan Genealogy"-1918-Compiled by Alfred A. Justice. (Franklin-Philadel-Penn). This gives the following added dates and information about Cynthia Hamill's, H-114, family:

(See this copied re Cynthia Hamill on Page H-114-Hamill Genealogy). I don't have any Wayne ancestors, (see Wayne section McGalla Genealogy), but I've read somewhere that Anthony Wayne's mother was a Dungan. I remember Bausman's History of Beaver County tells a tale of Mad Anthony's visiting his Cousin, Levi Dungan, during some of the Indian Campaigns, which brought Wayne into Beaver County. My Dungan Genealogy doesn't mention this marriage, but I've read of it in other places, and I'm inclined to think, or hope at least, that A. R. Justice has missed something. I'll have to work on this from the Wayne angle, I guess. Perhaps you can tell me from your records who Mad Anthony's mother was. Thanks again for your letter and everything that you included.... Best regards, Sincerely, BOB EVANS."

(Letter of 9/25/1950): "Now Concord, Ohio; Sept. 25, 1950. Dear Mr. McCalla: At present I'm enjoying about a week and a half of relaxation between my very enjoyable, but somewhat strenuous summer, and my return to the University, which has been set for the coming week end. I had a marvelous time this summer, saw a lot of famous sights, and talked with a great many people of different nationalities, but I learned that travel is very hard work, and most of all I think I learned to appreciate America. While in England I went to Wales to visit the ancestral haunts of the Evans family, and also did some very interesting and instructive work at Britain's genealogical storehouse, Somerset House, on my father's mother's family, the Sallows. All wills, and the records of every birth, marriage and death in England and Wales, since 1837 or so is on file at Somerset House, and its only drawbacks are the great mass of material that you have to wade through to find any particular item, and the expense connected with any search - it costs almost the equivalent of 50¢ to look at each record. Such as I wished to make the trip, I had neither time nor money to visit Scotland or Ireland. I'm saving them for another visit.

Mrs Herbert Davidson, (Davidson A-126-13), of whom you have requested more exact information, is the former Anna Florence Moore. Her husband is Herbert Davidson (A-126-13), a rural mail carrier in the New Castle post office. Bert's grandfather was Samuel Davidson (A-126) who married Harriet Jane McClelland. Since I know you are interested in the McClellands, I'll give you Harriet's dates, which I've been saving for you. She was born March 21, 1830 at McKeesport, Penna. She was married June 27, 1854 at Mt Jackson in Lawrence County (Pa), and died January 9, 1911 in Little Beaver Township, Lawrence Co. Their children, whose dates I do not know at present were James, Emily (died young), Robert, William, Mary, Lizzie (died young), Mattie and Ella. This James (who would be A-126-1) married Elizabeth Cunningham and had 3 sons, Charles, Frank and Herbert, whom I mentioned above. Mrs Davidson is related to me through my grandfather Wilkin's Morrow ancestors, and so we have had much of common interest in the history of Lawrence County. Until I began asking her questions about the Davidsons, she had never worked with her husband's family, but since then she has given them as much time as she could, and has been most helpful and generous to me. Her knowledge of the history of the area is really something amazing. Unfortunately, Bert has been ill, and they've had a great deal of sickness among their grandchildren who live with them (rheumatic fever) and consequently Mrs Davidson hasn't had the time to spend on genealogy that she would like.

The white family that she has been working on for some time is that of our Aunt, Esther Davidson (A-13) who married John White, who are buried at Bethel (Church-Evon Valley, Penna); by the way, so that you may have copied their tombstone at one time. Esther was born in 1789 and died March 3, 1860. They lived in Lawrence County and many of their descendants still live there and Mrs Davidson has been trying to get hold of the various charts and papers that elder members of the family have made and that have been put away in various places. I haven't heard from her since last Christmas time, but she had agreed to send her material to me to be typed when she had it near completion. Rest assured that I will make a copy for you for reference, even if it should prove impracticable to include it in your book. I'll send Mrs Davidson the White data from your letter - it may be just what she needs.

I hope that I shall have a chance to see you during the fall, though I am not sure how much free time I will have for family history or anything else for that matter. My address will be Apt 526, 5519 S. Kenwood Ave, Chicago (37) and the phone is HYde Park 3-5720. If I discover any new data, I'll keep it for you. Sincerely, BOB EVANS. (United Presbyterian Church, 30 West High Street, New Concord, Ohio).

LETTERS FROM ROBERT WILLIAMSON EVANS:

(Postcard of 11/2/1950): "Dear Mr McCalla: Your letter arrived this morning. Thank you very much. I will forward the sets of duplicates to their respective owners. I'm sure you have this bit of information, which I ran across while working on my Morrow family, but here it is: Joseph Young, (Y-A-214-5), a full Cousin of Nancy McCalla's Hamill, married Abbie Pyle, daughter of Sarah Moore (born 11/8/1812) and Joseph Pyle. Abbie and Joseph Young had a daughter, Austie Young, who married Wesley Donaldson, and had two children, Quar and a girl whose name I do not know. This is very fragmentary, but if more info. comes to light, I'll send it along. Sincerely, Robert Evans."

(Letter of 3/13/1951): "Apt 536, 5519 S. Kenwood Ave, Chicago(37), Ill. March 13, 1951. Dear Mr McCalla: Thank you for your letters since Christmas. I have been very busy with both school and genealogy, and altho I had the best of intentions, I just didn't get around to answering the earlier ones. The Bob Evans who got so stuck in the snow drifts wasn't me, I'm happy to say. I've never had so much name trouble as I have had this year - there are two other Evans families living in this apartment building, and no matter how we try to explain things, the mail carriers insist on confusing us. I didn't know of the Ben Sallows whose obituary notices you sent me, but I'm very grateful for them. It's such an uncommon name, that I think he must have been related somehow - perhaps I can contact his descendants. My Grandmother Evans, nee Sallows, is spending this Winter in California with a cousin of mine - and what a good Winter it was for spending in California! But my Cousin had seen a sign in Los Angeles of a Contractor named Samuel Sallows, so she took Grandmother to see the man. Sure enough, he turned out to be a brother she hadn't heard from for thirty odd years."

I've discovered recently that the "Publications of the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania," Volumes 6 & 7, contain abstracts of many early Wills of Washington, Westmoreland and Allegheny Counties. These papers are available at Newberry(Library-Chicago), and they are very well indexed, but I'll send this one along to you in case you may not be in Newberry for some time. "John Hamill, (H-4), Farmer, of Fairfield Township, Westmoreland County, (Penna), dated his will Jan 9, 1794, and it was proved June 9, 1795. Mentions wife Elizabeth - Children: Hugh, Robert, Hannah, Margaret, Martha McKelvey, Elizabeth Cuning, Rachel Hope; the Executors were the wife and sons, Hugh and Robert; witnesses were James Pollock, David Brown and James Caghey. Will abstracted from Will Book 1, page 122." This may contain nothing new to you, but there's always a possibility that it may be just what you need. I have a feeling that the Cuning may stand for Cunningham. There are two or three mistakes by this abstract or that I was able to spot, and Cunningham would have been more in keeping with these old Scotch-Irishmen."

Since Christmas I've put quite a bit of work on my Morrow and Clark ancestors. Do you have any Morrow data in your files? The family I'm working on consisted of brothers Thomas, Charles, Adam and John, with their sisters Rebecca Moore, and Margaret Lennen, who settled very early in what is now Lawrence Co, Penna. But unfortunately we don't know who their parents were. If you'd give me the references, I'd be glad to look them up in your books at Newberry and save you the trouble of copying them off. I'm planning to go home the last of this week for about 10 days. If I make any further discoveries, I'll send them along, or keep them for such a time that you may want them. Very Sincerely, Bob Evans."

(12/18/1952-With Christmas Card): "Dear Cousin: Have been meaning to write you for some time, but have been working on non-Davidson lines in my Genealogy. Thanks for the clippings. Will write the first of the year. I've moved again. So my new address is: 6052 S. Ingleside Ave, Chicago. Phone HO-7-3077. Very best wishes for a happy holiday. Bob Evans."

(1/26/1952-Letter): "6052 S. Ingleside Ave, Chicago(37), Ill. Jan 26, 1952. Dear Mr McCalla: I'm very sorry that I have not written to you for so long, but I know you've been busy, and I myself have been working so hard that I've had very little time for genealogy. But I have just bought quite an expensive and useful book, which I thought you might like to know about. It is (Dr.) Wm. H. Egle's 'Pennsylvania Genealogies' - the 1896 edition, which is supposedly superior to the 1886 edition, which they have at Newberry (Library-Chicago). It has quite a number of Scotch-Irish families in it, most of them coming from the Paxtang-Darby settl. in Dauphin County (Penna). One of the sections is called 'Elder of Paxtang', and although it doesn't look to me like the Elder Family you are interested in, I'll copy for you here the first couple of generations, and will be glad to send you the rest of the section if you'd like to have it. The book originally belonged to a lady in Crawfordsville, Ind., who traced her descent through this Elder family (See Elder Family "B"-Elder Section), so she has written in quite a few marginal notes relating to her own close relatives. Her name, by some strange coincidence, was Eliza Elder Davidson. I had gone to school with a boy named Franklin Davidson from Crawfordsville (Ind.), and we had tried to see if we couldn't establish some link between our families, but hadn't managed it. As soon as I saw this lady's name, though, I checked with Frank, and sure enough she was his Grandfather's half-brother's wife. Which just goes to show that it's a small world after all.

Robert Elder, (Elder "B"-Elder Section), born about 1679, in Scotland, removed to County Antrim, Ireland, thence to America about 1730, to Paxtang Twp, in the present Dauphin County. Died July 28, 1746 at Paxtang; Married 1703 to Eleanor, born 1684, died Oct 25, 1742. Had issue: (1) Robert, born 1704, married and had issue (See 1). (2) (Rev) John, born 1/26/1706, married (1st) Mary Baker; (2nd) Mary Simpson. (See 2). (3) Thomas, born 1708, married Mary Patterson, daughter of William. (4) David, born 1710, married Hannah Anderson. (5) James, (this was "Supple Jimmy"), born 1712, settled in Pennett Twp, now Franklin County, Penna. (6) Ann, born 1713, married (John) Anderson of Octororo, (Penna).

(1-See #1 above) Robert Elder, born 1704 in Scotland; married and had issue: (11) John, born 1750, died Dec. 1756. (12) Robert, born 1752, married (2nd) Mary Taylor. (13) Samuel, born 1754, married Mary Robinson. (14) Isabel born 1756, married Adam Breiden. (15) David, born 1758, married and removed to Ohio. (16) Elizabeth born 1740.

(2-See #2 above) John Elder, born Jan 26, 1706 in Edinburgh, died July 17, 1792 in Dauphin Co, Penna. (He was the famous "Fighting Parson of Paxtang") Was a Preacher at the old Paxtang Church; very distinguished. Married first 1740 Mary Baker, born 1715, died 1749, daughter of Joshua Baker of Lancaster Penna. They had issue: (21) Robert, born June 11, 1742, married Mary Thompson. (22) Joshua, born 3/9/1744, married (1st) Mary McAllister; (2nd) Sarah McAllister. (23) Eleanor, born 12/3/1749, married John Hays. (24) Grizel, born 5/2/1749, died 9/13/1769.

Rev. Elder (#2) married (2nd) on 11/5/1751, Mary Simpson, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Simpson of Paxtang, born 1732, died 10/5/1786, had issue: (25) Sarah, born 10/19/1752, died 2/14/1822, married James Wallace. (26) Ann, born 10/6/1754, married Andrew Stephen. (27) John, born 8/3/1757, married Elizabeth Ayl. (28) Mary, born 1/12/1760, married James Wilson. (29) Jane, born 1762, died 1763. (29B) James, born 6/15/1764, married Lucinda Wallace. (29C) Thomas, born 1/30/1767, married (1st) Catherine Cox, (2nd) Elizabeth Shippen Jones. (29D) David, born 5/7/1769, married Jane Galbraith. (29E) Samuel, born 2/27/1772, married Margaret Espy. (29F) Michael, born 8/9/1773, married Nancy McKinney. (29G) Rebecca, born 3/1/1775, married James Ayl. - - - And there's lots more of it.

There is also record of a Margaret Elizabeth Lyon (her ancestry given), born Centre Hall, Penn's Valley, Centre Co, Pa, 3/24/1829, died at Oak Hall, same County, 10/12/1867; married 10/15/1851, Rev. Robert Hamill, DD, (this is F-379-The Norristown Hamills-of Hamill Family "T"), born Norristown, Penna, 4/21/1816, son of Robert Hamill, born 1789, died 1838; who came from County Antrim, Ireland in 1793. He was the Founder of the 1st Presbyterian Church at Norristown, and its first Elder; married Isabella, dau of Andrew Todd and Hannah Bowyer, of Trappe, Montgomery Co, Pa, born 1784, died 1850. (Continued - Page 6).

graduated from Jefferson College in 1838, and from Princeton Theological Seminary 1845. After having served as active Pastor the same charge in Centre Co (Penna) for 45 was retired as Pastor Emeritus. Had issue: (1) John Lyon Hamill, born 7/21/1832, married 6/8/1861, Mary Jones, had Margaret and Mary. (2) Robert H. Hamill, born 5/24/1835; went to Medical School at the Univ. of Penna; married 10/14/1891 Fanny Maria, dau of Charles L. Lincoln and Olivia Brewster of Hartford, Conn; and had Robert and Francis, born 1892 and 1894. (3) Mary Lyon Hamill, born 3/6/1858, married 6/7/1893, Henry Wilson Armstrong, born 3/9/1856 in England; reside in Bayard, W.Va. (4) James Lyon Hamill, born 1/11/1861; went to law school at the Univ. of Michigan, practiced at Welch, West Virginia. (5) Samuel McClintock Hamill, born 11/3/1864, married 4/17/1895 to Eliza Clarke Kennedy, dau of Eliza Davidson and Agnes Shields Clarke of Philadelphia. (6) Margaret Isabel, born 9/28/1867.

There are a couple of scattered Hammill references, intermarriages with the McClays, McCormicks and that of a Thomas Wilson (his ancestry given) with Ames Hemphill, born 2/19/1783, died 1/29/1837; this couple lived in Beaver Co, (Penna). They had among other children, a son James, born 9/1807; residing at Clinton, Lawrence Co, Penna, married Margaret Horton, died 7/25/1873; and had issue: Emma O. Wilson, among other children. Emma was born 9/24/1851, married James Davidson. I thought I could place this in our family, but I now realize that I can't. Maybe he belongs in one of your other Davidson lines. There are a couple of other Davidson intermarriages here that might interest you - but none of them belonging to the family that I belong to.

I have just learned that one Samuel Rutherford Dunlap, who married Nancy Hemphill in Beaver Co, Penna, is related to me through our Clark family. Samuel R. Dunlap was a son of William Dunlap and Mary Clark of Darlington, Pa., and a grandson of Walter Clark, a delegate to the Penna. Constitutional Convention of 1776, and one of the pioneers of Lawrence Co (Penna), and a Founder of Westfield Presby. Church, near Mt Jackson (Penna), where you copied some tombstone inscriptions several years ago. I am descended from Robert Clark, a brother of Walter, and have quite a good bit of Clark material though not the foggiest notion who were the parents of Walter and Robert. Nancy Hemphill was the 3rd daughter of Judge Joseph Hemphill, of Beaver Co, (Penna). Nancy and Samuel had at least one son, William B. (Dunlap), mayor of the Beaver "Star" and State Senator after 1890, and a couple of daughters. If you have anything about this family in your Hemphill record, could you let us know? If it's at all bulky, I'll copy it on my next trip to Newberry, if the material is there, but I'd appreciate it if you could tell me whether or not it is actually in the record. If you'd be interested, I do have a couple more dates and names which I'd be glad to pass along. I must close. I hope you are well, and that your work isn't piled up too high. The University has managed to keep me busier than I care to be, but I did have an awfully nice holiday at Christmas. Sincerely, Robert Evans."

(Hemphill Section-McCALLA GENEALOGY.)

(Letter of 2/26/1952): "3032 S. Ingleside Ave, Chicago (37), Ill. Feb. 26, 1952. Dear Mr McCalla: Thank you so much for answering my letter twice. Here's a little more Hemphill information which you may find useful some day. This is an awfully round-about way of collecting Clark information, but I keep hoping that someday I'll find out who Walter Clark's parents were, and thus add another generation to my own line. "Your Family Tree", which Mrs Berg mentioned, is a bi-monthly periodical published by Frances Helman in Indiana, Penna. It is concerned with publishing the records of two western Penna. Counties. There is a complete file of it at Newberry (Library-Chicago), and I suspect you might find it interesting reading. It's only been going for about 5 or 4 years. Thank you again for your help, Bob Evans." (See following copy of letter to Mr (J.H. Berg, also concerning his Ancestors):

(2/26/1952) Mrs Joseph H. Berg, 2531 Chandlerlin Ave, Madison, Wis. Dear Mrs. (SEE OTHER SIDE). (3/14/1952).

Berg: Following Mr McCalla's letter of Feb. 19, 1952, I thought I should send you this short Hemphill line, which I have come across and my reasons for being interested in it. The following information is taken from the "Centennial History of Beaver County, Penna," by J.H. Bausman, Beaver, Penna, 1904. Joseph Hemphill was one of the 3 Commissioners named at the time of the erection of Beaver County, (Penna), in 1800, and he later became a Judge. He was the son of Moses and Agnes Hemphill (Moses born 11/11/1746; Agnes born 1/16/1750) of Northampton County, Penna. Joseph Hemphill arrived in Beaver before 1793, as it is known that his Cousin, James Fullerton visited him there in that year. Joseph Hemphill died 5/20/1854 at the age of 64. He had a son, James W. Hemphill, a daughter Margaret (Hemphill) who married Judge Thomas Cunningham (she was his youngest child, and was still living in 1903 when the Bausman book was written), and a 3rd daughter, Nancy (Hemphill) (1803-1837), who married in 1826 Samuel Rutherford Dunlap. Samuel R. Dunlap was the son of William and Mary (Clark Dunlap). Mary was a daughter of Walter Clark, American Revolution, who moved from Northumberland Co, (Pa) to the present Lawrence Co. in 1802, and was a brother of one of my own ancestors.

I am trying to collect all the information that I can on this Clark family, and if you have any records of this Hemphill family which gives another generation of the Dunlaps, I'd be most grateful to have it. I have considerably more information about the Fullertons and Clarks. It is interesting to note that not only were the Fullertons and Clarks intermarried, but that the descendants of the Agnes Hemphill Wilson, whom I mentioned in my letter to Mr McCalla and which he quoted to you, also married into the same Fullerton family. I suspect that Agnes Hemphill Wilson was Joseph Hemphill's sister, considering that his mother was known to have been named Agnes. I'll be glad to hear from you at any time. Perhaps there are other lines we might find overlapping. I have an adv. in the Handy Book for Genealogists, published by the Everton Publishing Co, Logan, Utah, in 1949, and in the 1951 exchange issue of the Genealogical Helper, published by the same firm, which list the families in which I am interested. Very sincerely, Robert Evans.

LETTERS FROM ROBT. WILLIAM EVANS:

(Letter of 6/16/1952): "131 Lakeside Drive, New Concord, Ohio. Dear Mr McCalla: I certainly owe you an apology for my failure as a correspondent, but as usual, I've been going around in circles. On May 23rd (1952) I had the last exams for my M.A. Degree, and on the 24th I flew to Los Angeles to join my parents who were already on the West Coast. We stayed with some relatives on the Evans side for a while, and then went up to Oregon, where my Father was a Commissioner to the General Assembly of our Church (U.P.). We were in Portland one afternoon, and spent a very pleasant time with our Cousin, Mrs Caven (H-124-113). I expect she'll tell you about it. We then made a leisurely trip East, stopping in Rock Island (Ill), to find a place for me to live, as I shall be Circulation Librarian at Augustana College there, beginning the 1st of July (1952). We stayed just long enough in Chicago to pack up all my belongings and then came directly here. So I really just haven't had a chance to answer your two letters. I'm very grateful for this bit of Sallows data, as I believe that Sallows is one family name which implies relationship among all those who bear it. (Re: Edward Sallows, South Bend, Indiana-works for Studebaker Corporation). I hope I'll be able to contact this family when I get settled.

I'll see what can be found about the Youngs. I know that I ran across the family in a publication in the Library of the American Institute of Genealogy, in Chicago. (Probably he means "Inst. of Amer. Genealogy" - 407 So. Dearborn St, Chicago). But that was several years ago, and I believe the book was about the Brown Family, which would be Dorothy Young's mother's line. Just now my papers are pretty well tossed up. I have no records of the Fullerton-Lind family you wrote about, (See Lind A-2), but I suspect they would be distantly related to the Fullertons of Lawrence Co, (Penna). I have a list of the children of James Stewart, (Sr-Stewart B-13), who married as his 3rd wife, Margaret Fullerton in 1860. I had thought Thomas M. Stewart (B-135) was their son, but as he was born in 1844 his mother must have been wife #2, Martha Taylor. I'll write again when I am settled in Rock Island, Ill. Thanks for your letter. Sincerely, Robert Evans."

(Letter of 7/12/1952): "Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill. Dear Cousin Paul: I graduated (June 1950) with the PhB. Degree from the Univ. Of Chicago. I will graduated (Dec. 1952), with the MA Degree, from the Graduate Library School of the Univ. of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

Thanks for your letter. I'm still not definitely located here, and am living in the Men's Dormitory until I find a room. I expect my address will be 1139 39th St, Rock Island, Ill, but the Library is the safest bet - I have a regular box for my mail there. I haven't actually finished my master's (Degree), unfortunately. I have finished my class work and exams, but still need to complete my Thesis. I hope to graduate this December. My work has been most enjoyable so far and I only hope that the Draft Board will leave me alone until the Thesis is done, and I have been of some use to the College here. I also hope to get out into Iowa and do some work with Court House records there. It's late now and I must close. Perhaps it would be easier for you to wait until my draft status is settled before typing up these extra sheets. PS: "PhB" stands for Bachelor of Philosophy. It isn't in anything. The M.A. won't be in anything either - that might tend to confuse it with the Master of Library Science or MA in LS, which some schools give, but ours does not. Sincerely, Bob Evans.

(Letter of 12/15/1952, With Christmas Card): "Pvt. R.W. Evans (US 52-235-349) Co. D, 15th A.I.B, C.C, "A", 5th Armored Div, Camp Chaffee, Ark. Dear Cousin Paul: As you see by the address, I am taking my basic training in Arkansas. It looks as tho I'll be here over the Holidays, etc. Have had to discontinue all my family research, but I know you'll be interested to know that our Cousin, Dell Davidson, (Davidson A-125-2) of New Castle, Penna, died early this month, (12/ /1952). I don't know the exact date, but will let you know when I find out. She had been ill for some time. Thanks for your card. I hope you and Miss McCalla have a very pleasant Holiday. Sincerely, Bob Evans."

(Letter-4/10/1953-from Mrs Albert James Caven,(Sylvia Ellen Walker)(H-124-113) (2415 N-E 41st Avenue, Portland,(13), Oregon) "...Saturday, March 28th(1953), I was surprised upon answering the phone, to hear Bob Evans(A-121-311-1) on the line. He had been in Tacoma, Wash, but a short time, and came down to spend the week-end with us. So he was with us for breakfast Sabbath, and went to Church with us. Our Pastor is a graduate of Muskingum College, New Concord (Ohio), and knew Bob's Father very well and remembered Bob when a lad. So Bob sort of felt he was with home folks. He had to leave about 4 in the afternoon to get back to Camp in time. He came down on the Bus and went back by Train. We all decided he would spend all his week-ends with us until he was "shipped out", and we all thought he would have at least another week-end. But a letter from him, written the following Wednesday, said he wouldn't be in Ft Lewis by the end of the week. Said he would send us his address as soon as he landed, but no word so far. Too bad that the situation can't be cleared up honorably...(The Korean War)..."

(Compiler's Note: 9/9/1953-The Compiler mailed to Bob's parents, for them to hold for him, a copy of the "Elder Genealogy"(1905), by Dr.Thos.Alexander Elder,BSA&MD,(Elder A-221-23), of Wooster,Ohio. This Bob Evans can add to Genealogical collection of books. Paul H. McCalla, The Compiler.)

(Letter 12/12/1953-With Christmas Card-From Japan): From Corporal Robert Wilkison Evans,(US 52-235-349), Hq Co, Tokyo, 8232nd A.U, APO 613, % Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif. Dear Mr McCalla: Received your new address from Mrs Caven,(H-124-113), and from my parents. Hope you are enjoying your new home. Altho it's too far from the USA, I like Japan, and have a very good job. Expect to be coming home next August or September(1954). Hope you will have a very fine Christmas and a happy New Year. yours, Bob Evans."

(Letter-12/14/1954-With Christmas Card): "Dear Cousin: "...I'm regretfully watching my vacation draw to a close, and expect to return to Chicago in January(1955) to finish my M.A.....R.W.Evans."

(Letter-6/25/1955-from Mrs Albert James Caven,(Sylvia Ellen Walker)(H-124-113), 2415 N-E 41st Avenue, Portland(13), Oregon.)

"In the June 15th 1955 issue of the United Presbyterian(U.P.) Magazine is the following item: 'Appointed as Head Librarian of Muskingum College,(U.P), located at New Concord, Ohio,to succeed Charles Carpenter who resigned this Spring, is Robert W. Evans, of New Concord. Mr Evans is currently completing the Master's Degree at the Graduate Library School of the University of Chicago. He is the son of Dr and Mrs Henry Evans of New Concord.'" on July 1st 1955 I received a letter from Mr. Evans, dated June 25th, 1955, in which he informed me that he had been appointed as Head Librarian of Muskingum College, New Concord, Ohio, and that he was planning to return to the United States in the fall of 1955. He also mentioned that he was currently completing his Master's Degree at the University of Chicago. This letter was very interesting to me as it confirmed the information I had received from the United Presbyterian Magazine. I was glad to hear that Bob was doing well and was planning to return home. I also noted that he was working at Muskingum College, which was a good sign for him. I will be keeping an eye on the news for any further updates on his return.

I have been thinking about Bob a lot lately. It seems like a long time since we last saw him. I hope he is enjoying his new job and his time in the States. I am sure he will be a great success as Head Librarian. I will be happy to hear from him when he writes again. I am also glad to hear that he is planning to return home. I will be waiting for him. I hope he will be able to visit us before he returns to Japan. I will be happy to see him. I am sure he will be a great addition to our family. I will be keeping an eye on the news for any further updates on his return.

DAVIDSON JAMES DAVIDSON M. ZABITH M. LEONARD

(Letter to The Compiler(Paul H. McCalla(A-125-65)-2320 Cottage Grove Ave(Apt )
 (3)-Chicago(17444)1029-- from Miss Mary Nell Davidson(Davidson A-125-2) of (319 Locust Street, New-Castle, Penna.

(Letter of 10/5/1943): "513 Locust St, New Castle, Pa. Oct 3, 1943. Dear Mr McCalla: For quite some time I have thought of writing you, but hesitated fearing you might not be in the land of the living. Tonight I decided to go ahead and write. Quite sometime ago you corresponded with my mother, Mrs. Mizzie M. Davidson, (A-125) regarding the Davidson history. She turned your letter over to me and I neglected answering. Now I have a Cousin who is attending the University of Chicago, who is much interested in the Davidson history. Did you ever complete your book? And if so, do you have any for sale and at what price? I am sorry I was not more interested long ago."

My only sister, Elizabeth, (A-125-1), who died 56 years ago today, had gathered quite a lot of material along our family line, that I have religiously kept and it has been quite a help. Then too, a Cousin by marriage, is splendid along this line. She spends days and days at the Court House, Library, Cemeteries, etc., and has a wealth of information. I will anxiously wait an answer to my inquiries and thank you many times for the bother to which I am putting you, or someone else. Respt. yours, ~~(Miss)~~ Mary Bell Davidson. (A-125-2)

(Letter of 11/1/1948): "Dear Mr McCain: I am sure you will think that I am a very uninteresting-correspondent, but of course I have many alibis. I hardly know how to begin, but will say when you first wrote my Mother (Mrs. Lizzie M. Davidson-A-125-who was a Leonard). She followed my only sister, Elizabeth (A-125-1), who died Oct 3, 1912, as historian of the Davidson family. Well! She was not well at that time and handed over your letters to me. I had much to do and failed to answer your questions and it stopped there. I am so glad Bob Evans, (A-121-311-1) has taken up this work. He is a bright young chap and has a 4-year Scholarship to the Univ. of Chicago. He will make good. Your thoughtfulness of even suggesting entertaining him was very fine and he would appreciate the intention, even if you did not get to carry it out. One thing about the Davidsons is their hospitality - which is a fine trait of character."

Bob's Grandmother, Mrs-Ella Davidson Willison, (A-121-51), my full Cousin once removed, had a stroke almost two years ago and has been ill in bed ever since, with her right side completely paralyzed. She entertained constantly, overdid, and is now paying the price. Mrs Florence Davidson(?), wife of Herbert Davidson(?), is much interested in family history, has been working along this line for quite some time. She has a hundred lines of the Davidson family, beside her own family. Since Bob started this work over a year ago, Florence has spent days at our Court House, our Public Library, Youngstown Library and Court House, Beaver Court House over at New-Bedford, at Union, Hopedale, Bethel, Mt Jackson and other Cemeteries. Last Friday in the terrible fog, they drove to Cadiz, Ohio, and she got some valuable information. She hunts up Wills, Articles of Agreement, Titles, and is very exact. I have at hand your last letter - Bob's - and your other letter I took to Florence, and in time she will answer them. She has not been well and has sick grandchildren. Bob's Chart contained 112 names, while my Uncle, Sam'l Houston Davidson, (A-126), my Father's youngest brother's family, numbers 88. I am proud of my old-family Bible with the births and deaths of my Father's family. It was published in 1818.

Possibly you have Job's Chart. Anyway, I will give you some record as found in that Bible, and you can figure it out for yourself, till Florence sends you her record, which will be made out in fine shape.

My Grandfather, James Davidson, (A-12), was born in Ireland Feb 13, 1786, married Elizabeth Houston, born Oct 10, 1786. They had 6 children.

- (1) William Finlay Davidson, (A-121); born Feb 1, 1912.
(2) Jane Davidson, (A-122), born Dec 1, 1913 - Not married.

• اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ وَسَلِّمْ عَلَىٰ سَيِّدِنَا مُحَمَّدٍ

(11/5/1948)

- (3) Thomas Houston Davidson, (A-123), born Jan 31, 1813.
(4) Mary Davidson (A-124), born June 19, 1817, married Jimmie McAnlis - and had 3 sons.
(5) James Ramsey Davidson, (A-125), (my Father), born Nov 2, 1816, died Feb 22, 1893, married Eliza M. Howard, b June 1, 1847. Instead of them having 10 children they had but two daughters and a foster son:
Dr. James D. Crawford, (A-125-3), who is a very successful Veterinarian. His address is: 501 Balance Ave, New Castle, Pa. He was born June 22, 1898 and married Ruth McCaskey Nov 10, 1927.
My sister was Elizabeth D. Davidson, (A-125-1), born Nov 23, 1872 in Lexington, Ky, died Oct 3, 1912, aged 39 years. An early Nell Davidson, unmarried, born Nov 1, 1873 in Lexington, Ky. My sister Elizabeth was a Private School Teacher.
(6) Samuel Houston Davidson, (A-126), born Mar 2, 1820, married Harriet Mc Clelland. This is the family that numbers 88, and to which Mrs Herbert Davidson belongs.

Now I will copy from the Bible farther back in the Bible record, which of course is authentic. My Great-Grandfather, William Davidson (A-1) departed this life August 30, 1826, aged 86 years. Mary R. Davidson (A-1), departed this life February 10, 1831, aged 74 years. James Davidson (A-12) (My Grandfather) departed this life Sept 12, 1856, aged 70 years. Elizabeth Davidson, (A-12) departed this life Feb 23, 1864, aged 76 years.

This is as far as the record goes in the Bible, and I quite fear that this is a rambling record, and if you care to wait, Florence will sometime have her record made up and you shall receive it. Thanks a lot for offering to do the typewriting. I appreciate your kindness in offering to do it and know it involves work. Now it is late, but think since I am in the letter writing mood, I will drop a note to Rob. I certainly wish you well in your work and remain, Yours Sincerely, Mary Doll Davidson. (A-125-2).

LETTERS ABOUT MRS HERBERT DAVIDSON:

(Letter to The Compiler - - concerning Mrs. Harriet Davidson, (Anna Florence) (Moore) (Davidson A-126-13), of New Castle, Penna - - from Mr. Robert Wilkins (on Evans, Davidson A-121-311-1), 131 Lakeside Drive, New Concord, Ohio. (Also a student at University of Chicago, +11) - (See these letters in full on Page (Page A-121-311-1))

(Letter of 2/27/1949): "...Additions to Davidson descendants were mostly in the line of James Davidson (A-2) of Coitsville, (Ohio), but Mrs. Harriet Davidson, (Florence Davidson) (A-126-13) has quite a bit of new material, and in particular, information about the descent of Esther Davidson (A-13 of Mt Jackson, Penna) and John White, which is rather extensive...."

(Letter of 2/14/1950): "...Mrs. (Florence) Davidson, (A-126-13) got as far East as Carlisle last summer, and solved the mystery of Mary Davidson Junkin (???) - - - - -, at least partially. She has also....on descendants of Esther Davidson (A-13) and John White, who intermarried with the Willimans...."

(Letter of 2/20/1950): "...Your letter arrived this afternoon, and I thank you very much for the White data. (See Page Young "A" Family A-Young Sect. ion). I'll send this on to Mrs. Florence Davidson (A-126-13), who has spent much time this fall on the White. She has the advantage of working on the scene and knowing people who have family records. She obtained the White family charts, and copied the information and has been getting ready to send it to me, but has been held back by sickness among her grandchildren, and her husband as well...."

(Letter of 9/25/1950): "...Mrs. Harriet Davidson, (A-126-13), of whom you have requested information is the former Anna Florence Moore. Her husband is Herbert Davidson, (A-126-13), a Rural Mail Carrier in the New Castle postoffice. Bert's Grandfather was Samuel Davidson, (A-126), who married Harriet Jane McClelland. Since I know you are interested in the McClellands, I'll give you Harriet's dates, which I've been saving for you....Mrs. Davidson is related to me through my Grandfather Willison's Morrow ancestors, and so we have had much of common interest in the history of Lawrence County. Until I began asking her questions about the Davidsons, she had never worked with her husband's family, but since then she has given them as much time as she could, and has been most helpful and generous to me. Her knowledge of the history of the area is really something amazing. Unfortunately, Bert has been ill, and they've had a great deal of sickness among their grandchildren who live with them (rheumatic fever), and consequently Mrs. Davidson hasn't had the time to spend on Genealogy that she would like."

The White family that she has been working on for some time is that of our Aunt, Esther Davidson, (A-13), who married John White, who are buried at Bethel (Church-Enon Valley, Pa), by the way, so that you may have copied their tombstone at one time. Esther was born in 1789, and died March 3, 1860. They lived in Lawrence County and many of their descendants still live there, and Mrs. Davidson has been trying to get hold of the various charts and papers that elder members of the family have made, and that have been put away in various places. I haven't heard from her since last Christmas time, but she had agreed to send her material to me to be typed when she had it near completion. Rest assured that I will make a copy for you for reference, even if it should prove impracticable to include it in your book. I'll send Mrs. Davidson the White data from your letter - it may be just what she needs...."

(This Data copied from Data Page H-122) (was there an Agnes Stewart in this family?)

Robert Stewart, with his 2 brothers, Samuel and Hamilton Stewart, and his sister, Nancy Stewart, emigrated from Ireland to America in 1789-90. They settled first at Carlisle, Penna, where Robert married. In 1797 all four brothers and sister moved to McKeesport, Penna (Allegheny Co), and here all except Robert remained.

Robert was a weaver, and also a Teacher in Ireland, and when at McKeesport he had farmed. In 1793, he had married, at Carlisle, Penna, Margaret Clendenning Davidson, the daughter of William and Mary Clendenning Davidson. These Davidsons and the Stewarts were said to have come from Ireland together. (See Letter on Data Page "B" - Family B - Davidson Section).

In 1815, Robert, with his wife and 6 children, moved on west from McKeesport, to near Mt Jackson, then in Beaver Co, now Lawrence Co, Penna; where they spent the rest of their lives. At Mt Jackson, Robert did weaving, farmed and taught school. Both Robert and Margaret are buried in the UP Cemetery, near Mt Jackson, North Beaver Twp, Lawrence Co, Penna.

Betsy Stewart (#57) - Nathaniel Hamill, 3rd (H-122) settled in Michigan. A son, Joseph Hamill (#-122-1) served in the Civil War. A daughter, Minerva, married a James Workman, and they lived in Newcastle, Penna, having no children. This family supposedly moved to Michigan in 1850-60, but trace of them has been lost. It is also said that they moved on to Kansas (?) later on. (See Page H-122 - Hamill Genealogy).

(Inquiry from Mr Roy Francis Boat, 3204 C. Hoffman Ave, Arlington, California - Arlington, Cal, Sept 2, 1954. Mr Paul H. McGill, 3303 W. Chicago Ave, Chicago (51), Ill. Dear Mr McGill: I am searching out my family history, and am a descendant of the Davidsons that established the towns of Monmouth, Kentucky, Monmouth, Illinois, and Monmouth, Oregon. A friend of mine had a book listing the names and addresses of people wanting information on different lines they were working on. I wrote to Mrs W.E. Davidson whose name and address I found in this book. And when she answered, she said that I might write to you, as I wasn't of her line, but that you were working on the Davidson line. As our people came from Illinois on to Oregon, I feel and hope that you are one of our line. I hope that if you are, that we can be of some good use to one another.

My pedigree does as I have it made out on the Pedigree Sheet in this letter. I understand that the Davidsons came from Scotland, in fact I have the Davidson Scottish History in my book. I also have a good history of the 1850-Wagon Train of the Davidsons crossing from Illinois to Oregon. It is certainly interesting. One of my Great Uncles discovered the Oregon Caves in Josephine County, Oregon. I guess you know that it is a National Monument. I have a written history of that, too.

I would like to exchange names and history with you if you are willing. I have the whole family of Elijah Barton Davidson, but not all of their death and birth dates. I also have the names of the family of Elijah Davidson, but am missing a few dates. Is Margaret Murphy a relative of yours? I could use some help on her line if you are, and if you have anything on that line? I believe I have written enough this time. I certainly hope that I will hear from you real soon. I am, apprecatively yours, ROY FRANCIS BOAT, 3204 California Ave, Arlington, California.

(Pedigree Chart - Numbers have been added by The Compiler for easier identification):

- (1) Alexander Davidson, whose son was:
- (11) Elijah Davidson, (Born: 2/23/1733-who died in Monmouth, Oregon), and whose wife was Margaret Murphy. They had a son:
- (111) Elijah Barton Davidson, (Born: 2/3/1819-Died: 1/16/1888 at Williams, Oregon), whose wife was Selma Jones, (Born: 8/13/1822-Died at Williams, Oregon). They had a daughter:
- (111-1) Olivia Whittan Davidson, (Born: 3/29/1863 at Independence, Oregon-Died 8/13/1939 at Williams, Oregon), whose husband was Henry Boat, (Born: 7/14/1840 in Hamburg, Germany-Married 12/25/1880-Died on 12/24/1924 at Williams, Oregon). They had a son:
- (111-11) Chester Grundy Boat, (Born: 5/7/1893 at Williams, Oregon-Died on 5/25/1918-Died 2/5/1932 at Ashland, Oregon). Wife's name not given. They had a son:
- (111-111) Roy Francis Boat, (Born: 1/14/1891 at Williams, Oregon). Married on 5/25/1942, Grace Hortense Close. He is the writer of this Inquiry, (SEE OTHER SIDE). (10/12/1954).

I would so like to know if there is a "Chinn" mentioned in the "Elder Section" of your book(The Hamill Genealogy). I am looking for a Chinn and Elder marriage. I have a long Chinn line of Virginia. John surveyed land there in 1749. Reference: Penna. Archives, 3rd Series, Vol 1, Page 195. (3-1-195). It was said that John had a brother William. Guess I need more data to figure it all out. Born: 8/5/1791, Baltimore, Md.

Died: 2/9/1868, Enon Valley, Penna.

Had 6 children by 2nd wife, 1 died young by 1st wife-7 in all. He was a Farmer, near Enon Valley, Penna. (See Young Section-Page I-A-213).

According to Hamill-MacCandless Family Legends, four MacCandless brothers came from Ireland, and landed in Philadelphia on 8/8/1782. This was the day before John, Sr (A-5) was born in Phila. Three of these brothers married 3 Kennedy sisters. The brothers went from Scotland to Ireland, and thence to America. They settled in Lawrence & Beaver Counties, Penna, and later in Pittsburgh. As a family, they are said to have had very valuable oil fields, which they sold just before oil was discovered, the buyers taking millions of dollars from the property. It is said that before the Revolution, the MacCandlesses were prominent, wealthy men. Also it is said that the MacCandless family came from Paisley, Scotland, and that later they owned Bleaching Greens in Ireland.

Mary Kennedy was said to have been related to Sir Walter Scott.

Helen Wayne McCulla (A-125-61-sister of the Compiler), says that Grandmother Nancy McClellan MacCandless (A-33) (Mrs Smith Hamill-A-125) said that Robert MacCandless (A"-father of John MacCandless-A-5), came in 1782 to be with elder brothers, who had either been born here, or had been here for some time. We have no verification of this.

MacCandleess Genealogy: There is said to be a MacCandleess Genealogy in the Philadelphia Public Library. It is said that there is also a copy in the possession of Jessie Underhill Moore, (Marie Hanner Homa-H-125-53 - wife of US Federal Judge), who lives (1941) at 4392 Maryland Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

The MacCandleess records speak of Mary Young as being born in Baltimore. They also speak of Mary Young as coming from Cumberland Valley, Penna., near Franklin County, and between Shippensburg and Strasburg. This would be North of Chambersburg. Her father was William Young, Jr., who was in the Revolutionary War, and who married Mary Elder, daughter of David Elder, who was a Justice of the Peace. Mary Young died near Enon Valley, Penna., of heart disease, at 76-77 years of age.

William MacCandleess (son of John, Sr) had a large family, and moved to Oregon, and all trace has been lost.

Nancy McClellan MacCandleess married Smith Hamill, (H-125), and was Mother of Nancy Eleanor Hamill, (Mrs Albert McCalla-H-125-6), of Keokuk, Iowa, and Chicago, Illinois.

John MacCandleess, Jr., moved to Mahaska County, Iowa, on a farm. His wife, Mary Sankey, was a sister or first cousin of Ira Sankey, the famous Evangelist Singer, who was associated with Dwight L. Moody, who did much Revival work as Moody & Sankey. Ira Sankey was also a close friend of Nancy McClellan MacCandleess, (A-53), who married Smith Hamill (H-125).

Jane (Jennie) MacCandleess, (A-55), had 1 daughter, who was Nancy Jane (Jennie) McClellan, who married John Smith Hamill (A-121-3), and who was a member of St Mary's Episcopal Church, Kansas City, Mo. (See Hamill Genealogy (Page H-121-3 for this record). Jane MacCandleess' husband, William McClellan, (sometimes spelled McClelland), was a nephew, or a close relative of her father's (John MacCandleess) first wife, Nancy McClellan.

Dr. Robert MacCandleess, (A-56): his children and place of residence are unknown - lost all trace.

James Kennedy MacCandleess, (A-57) visited at the home of Smith Hamill, (Nancy McClellan MacCandleess-H-125), in Keokuk, Iowa, but it is not known where he lived.

(See Hamill Genealogy - Young Section - Also Page H-125).

The PARENTS of JOHN MacCANDLESS, SR.:

Robert MacCandleess, (or William MacCandleess-??) was supposedly the father of John MacCandleess, Sr. Birth and death dates are unknown. He married Mary Kennedy, date and place unknown. They had 5 children. The first was James MacCandleess, but it is not known when he married. The second child, (given name unknown), married a Somerville. The third child, (given name unknown), married a Roffatt. The fourth child, (given name unknown), married a Small. The fifth child was John MacCandleess, Sr., who married 1st, Nancy McClellan, and 2nd, Mary Young.

There is a Dr. O. Hiram MacCandleess, MD, (See Family B), 99th & Wornall Road, Kansas City, Missouri, with offices in the Argyle Building, who is supposedly descended from one of the other of the four original MacCandleess brothers who emigrated in 1782. (See MacCandleess Family B). Dr. Hiram is an excellent Physician, a genial, kindly man, and has several times visited the home of the Compiler, (Paul Hamill McCalla-H-125-65) in Chicago, and is interested in family history. Unfortunately, he knew very little of his own descent and his own ancestors. He also knew and often visited the Keokuk Hamills, (Mrs Smith Hamill-H-125 and MacCandleess A-53), and they recognized that he was of their same MacCandleesses. Dr. Hiram has a son, Howard Lewis MacCandleess, who in 1931 was living in San Antonio, Tex. A partial record of this descent is given in MacCandleess Family B.

(See OTHER SIDE).

(7/3/1947)

The MacCandless Family of Honolulu, Hawaii: One of their best known Missionaries to Hawaii was a Rev. MacCandless, who went there with a Rev. Young. Both were from Penna, and the former was supposedly descended from one of the four Original MacCandless brothers who emigrated to Penna in 1782. The wife of this Rev. MacCandless, the Hawaiian Missionary, wrote to the Compiler's mother, Mrs Albert McJalla, (Nancy Eleanor Hamill-A-125-3), of Chicago, in 1911, saying that she had a daughter, Miss Joy MacCandless, who wished to become a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and wishing information about the MacCandless Family. A descendent of the Rev. Young, who was a Missionary and associated with Rev. MacCandless in Hawaii, built the Alexander Young Hotel, in Honolulu, Hawaii. It is said that in 1930 descendants of both families were living in Honolulu. (See also Young Section-Introduction to Family A-"Young Family Notes"-Page 1 Hamill Genealogy).

There was a Joseph Archibald MacCandless, who about 1924-1930, was living at 944 North Main Street, Ottawa, Kansas.

This Grandfather came from Scotland, (more likely his Father), to Butler Co, Penna, and it is thought that he is undoubtedly of our same MacCandless family - probably one of the 4 Original Brothers mentioned in Family A.

This John MacCandless lived near at Jackson, Beaver Twp, Lawrence Co, Pa, which is about 10 miles North of the town of Enon Valley, Penna, and about 10 miles South of Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna. This John MacCandless had a sister, who lived a few miles from Akron, Ohio. One known child of this John MacCandless was: (See Misc. Section- The McClellans-Crawfords-Walkers.)

WILLIAM DEWITT MacCANDLESS.

( Died as a Child ).

Born: 1/ /1878 at ----- Died: 2/ /1884 at -----

Dr. O. Hiram MacCandless, MD, is an excellent Physician, a genial, kindly man, is interested in family history, and has several times visited the home of the Compiler (Paul Hamill McCalla-H-125-65), in Chicago. Dr Hiram knew the Reokuk Hamills (H-125), and often visited there in the home of Smith Hamill (Nancy McClellan MacCandless-H-125), and they believed him to be of our MacCandless Family. It is very probable that this Family B is descended from one of the other of the four Original Brothers who emigrated to Philadelphia in 1782. (See Family A-MacCandless Section).

Date: (12/11/1899) Mrs Dr. Archibald McCandless, MD, (Dalla Brown), Holton, Kansas.

They spell the name "McCANDLESS."

It is perfectly possible that this William McCandless could be one of the Original 4 Brothers who Emigrated together in 1782. So he might be the same as Family A.

(This Letter was written 12/11/1899 to Mrs Albert McCalla (Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6), of Chicago, Ill. It was written by the wife of Dr. Archibald McCandless, (Dalla Brown), of Holton, Kansas.)

(This Dalla Brown was the daughter of Rev. James Brown, DD, for many years Pastor of the UP Church in Keokuk, Iowa, who baptized Nancy Eleanor Hamill (H-125-6), and later, assisted by Rev. W.G. Craig, presided at her marriage to Rev. Albert McCalla, (H-125-6 & H-361-3), in Keokuk, Iowa on 5/16/1871.)

(This Rev. James Brown, DD, of Keokuk, Iowa, was the brother of Rev. Thomas Brown, DD (Elizabeth Hamill-H-272). (See Page H-27 (Item 272) - Hamill Genealogy).)

(A sister of these two Brown brothers is said to have married a Dr. Given, MD, a Physician & Surgeon, and for many years head of the Carlisle Indian School, Carlisle, Penna. A son, James ("Jimmie") Given, was a particular childhood chum of Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61), and in her childhood days, often visited the McCalla Family while they were living (1886-1890) in Lake Forest, Illinois (Chicago suburb). (This information given 7/7/1947 by Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61), Chicago.)

My Dear Friend! Your card, asking for items in regard to the McCandless family, came duly to hand. At the time we had company in the house, and for some days. The card was laid aside and it slipped my memory. Hope you will pardon the delay. I can give you very little information, but such as I have, you are welcome to use as you please. My husband's Grandparents crossed the Ocean. His Grandfather, William McCandless, was born in Scotland, the Grandmother in Ireland. Doctor's father was Archibald McCandless, born in Allegheny Co, Penna, in 1787. His mother was Betsy Flannigan, and she was born in Washington Co, Penna, about 1790. My husband can remember but five other members of his father's family. They were John McCandless, William McCandless, Rev. Alex. McCandless (who preached in western Pennsylvania), and Mrs Betsy Pollack, and Mrs Jennie Flannigan.

Doctor's (her husband) father had thirteen children:

William F, born in 1812.

John B, born in 1814.

Alexander, born in 1816.

A. Wilson, born in 1818.

James Hervey, born in 1820.

Margaret ) Twins, born in 1822, March 30th.

Nancy )

Elizabeth, born in 1824.

Joseph F, born in 1826.

Archibald, (Dr), born in 1828, July 17th.

Moses Allen, born in 1830.

Sarah Jane, born in 1832.

Mary B, born in 1836.

These all lived to be married, and many of them attained old age, and some of them had large families. William F. has a son William, practicing medicine in St Louis. Another son, Wilson, is Postmaster in Hutchinson, Kansas. One daughter in Quincy, Ill, and one in Virginia.

John D. has 3 sons and 3 daughters living. The daughters are all, I think, in Springfield, Ill. One son in Norton, Kansas, one in Ft Worth, Texas, one in Minneapolis, Minn.

Alex has two sons and a daughter in Pittsburgh, Pa. The sons, Josiah Guy, and Alex, are Physicians, as was their father. The daughter, Mrs Lizzie Gray, a widow with one son, lives with her widowed Mother in Pittsburgh.

Wilson married and died when quite a young man. Do not know about his wife. He had no children.

James Hervey has one son in Cottonwood Falls, Kan, and two in Chariton, Iowa.

Margaret (Morgan) lives with us, her family all dead.

Nancy (Trotter) left two sons and two daughters, all but one in Coraopolis, Pa. One son in Buffalo, NY.

Elizabeth (Byers) has a son and daughter. They live in Coraopolis, Pa.

Joseph P. has a son, a Dentist, in Monmouth, Ill. (Dr. A.S. McC), a daughter, (Mrs. Downing), in Quincy, Illinois.

Moses Allen was a soldier in the Civil War and died at Chickamauga. Two children are living, a son, Wilson at Hutchinson, Kan, a daughter, (Mrs - - - - -), at Sterling, Illinois.

Sarah J. (Davidson) died without Children.

Mary B. (Hastings), left three sons, two are farmers near New Concord, Ohio. One, Rev. Allan Hastings, is Pastor of the UP Church at Somonauk, Illinois.

Archibald, my husband, has eight children living!

Wilson, or A.W., is a Dentist at #126 State St, Chicago-has 2 sons.

Albert H. is also a Dentist in Rock Island, Ill. Has a son and two daughters.

Harry A, a Banker, in Perry, Oklahoma.

Charles R, a Dentist, in Davenport, Iowa, has 2 sons.

Anna M, (Mrs F.G. Moore), Perry, Oklahoma. Her husband is a partner in the bank with Harry, in Perry (Oklahoma).

Carrie Olive is unmarried.

Robert E. a Physician in Perry, Oklahoma.

George L., a Banker in Ponca City, Oklahoma.

This is all I can tell you, and I am afraid it will be of no use to you. I do not know who is compiling the history you speak of. Did not even know it was being done. Wish you had told me a little of yourself and family. With kindest regards to your husband and yourself, Your Old Friend, BELLE B. McCANDLESS. (Mrs Dr. Archibald McCandless-Holton, Kan).

HAMILT GENEALOGY - McCANDLESS SECTION - FAMILY D:

WILLIAM McCANDLESS, with wife and 6 Children, Emigrated from Co. Antrim, Ireland in 1820 - settling first in Rochester, N.Y. Later moved to Kittanning, Penna. Children were: David, William, Robert, Elizabeth, Jane & Julia. All but David later moved to Allegheny City, Penna.

Date: (3/25/1901) Mrs. E. V. McCandless, Pittsburgh, Penna. (Son of David McCandless).

They spell the name as

"McCANDLESS."

This DAVID McCANDLESS, (Born 1818 Co. Antrim), moved 1832 to Pittsburgh, Penna. In 1872 was one of founders of "Carnegie, McCandless & Co." This later became the "Edgar Thomson Steel Co" Branch of the "Carnegie Steel Co" - of which this DAVID McCANDLESS was Chairman-of-the-Board.

(It is highly probable that this Family D will trace back to our same McCandless Family A in Ireland and Scotland.)

"E.V. McCANDLESS, PITTSBURGH, PA. March 25th, 1901."

"Mrs Albert MacCalla, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Mrs MacCalla: Answering your letter without date, mailed March 18th, I would say we are not of the same family. My Grandfather, William McCandless, (Not MacCandless), came to this country in 1820, from County Antrim, Ireland, two years after my father was born on Feb'y. 28th 1818, and settled in Rochester, N.Y. Later he moved to Kittanning, Pa, from which place my father, David McCandless in 1832, when 14 years old, was brought to Pittsburgh by his mother, and found work in a store.

Later Grandfather, with his wife, sons Wm. & Robert, and daughters Elizabeth, Jane and Julia, came to Allegheny City to live.

My Uncle William enlisted in the Regular Army, and after serving many years, died on the Pacific Coast in service about 1860, unmarried.

Uncle Robert went to Ottawa, Ill, married, had one child, a daughter, (who died unmarried), and died at Ottawa.

Aunt Jane went to St Louis, Mo, with my Grandparents, who both died there, and she then went to live with Robert at Ottawa, Ill, and died there about two years ago, unmarried.

Aunt Elizabeth married here a Mr Rainey, but has been a widow for many years, and is now living with an only daughter in Washington, DC. Her only son, a widower without children, is a Civil Engineer.

Aunt Julia married Edward Morrow here, went with her husband and children to St Louis with her parents. Later Mr Morrow took his family to Memphis, Tenn, where he died, and a few years later his wife and two daughters died of yellow fever, leaving two sons, Charles, married and still living in Memphis, and William Everett, married, and living at Braddock, Penna.

My father, David, in 1840, married Elizabeth Griswold Welch, who bore him ten children, six of whom died in early childhood, and died Feb'y. 14th, 1856. In 1860 he again married Eliza Shiras Moore, who bore him one daughter, who died in infancy.

My step-mother lives with me. My father's living children are: Edward V, who married Lucy H. Cook, and has two boys, Scott Cook, aged nearly 9, and David, just 7 years.

Gardiner Welch, who married Lucy Francisus in Phila in 1872, and has three daughters, May, Sarah and Helen, and lives at Baden-Baden, (SEE NEXT PAGE). (7/7/1901).

Germany.

Helen Mary, who married, in 1881, Jos. Scott McKell, of Chillicothe, Ohio, and who has two sons, David McC, and Wm. Scott.

No other children were born to the above three.

And Franklin Gilmore, who married in Kansas, but lost his wife and infant daughter about a year later. He lives at Seattle, Wash.

My father was one of the party that organized the Steel Company which has grown to be "the Carnegie Steel Co" in 1872, which was called "Carnegie, McCandless & Co," and in 1873 was re-organized as "the Edgar Thomson Steel Co," with my father as Chairman.

My father died in Phila on Jan'y. 12th, 1879.

The Pittsburgh directory shows between 30 and 40 McCandless' as living there, but none are related to me. Very truly yours, E. V. McCANDLESS.

(Edward V. McCandless (Lucy H. Cook), Pittsburgh, Penna).

(COMPILER'S NOTE: In connection with the fact that the above David McCandless was a partner with Mr Andrew Carnegie in founding "Carnegie, McCandless & Co," later the "Carnegie Steel Co" - note the following on Data Page H-125: Nancy McCandless (Mrs Smith Hamill) (H-125) of Keokuk, Iowa. It is said that Nancy McCandless' people had helped Carnegie in his younger years. He had a great desire to buy his mother a new heavy silk bombazine dress, and with his first money, he did so.

Later, he brought his mother to Keokuk, Iowa, and stayed part of the time with Mrs Augusta Kilbourne, and part of the time with the Smith Hamills. He expressed gratitude, and spoke proudly of the dress, which she wore. She later told Mrs Kilbourne and Mrs Hamill that the dress was out of style, but that she would not think of depriving Andrew of his satisfaction at having been able to buy it for her. Mrs Carnegie, Mrs Kilbourne, and Mrs Smith Hamill - all very jolly - laughed heartily over this incident.

Years later, as a wealthy Ironmaster, Mr Andrew Carnegie built and owned the steel bridge across the Mississippi River at Keokuk, Iowa. It is possible that part of the impelling motive for this may have been his early day visit to Keokuk. Also, David McCandless, of another migration of the McCandless family to America, was a partner with Mr Andrew Carnegie in founding (1872) "Carnegie, McCandless & Co," which later became the "Carnegie Steel Co." (See McCandless Family "D" - McCandless Section). So Mr Carnegie naturally had a warm feeling of regard toward the members of the McCandless family.

HAMILL GENEALOGY - BUCHANAN SECTION:

To Follow Page

John Buchanan, Sr., lived near Lancaster, Penna. He was said by some to have been related to Pres. James Buchanan, 15th President of the US - but this was denied in a letter from the President, so is undoubtedly incorrect. John, Sr., fought in the Revolutionary War later, while living in South Carolina. About 1779, he moved, with his family, to what was later known as Nashville, Tenn. They travelled with the "Holston River-Donaldson-Robertson Expedition," going with one of the land-parties. Upon arrival, they built "Buchanan Station," a Fort or Blockhouse which was to become famous in later Tennessee history. This was about 2 miles East of Ridley's Blockhouse, and near Todd's Fort on Todd's Knob - and near Mulherrin's Blockhouse. In the party from South Carolina to Tennessee were also Alexander and Samuel Buchanan, and James and John Mulherrin. John, Sr., was killed by Indians at the door of his Fort, about 1791-2.

Sarah Ridley Buchanan was the daughter of Capt. John Ridley, a pioneer who had come to Tennessee earlier. She was born in 1773, near what was later called "Buchanan Station," and still later grew to be Nashville, Tenn. This Sarah Ridley married Major John Buchanan, Jr., brother of Jane Buchanan. She was a noted horsewoman, and also became a noted Revolutionary Heroine. (See Data Page following for reference to Mrs. Elliott's "Women of the American Revolution.")

Major John Buchanan, Jr., was a Revolutionary Soldier in South Carolina, under Colonel Pickens. He and his Father were in charge of one of the smaller land parties in coming from South Carolina to Tennessee. About 1791, as a widower over 30 years of age, he married Sarah Ridley at Buchanan Station, Tennessee.

(Page 310): SARAH RIDLEY BUCHANAN-(Was Sarah Ridley-See Buchanan 5). This article, in addition to the following short abstract, also describes the historical trip down the Holston River in the ship "Adventure" to Buchanan Station" (now called Nashville, Tenn). About 1772 settlers in Virginia and North Carolina sought new homes in the Valley of the Watauga River, now the Holston River, in East Tennessee. Captain George Ridley was the Father of Sarah Ridley Buchanan. In December 1773, Sarah Ridley Buchanan was born, one of the first daughters of Tennessee. In 1779 a party started in the middle of December, under Colonel Donaldson, from Watauga for Big Salt Lick, now Nashville. Another party travelled overland under General James Robertson, of North Carolina. In the land party was the Father of Sarah Ridley Buchanan. Major John Buchanan(Jr), and his Father, John, Sr, were in charge of one of the smaller land parties.

In Tennessee, as Sarah grew up, she became an expert horsewoman. She married Major John Buchanan, Jr(Buchanan 5), at the age of 18. He was a widower, over 30 years of age, and his family originally came from Lancaster, Penna. He was the terror of the Redskins, and the pride of the Cumberland Valley(Pa). Capt. Ridley(Father of Sarah Ridley Buchanan), had established a small Fort near Nashville. Major John Buchanan, Jr, had come with his Father from Lancaster, Penna, to South Carolina, and in 1779, from South Carolina, where he had been a Soldier under Colonel Richers. Buchanan Station was a Fort built by the Buchanans - Father and Son - two miles East of Captain Ridley's Blockhouse at Nashville. Shortly after Sarah Ridley married and became Sarah Ridley Buchanan, her husband's Father, John Buchanan, Jr, was killed by Indians at his door. Not long after, her brother-in-law, Samuel Buchanan, also living at the Fort, was killed by Indians.

The article mentions Lancy Buchanan Buchanan as Major Buchanan's sister. Sarah Ridley Buchanan died at Buchanan Station, Tennessee, on 11/23/1831. Major Buchanan died, presumably at the same place, in 1832.

HAMILL GENEALOGY - TODD SECTION:

A STATEMENT REGARDING EARLY TODDS.

Genevieve Wilson Mays (Mrs Franklin P. Mays) (Granddaughter of Ananda Davisson Miller), 791 Blanders Street, Portland, Oregon, who is a descendant of these Todds-Buchanans-Davissons, and signs herself "Cousin," wrote under date of 5/28/1927: (She is Davisson 111-13)

"A paper dictated by Mrs Beatrice Todd King, of Eminence, Kentucky, gives the following line of Todds. Mrs William King is said by Miss Bessie Todd of Shelbyville, Kentucky, to be 33 years old (in 1927) and a very wonderful woman. Miss Bessie Todd is not of our line. She sent me her line from Thomas Todd. Mrs King's data was very clear indeed. She numbered the James Todds from #1 in Scotland to #8 in Shelbyville, with absolute clearness and order. Her mind evidently retains its soundness, for there was no confusion. Each Todd was spoken of by his number, and there was not a mistake made in this rather intricate list. She is a daughter of James Mulherrin Todd and Mary Porter Todd, married in 1823. Her list is:

#1--James Todd, 1st, lived in Scotland. The vicinity of Loch Loman (Lomond) is suggested as the seat of the family, but is not directly mentioned as such.

#2--James Todd, 2nd. Nothing is recorded of him save that he was the son of the first and the father of the third.

#3--James Todd, 3rd, born in Scotland. Moved to Ballymory Parish, North Ireland (Antrim), on account of persecution of the established Church. Called a Scotch Seceder. He sang the Psalms of David in meter. He lived and died near Belfast. He married there.

#4--James Todd, 4th. (This is the Emigrant) Born in County Antrim, Ireland, on 1/16/1749, died in Xenia, Ohio (and so on to his marriage, Children, etc, as we have it). Jane Buchanan was a sister of John Buchanan, the father of James Buchanan, former President of the US. (Note by Mrs Mays: "I sent (you President Buchanan's denial of this fact.)" He was a Revolutionary Soldier.

#5--James Mulherrin Todd, 5th, son of the above. Born 7/17/1795. His mother died, and father moved to Ohio, the schools being better there than in the South. They boarded with a Scotch family named Simpson, who were Presbyterians. James Mulherrin Todd at the age of 15 volunteered in the War of 1812, under General McCarty. Went to Ft Meigs, also to Green Bay. He was Deputy Clerk at Xenia. Also a merchant. One night he heard someone in distress, having lost his way in the dark. He took his lantern and went to his relief. It proved to be William Porter, a wealthy farmer from Kentucky, who invited him, if he ever came to Kentucky, to come over and see him. James M. Todd was bringing a number of horses to Shelbyville, and concluded to accept the invitation, said Porter living in Shelby County. He there met Miss Mary Porter, called "Polly," the only child of William and Eleanor Porter. They fell in love with each other and were married in Shelbyville, 11/11/1823, by Rev. A. Shannon - she having gone to school to Rev. Shannon. The house in which they were married now stands in good repair. They moved to her home, her parents being dead, in Shelby County. James Mulherrin Todd (5th) was a fine specimen of a Christian gentleman. These had 9 Children:

1--Eleanor Porter Todd. (Born 10/23/1824, Died 8/29/1829).

2--William Todd. (Born: 2/21/1827, Died 9/25/1851).

3--Mary Jane Todd. (Named for her mother) (Born: 12/17/1829).

4--Elizabeth Todd. (Born: 9/15/1832).

5--James Mulherrin Todd, 6th. (Born: 7/2/1835)

6--John Buchanan Todd (Born: 5/3/1836) Bred in Horses - lived Lexington, Ky, and died at home of Mrs Beatrice King, in 1913, Aged 80.

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

(5/15/1941).

7--Dr. Orrin Derby Todd. (Born: 4/24/1841) Was graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. Was a fine Surgeon, also a fine practitioner, was Surgeon in the Civil War. Practiced medicine at Eminence, Kentucky. Died at Norton Infirmary, 5/4/1896, much beloved and respected.
-#3--Beatrice Todd. (Born: 2/12/1844) She is now Mrs William King (the Author of this statement), living at Eminence, Kentucky.

James Mulherrin Todd, the 6th son of James Todd, married Mattie King. They had 5 children, as follows:

John King Todd, now a prominent Shelbyville, (Ky), Lawyer.

Ida Mary Todd, now Mrs James Dale, in Gunsboro (or Greensboro) Alabama.

James Todd, 7th, son of James Todd, died in infancy in 1912.

Dr Orrin Derby Todd lives now in Shelbyville, Ky. He has a son, James H. -now the 8th James Todd. He has a holt which was passed down from generation to generation to the James Todds. It was made to sharpen razors on, and was selected wood put to harden in Loch Lomon (Lomond), Scotland.

All were Presbyterians, and James the 8th was one also. (End of Mrs King's paper).

I thought this very interesting, especially as it advances us back two generations, one of them in Scotland. My Grandmother (Ananda Davisson Millar - Mrs Rev. James P. Millar), in her narrative, spoke of the two James Todds back of our Emigrant, but she did not write for this age and time, when such things must be authoritatively given. She wrote of it in a desultory way, but Mrs King writes clearly of the 8 James Todds and there is no doubt of the count of the James Todds being clearly and truly kept in the line that she has sent. I think we have a fine line of Todds now. It really is ready for that Englishwoman to find that Seat of the family somewhere around Loch Lomond, and give us the Coat of Arms. I have heard of one Todd Coat (of Arms), the motto of which is "Gunning but not Crafty." Tod means Fox, in the old Scotch dialect, and there are two Foxes on this Coat of Arms.

Data Page on JAMES M. TODD, 4th - JANE BUCHANAN.

James M. Todd, 4th, Emigrated to America in his 15th year, (about 1764) and settled on a farm near Winchester, Penna, where he married Jane Buchanan. At intervals he taught school there. He fought in the Revolutionary War, (See sheet following this page, which contains Rev. War Record). After the Revolutionary War, he moved with his family to _____ South Carolina. Later, they went to Nashville, Tenn, where he built "Todd's Fort," which is said to be still standing (1927), at Todd's Knob, near Nashville, Tenn. This Todd's Fort, with Buchanan's Fort, and other similar defences against the Indians, it is said, grew to be Nashville, Tenn. After the war of 1812, he went to Columbus, Indiana, and then to Xenia, Ohio, where he died.

Jane Buchanan is also spoken of in the family Bible records as Janet or Janice.

Dr. Andrew Williams Davison, MD (husband of Rebecca Todd-#156) came to Xenia, Ohio, in 1805, unmarried, and was the first Physician there. He built the first brick house in 1811, and 3 years later the first stone house in Xenia. In the winter of 1820-1, he moved his family to Columbus, Indiana, and later to Madison, Indiana, where he died in his 39th year.

Dr. Joseph Davison, 3rd, MD, (husband of Sarah Todd-#159), was the brother of Dr. Andrew W. Davison, MD, and their father was "John Davison, Gentleman" who was born at Winchester, Virginia, and came with his father to Clarksburg, West Virginia, which city he founded on part of his own farm. Later, John Davison settled at Xenia, Ohio, buying farms for his two sons. He had moved from Clarksburg, W. Va. to Maysville, Mason County, Kentucky, before Kentucky was made a state. Dr. Joseph Davison, MD, was a Surgeon on a ship in the Battles of the Lakes, in 1812. The father of John Davison (Grandfather of Joseph Davison), was "Josiah Davison, Gentleman" of Winchester, Virginia. Joseph Davison is said to have lived later at Princeton, Indiana.

Rebecca Todd was said to have been a Niece of Pres. Andrew Jackson, and lived for a time at "The Hermitage," the Jackson home. She kept a Diary, which came down to Marianne Davison, and which Marianne (daughter of Andrew W. Davison) destroyed. This Diary gave a wonderful history of the Todd family, with keen comments on the affairs of the time, and Rebecca's likes and dislikes. She was 16 years old and the family reproached her for not getting married, and inferred that she would soon be an old maid. She wrote in her Diary something like this: "I do not care to marry Aaron Burr (who was visiting at "The Hermitage" at that time). Who will know of Aaron Burr 100 years from now. I do not care if I ever marry - who will know 100 years hence. But I hope that people will always know that I was not allowed to wear my calico dress, and was not allowed to have flapjacks for breakfast." She said that her family had been in America a long time, but had gone back and forth to England many times. Rebecca lived for a time in Princeton, Ind., and died at the home of her daughter (Marianne Mrs Thomas McCalla-M-361) in Chicago, Illinois.

One of these daughters, probably Eather Todd (#155) is said to have married a McBride, and to have moved to a small town in Iowa.

SUGGESTED POSIBILITIES ON EARLY TODDS.

The following Records on early day Todds were in the records of Albert McCalla, of Chicago (M-361-3, and H-125-6) (Father of The Compiler). It is thought that these more probably refer to some other Todd family, but are included here for reference!

WILLIAM TODD, (Birth and Death dates unknown-Wife's name unknown). Lived in Pontefract, Yorkshire, England. Known to have had a child, Christopher Todd, who married Grace Middlebrook. Other children unknown.

2nd Generation: CHRISTOPHER TODD, Married GRACE MIDDLEBROOK. Birth, marriage and Death dates unknown. This Christopher Todd came to America in 1637. They were original settlers in Davenport's New Haven Colony. He is supposed to have had 3 sons and 3 daughters. One son is known, who was Samuel Todd, who was the 2nd son.

3rd Generation: SAMUEL TODD (Born: 1645, Died 1714) Married on 11/26/1668 to MARY BRADLEY (Birth and Death dates unknown). Said to have had 11 Children, of whom the 11th and youngest was James Todd, (who is said to have been the one who married Jane Buchanan) (?)

(There is obviously an error here, as James Todd would have been) (born when his Father was 104 years old. (See records of James H. Todd, 4th (-#15-) who married Jane Buchanan, in this Section) The) (descent may be right and the date wrong. However, another memo) (says that James Todd's Father was a James Todd. Possibly this) (older James Todd was the son of Samuel, which would account for) (the error in dates.

Albert McCalla's (M-361-3) notes say: Chicago Public Library, Book B-1131, "History of Wolcott, Connecticut" by Samuel Orcutt. "James Todd, 11th child of Samuel Todd (Born 1645, Died 1714) M: Mary Bradley (Married 11/26/1668) who was 2nd son (one of 3 sons and 3-daughters) of Christopher Todd and Grace Middlebrook, who came to this country in 1637, as original settlers in Davenport's New Haven Colony. He was a son of William Todd, of Pontefract, Yorkshire County, England."

Original is in the possession of Mrs. Franklin P. Mays (Genevieve Gardner Millson), 761 Flanders St, Portland, Oregon, who is a Grand-Daughter of Amanda Davissan. This is a part of the long Statement.

"My parents, both paternal and maternal, were born in the Southern States, my father, Dr. Andrew W. Davissan, in Virginia, as well as his father, John, and his Grandfather, Josiah. The latter lived to the great age of 110, and his wife, my Great-Grandmother, was 100 when she died. They lived first in the neighborhood of Winchester, Va., after removing to what is now ~~West Virginia~~ ~~Dr. Andrew Williams Davissan~~ My Grandfather was one of the Founders of what is now Clarksburg, - on part of his own farm. The record of the proceedings is signed: "John Davissan, Gentleman". It was of more importance to designate the station of the writer at that time than it is now. A fraction of the people of Virginia were descended from the convicts exiled there. (Note by Mrs. F. P. Mays: He signed it that way because he was entitled to do so by inheritance, and it shows that his people were of the Gentry of England, and the Davissan Arms will be found to belong to all his descendents).

All villages in the South are small and unimportant. In this obscure little town my father was born. My Grandfather removed from Virginia to Maysville, Mason County, Ky, before Ky. was made a State. My father and my Uncle Joseph, after obtaining the education it was so difficult to get in those early days, studied medicine under Dr. Goforth. I remember the name from hearing the couplet the students made for him:

"Dr William Goforth, Lived and Died and so forth."

The two Davissan brothers went on horseback to Philadelphia to finish their medical education. This was nearly 90 years ago, when Philadelphia was more important than New York as a center of learning. My Uncle, Dr. Joseph Davissan, was Surgeon on one of the ships in the Battles on the Lakes in (the War of) 1812. He died in Princeton, Ind, aged 80. On finishing his education as far as books and teachers could help him, my father came to Xenia, Ohio, to begin his career as a Doctor of Medicine.

My Mother's Grandfather, John Buchanan, removed from Lancaster Co, Penna, to South Carolina. I do not know the exact date, but long before the Revolutionary War. Glowing accounts from Daniel Boone and other pioneers in Ky. and Tenn. induced him to remove to Tenn. in the still troubled times of the Indians. There was no road for wagons over the mountains then, everything had to be carried on horses. After reaching their destination, it was found to be necessary to construct a fort, with palisades, to insure safety from the Indians. Fields were cultivated in daytime, at night all came into the fort. Two of my Grandmother's brothers, young men in the prime of life, were shot while plowing in the fields by Indians, who took aim from the bushes where they were concealed. (Note by Genevieve Wilson Mays: Alexander and Samuel Buchanan were killed by Indians at Stone River).

My Grandmother lived to see peace and prosperity in the land and her children all around her. She now has descendents, in the female line, of the 5th generation, and one named Janet Buchanan for her. My Grandfather settled in the neighborhood of Xenia, Ohio, buying farms for his two sons. My Mother lived in Xenia with an older married sister. Her marriage, the next year, 1807, to Dr. Andrew W. Davissan, was the first that occurred in the village. My Mother, who was but 17, was persuaded to have the marriage take place while Grandfather was absent in South Carolina, where he had gone to visit old friends. She, however, regretted bitterly that she had thus failed to show honor to her parent. The marriage she entered into in haste proved to be a very happy one. My Father and I were baptized at the same time in Xenia, when religious exercises were held in the Court House.

---My Great-Grandfather Buchanan, who for a time was living in his house outside the Fort, was shot while standing at his door. After he had fallen dead, and the Indian had reloaded his gun, he pointed it at my Grandmother, who raised her hands saying: "God preserve me!" The Indian muttered some words and lowered his gun, leaving her to bury her precious dead. Whether he thought he would save his bullet to kill a man, or was impressed by her ejaculations, no one can tell.

At one time it became known to the hostile Indians, in the vicinity of Fort Buchanan, (Nashville), that a number of able-bodied men living there were absent. One moonlight night one of the men remaining in the fort was returning home at 10 PM, after having spent the evening with a beloved widow. He saw thru an aperture in the Stockade, a number of Indians creeping up to the gate. He shot the gun to give the alarm. Only 8 men besides the women and children remained in the fort. It took but a few minutes for all to be as well prepared as they could be, and the 8 men in the Fort, which was strong, could see to make every shot effective, while the hundreds of Indians on the outside could only shoot at random. My Mother, then about 5 years old, was taken from a corner house, which was more exposed, to one on the inside. She thought it was daylight, and wondered at being taken in her nightclothes to a neighbor's house. (Note by Genevieve Wilson (Mays): This was little Rebecca Todd).

My Grandmother, with other women, ran bullets all night, and provided refreshments for the men. One of the few protectors in the Fort was underwitted, but it was thought that he could shoot if his guns were loaded for him. He shot, as he thought, several times, then bringing it to be loaded again, it did go off with a tremendous noise, knocking the shooter down, and as was learned after the battle, causing the Indians to believe that the besieged had big guns - cannon. There was no one hurt in the fort, although there were some narrow escapes. My Grandmother looked thru one of the portholes not occupied at that time, when a Scotchman named Turnbull said to her sternly: "Come away. What good can a woman do?" So she took her head away, and before Mr Turnbull could put his there, a bullet came whizzing thru the porthole, which would have killed anyone in its way. No one in the Fort was injured, but many Indians were left lying around the Fort, whom their brothers could not carry away. One man was seen trying to burn the stockade, and he had been shot at many times during the night. Some one would think he heard a man blowing the fire (there were no matches then), and bang would go another gun at him. In the morning the Incendiary was found riddled with bullets. The firing was heard in Nashville, and early in the morning several persons rode out to see if any were left alive. Great was the rejoicing when all were found unhurt. (Here follows an interesting account of the schools in those days, which were Rebecca Todd's only chance for an education).

Though the loss to the children of good schools was very great, yet they did not grow up in ignorance. Those who had intelligent parents, or had great minds themselves, learned something useful always, when they could. I remember my Mother at 59 years of age was the most perfectly acquainted with geography of anyone that I knew, and her penmanship was so good that she was made Secretary of various Charitable societies of which she was a member. Books were there, of course, but books were read then, not as we read them now, but carefully and thoroughly. Of my Grandfather Todd's books that came to my Mother's share (she was but one of 7 who shared them), I remember Brown's Dictionary of the Bible, Dickinson on Isaiah, Durham on the Revelations (the book, by the way, that Dr Johnson disputed with Boswell's father about), the Fool of Quality, Milton's works, and Defoe's, with Theological Works of a controversial character, whose names I have forgotten.

When my Grandmother, Janet Buchanan Todd died, which she did at the age of 47 from fever, leaving several little children, my Mother, still a lit-the girl, lived with her uncle, John Buchanan. Her aunt, being a woman of imperious temper, was under the necessity of controlling her own temper, and it had been good for her, she said. While my Mother lived with her Uncle, the celebrated Aaron Burr made a visit to the South, and breakfasted with her Uncle, to meet some gentlemen of the neighborhood. Whatever treasonable designs he may have been concocting, I think that his host knew nothing of them. When my Mother was in her 16th year, my Grandfather removed to Green County, Ohio, his dislike for slavery influencing him to take his family to a freer state. He stopped a few weeks at Cincinnati, then in 1806, an inconsiderable village. The only reminiscences I can recall having heard of this time is, that my Mother, an attractive, sprightly girl, danced her first dance in Ohio, with a brother of Nicholas Longworth. My Grandfather settled in the neighborhood of Xenia, buying farms for his two sons. My Mother lived in Xenia, with an elder married sister.

My first recollections of home are of a brick house in which we lived in Xenia. A scene in that house is vividly imprinted on my memory. It happened when I was 5 years old. It was Sunday morning when Mr Armstrong, our intelligent Scotch Minister, received notice while preaching, that some British and Indians - whom it was known had succeeded in capturing some Americans and massacring them - were in full march to fight the defenseless settlements. A Company was ordered at once from Xenia and vicinity. Mr Armstrong dismissed the congregation. In my Father's house all were busy parching and grinding coffee. That was the thing I remember seeing done, but every preparation necessary for the ~~army~~ equipment of soldiers for their marching was made. My Father went as Surgeon, and two Uncles as Privates. I saw an Aunt, Nancy Kemper Todd, wringing her hands and saying: "They'll all be killed. I shall never see my husband again," and my Mother saying: "No, not one of them will be killed. I expect to see them all again, safe and sound." And so she did, for the enemy, hearing of this Company, the number probably greatly exaggerated, decamped as soon as they could. The Company that marched from Xenia never saw an Indian, or other enemy. They accomplished their mission without bloodshed or other evidences except the fatigue of marching through thickets and marshes, the water up to their knees at times.

My Grandfather, James Todd, of good Scotch-Irish stock, died when I was five years old. I remember his features perfectly, and his fine open countenance. He wore short black velvet trousers, and long stockings. His Grandfather went from Scotland to Ireland. James Todd was born in County Antrim, (Ireland), in 1749, and came to America in his 15th year. He was a very intelligent man, especially in religious matters. When he was a little boy he was sent, after dark, on an errand of a few miles. "Jamie, shall you be afraid?" He answered: "No indeed, I've crossed myself, and nothing can hurt me." - a shock to his Mother that her little boy, brought up with so much care, should imbibe such superstition from the ignorant people around them. He is buried in the Churchyard at Sugar Creek, Greene County, Ohio. My Grandfather laid the corner stone of the stone house my Father built in Xenia - the first one built there. (Here follows a description of the old stone house, with its 6 fireplaces, which was still standing 10 years ago).

My Uncle, James Todd, who lived in Shelby County, Ky (James Mulherrin Todd), wanted me to visit him when I was 17 years old. He had a fine riding horse on his farm near Xenia. He wanted it sent to Ky. and proposed for me to ride it. An acquaintance who was going at that time was to take care of me. But the man gave me his own horse to ride, and rode my Uncle's himself. The horse I rode was a rough trotter, while my Uncle's horse had a smooth, easy gait. We rode 150 miles in 3 consecutive days, - as much as most men would accomplish, and I was but 17. I remained but a year in Shelby County. I was rather lonesome, for there was not much congenial society. While there, I was at a wedding at which there were at least 100 guests, the tables loaded with good things to eat, but no other entertainment for the guests. The ladies were dressed in pink, white and blue china crops. All they could do was to sit and look at each other. The good Baptist host, when asked to have dancing, refused saying: "If any is merry, let him sing Psalms." And in truth, hymn singing was the principal recreation of the young people I met indulged in. Some young ladies I knew were industrious and excellent housekeepers, but I was told that most of the young men were idle and dissipated. Every one had slaves. While I was in Ky., the semi-centennial of American Independence was kept on July 4th.

(Signed) AMANDA DAVISSON MILLAR, (Davison III).

(This is only an excerpt from a very much longer article. Mrs F.P. Mays, Genevieve Gardner Wilson-- who is a Granddaughter of Amanda Davisson Millar, says: "Our Great-Great-Great-Great-Grandfather Todd came from Scotland to Ireland, and settled near Belfast, where he died."

SUPPORTING DATA to DAVISSON LINE previous to Josiah Davison, (A), and John Davison, (A-1); this data was secured from a Mr. Lee, of Ravenna, Ohio; on 9/4/1924, by Mrs. Franklin Pierce Hays, (Elizabeth Genevieve Gardner Hays, son) (Dev A-111-13), the latter a Grand-daughter of Manda Davison Miller, (A-111), of 741 Flanders St, Portland, Oregon. This statement gives a suppositions line of descent back to a Daniel Davison, (1630-1693) of Wenham, Mass, (No. 1). The Compiler, lacking additional proof, does not include it as authentic, but it seems well worth considering.

#1 - DANIEL DAVISON, (1630-1693). He was Scotch, of Anglo-Saxon blood, and was a Highlander. He was born in Scotland, 1630, and was in the Scotch Army of 1650, when the Covenanters were running things. At Dunbar, 9/3/1650, and at Worcester, England, 9/3/1651, the Scotch forces were seriously defeated, almost annihilated. He, with many others, was made a prisoner. After each of these battles, many were exiled to Massachusetts Bay Colony, the Indies, and the Gold Mines of Guiana, and sold as slaves, which was the way Prisoners of War were disposed of then. At Massachusetts Bay they fell into good hands, were permitted to redeem themselves by paying back the cost of transportation, and to enable them to do so, were given half their time to work for themselves. It was the Army of Cromwell that was endeavoring to destroy the power of the Scotch Church forces.

There is no English record of the prisoners. Charles the 1st had been executed and no quarter was given, and after the Restoration, things were even worse. Daniel Davison, (A-1), the first of this line, was a Covenanter Soldier. His home in America was at the North line of Wenham, Mass. He was sold into servitude to pay the cost of transportation, from which he soon redeemed himself. Rev. Gerrish names him in a list of 57 Church members that he buried. He did not come to America, he was sent. To Massachusetts Bay Colony he was exiled in 1651. Thus was the Davisson blood, which is in our family, established on the American continent. He married Margaret How, a daughter of Thomas and Susanna How (born in England, and Great-Granddaughter of Admiral John How of the Great Fleet, 1630, in which John Winthrop came over). His sons were Congregationalists at Wenham, and Hanlet, Mass. He was just a plain, hardworking Scotch farmer, who saved what he could and left to each son a small tract of land.

#2 - DANIEL DAVISON, (A-2), son of the above, died while his children were young, leaving them upon 160 acres of New London County, Connecticut, rocks, and before he had time to be well settled. His wife was Sarah Dodge.

#3 - JOSIAH DAVISSON, son of the above, 1692-1759, was born at Hanlet, in Southern Ipswich, New-Hamilton, Mass, in 1692. He was a man of foresight and was able to acquire a large extent of land upon the Millstone River, about 2 miles from Princeton, N.J. He had farms for all of his sons, it appears, but they had the "Go West" idea, and went to Virginia, in the days when schools and churches were few and far between. Neither Church nor Town records of families were kept. The only birth and marriage records are such as have come down the lines in the family records. Josiah, (#3) was a Justice, under appointment from the Governor. According to A. H. Davison, (1857-1928), Josiah Davison (#3) (1692-1759) made the change in the spelling of the family name of the descendants of Daniel Davison (#1), our first in line, whose dates are 1630-1693. He added an "S" making the spelling Davisson. The Davissons are all descended from Josiah, Davisson (#3), Grandson of Daniel, buried at Wenham. He had 6 sons whom he had instructed to spell it Davisson, and they did. Daniel, 2nd in line, left 3 sons, only one of whom, Josiah, left male descendants. This Josiah died in 1759 in New-Hamilton County, Mass. He had 6 sons. He changed the spelling of his name to Davison, and generally his descendants of the other 4 sons of Daniel (#1) spell the name Davidson. (Note by Mrs. Hays!)

(These quotation marks; I understand, refer to quotations from various family records in Bibles and letters.)

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

(8/20/1951)

Mr. A. H. Davison had difficulty in getting names of all the sons of Josiah, (#3) (1692-1759). From his letter to me dated 6/13/1921, is this: I may be compelled to leave the 4th generation blank in 1 or 2 of Josiah's sons. I have over 3 or 4 of these sons entire, and one or two others probably. One good thing transpired! All in Virginia, nearly, who are of this family, spelled it Davisson, and this is sufficient evidence that they came from Josiah, (#3), who, invented this spelling. I do not know whether he got all of them or not.

(Note by Mrs. Mays: It must seem to you as it does to me, that in this lost list of sons, it is positively our own Josiah, who has been up to now our first in line. He bore his father's name, and faithfully carried on the double "SS" in Davisson as his father had willed. And let me say here that no doubt Josiah (#3) (1692-1759) had authority for the double "SS". It would hardly be that he desired this change without reason for it. The reason has become lost, but our people as far as I know, have written it with double "SS" and that proclaims us as on this line without a doubt.

#4 - Andrew Davisson, (---), was a son of Josiah (#3) (1692-1759). He, Andrew Davisson, (#4), served on Committee of Safety for Windsor Twp, Middlesex, N.J.

#5 - Joseph Davisson, (1754---), son of Andrew, was born in New Jersey 7/9/1754. I do not know the date of his death. He served in the American Army during the Revolutionary War. He saw active service in New Jersey, New York and Penna., and was at Valley Forge. Through him I secured my S.A.R. (Sons of the American Revolution) membership.

For a while I had in my possession a paper dealing with Joseph Davisson (#5) (1754) and several others. I did not copy from this paper much more than that which is related to my particular line. One of the copied paragraphs reads: "Another Joseph Davisson of Prince Edwards County, Va, the next year was in the Company of Capt. Charles Felhan, as will be seen by examining his application for pension, on file in the Pension Dept." Joseph Davisson and his relative, Josiah, and probably William, were from Harrison County, Virginia.

(Note by Mrs. Mays: Who was this relative, Josiah? Harrison County means Clarksburg, W. Va.). Is not this our Josiah? Do you not agree with me that this is a positive reference to our ancestor? The Joseph Davisson (#5) mentioned in this paragraph, is the Joseph Davisson who was born in New Jersey 7/9/1754, and my Great-Grandfather. Mary Burns, wife of Joseph Davisson, was Scotch, and was first cousin to the poet, Robert Burns (1759-1796).

According to this version, our line of descent would be:

- |                          |  |
|--------------------------|--|
| 1 - Daniel Davison.      | 4 - Josiah Davisson, 2nd, (Our "A").   |
| 2 - Daniel Davison, 2nd. | 5 - John Davisson. (Our "A-1").        |
| 3 - Josiah Davisson.     | 6 - Andrew "A" Davisson. (Our "A-11"). |

Josiah Davisson, (Jr), is supposed to have married a Miss Stout.
Josiah Davisson, (Jr), supposedly had an older brother, Nathaniel. Albert McCalla (M-361-3-Father of the Compiler) evidently believed that this Nathaniel Davisson married Elizabeth Williams, but it is much more probable that his nephew, John Davisson, (A1) married Eliza or Elizabeth Williams, who, it is said, was of the famous Roger Williams, (of Rhode Island), descent. Amanda Davisson Miller, (Dav A-111) wrote Marionne Davisson McCalla, (Dav A-113 & M-361) that Eliza Jane Davisson Hamill, (Dav A-112 & M-262) had been named for her Grandmother, Elizabeth Williams, who married John Davisson, (Dav A-1). This is further substantiated by the fact that John's oldest son was named Dr Andrew Williams Davisson. So we are practically certain that John's (A-1) wife was Elizabeth Williams.

Josiah Davisson, (Jr), lived to be 110 years old, and his wife lived to be 100 years old.

Albert McCalla's (M-361-3) records show that in a book called "Indian Wars of West Virginia by W.D. Hoas-1851-Page 252, it states that "Nathaniel Davisson and younger brother, Josiah, of Clarksburg, W.Va, in September 1779, went hunting and Nathaniel became lost and was scalped by Indians, his body being found four months later.

Davison Antecedents:

The Davissons are of English and Welsh descent. They are supposed to have first appeared at Winchester, Virginia, where they had an estate. However, there is a very possible line of descent given on a previous page headed "Suppositions Data on Davisson line....". This would trace our Davissons back from Winchester, Va, to Manham, Mass, in 1641.

Legend: The family legend is that the Davisson Family are supposedly descended from a Davisson who was the private Secretary to Queen Elizabeth and as such, gave the order for beheading Mary, Queen of Scots. He was so heartbroken over this that he came to America. One version has it that he died on shipboard and his widow arrived here safely. Another version has it that he landed and became Secretary to Wider Brewster of the "Mayflower Colony.

The Davissons, while at Winchester, Virginia, owned a farm at what is now Clarksburg, W.Va, which is directly to the West, on the highway which carried such numbers of those who settled the West. On this farm "John Davisson, Gentleman" (Dav A-1) founded what grew to be the city of Clarksburg, West Virginia.

Had: Children - A Doctor - lived Clarksburg, W. Va. - Daysville, Ky. - Xenia, Ohio, and died at Princeton, Ind, at 80 years old. Sarah Todd was sister of Rebecca Todd (above). Some claim Dr Joseph was the elder brother.

John Davisson lived at Winchester, Virginia, and afterward moved to what is now Clarksburg, W. Va. He founded Clarksburg, W. Va, on part of his own Farm. The record of the proceedings is signed: John Davisson, Gentleman (according to signed statement by Amanda Davisson - Willard). At that time it was necessary to designate the station of a person, as some people living in Virginia were descended from convicts exiled there. John Davisson was entitled to sign it this way by inheritance, as his parents were of the Gentry of England, and the Davisson Arms or Crest will be found to belong to his descendants.

John Davisson later moved from W. Va. to Daysville, Mason Co, Kentucky, - (before Kentucky was made a State) - with his sons, Andrew and Joseph. Andrew and Joseph were later (about 1800) sent back to Randolph Academy, in Virginia, to school. Later, John Davisson settled near Xenia, Ohio, buying farms for his two sons.

John Davisson's marriage to Elizabeth Williams is seemingly substantiated also by the fact that his eldest son, was named Andrew Williams Davisson, being given the middle name of Williams. (See also data on Page Dav "A"). Elizabeth Williams was said to be descended from the famous Bogen Williams, Founder of the Rhode Island democracy, and who was a pioneer of free religion.

Dr. Andrew Williams Davisson is said to have built (1811) the first brick house in Xenia, Ohio, and the first stone house in 1814. He married Rebecca Todd in 1807, the first marriage in Xenia. He was the first Physician there also. (See also data on Page Dav A-11). He may be considered as a founder of Xenia, Ohio, assisted by his father John, his brother Joseph, the Todds, Hamills and other - Norfolk who also settled in Xenia, Ohio.

Dr. Joseph Davisson, 3rd, MD, studied medicine in Philadelphia, with his brother, Dr. Andrew Williams Davisson, MD, studying under Dr. Goforth, and the famous Dr. Benjamin Rush. Dr. Joseph Davisson, MD, began the practice of medicine. (SEE OTHER SIDE). (8/15/1951).

icine in Xenia, Ohio, and was later Surgeon on a ship during the "battles of the Great Lakes in the war of 1812." He later lived and practiced medicine in Princeton, Ind, where he died at 90 years old. Dr Alfred Williamson Davidson, MD, 2nd, MD, (Day A-114-7) claimed that he understood that Dr Joseph Davidson, MD, never married, but other records from Kentucky, etc, seem to show that he did marry Sarah Todd, sister of Abraham Todd.

Albert McCalla's (A-361-3-Son of Mariame Davidson McCalla-Day A-113) records show that "Great-Grandfather Davidson and wife, each lived to be over 100. He was 118." Also that John Davidson, (A-1) came from Virginia to Kentucky before it was a State. Andrew and Joseph studied medicine under Rush, probably in Philadelphia, which is the reason why "Ash Medical College, which was founded by Dr Alfred W. Davidson, Jr, MD, (Day A-114), assisted by Dr Brainerd, was given that name."

Flora Davidson Brooks, (Day A-114-3) suggested Research in Newberry Library or other libraries, for the record of the ship "Adventure," which sailed from Fort Patrick Henry, on the Holston River, to French Salt Springs, on the Cumberland River. One of the Davidson family is said to have sailed on that very famous trip.

ROGER WILLIAMS - ANCESTOR OF ELIZABETH WILLIAMS:

(This Article is interesting in connection with the fact that John Davison (supposedly married Elizabeth Williams, a descendant of the famous Roger Williams, of Rhode Island. While written for children, this story gives a brief outline of Roger Williams' life, and his advocacy of "Free Religion". This clipping was contributed 8/15/1951 by The Compiler.

It was a bitterly cold New England night. A blinding storm was raging. Hardly a time to start out on a journey, especially on foot. But Roger Williams did not have time to think of weather. He was running away. He had very little time to make his escape. The Governor had issued an order that Williams be arrested, put on a boat and sent back to England. That was the last place he wanted to go. For he had left England for the very reason he was being persecuted in the New World. So he set out at midnight into the white wilderness of early New England. (This story, you see, takes place back in 1636). For fourteen weeks he wandered through the deep snow, over ground where no white men had ever been. Without food or protection from the weather, without bow or arrow, hatchet or gun. To keep himself alive he ate roots, nuts, acorns, as he found them under the snow.

He was saved by Massasoit and Canonius, two Narraganset (Indian) chiefs. Feeling sorry for the way his own people had treated him, they took Williams in and showed him every kindness. But why did Roger Williams have to flee? As a boy and young man in England, he saw people whipped and imprisoned because they did not believe all that the church taught. He felt that everyone had a right to worship as he pleased. He felt too, that the Government ought not to interfere with church affairs. A church in Boston had asked him to be its minister. But he was disappointed with what he found in Boston among the Puritans. While they had fled to America so that they could worship God as they chose, they denied that privilege to others. So everyone who settled there had to believe and act as the Puritans did or they were persecuted. The city officials had the power to punish anyone who thought or acted differently. They also held the right to punish anyone who broke any of the Ten Commandments.

Now Roger Williams believed and preached that in keeping or breaking the first four Commandments, a man was directly responsible to God, and He would judge him. However, the last six Commandments were concerned with man's actions toward his fellow man, therefore the Government could punish for the breaking of these laws. He said again and again that all religious matters should be taken out of the hands of the city officials and that everyone should be allowed to worship as his conscience directed him. For this he was driven from his home. But through a friend he got a Charter from the King of England for a small tract of land. This, he called Providence, and it is known to us today as Rhode Island. There Roger Williams settled. His wife and children joined him. So did all those who didn't believe as did the Puritans and Pilgrims. Williams set up a form of government which was the first in America to permit true religious liberty.

One hundred and thirty years later the spirit of Roger Williams lived on in the minds and hearts of two very important men. Thomas Jefferson and James Madison. They had studied William's ideas, agreed with him, and put them into action. They influenced the two greatest American documents; the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. In the Hall of Fame in the Capitol at Washington, DC, there is a statue of this great American, Roger Williams. In his hand he holds a Bible upon which men have carved the words: "The Apostle of Soul Liberty."

A116-JAMES TODD DAVISSON.
Born: 1/1/1821, at Xenia, Ohio.

( Died in infancy ).
Died: 10/12/1824, at Xenia, Ohio.

A117-CAROLINE TODD DAVISSON,
Born: 7/7/1822, at Xenia, Ohio.

( Died in infancy ).
Died: 7/7/1824, at Xenia, Ohio.

Dr Andrew Williams Davison, MD, and his brother, Dr Joseph Davison, MD, studied medicine under Dr Goforth, in Phila. Later the two brothers again travelled back to Philadelphia on horseback and studied under the famous Dr Benjamin Rush, thus finishing their medical education. It is said that Dr Andrew's son, Dr Alfred, was so much an admirer of Dr Rush, thru what his father had told him, that he named Rush Medical College, of Chicago (which he founded, with Dr Brainerd), after this famous Dr Benjamin Rush (who died in 1813). Dr Andrew W. Davison, MD, with his older brother, Dr Joseph, had their early training at Randolph Academy, in Virginia.

Dr Andrew Williams Davison, MD, lived in Clarkburg, W. Va, Maysville, Mason Co., Kentucky, (before Ky was made a State), Xenia, Ohio, Princeton, Indiana, Columbus, Indiana, and Madison, Indiana, where he died.

Dr Andrew Williams Davison, MD, from Broadstone's History of Greene County, Ohio. (by Senator M. A. Broadstone, Xenia, Ohio): "Dr Andrew Williams Davison, MD, came to Xenia in 1805, unmarried, and was first Physician in Xenia. Built first brick house in town in 1811, 3 years later built first stone house. In Winter of 1820-21, he moved family to Columbus, Ind, and later located at Madison, Ind, where he died in 39th year. (Contained in letter from John M. Davidson, 234 E. 2nd St, Xenia, Ohio, written in 1924 to the Compiler).

Dr Andrew Williams Davison, MD's marriage to Rebecca Todd in 1807 was the first marriage in Xenia. Dr Andrew, assisted by his father, John Davison, and by his brother, Dr Joseph Davison, 3rd, MD, and also assisted by some Todds and Harills, may be considered as one of the founders of Xenia, Ohio. He was the first Physician there, his marriage to Rebecca Todd was the first marriage, he built the first brick house in 1811, and the first stone house in 1814.

Rebecca Todd came from Tennessee, ("The Hermitage") to Xenia, Ohio, shortly before her marriage. Rebecca is said to have been a niece of the wife of Pres. Andrew Jackson, and lived for some time in Jackson's home, "The Hermitage", near Nashville, Tennessee. She kept a diary, which is quoted in the Todd Section, (See Page Todd-15). Rebecca died at the home of her daughter, Mrs Thomas McValla, (Marianne Davison-361 - Davison 113), at 1302 So. Wabash Ave, Chicago, Ill - with whom she lived the latter years of her life. She died just about 1 1/2 years before the great Chicago fire - and that home was not burned, because the fire swept to the north of it.

Rev. James F. Miller's 1st wife was Eliza Roberts, by whom he had 2 children, Wilson Miller and John Roberts Miller (born 1822 (20?) in Steubenville, Ohio, (and died 1846 (86?) in Washington, DC, without issue). There was a Martin Luther Miller, who was a nephew of Rev. James, being the son of his brother, Joseph Miller. Some think he was the son of Rev. James and Ananda, but no dates are available, and he was probably a brother's son. There is also a version that Rev. James' 1st wife was a Miss Hitchcock, with 5 or 4 children.

Rev. J. F. Miller was a son of Hugh and Mary (Patterson) Miller, and lived a time at Beaver Falls, Penna, and after marriage, went to Argyle, N.Y., to a Scotch Presbyterian Congregation, and afterwards (1851) to Albany, Ore, then to The Dalles, Ore, where his widow lived after his death. He also evidently lived in Steubenville, Ohio. He was a Missionary Minister.

Rev. J. F. Miller was also the "favorite cousin" of Mrs. Smith Hamill, Nancy McClellan - MacCallister - 1851, father of Mrs. Albert McClellan, (Nancy Hamill - 1855-6), and Grandmother of the Compiler, Paul Hamill McCalla (b. 185-65). At Beaver Falls, he lived very close to the Hamill colony in the beautiful Shen Valley of Penna, the childhood home of Mrs. Smith Hamill. There (SEE OTHER SIDE). (11/17/1951).

is said to be a cross-relationship between the William and the Penna Hamilton, but just how is unknown to the Compiler.

Mrs. Peters' mother (Elizabeth Miller) came to Oregon in 1851 as one of five School Teachers sent by the National Board of Education, and taught at Forest Grove. It contains some facts about his life. There is an error in your records. He was not on his way to Washington, DC, but arrived in Marietta "from Washington, DC, where he has resided since his election to Congress last Fall." (1872). He came to deliver the Oration before the Alumni of Marietta College, and was the guest of Mr. Lums. At 11 o'clock PM, on July 1, 1873, he was stricken down by paralysis; and at 1:20 AM on July 2, (1873) he died.

Her daughter, Genevieve Dodd, (Day A-111-132), says every time I ask about anything, that her "other (A-111-13) destroyed everything. I know that she destroyed nothing..... Aunt Gen, (A-111-13) had 2 children only. You have the correct information about Wilson, (A-111-131). Genevieve, (A-111-132) lives in her "other's house, 2326 N.W. Flanders Street, Portland (16), Oregon. 2326 is across the street from the home they lived in when they were children. The latter was torn down a number of years ago. Genevieve (A-111-132) has two children: Joseph Dodd and Wilson Dodd. I do not know their middle names. I have written Genevieve for additional information about them, but am not sure that it will be forthcoming. She does not speak to her children.....it is very difficult for me to believe that Genevieve Dodd, (A-111-132) destroyed those records because she is intensely interested in old photographs and family records and constantly writes me for them. They could be elsewhere.....

(Letter of 5/10/1951): "....I found a book called "Colonial and Revolutionary "Innages of America," Edited by the American Historical Company, Inc, New York (1940), which has something about the Ways family. I am not too sure about the correctness of the data because there were some typographical errors in the information on my own family. I am going to copy this on the Elizabeth Miller, (A-111-1), sheet you sent me to fill out for you.....

(Letters to The Compiler - - from Mrs Willard Oliver Wilson, (Helen Augusta Peters) (Day A-111-161), 1034 Bedford Road, Grosse Pointe (30), Michigan.
(Letter of 2/21/1950): "Box 2043, Detroit (31), Michigan. Sept 24, 1950.
Dear Mr McCalla: My sister, Mrs Leonard Sloan, (Day A-111-164) of Portland, Oregon, sent me your letter of July 9th (1950) to her, because she knew I was interested in looking up data for D.A.A. application for membership, and thought I might find something in your letter to help me. We appreciate the kind words you wrote of my mother, (Day A-111-16). Although I was in Portland at the time of her death, and am sorrowfully wearing and using some of her things, I just can't realize that she has gone. I haven't any data on the Davissons, and am very happy to have the information in your letter. I don't know where the copy of your Davisson records are that you sent to my Aunt, Mrs F.P. Mays, (Day A-111-13). Her daughter always answers that her mother destroyed everything; when I try to get any information from her. Mother must have given the information you sent her to someone else in the family. Is your book in the Detroit library? I have wanted to go out there but it is so far from our home in Grosse Pointe, that I haven't been able to get to the library so far. We lived in Calumet Park, Illinois, from October 1942 to August 1943. I wish I had known you were living on the South Side. I know we must have passed by your apartment many times. I presume Mother wrote you, though she may not have because she always avoided unpleasant things, that my Aunt, Mrs (F.P.) Mays, (Day A-111-13), lost her mind after falling and breaking a hip, and knew none of the family for some time afterwards until her death. After her fall, she was moved to a cottage my mother had built on Uncle Fred's property in The Dalles, where she died. Aunt Len had a very sad and unhappy life the last twenty-five years of her life. Again thank you and your sister for your sympathy at the death of my mother. He used to ride frequently to the Prairie Avenue section (in Chicago) to look at the old homes still standing. Your Grandmother's, (-361) home at 162 E. 25th Street must have been nearby. Sincerely yours, Helen Augusta Wilson.

(Letter of 12/15/1950): "Box 2043, Detroit (31), Michigan. Oct 15, 1950.
Dear Mr McCalla: I feel that I can only inadequately express my gratitude to you for all the trouble you took to write the letter with copy and to send me the interesting information on the Davissons, Fells and Richmans, as well as on the Barilla and McCallas. I knew no more than the names and am more than grateful to you for all the trouble you have taken in my behalf, and I hope I can do something for you. I never dreamed that you would go to all the trouble to write out the information necessary for D.A.A. membership and was overjoyed upon receiving it. I had been anticipating considerable trouble finding the necessary material. This has been a tremendous help to me. Let me say I do not think the records Mrs Mays, (Day A-111-13) had are lost, but are held either by her daughter or by her daughter's sons. Genevieve says she has nothing; that her mother destroyed everything. This is not true. The sons I have never met and can expect no information from them. I shall have to consult your Genealogies for further information in the Newberry library, (Chicago). I shall look forward to inquiring at the Detroit library for Mrs Elliot's "Women of the American Revolution" at my earliest opportunity. The next time I am in Portland, (Ore), I shall be delighted to call on your Cousin, Mrs Caven, (A-124-113). I have delayed answering your letter because I have been ill with a very bad cold and am up for the first time today. The unseasonably cold weather we have not been enjoying this fall has caused many to catch bad colds. Every place I go people have dreadful colds.

Thank you again, Mr McCalla, for helping me with my D.A.A. application for membership and for writing me at such length. I feel as though I had imposed upon you. My sister, Mrs (L.M.) Sloan, (Day A-111-164) is Executor of Father's and Mother's Estates as well as Agent for the family property in Oregon, and (See 00113 side).

so is extremely busy at the office every day. I shall remind her to call on Mrs. Cayen when she has a chance to be in that neighborhood. Janet (Mrs. Floom) lives on the west side. Portland has grown so prodigiously since I went to school there. With kindest regards to you and your sister, Sincerely yours, Helen F. Wilson.

(Post Card of 10/27/1950): "Dear Mr. McCalla: Just a line to let you know I received your letter and am working on the information you want. I am sending out questions to descendants in question. I thought you would be interested to know that my application for D.A.A. membership was accepted. I received word today. Sincerely, Helen F. Wilson, 10/27/1950."

(Letter of 2/2/1951): "1034 Bedford Road, Grosse Pointe (304), Mich. Feb. 2, 1951. Dear Mr. McCalla: I am very sorry to have been so long sending this information to you. (She enclosed data on her family) I have a million reasons for not getting it off to you before. First, I look after my home (and have no help at present), and second, look after my business - the other way around. By the time I got the information from my sisters, it was almost Christmas, and then it was time to struggle over taxes. Mr. Wilson has been ill with bronchitis since the week before Christmas and is now in Florida. In this awful weather I know he is not warm enough. Just now I noticed that Elizabeth, (Day A-111-163) had made a mistake, and wrote a birth date for her marriage date. I have been hunting for a birthday book in which the date was recorded, but have put it away too well. I can't find it. Also lack data on Janet Wilson Bent, (Day A-111-164-1). I shall send this information to you later. I want to get this off to you for fear you may think I have forgotten it. On the back of your sheet, I wrote all our addresses; just for fun."

"I think I wrote you that I was accepted into the Daughters of the (Auer) Revolution, and want to thank you again for all the trouble you took to aid me. That was very kind of you and I appreciate it very much. I hope that you and your sister have been well this winter. With very best wishes to you for the coming year, Sincerely, Helen F. Wilson."

(Post Card of 2/18/1951): "Dear Mr. McCalla: Here are the dates missing on the paper I sent you: Elizabeth Wilson Peters married Aug 12, 1931. James Bernard Bent, Jr, born Feb 23, 1950, (he is son of Janet Wilson Floom - Day A-111-164-1). I did not make my two addresses clear. Grosse Pointe is a separate city from Detroit. I have my business mail sent to Box 2043, Detroit (31), Michigan, and that address is in no way connected with my home address, which is 1034 Bedford Road, Grosse Pointe (30), Michigan. Either address can be used. Thank you for your card, which I received today. Sincerely Helen F. Wilson."

ATTN: MRS MRS HELEN PETERS WILSON

(Letter of 4/12/1951): "Dear Mr. McCalla: The fact that I have not written you before and thanked you for your letter and the copies of the Genealogy, does not mean that I do not appreciate the great amount of work you did to make it possible for me to have that information in such concise form for my records. I know my sisters will be delighted to have the copies. I know how much work it is to make copies and to get all that information written out in the way you assembled it. I thought, too, that I should have been able by this time to get the additional information to fill out the blanks. It has been just one thing after another with us and I could not get to writing. Among other things, the Internal Revenue (Dept) investigated back taxes, and it was a terrific task hunting up all the necessary data to verify items. I wish the Internal Revenue (Dept) would leave us alone. Once your name gets on their lists, they are constantly after one. Mr. Wilson's (her husband) bronchitis is better but hardening of the arteries is causing him quite a bit of trouble in his feet. However, he is some better with treatment involving much exercise, bathing of his feet and changing socks twice a day. Thank you and your sister for your interest in his health. He looks very healthy. Guess that is just one of the vicissitudes of old age."

I hesitated to mention the following, but since you have referred to the records of my Aunt Genevieve Wags, (Dav A-111-13), several times, I want to say that I do not think that the records are lost. Someone has them, but who, I do not know. Her daughter, Genevieve Dodd, (A-111-132), says every time I ask about anything, that her mother, (A-111-13) destroyed everything. I know that she destroyed nothing. . . . . Aunt Gen, (A-111-13) had 2 children only. You have the correct information about Wilson, (A-111-131). Genevieve (A-111-132) lives in her mother's house, 2326 N.W. Flanders Street, Portland (10), Oregon. 2326 is across the street from the home they lived in when they were children. The latter was torn down a number of years ago. Genevieve (A-111-132) has two children; Joseph Dodd and Wilson Dodd. I do not know their middle names. I have written Genevieve for additional information about them, but am not sure that it will be forthcoming. She does not speak to her children. . . . . It is very difficult for me to believe that Genevieve Dodd, (A-111-132) destroyed those records because she is intensely interested in old photographs and family records and constantly writes me for them. They could be elsewhere, too. Thank you for telling me about the broadcasts, (See Page A-372-003-about) (the "pindletop" "il" "ell", and I wish I had known in advance about them. I seldom listen to the radio except to news broadcasts, because I work at my desk evenings. Also, thank you for calling my attention to (Mrs Ellet's) "Women of the American Revolution", which I shall look forward to obtaining from the library. The latter is off the beaten path for me or I should have obtained it before. It is about twenty minutes from downtown in a different direction from Grosse-Pointe."

Perhaps you would be interested in my being able, with much persuasion, to secure from a cousin on my father's side of the family, a book entitled: "Genealogy--Palmer--Trimble. A Genealogical Record of the descendants of John & Mary Palmer, of Concord, Chester, (now Delaware) County, Penna., by Lewis Palmer and illustrated with views, portraits and autographs. Printed in 1875. It is an extremely interesting book. The portraits are especially interesting. The Duchess of Windsor belongs in this line. She is descended from my Great-Grandfather's third wife, G.G. George Peters. (See Data Page A-111-16). Thank you again very much again for sending me those fine records. That was very thoughtful and kind of you. Soon I will send information to fill in the rest of the blanks. The following is information about Edwin's, (A-111-163) adopted children, which I did not have until recently:

-Edwin Binney, Jr, (3rd) (A-111-161-1) married, Alicia Langford (no middle name). They live at 65 Sokeby Road, Waban, (831, Mass. Alicia's birthday is Feb. 27, 1921. They have 2 children: Gail Schoe Binney, born 9/14/1942; and Geoffrey (A-111-161-1-1) (4/23/1951).

Gage Binney, born 4/25/1945. No one in the family lives in Old Greenwich, Conn), now. My sister sold her home several years ago.

I send you and your sister my kindest regards, Sincerely yours, HELEN P. WILSON. (Daviison A-111-161).

LETTERS FROM AND ABOUT FATHER DAVIDSON:

(Letter of 5/19/1951): "Dear Mr. McCalla: Thank you so very much for the genealogy you sent me recently. I have the information you wanted for my Grandfather, Joseph Gardner Wilson, and Elizabeth Miller, (Davidson A-111-1). But I am going to have the sheet you asked me to fill in until I have tried to fill in some of the missing material. I have just written my Cousin, Lucy Taylor, (Dav A-111-154), for any information she has about her mother, Mary Grace Gardner Wilson, (A-111-15), and her family. I hope she will answer. Some people do not. She is Genevieve Gardner Wilson's, (A-111-13) daughter, Genevieve, (A-111-13) who lives at 3526 N. W. Flinders St., Portland 10, Oregon. She intends to give out no information. I found a book called Colonial and Revolutionary Images of America, edited by the American Historical Company, Inc, New York (1940), which has something about the Mays family. I am not too sure about the correctness of the data because there were some typographical errors in the information on my own family. I am going to copy this on the Elizabeth Miller, (A-111-1) sheet you sent me to fill out for you.

That "Gardner" in both Aunt Grace Taylor, (A-111-15) and Aunt Genevieve Mays (A-111-13) names seems odd. My Grandfather, Joseph Gardner Wilson, (A-111-1), arrived in Marietta, Ohio, on July 1st to pronounce the Oration before the Associated Alumni of Marietta College at Commencement, 1873. Hon. Joseph Gardner Wilson, D.D., Representative in Congress of the United States from Oregon, and recently a Judge of the Supreme Court of that State, one of the ablest and most distinguished of our alumni. I have a book on the Addresses on the death of Hon. Joseph G. Wilson, printed by order of the Alumni of Marietta College. Revisen W. Myers, Columbus, Ohio, 1873. It contains some facts about his life. There is an error in your records. He was not on his way to Washington, DC, but arrived in Marietta from Washington, DC, where he has resided since his election to Congress last Fall (1872). He came to deliver the Oration, before the Alumni of Marietta College, and was the guest of Mr. Tams. At 11 o'clock PM, on July 1, 1873, he was stricken down by paralysis, and at 1.20 AM on July 2, (1873) he died.

I am much interested in the information you sent me about General MacArthur (See McCalla Genealogy - Other McCallas Section - Family B - Page B-751-1). I am a great admirer of Gen. MacArthur, but fear that he is not going to win out. Congress always investigates and investigates, and then gives in to that weak and corrupt human. Isn't that Mayor Sawyer of New York a disgrace? Human sent him safely out of the country when he knew things were going to be too hot for him in the USA. Thank you again, Mr. McCalla, for all the information you have sent me, and for which I am very grateful to you. With kindest regards to you and your sister, sincerely, Helen E. Wilson. (Dav A-111-161).

(Letter of 7/6/1951): "Dear Mr. McCalla: Thank you for the data sent last week. I sent one sheet to Lucy Mays Taylor, (Dav A-111-154), daughter of Mary Grace Gardner Wilson, (A-111-15), to fill in. I think she has some dates for Mrs. Mays, (A-111-15) children. Also I thought I would send you these corrected sheets, (A-111-1 and Data Page A-111-16), which you sent me 4/30/1951. I was so interested in all you wrote about General MacArthur, a wonderful American. Joseph Trimble Peters, (A-111-16) was not in the real estate business. Father was in the hardware and lumber business in the Valley, Oregon. About 1910 he retired and moved to Portland. He owned considerable real estate, but was never in that business. The family homes were in the Valley, and on Millbrook Street, Portland, Ore. Mother and Father lived in an apartment at 2141 N. Davis Street, where they both died. I wonder how you do so much work. I am sure you put me to shame. I struggle with high blood pressure, but I will eventually get together the material you requested in your letter of June 28. With kindest regards to you and your sister. In haste, Helen Peters Wilson.

(Post Card - 9/5/1951): "Dear Mr. McCalla: I don't know what you think of me for not writing and thanking you for the Genealogy you sent me earlier. I do appreciate it, and have information you wanted from our Taylor, (Dav A-111-

(See Other Side).

-18) relatives, and will get it to you just as soon as I can. The truth is I have too much to do for my age, and can't get to the things I want to do, more than the things I do. With kind regards to you and your sister, Helen P. Wilson.

(Letter of 10/30/1951 enclosing corrected sheets): "Dear Mr. McCalla: It is now past my bed time, but I am going to get this stuff to you today if it kills me. I have at last got the pages filled out for you to the best of Lucy Taylor's, (Day A-111-151), and my ability. I can get the last name of the Betty whom Joseph Dodd, (A-111-152-1) married, from my sister in Portland. And I will send another page to their mother, Genevieve Dodd-A-111-152 to fill out - just in case she might have changed her mind about giving out information. There are no middle names given, or any blanks, it is because I do not know the information. A number do not have middle names."

After writing all that on the back of Davison A-111-16, I realized that you were leaving the "Adopted" children, (A-111-163) out on purpose. I am correct, am I not? (Enclosure Data: These adopted children have been listed right along on page A-111-163. I overlooked that page). I have been ashamed about not attending to this sooner; but I just could not get to it. I wish we could get the old days back, when it was possible to get help. I am afraid of the "Detroit" negroes. Thank you very much for the new pages for the Davison section. No one lost those pages of family records. Just keeping them from the others. With very best wishes to you and your sister, Helen Patricia Wilson.

(Post Card - 11/14/1951): "Dear Mr. McCalla: My nephew, Edwin Finney, (A-111-163-1) is very eager to have Buchanan family information. He has the page you sent me listing Jane Buchanan, (Buchanan 5). He hasn't the names of her family nor her grandparents. I sent him a copy of the pages you sent me and he was much interested in them. Do you remember ever experiencing such cold weather as there was in early November? I hope you and your sister are keeping well. Thank you again, Mr. McCalla, for all the information you took so much trouble to send me. If you have time, will you send us the Buchanan Data? Sincerely, Helen P. Wilson."

LETTERS FROM Mrs Helen Peters Wilson:

(Letter of 12/3/1951): Dear Mr McCalla: Thank you so very much for the data you sent me recently. I was certainly taken aback when I saw one of your big envelopes in the mail, because I had no idea you would be able to turn out that amount of work so rapidly. I am very grateful to you for supplying me with the information written up in your fine manner. My nephew, Edwin Binney, 3rd (Dav A-111-163-1), is now much interested. I decided to send him one of the copies. I wrote him you promised to send the Buchanan information when you had time. From some information he sent me, I suddenly got the idea that he has the records belonging to my Aunt Gen, (Dav A-111-13). Mother could have taken them when my Aunt Gen was moved to the Dalles. Mother said that she paid $200 to help Aunt Gen get some information and she may have taken the records. I know they were not taken to the cottage in the Dalles because Aunt Gen had lost her mind by that time, and Mother told me what was sent to the Dalles. Mother sent her a few of her possessions to the Dalles before Genevieve Dodd, (A-111-132) found out what was going on and put a padlock on Aunt Gen's Portland house, where she now lives).

I am sending a card to Betty Dodd and asking for the dates in regard to herself. Betty married Joseph Dodd, (A-111-132-1). She may answer. I want to say above, if you have any questions as to Aunt Genevieve's material, I'll write Edwin Binney, 3rd, (A-111-163-1), just in case he may have the records. I have sent him a copy of what you wrote about consulting "Women of the American Revolution."

I enjoyed the amusing observation on Harry Truman. Really, if names had been drawn from a hat, it would not have been possible to draw the name of a person with less knowledge of economics and business than he has. Since starting this letter the postman came and left a big envelope from you. Thank you very, very much for the four sets of the Buchanan Section, of the Hamilton and McCalla Genealogies. It was certainly good of you to do all that work, and I want to repeat that I am very grateful to you, and I know those for whom I am saving the records will be also.

I am sorry to read that you have been ill with an upset stomach. Mr Wilson, (her husband), had the same trouble last week. I do not think that he has cut down enough on sweets and fats to fit his age, though sometimes I wonder if it could be heart trouble. Doctors won't give patients enough information, I think. During the past warm spell, pansies have started blooming in our garden. The weather has been very trying this year.

Thank you so very much again for the two recent records. I know Edwin (Binney, 3rd) will be delighted to have them. I hope that you have fully recovered by this time. Do eat with care. I have to eat on a very strict diet, and have completely lost interest in food. Please remember me to your sister, and Mr Wilson joins me in sending you both our best wishes. Sincerely, Helen P. Wilson.

(Sent Mail of 12/17/1951): Dear Mr McCalla: I am forwarding you postal card which Betty Dodd, (Dav A-111-132-1) filled out for me, much to my surprise. I wrote her the authority you had in Genealogy, and about your books and records. Perhaps that brought the answer. I did not remember that you did not have the other data in regard to Joseph Dodd's, (A-111-132-1) birthday, and Wilson says Dodd, (A-111-132-2), when I wrote her. I'll try again after I get caught up after Christmas, to get the missing information on that page. With very best holiday wishes to you and your sister, Helen P. Wilson.

LETTERS FROM MRS HELEN PETERS WILSON

(Letter of 2/23/1953): "Dear Mr McColla: I am sorry to hear that you had been bothered by the miserable Flu bug making the rains this warm Winter. But I hope that you have fully recovered by this time. I think a cold Winter is the best for everyone in spite of the discomfort it brings.

Do you have anyone in a line that I belong to who was a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co. of Boston? I have been asked to join this Society, but fear I do not have the Ancestor. Our William Wilson was in Boston in the early days, but his name is not on the membership list. I thought possibly you might have earlier information than you sent me. I have also been asked to join the National Society of the Colonial Dames of the XVII(17th) Century. William Wilson belongs to the XVII(17th) Century of North America, but I have no record of any service. At one time he was a Jailor, which sounds pretty awful; but must have been a more highly regarded profession in Colonial times, because he owned considerable property. He was a friend of Rev. John Wilson, who is on the list of the Ancient and Honorables, but Rev. Wilson must be another line. Please give my kindest regards to your sister. Sincerely, Helen P. Wilson."

-- (Letter of 3/4/1953): "Dear Mr McColla: I feel bad that I have delayed answering your letter and acknowledging the Genealogy additions and corrections. It is very kind of you to send these to me.

And thank you for the trouble you took to write me about the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co of Boston. I finally gave up on that after looking up a number of lines. Their records are very incomplete, so we may have had Ancestors in the AHA (Ancient & Honorable Artillery Co), because there are three well looked up Ancestors in Boston and vicinity at that time. I don't think I would get too far looking up the Daniel Davison line (See front of Davison Section) in Detroit. Perhaps I shall have an opportunity if I go to Washington sometime. There was no Davison or Davisson in the AHA list. The Rev. Wilson's name is on that list, but I have a letter written by Aunt Genevieve, (Dav A-111-15) saying that Rev. Wilson was a good friend of our Wilson Ancestor, but that they were not related.

Since writing you, I have joined the Colonial Dames of the XVII(17th) Century, on Ancestor Richard Kemball. Have been invited to join the Daughters of 1812. Don't think I shall have any trouble with that after locating Mother's number and Ancestor for 1312. In case I may have missed telling you of the names of all Organizations I belong to, I'll list them again:

- (1) (Joined 10/27/1950) Louise St Clair Chapter, (National Chapter No. 30-Michigan Chapter #1), of the Daughters of the American Revolution, of Detroit, Mich, in right of her descent from James M. Todd, 4th (Todd #15), her own National No. being 305-702, and her own Chapter No. being 443.
- (2) (Joined --/---/---). D.A.C. --- Chapter, of the Daughters of American Colonists, of Detroit, Mich, in right of her descent from Mr (National No. --- State No. ---).
- (3) (Joined --/---/---). U.D.C. --- Chapter, of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Detroit, Mich, in right of her descent from her Grandfather, Mr George Peters, of Baltimore, Maryland, (National No. --- State No. ---).
- (4) (Joined --/---/---). --- Chapter, of the Colonial Dames of the XVII(17th) Century, of Detroit, Mich, in right of her descent from Mr Richard Kemball, (National No. --- State No. ---).
- (5) (Joined --/---/---). --- Chapter, United States Daughters of 1812, of Detroit, Mich, in right of her descent from Mr (National No. --- State No. ---).

I feel bad that you have had such a bad overment Control. I don't recall hearing about Controls, except that rents were decontrolled except in critical areas. I hope Chicago came under that for your sake. Why can't those Negroes stay in the South, where they belong? No doubt the Southerners are glad to be rid of them. Willard (her husband) went to Norfolk, Va, to his Niece's wedding in April. He said Norfolk was so changed, and that he saw very few Negroes. I said I guess they had all moved to Chicago and Detroit. We are looking forward to having our Daughter (D.V. A-111-101-1) here next month. The time they signed up for at Mills College, (Oakland, Cal.) has ended, and they are looking forward to returning to Harvard College, to work for their Degrees. They are very happy to be leaving Mills. The work there was over-work, to state the matter simply.

Thank you again, very, very much for working out the papers for me. I know my Nephew (Edwin Binney-D.V. A-111-103-1), will be happy to receive his copy. It seems ridiculous that the Kelly-Grover pages, (D.V. A-111-3 & 4), have to be so empty. My Mother could have furnished all that information. I have some beautiful Canton China, (Rose pattern) which Mary Buchanan Miller Kelly, (D.V. A-111-5) collected, and which Janet Grover, (D.V. A-111-41) left to Mother when she died in Andover, Mass., in the 1940's, prior to 1947, when, I think, Mother received 4 barrels of China. I also have Great-Grandfather's beautiful Dining Room Chippendale 2 chairs, left by Janet Grover to my sister Elizabeth Peters Binney, (D.V. A-111-103). Sincerely and best wishes to you, Paul, and to your Sister, Malen Peters Wilson."

TO CHAMPOEG. Veterans of River State Reunion. Two hundred early risers revived the spirit of pioneer steamboating Sunday, and journeyed up the Willamette River aboard the aging sternwheeler "Claire" to Champoeg, for the 25th reunion of the Veteran Steamboatmen's Association. Few of the old-time river men were on hand, but about 800 persons who travelled by automobile to Champoeg State Park welcomed the "Claire" as, with whistle tooting, she was snubbed to trees at the historic natural landing. Celebration of the 100th anniversary for river steamboating on the Willamette and Columbia furnished a rich theme for speakers, led by Marshall W. Dana, chief editorialist for the Oregon Journal, and Dr D. J. Ferguson, Astoria Minister.

Farewell Blasts Sound: Solemnity marked reading of the long list of river veterans who had died during the year, and the "Claire's" three farewell blasts caught at the throats of the crowd. As in years past, aging but priceless photographs stood on easels outside the pavilion. Judge Fred W.
Wilson, the Dalles Octogenarian, answered many a query from his decades of river lore. The "Claire" left her Western Transportation Co. moorings at 7AM in command of Leonard Thompson, WTCO operation manager. Because of high water, she made a leisurely voyage, taking an hour longer than in past trips.
She docked at 1 PM, and was back at her berth at 8 PM. The Champoeg Cabin, memorial to pioneer Mothers, was built by the Oregon Society of D.A.R. in 1931. Since then, a number of very old gifts pertaining to the early history of Oregon have been made. The Cabin is located in Champoeg State Park, about 30 miles Southwest of Portland. Champoeg holds an important place in Oregon and National history, for it was here in May 2, 1843, the entire community of Oregon males was present to decide if the Oregon country was to belong to the British, or to the United States. The deciding vote by actual count showed 52 for and 50 against. The Cabin is open to the public, with a small charge made, every Sunday afternoon from the first Sunday in May until the Sunday after Labor Day. The various D.A.R. Chapters throughout the State act as

DEATH of JUDGE WILSON:

(This Obituary was written By Mr Maguire, a Portland, Ore, Attorney, (and a close friend of Judge F. W. Wilson.

"FRED W. WILSON: Born September 10, 1872, at College Hill, Ohio. Died October 13, 1955, (in Hospital, Portland, Ore). Graduated in 1890 from Whitman Seminary, now Whitman College, (Walla Walla, Washington), and graduated in 1892 from Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland. Appoin-ed in 1917 by Governor Withycombe to fill the vacancy caused by Judge W. L.
Bradshaw's death, he retired in 1949. He is survived by his Widow, Content Elton Wilson, by his son, Joseph G. Wilson of San Rafael, California, his daughter Elizabeth (Mrs John Buehler) of Portland, and four Grandchildren."

"The death (10/18/1955) of Fred W. Wilson of The Dalles, who for over 32 years was Circuit Judge for Wasco and Hood River Counties, and Historian and Writer, marks the passing of a well loved and colorful figure in Oregon history. His Father, Joseph G. Wilson, (Dav A-111-1) immigrated in 1852 to the then raw territory of Oregon, by way of the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, and was one of the first Circuit Judges of old Wasco County, which then extended from the Rocky Mountains to the crest of the Cascades. In 1872 he was elected to Congress, but died suddenly enroute to Washington, and Fred was born at College Hill, Ohio, in the course of that trip.

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

(2/14/1956).

As a boy and young man he became the friend and confessor of the Indian tribes who gathered at Celilo Falls to spear fish for their traditional fishing season. He spoke their dialect, learned their history and traditions, and throughout his life maintained a lively interest in them and their affairs. He attended Whitman Seminary, now Whitman College, and finished his education at Johns Hopkins University in 1893, and was a member of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity, of which his Father, when a student at Miami University in Ohio, became a member in 1841.

The young Wilson, before practicing Law, worked as Purser on the Columbia River steamboats plying between Portland and The Dalles, an experience of which he was very proud, and tales of which he loved to relate to his friends. One of his delightful hobbies was to collect the old mirrors and furniture from these boats as the railroads and highways forced them off the river, and he embodied many of his experiences in his book "The Lure of the River." No living man had so intimate and complete a knowledge of the history of the mid-Columbia country.

He began the practice of Law and served as District Attorney from 1908 to 1913 and was appointed Judge of the Seventh Judicial District in 1917, and until his retirement in 1949, was recognized as one of the most able trial Judges in the Northwest.

Fred Wilson was not only an able Lawyer and an outstanding Jurist, but he possessed the gift of overflowing friendship and kindness for all men, which endeared him to all who knew him, which was in part evidenced by the fact that during his long Judicial career no candidate offered himself in opposition to his re-election. The warmth of his nature and his ever present courtesy and consideration toward everyone will be missed not only by the thousands who knew him, but his death creates another unfillable gap between the Oregon of today and the primitive Oregon of his youth, and the people of the State which he so well loved will long remember and always miss him."

(Editorial - from an Oregon Newspaper, in October , 1955):

"JUDGE FRED WILSON: When Judge Fred W. Wilson retired from the Bench of the Circuit Court for Wasco and Hood River Counties, he had served 32 years. Few other men have given the State such sustained, uninterrupted service. He had gained a reputation as one of the State's most able trial Judges.

But it was not as a Jurist that Judge Wilson gained his greatest celebrity. As a boy he became a friend to members of the Indian tribes at Celilo. He spoke their dialect, studied their history and traditions and served them throughout his life as Counsellor and Confessor. He was an earnest and apt student, too, of all other history of the mid-Columbia region in which he spent his long, fruitful life. It was said that no other had so intimate and complete a knowledge of the history of the region as did Judge Wilson.

Judge Wilson's many interests earned for him a wide circle of friends. He devoted his life to his beloved mid-Columbia area, but he was well-known in all corners of the Northwest. Many, many Oregonians feel the loss of a close personal friend in his death this week at 83."

Davidson on Judge Frederick Wallace Wilson - Content Being Natural

(Letters to The Compiler - from Judge Frederick Wallace Wilson, (Content-Being) (Elton) (Davidson A-111-18), 1012 Lewis St, The Dalles, Oregon. (Letter of 2/19/1949): "Fred W. Wilson, Circuit Judge (in Retirement), Circuit Court, 7th Judicial District, The Dalles, Oregon. February 19th, 1949. 1012-Lewis St, The Dalles, Oregon. Dear Friend: It gave me great pleasure to receive your interesting letter, and it has already passed the second and third reading. I am familiar with most of what you wrote because in 1891, when Mother and I were on a trip East and stopped in Chicago to visit your Grandmother, Marianne Davisson McCalla-Davisson 113 & A-361 and Aunt Eliza Hamill, (A-262), I was taken sick with some sort of a fever and we were at their house for a week or ten days, and it was a most enjoyable visit. We saw a great deal of your father, (A-361-3) and Cousin Elia McCalla, (A-361-4), and while we were there the different members of the Hamill family called to see us and I very well remember Charles (Davidson Hamill A-262-1) and Ernest (Alfred Hamill A-262-5), and another brother whose first name I am not sure of, but I think it was Theodore, (he means Theophilus "Tlie" Hamill A-262-3-called "The") When I got better and was able to get out, Cousin Elia (McCalla A-361-4) drew me a map of how to get out to the Baseball Club grounds, where the Chicago club was playing. We had a most delightful visit at the McCalla-Hamill home, and I have most pleasant memories of all the relatives we met there. My Mother kept up a correspondence with your Grandmother, (Marianne Davisson McCalla-A-361), and Aunt Eliza (Davidson Hamill A-262) all her life.

My sister, Mrs Peters (Davidson 111-16) is not at all well, but I hope that she has been able to get in touch with Mrs Caven, (A-125-113). I will certainly try to see Mrs Caven the next time I am in Portland. On November 1st (1948) last I retired as Circuit Judge of Wasco and Good River Counties after more than thirty-one years on the bench and am supposed to be taking things a little easier. We have 2 children - both grown. One son, Joseph Gardner Wilson, (Davidson A-111-181) is in the Legal Department of the Atomic Commission at Richland, Washington, and our daughter, Elizabeth Elton-Wilson-Achler, (Day A-111-182) is the wife of Professor John A. Achler of the California State College, in Fresno, California. A little son has been born to each of their families. I am very fortunate in having such a fine wife as I have had all these years. The above is about all the family data that I would know how to send you. Your letter gave me real pleasure, and I hope you will write me again whenever you feel like doing so, and more than that, we hope that we might have the pleasure of a visit from you in the not too distant future. Mrs Wilson joins me in kindest regards and good wishes for your sister and yourself. Sincerely, FRED W. WILSON, (Davidson A-111-18), 1012 Lewis Street, The Dalles, Oregon.

(Letter of 7/15/1950): "Dear Paul McCalla: It is very pleasant to read your kind and interesting letter which has just come, and I want to thank you for writing me as you did. The very next time Mrs Wilson and I are in Portland, (Ore), we will surely call on Mrs Caven, (A-125-113), and I am sure the visit will be an interesting one. It was in 1891 that my Mother and I visited Aunt Eliza Hamill, (A-272) and Aunt Mary McCalla-Marianne Davisson McCalla-Davisson A-113 & A-361 and I had some sort of sick spell there for a week or so, and was mighty well taken care of. I do not remember the name of the Doctor, but remember the address, 132 25th St. You speak of them living in adjoining homes, but as I remember it, they seemed to be all living in the same house - that is Aunt Eliza, (A-272), Aunt Mary 113 & A-361 and Cousin Elia McCalla (A-361-4), for they all seemed to be together. They all were splendid relatives to have. After I got well I wanted to go to a baseball game, and Cousin Elia drew me an outline map showing what street car to take and how to get there, and it was all so clear that I had no trouble.

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

As I view it, you and I are Second Cousins - your Father, Albert McCallin, (M-361-3), the son of Mary (ma) Wilson, (Day 113 & 1-361) and my Mother, Elizabeth Miller, (Day 111-1), the daughter of Amanda Davisson, (Day 111), and first Cousin, as also were Charles (1-361-1), Ernest (1-361-3) and Theo Hamill, (H-262-3). Would not that make us of the next generation Second Cousins?

I remember your Father (Albert McCallin-1-361-3) very well and also the three Hamill men just mentioned. They called frequently at Aunt Eliza's while we were there, as did your Mother. You speak of your Sister and yourself of being the last of your generation. Did the Hamill sons leave descendants, and if so, are they still in Chicago? I know nothing of James P. Miller's (Day 111) family before him, and do not even know what part of Pennsylvania he came from. We have a handsome parlor table which was his and was shipped around the Cape Horn to Oregon in 1851. I have never seen the Davisson Genealogy. The copy which you sent to my sister Genevieve, (Day 111-13) must be with her descendants somewhere. Perhaps Mrs. Gaven, (11-124-115) Asst. Editor of (the Hamill Genealogy) who lives in Portland, Ore. can give me the information I would like to have.

Regarding the Steamboat article (See Data Page Day 111-13) which Mrs. Gaven sent. When I had finished school, I was purser for a short while on the Steamboats Regulator and Dalles City, running from The Dalles to Portland, and I always enjoy attending the yearly reunions of the "Livernon".

Our family is the same as when I last wrote. Mrs. Wilson and I live in the old home. Our son, Joseph Gardner (Wilson-Day 111-131) has two children - a son, Paul Frederick Wilson, born May 15, 1947. He married Betty Lovelace. Our daughter, Elizabeth Elton, (Day 111-132), married Professor John A. Buchler, of the State College in Fresno, California. She has 1 son, Frederick Bryant Buchler, born December 20, 1949. Joseph Wilson also has one daughter, Sara Elizabeth, born May 12, 1949. Joseph is now in the Legal Department of F.B.I. in San Francisco. Both Mrs. Wilson and I enjoy your letters and are earnestly hoping that you will write again. Please give our kindest regards to your sister and keep a large share for yourself. Cordially yours, FRED WILSON.

(Letter of 8/24/1950): "Dear Cousin: - It was very enjoyable to receive your good letter with all its valuable and interesting enclosures. Though we regretted very much to hear of your sister Helen, (Day A-113-31 & H-123-61) being unwell, and earnestly hope that by this time she has fully recovered. The hot weather makes us all feel below par and we trust that her trouble can be directly traced to the heat. Both Mrs Wilson and I have carefully gone over all the genealogical data which you sent with great interest, and we are very glad to have it. She has filled out the blank, (See Page Day A-111-18), which you sent, and it is enclosed in this. There was some information which we do not have, such as the birthplace of Joe's, (Day A-111-181) wife and Elizabeth's (A-111-182) husband, but these will be supplied and sent to you later.

We have not had an opportunity of being in Portland since I last wrote, so have not had a chance to see Mrs Caven, (H-124-113) as yet, but we will surely do it the first time we are in Portland, and are carefully keeping her address. We were very much interested in what you wrote of the families of those two loveable old ladies for whom we took such a great liking, your (Grand)-Mother (Day A-113 & H-361) and Eliza Anill (Day A-112 & H-262). I remember your father, (Day A-113-3 & H-361-3) and the Anill men very well. They all came to see us and though I was quite sick for a part of the time, I had opportunity of seeing them afterward. I do not remember the name of the Doctor who attended me, but he was the family Doctor, and Aunt Eliza (A-112) sent for him. I remember "Old Charlie's" (Day A-112-1) residence on Prairie Avenue, but do not remember Ernest's (A-112-5) home. Undoubtedly I met their children, but do not seem to have any recollection of them. I remember it was mentioned that either then or previously, Charles (A-112-1) was or had been President of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce; and that Ernest, (A-112-5) was in the Corn Exchange Bank.

We are very glad to get the material about James P. Miller, (Day A-111). Mrs Wilson leaves tomorrow to see our daughter, Elizabeth, in Fresno, Cal, and our son, Joe, in San Francisco. She will be gone about 2 weeks and I will have to look out for myself, which will not be nearly so well done as if she were here. Thank you sincerely for what you have sent us and we hope that you will find time to write us again. With all best wishes for your sister and yourself, sincerely and cordially, PAUL W. WILSON."

the service of the poor, although he had a large and very successful practice among the prominent families of Chicago. He was a Trustee of Rush Medical College, which had been founded by his brother-in-law, Dr. Alfred Williston Davisson, MD. (Dav 114) (assisted by Dr. Benjamin). Rush Medical had always been in association with the Presbyterian Hospital, later with the University of Chicago, and now with the Medical School of the State of Illinois.

Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD, was one of the Founders of Soldier's Rest, after the Civil War, and was its President for 18 years. He was also one of the Founders of the Home for Incurables. He was also a brother-in-law of Clarendon Davisson (Dav 115) the Newspaper Editor and US Consul to Bordeaux, France. Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD, lived a life of great usefulness and kindly helpfulness in the founding days of Chicago, when its course was being shaped among the mighty cities of the earth.

Eliza Jane Davisson Hamill had a record of religious and charitable work as notable as her husband's, and both, during the Civil War, gave unstintingly of their strength, time, money and patriotism, leaving a rich inheritance of memories to their children. Ananda Davisson Miller (Dav 111) wrote Marianne Davisson McCalla (Dav 113 & M-361) that Eliza Jane Davisson Hamill (Dav 112 & M-262) "had been named for her Grandmother, Elizabeth Williams, who married John Davisson (Dav 1)." }

Thomas McCalla, (Called "Honest Tom"), was born at "Hazelwood Plantation" near Chester, SC, and when his father and family moved North in 1836, it is said that he remained behind to finish his education, and came on North to Bloomington, Ind, to join the others. In Bloomington, he was a partner with his brother, John McCalla (M-362) in "McCalla Brothers" General Store. He sold his interest to John, and moved with his wife and children to Chicago Ill, on May 3-18, 1851. In Chicago, Thomas McCalla Founded the "Bank of Commerce" (Davissan, McCalla & Co), in partnership with his brother-in-law, Dr. Alfred Williston Davissan, MD, (Dav 114), who was a silent partner. Thom as was very highly respected and became one of the moving spirits of the early days of Chicago. He was fiscal agent for the West for many important investors of the East, among them the Drexels of Phila, etc. He gave George M. Pullman his start, and would have owned a 1/3 interest in The Pullman Co, except for his sudden death. He remained a United Presbyterian (altho his wife, Marianna, was a Presbyterian), and he built the first UP Church built in Chicago, and gave it to the Congregation, and paid its running ex penses, and brought a Minister from Edinburgh, and paid his salary.

Thomas McCalla was a large Real Estate Owner, like Dr. A. W. Davissan (Dav 114) and built the first 4-story, and the first 5-story bldg in Chicago.
Many of his properties were sold to the McCormick family after his death.
He advocated raising the streets out of the mud, and this was voted just after he had built several buildings. Thus he was forced to raise the bldgs. 1 story higher. Young Mr Pullman was given this contract, which gave him his start, his 2nd contract being to raise the Tremont House,

Thomas McCalla, knowing that his own children would be well educated, left a fund of $14,000. to educate his Grandchildren. This was lost when his property had to be sold after his death, in the Panic of 1857. This Real Estate of his, could it have been financed and carried thru the troubled times after his death, would have been worth, in 1920, about $22,500,000. but all Chicago Real Estate has shrunk greatly in value since that date - even good "Loop" property.

Thomas McCalla died in the old home at "99 Washington St" where the Chicago Title & Trust Co. office building now stands. Next door to it was the Methodist Church, now the towering Methodist Temple. Diagonally across the street, at Washington & Clark, is the City Hall and County Bldg. Across Washington St. to the North, on the corner, was his first 5-story building, which the McCormicks, who bought it from the Estate, rebuilt and called "The Reaper Block" - still standing as a 7-story building. Just North of this corner building, on the East side of Clark St and across from the City Hall, was a row of 2-story store-and-office buildings, owned by Dr. Alfred W. Davisson, (Dav 114). Here he had his Doctor's Office, and resided. And here he founded the famous Rush Medical College.

Thomas McCalla was noted for his honesty and integrity, and was known everywhere as "Honest Tom."

Mary Ella McCalla was an unusually noble and self-sacrificing character. She was connected with the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions of Chicago ("Room 48") nearly all her life. She was a member of the 1st Presbyterian Church of Chicago, as was her Mother, Marianne Davisson McCalla, after the death of her husband.

Dr Alfred Williston Davisson, Sr., MD, is known to have come to Chicago in 1837, (at 22 years old) - and some say he made a trip to Chicago also in 1832 (when he was only 17 years old). He became a prominent Physician of Chicago, and in early life he also held the position of Cook County Physician, (or Coroners (SEE OTHER SIDE). (6/20/1956)

He Founded(1844), assisted by Dr Brainard, MD, the famous Rush Medical College of Chicago, which for many years was affiliated with the Presbyterian Hospital, and which became one of the most famous Post Graduate Medical Schools in America. In 1951 it is affiliated with the University of Illinois Medical School, of Chicago.

Dr Davisson owned much Chicago Real Estate, and was a silent partner, with his brother-in-law, Thomas ("Honest Tom") McCalla, (M-361 & Dav A-113), in the Bank of Commerce, and also in the Bank's Real Estate owning affiliate, "Davisson, McCalla & Co.". Dr Davisson's other brother-in-law was Dr Robert C. Hamill, MD, (M-232 & Dav A-112), who Founded(1884) The Presbyterian Hospital of Chicago

Later, Dr Davisson retired, and spent considerable time in the East, particularly in Courtland, NY, Poughkeepsie and New York City, NY. Finally, with his brother, Clarendon Davisson, (Dav A-115), he purchased Broughton Island, Georgia, (near Darien, Ga), from the heirs of Lord Broughton, principally from Henry Laurens. He and his Wife and Clarendon and his Wife, lived there in the Winter months.

Dr-Mrs Alfred W. Davisson, Sr, MD, lived, in later years, at 2421 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Ill - with a Winter home at Broughton Island, Georgia, (near Darien, Ga).

Julia McClurg, 1st wife of Dr. A. W. Davissan, Sr., MD, was the daughter of General James McClurg, of Westfield, New York. She was a sister of A. C. McClurg, the pioneer Publisher and Bookseller of Chicago, who founded the well-known firm of A. C. McClurg & Co, Booksellers, Stationers & Publishers.

Jennie Annis, 2nd Wife of Dr. A. W. Davissan, Sr., came from Clarendon, NY, and was widely and lovingly known as "Aunt Jennie". She graduated from the first class at Emma Willard School, Troy, NY, and died at the home of her son, Dr. A. W. Davissan, Jr., in Corpus Christi, Texas. She was only 20 when she became the wife of a man 42 years old, and so she lived way down into modern times, a sprightly, peppy, quick-witted, kindly little lady, bringing fascinating tales of the roaring 30's, 40's and later. Tales of when the mighty city of Chicago was being forged in the crucible of time by business giants, who as famed "go-getters," made Chicago's symbol, "I Will."

About as "big as a minute-and-a-quarter" she had the mind of a successful business man - and had she been born a man, she too would have been a famed "go-getter." She had the deepest respect for her husband's banking partner, "Honest Tom" McCalla, (Dav 113 & M-361), and liked him and never ceased to mourn that he had died so young, and just at the threshold of becoming one of the great and immensely powerful figures of Chicago, and a half-owner of The Pullman Co. She had a liking for business matters, and the tales she spun of the beginnings of big business empires, and famous institutions, when great figures worked with their sleeves rolled up - and got results.

Dr. Alfred Williston Davissan, Sr., MD, was a practicing Physician. His Father, Dr. Andrew Williams Davissan (Dav 11) and his Uncle, Dr. Joseph Davissan, 3rd, MD, had ridden horseback to Phila to study Medicine under Dr. Goforth, and later under the famous Dr. Benjamin Rush. (See Article in the front of (this Davissan Section headed: "Statement of Amanda Davissan Millar."). They had told the youthful Alfred tales of the fame of Dr. Rush as a Surgeon, and so Dr. Rush had become the idol of the youthful Alfred, which is probably why Dr. Alfred, in later years, was to name his Medical College the Rush Medical. Young Alfred likewise travelled to Ohio, Phila and NY for his medical education, and it was because of this need to go way down East to study medicine that led him to found a medical college in Chicago in the early days. But little did he ever dream of the world-wide fame that was to come to Rush, or the fact that its Postgraduates were to be accepted in Peking, San Francisco or Buenos Aires, as the utmost in medical skill.

Dr. Alfred, not long after commencing practice in the small city of Chicago, became Coroner's Physician. As he prospered, with his well-to-do clientele, he invested in real-estate, and making money fast, became a large owner of Chicago property. He owned, among other properties, the row of 2-story stores at 77 Clark St, in the middle of the block, East side, opposite the City Hall, and North of the corner of Washington St (where his brother-in-law, Thomas McCalla (Dav 113 & M-361) built the first 5-story bldg). It was here (where Cohan's Grand Opera House now stands), in this row of 2-story store buildings, that he founded Rush Medical College, with his youthful associate, Dr Brainerd. His other brother-in-law, Dr Robert C. Hamill, MD, (Dav 112 & M-262), was Founding, with the aid of Dr J. P. Ross, the equally famous Presbyterian Hospital, and as they were both Presbyterians, it is natural that both Rush and Presbyterian should be closely affiliated, under the wing of the Presbyterian Church. His row of store buildings is now the site of Cohan's Grand Opera House.

Dr. A. W. Davissan, Sr., MD, was a man of intense energy, driving himself as mercilessly as he drove others. Imperious, headstrong, with an intensely creative mind, impatient, changeable, a tremendously powerful "Starter," Dr Alfred often lost interest and dropped out, leaving others to carry on. But he would then take up some new venture with tremendous force and "bang."

TO THE HONORABLE
THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
U.S.A.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the proposed purchase of the collection of the late Mr. J. H. P. Morgan, and in reply to inform you that the same has been referred to the Committee on the Purchase of the Collection, and that the same is now under consideration.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours very truly,
The Curator of the Museum of Arts and Architecture

This is probably why others have reaped more credit for the founding of the famous Rush Medical than has Dr Alfred, although there is no doubt whatever that it was Dr Alfred's creation, backed by his energy, that originated and built Rush in the early days.

Dr. Alfred W. Davisson, Sr., MD, always numbered hundreds of the great, the wealthy and the powerful among his patients and his friends. Making money fast in real estate and speculation, it is natural that a man of his type should tire of the humdrum of medical practice. So as his brother-in-law, Thomas McCalla (Dav 113 & M-361) was a very able business man, they organized the Bank of Commerce (Davisson, McCalla & Co) both as a bank and as the headquarters of their large real estate activities. Dr Alfred was the silent partner, and obtained large amounts of Eastern capital for investment in the fast growing Chicago. The Ogdens, the McClurgs, and numerous other wealthy families of the East, including the wealthy Drexel family of Phila, appointed the bank as their fiscal agents for investment. Thomas McCalla interested much Phila and Southern capital also. The bank, and their real estate developments prospered greatly. Then, in the great Panic of 1857, Thomas McCalla died suddenly in an accident with a horse, and his real estate holdings had to be liquidated, and the bank, without Thomas's steady, guiding hand, also had to be liquidated.

Dr Alfred W. Davisson, Sr., MD, then became interested in various ventures, investments and speculations in the East, and spent more of his time there, but later lived also in a frame house, painted green, and very handsome inside, at 2421 Indiana Ave, Chicago. This was just a block from the McCallas and Hamilla at 162-160 E. 25th St. He also purchased Broughton Island, Georgia. This had belonged to Lord Broughton, the original estate of whose Broughton Family had been at Manchester, England. This island had been deeded by Lord Broughton to Henry Laurens, and sold by his Executors to Dr. Alfred. The McCalla Family (Helen Wayne McCalla-M-361-31 & Paul Hamill McCalla-M-361-35) of Chicago, have in their bank vault, the large seal and ribbon, which was attached to the original Deed, in English fashion. They also have other mementoes of this Island estate. Dr Alfred would return to this Island Estate in the winters during his later life, and his brother Clarendon (Dav 115) and his Family also spent the winters there. Some say that Clarendon and Dr Alfred owned the island jointly. Dr Alfred died in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1895. The newspapers of Feb'y 1929, mentioned the son of this Lord Broughton being given special honors by the English Government, and stated that he was President of the Virginian Railway, and a great giver to Charities, etc.

Dr Alfred Williston Davisson, Sr., MD, lived in Chicago, Ill, and spent brief periods at Courtland, NY, Brooklyn, NY, Atlanta, Ga, and Broughton Island, Ga, (the latter is supposedly near Brunswick and Darien, Ga).

The FOUNDING of RUSH MEDICAL COLLEGE, CHICAGO,
By DR. ALFRED WILKINSON DAVISSON, Sr., MD.

Aunt Jennie Emma Davissson (Dav 114), who was the 2nd wife of Dr Alfred W. Davissson, Sr., MD (Dav 114), visited our home in Chicago many times. She was an interesting and vivacious narrator of tales of the days when Chicago was young. She loved to tell of business matters, and of the famous business giants who had created Chicago - many of whom she had met. She told many tales of the Founding of Rush Medical College by her husband, Dr Alfred, and it is from my memory of what she said that I am writing down these notes.

Dr Alfred had found it necessary to travel far to the East to secure his medical education, having studied in Ohio, Philadelphia and New York. He felt that there was need of a medical school in Chicago, where students could secure a medical education. In addition to his own medical practice, he had become Coroner or Coroner's Physician of the young city of Chicago. So, in connection with an associate, Dr Brainerd, he, in 1844, Founded Rush Medical College. The first classrooms were at 77 Clark St, where he also lived and had his office. This was in a 2-story row of store bldgs., where Cohan's Grand Opera House now stands.

Aunt Jennie told with much amusement of the pioneer difficulties of the new school. It seems there was no law governing the obtaining of bodies for demonstration to the students. So they secured the body of some tramp who had just died, and carried it by night up the alley stairs, and were preparing it for demonstration. But some inquisitive neighbor had looked through a window and seen them. He ran for the police shouting: "They have murdered someone and are carrying his body away." Soon the police were pounding loudly at the front door. The negro porter and Dr Alfred quickly wrapped the body in an old raincoat, slipped down the alley stairs with it, and hurried up the alleys to the river, two blocks away, and let it slip into the waters.

Soon the Presbyterians got behind the new school, and in conjunction with the Presbyterian Hospital, it began to grow rapidly. This Hospital had been Founded by Dr Alfred's brother-in-law, Dr Robert C. Hamill, MD, (Dav 112 & H-262), assisted by Dr Joseph P. Ross. However, Dr Alfred became immersed in the growth of his real estate holdings and speculations, and gradually withdrew his attentions from both the school and his medical practice. Now, in 1941, Rush Medical had been for several years associated with the University of Chicago (Baptist). Now it is severing those connections, and with its buildings and endowments, is preparing to become affiliated with the University of Illinois, which has enormous Hospital, School and Research buildings nearby. Rush Medical is at Harrison and Wood Sts, next to Presby. Hospital, Chicago. And Dr Alfred, in later years, ever given of his prosperity to Rush in the form of large cash gifts or property for endowments, etc, it is probable that his name would have been carried more prominently with Rush, as its Founder. But he did not, and others have reaped the benefit which was truly his.

With the Founding of the Bank of Commerce (Davissson, McCalla & Co), he and his other brother-in-law, Thomas McCalla (M-361 & Dav 113) found themselves in a rapidly expanding business, quite profitable, and a convenient headquarters for handling their large real estate ventures. So Dr Alfred was far too busy to give further attention to medical matters. Chicago was growing too rapidly, and real estate and banking were both booming. They prospered greatly, until in the Panic of 1857, Thomas McCalla was suddenly killed in an accident with a saddle horse, and in the very trying times during the Panic, the Bank's affairs had to be wound up and Thomas McCalla's real estate closed out by the Executors.

Dr Alfred had all he could do to carry through his own affairs, and as business matters called him East, he was led to spend much time in various places in the East, and Chicago saw him infrequently for many years. But later, in his elderly years, he lived in a beautiful frame house at 2421 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, spending his winters at his Estate at Broughton Island, Georgia, with visits to NY and Atlanta, Ga. He died in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1895.
(SEE OTHER SIDE).

(6/14/1941).

Aunt Jennie Davisson spoke often of her admiration for Thomas McCalla (Dav 113 & M-361), of his integrity and honesty, of his likeable qualities, and of the number of staunch friends he had among Chicago's great. She also spoke of how much Thomas McCalla and Dr Alfred liked young George M. Pullman, who had come to Chicago as a young Engineer, with letters of introduction to Thomas McCalla, or Dr Alfred. Pullman hailed from Albion, NY. Thomas McCalla had faith in his sleeping-car idea, and had set aside $25,000. for a half-interest in it, which would have amply backed its start. But Thomas' untimely death, plus the Panic, prevented this, and it took Pullman 10 years to find other backing - and incidentally deprived the McCallas and Davissons of many, many millions in wealth.

Aunt Jennie also spoke of the mud in Chicago's streets in the early days and spoke of the fact that Thomas McCalla had advocated raising the streets and then, just after he and Dr Alfred had built some new buildings, the City Aldermen voted to do so. And of how the contract to raise the McCalla buildings was given to young Pullman, and of how they secured the second contract for him to raise the Tremont House, belonging to Dr Alfred's kinfolk, the Couch Family (See Dav 114-1). For a description of raising these Lake St buildings, see Data Page following Page M-361 (McCalla Genealogy).

Aunt Jennie told of the sudden death of Thomas McCalla. He was very fond of it seems, of riding spirited saddle horses. A friend in Indiana gave him a frisky colt, and one day he decided to ride it. In crossing a small slough in the marshy environs of Chicago, the colt stepped through a rotten board in the culvert, and promptly grew wild. The colt plunged sidewise against the railing, the railing broke, and plunged a sharp point of the wood into Thomas McCalla's groin. In that day they had no antiseptics, and Thomas McCalla died about 3 days later. Dr Robert C. Hamill, MD (Dav 112 & H-262) told Aunt Jennie years later, that had they had antiseptics in 1857, which they later learned about, Thomas' life could have been saved, and he would have been a beloved and creditable figure in the community.

Dr Alfred William Davisson, Sr, MD, has been criticised for a somewhat harsh manner toward associates and family. The Compiler always remembers a tale heard concerning him, wherein he had greatly helped and aided someone who was in serious difficulty. When asked why he had extended aid, he replied: "Because I pitied and felt sorry for him, I did all I could to aid him." The Compiler feels that pity is a Heaven-sent gift, and that one who feels pity, and is led to help another because of that feeling, is not to be too sharply criticised for other mistakes.

Paul Hamill McCalla - The Compiler. (M-361-35 - H-125-65)
(Grand-Nephew of Dr Alfred W. Davisson, Sr, MD).

June 14, 1941.

(NOTE: Dr Alfred W. Davisson, Sr, MD, was in Chicago in 1837, but evidently returned to Xenia, Ohio, or Indiana, returning to Chicago in 1842. His connection with Chicago really started, however, in 1837.)

RUSH MEDICAL COLLEGE.

(From Chicago Tribune-6/20/1941): Rush Medical School Suits U.C. for U.I. Merger. Circuit Judge Stanley Markowski entered a decree yesterday dissolving the ties between Rush Medical College and the University of Chicago, and opening the way for Rush to merge with the University of Illinois College of Medicine by June 30th. Under the decree, the University of Chicago reassigns to Rush the medical school's $582,000 plant, taken over under a contract in 1924. Rush also retains additions to its physical plant worth $751,490, installed by the University of Chicago.

Attorney J. Dow Nichol, who represented Rush in the friendly suit, brought by Attorney-General George F. Barrett, for the University of Illinois Medical College, said that the trustees of the University of Illinois have approved the proposed merger, and that details are to be worked out by the Rush Board of Trustees, and authorities of the U. of Ill. Medical College by the end of the month. The U. of Chicago decided to sever connections with Rush when the Medical College and Presbyterian Hospital, which serves as a teaching hospital for the Rush faculty, declined to move to the South Side as part of the University's Midway medical development. Rush also declined to drop its undergraduate medical instruction, and become a graduate medical school for the University.

(From Chicago Tribune-7/4/1941): RUSH MEDICAL SCHOOL MERGED WITH ILLINOIS U. Presbyterian Hospital to join with University. Rush Medical College and the Presbyterian Hospital were joined with the University of Illinois in an agreement signed yesterday. The agreement ends several years of negotiations between the institutions and the University of Chicago, with which Rush had been associated since 1924. Joining of the 104 year old Rush, its central free dispensary, and the affiliation of the 58 year old Presbyterian Hospital with the U. of Illinois College of Medicine, dentistry and pharmacy, and its research and educational hospitals and institutions, is said to have created one of the world's leading medical centers. The Rush College name will be preserved, with members of its staff joining the Illinois faculty as "Rush Professors." Members of the Presby. Hospital staff will become members of the Univ.-College of Medicine clinical staff, and future appointments to the hospital staff will be made from persons nominated by the University. Under the agreement, signed by A.C. Willard, President of the University, and James Cleary, President of the Bd. of Trustees, for the University, and John McKinlay, President of the Board of Managers of Presbyterian Hospital, the property of the College Hospital, and dispensary will remain under control of those groups in order to carry out trust and other agreements.

Adds Leading Men to Staff. Cleary, in commenting on the merger, said: "The Presbyterian Hospital affiliation immediately places on the faculty of the U. of Illinois Medical College, a number of the leading men in their fields. These are additions to and not replacements of the University Staff. The U. of Ill. Medical College for some time has had the largest enrollment of any medical school in the world, and in Cook County Hospital it had available the largest hospital in the world. The University's research and educational hospitals and institute's are world leaders. Now Presbyterian Hospital gives the University a top private hospital for the use of its staff."

"Dr Alfred W. Davisson, Professor of Anatomy, Rush Medical College. When the original faculty of Rush Medical College was organized, Alfred W. Davisson was Professor of Anatomy. He was born at Xenia, Ohio, May 31, 1815, his parents being Andrew W. and Rebecca (Todd) Davisson. He attended two courses of lectures at Ohio Medical College, but it has not been possible to learn of his graduation. During his student days, he supported himself by making wooden bedsteads at night.

After practicing medicine in Indiana for a time, he came to Chicago in 1842. The next year he was County Physician. He served 1 year as Professor of Anatomy in Rush Medical College, and with the aid of his negro servant, took an active part in securing material for dissection.

Davison soon became actively interested in business and dropped medicine. In 1852, in conjunction with his brother-in-law, Thomas McCalla, he established the Bank of Commerce, a banking firm composed of Davisson McCalla & Co. Of this he was President. The Bank was first located at the present site of the Sherman Hotel, but in 1854 was moved to Lake & Clark Sts, the heads of the bank erecting a new 5 story brick building there, "the first of that height in Chicago." Later in life he lived in New York and finally at Atlanta, Ga, where he died in 1895."

Notes by The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (M-361-35 & H-125-65):

No 12 W. Van Buren St, where Clarendon Davisson lived, afterward owned by Thomas McCalla, is the site of the old Athenaeum Bldg, behind the Chicago Club, and now covered by a skyscraping new office building, and is across the street from the Steinway Bldg. 77 Clark St, where A.W. Davisson started, with the aid of Dr Brainerd, the Rush Medical School, is where he lived and practiced. It is part of a row of bldgs, E. side of Clark, opposite City Hall, and where Cohan's Grand Opera House now stands. It adjoined Thomas McCalla's later 5-story bldg (See ante-fire pictures on Page M-361) at corner Washington & Clark (N-E Corner). In the 1890's, A.W. Davisson lived at 2421 Indiana Ave, then bought Broughton Island, Ga, from the heirs of Lord Broughton. "e still have the Great Seal and ribbons attached to the Royal Warrant for this Island. The Chicago Tribune of Feby. -- 1929, speaks of the son of this Lord Broughton as receiving special honors from the English Government, and speaks of him as President of the Virginian Ry, and a great giver to Charities, etc.

99 Washington St was the home of Thomas McCalla, on the present site of the Chicago Title & Trust Bldg, and it was here that Thomas McCalla died. It was next door to the Methodist Church (now the skyscraper Methodist Temple) and across Washington St from the 5-story building which he owned, now covered by the 7-story "Reaper Block" owned by the McCormicks. After his death, Grandmother Marianne Davisson-McCalla moved next door to the 1st Presbyterian Church, N-W corner Congress & Wabash, and later to 1302 Wabash Ave, next door to Dr. Robt. C. Hamill, MD, at 1300 Wabash, then still later to 162 E. 25th St, next door to Dr. Robt. C. Hamill, MD, who lived at 160 E. 25th St, between Michigan & Indiana (N. side of Street-next alley, now covered by a large auto bldg).

59 Clark St was probably the present site of the Sherman Hotel, which was sold to the Sherman interests shortly after. Thomas McCalla also owned at least one lot across the alley North from the Sherman Hotel (1/2 block South of his solid block on Lake St) now the site of the Astor Hotel.

24 Clark St was probably a later location in the Davisson block (owned originally by A.W. Davisson) and N-W corner Lake & Clark. This whole block on the N. side of Lake St, between Lake & Clark, was later owned by Thomas McCalla and A.W. Davisson, and is shown in the pictures of that block being raised by George M. Pullman. (See ante-fire pictures, Page M-361)

Kinzie & Dearborn Sts. was where Thomas McCalla lived when he first came to Chicago, supposedly with or near Dr Robert C. Hamill, MD.

The Couch Family were a splendid and worth while family, hailing from Peekskill, New York. They owned the "Tremont House," a very prominent hotel of the day, at S-E corner of Lake & Clark Sts, diagonally across from the Davisson-McCalla block-long holdings on Lake St, running from LaSalle to Clark Sts. It was through this family connection that Thomas McCalla secured for Geo. M. Pullman his 2nd contract in Chicago. This was to raise the Tremont House, after he had similarly raised the block-long building(mentioned above) for Thomas McCalla-Alfred W. Davisson, Sr, MD(See ante-fire pictures on Page M-361-McCalla Genealogy). This old building of the "Tremont House" was in later years used by N-W University for their Medical-School - until they built the modern North Side Campus.

The Couch Family owned a Mausoleum in the Cemetery that occupied the land now covered by Lincoln Park in Chicago. At the time that other graves, Mausoleums and Vaults were moved elsewhere, to make way for a public park, the Couch Family went to law, and enjoined the removal of their Vault. Therefore, their Tomb was allowed to remain, where it is today, largely hidden by trees and shrubs, but often discovered by curious citizens, who are astounded to find a burial Tomb in a public park. They do not know the history of the land comprising Lincoln Park, and the newspapers also often contain references to this one remaining relic of a one-time cemetery.

Nearly all the Couch Family in Chicago were subject to Tuberculosis, and both Julian (who was a well-beloved young man) and his Father, John M. Couch, died of this disease.

Mattie Davisson lived Chicago-Peekskill, NY, -Washington, DC-Jacksonville, Florida.

Supposedly had several Children. One known child was (A-115-11) Paul Clarendon West, 3rd, (Born: 1/27/1871 at --- --- --- --- ---), who died during World War I, (1917-1920) as a Special Intelligence Officer, US Army, in France. Paul, 2nd, was a Poet, as was his son, Paul, 3rd. Names of other Children are unknown. They lived supposedly in Boston, Mass.

Clarendon --- Davisson was a Reporter in Chicago, and later became Editor of the San Francisco "Call" and of the New Orleans "Picayune". Afterwards he was US Consul at Bordeaux, France, being appointed by President Abraham Lincoln. He retired to Broughton Island, Georgia, (supposedly near Brunswick, Ga), which was owned by his brother, Dr Alfred William Davisson, Sr, MD, (some say the Island was jointly owned by Alfred and Clarendon). He died there in 1878, and is buried in Darien, Ga, just North of Brunswick. He is also said to have died in a Hospital in Darien, Ga, and is buried there.

Miss Helen Wayne McCalla, (H-125-61), and her brother, Paul Hanill McCalla, (H-125-65) (The Compiler of this Genealogy), have in their vault, the Great Seal and fragments of the old Deed, with ribbons, to Lord Broughton. It is a very interesting memento of the Royal era of the Colonies.

Mary --- McIntyre was of Indiana and Virginia descent.

Paul --- West, 2nd, (who married Fanny Davisson), was a Nephew of a Boston India Tea Merchant, and they lived in Boston or Charlestown, Mass. They supposedly had several children, but only Paul Clarendon West, 3rd, is known. Paul West, 2nd, and his son, Paul, 3rd, were both Poets, and both were noted for their brilliant minds.

Paul Clarendon West, 3rd, was a Poet, and served in World War I, (1917-1920), in the Special Intelligence Section, US Army, and died in France. Paul, 3rd's death was as follows: His body was found on the bank of the Seine River in Paris, with his revolver nearby. It is not known whether he committed suicide, or whether he was murdered by German Spies, (who were numerous in Paris), because of his work in the Special Intelligence Section of the US Army.

Mrs Albert MacCalla,
Chicago, Illinois.

April 18, 1898.

Dear Mrs MacCalla: In reply to your letter of the 15th, will say that I am afraid I cannot be of much assistance to you as the families seem to have no connection whatever. My Great-Grandfather, John Davison, with two brothers, came to this country about 1750 from the North of Ireland. He settled in Phila, Penna, where he died in 1808, aged 66. My Grandfather, William Davison, removed to Winchester, (Va), about 1798, carried on general merchandizing, was Post Master, and US Collector. Died Sept 5, 1822.

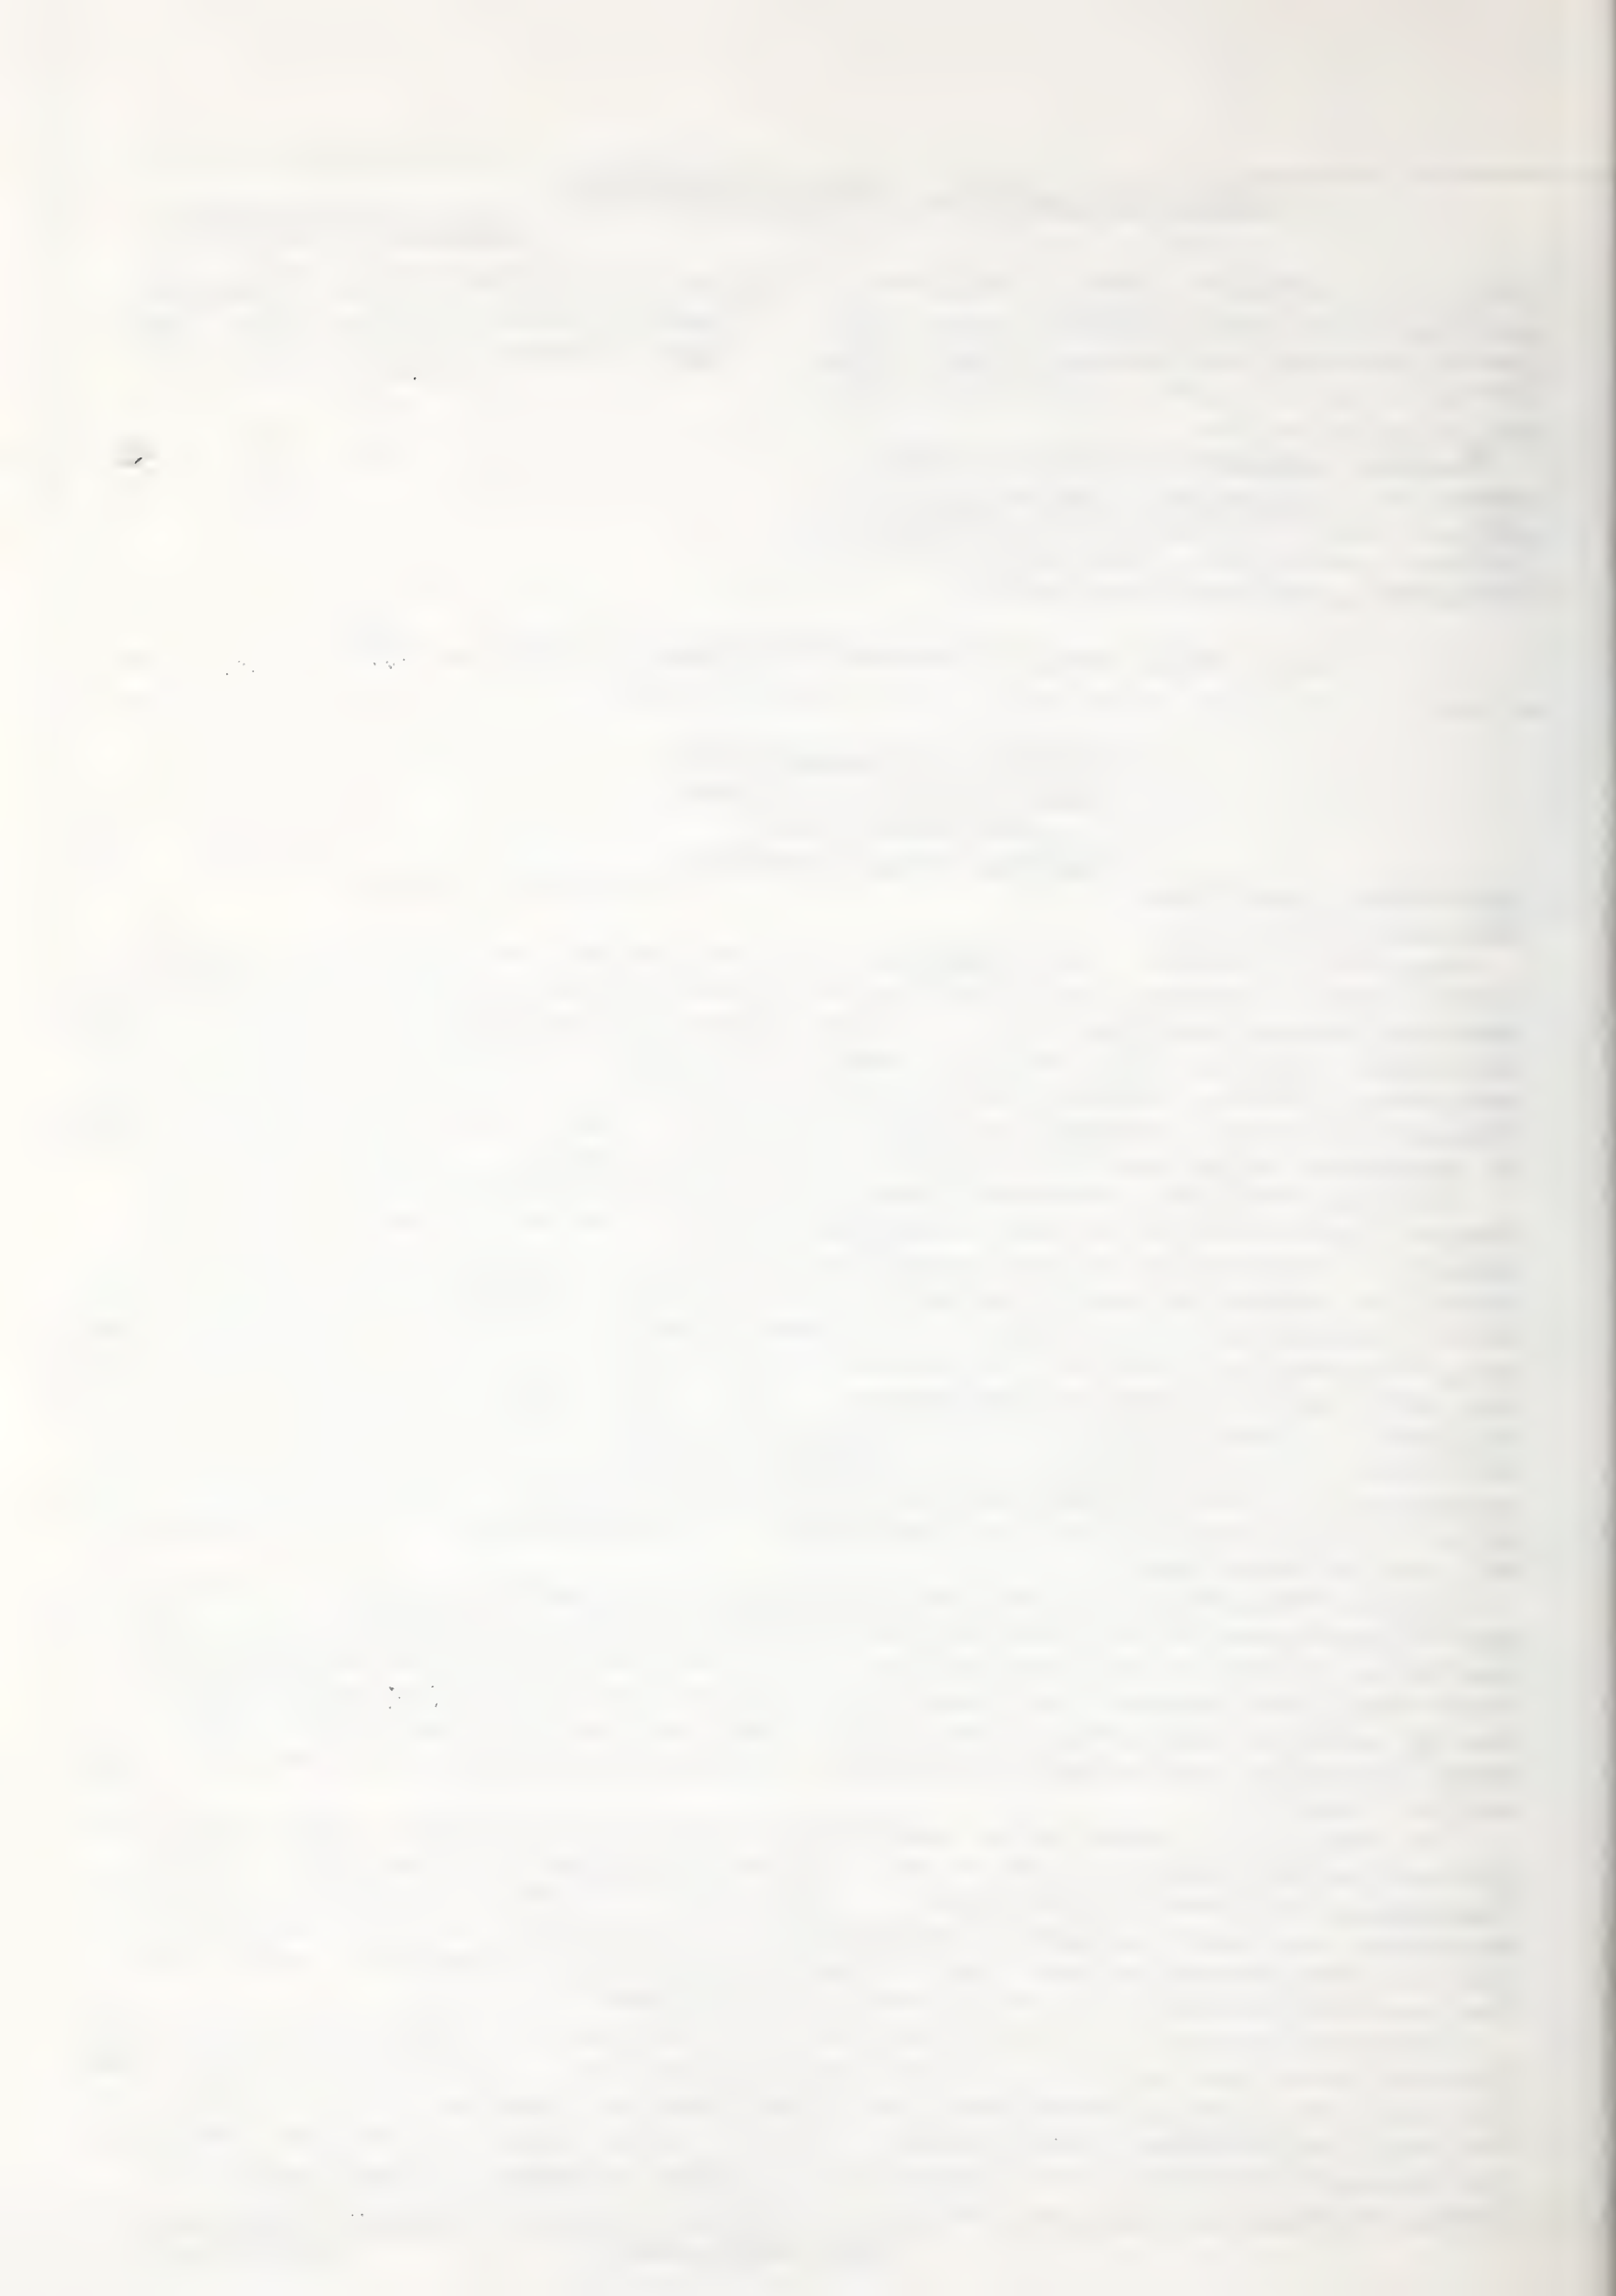

William Davison, Secretary and Privy Councillor to Queen Elizabeth, issued the warrant for the execution of Mary, Queen of Scots - had his property confiscated and was confined to the town. He was released, and after the death of Queen Elizabeth, had partial justice done him by James Ist. He died and was buried in Stepney about 1608(47). He had sons Francis, Christopher, Walter, William, and 2 daughters. His descendants were supposed to have been in Rochester. This I got from "Biography of William Davison" by Sir Nicholas Hanis Nicolas, a copy of which I have. I have seen many of his letters in the British Museum. So I am certain there is nothing in the tradition that any Secretary Davison was sent to this country. He was sent to the Low Countries, as Ambassador, also to Scotland, but not to America.

In my Researches I have found many family traditions upset by the facts and I have come to regard them as of little value unless there is some positive evidence to substantiate. We have claimed a descent from the Secretary, but no one can trace it. He was poverty stricken before his death, and so sunk into obscurity. Even his sons did not have Wills - they probably had nothing to will. He spelled his name Davison, the same as our family.

In our family there is a tradition that three brothers came over from Ireland after some trouble - one settled at Philadelphia, one in West Virginia, another in Carolina. Each, for reasons best known to himself, spelling his name Davison, Davidson, and Davisson. An old Irishman who saw my Great-Grandfather John Davison carrying a gold-headed cane, said he was every inch a "rascally old Irish gentleman."

Grandfather had two brothers, Arthur, who left a family in Phila, and Robert, who died an old bachelor in Winchester. I regret not being able to give you more information, and some clue to work on, but I do not see how any connections can be made. If you would like to see the Biography of William Davison, I will send it for your perusal. I have also two books written by his son, Francis Davison, called "Poetical Rhapsody," (SEE OTHER SIDE). (6/14/1947).

While in London in the Summer of 1894, I spent nearly three days in the British Museum, and exhausted the Biographical Dictionaries and any source I could obtain, but all were made up of extracts from the book I have, and that is all of the information that exists.

I enclose some extracts I made at the time, and I trust you will return them promptly, as they are the originals, and I have not time to copy. I indexed all of the letters that are contained in the "Manuscript Room," and I had many of the letters in my hands. I made photographs of two, and if I send you the book, I will also send prints for you to keep. The extracts I send give in substance what you would find in the book. I prize these notes very much for obvious reasons, and I wish you would handle them carefully and return. Very truly, E.J. DAVISON." (4/18/1898)

OTHER HAMILLE FAMILIES:

In searching for Hamill data, The Compiler naturally collected much information about other families, of other migrations. For purposes of record, and to assist other Hamills in tracing their descent, I have included this information in the pages of this section. The information herein includes only such data as I happened to have, or was sent me.

Most Hamills trace back eventually to the Hamill-O'Hamill-Oh'Agmhill Family of County Antrim, North Ireland. They were of different migrations, different faiths, and came from different parts of the British Isles - but originally were the same. Certain of these families, notably the B.C.F.G.L. Hamills, enjoyed close friendship and kinship with our Family A Hamilla during various generations, and it is reasonably certain that the D.E.N.Y. Families are also of our same stock, although probably not known to each other. The main portion of this book is devoted to the Family A Hamilla.

HAMILL GENEALOGY-OTHER HAMILLS SECTION-FAMILY B:

H.B.

JOHN LOWRIE HAMILL:

First-appears, at MONROE, OHIO, (a suburb of Cincinnati, Ohio), from there to Keokuk, Iowa, Garden Grove, Iowa, and Monmouth, Illinois. Have Family legends of Keokuk, Ohio.

DATA: From a descendant, Mrs. C.S. Hancock, (Alice Hamill) (H-B-24), of 3054 W. Franklin Blvd., (Phone R. Dgle 5075), Chicago, Illinois. (12/27/1939).

JOHN LOWRIE HAMILL, (H-B), first appears at MONROE, OHIO, (20 miles from Cincinnati), where he married his 2nd wife, Martha Stuart. Nothing definitely is known of his antecedents, except that he was born in 1806, and that there are Family legends of Keokuk, Ohio, (which would place him with our Robert Hamill, Jr (H-2) branch). He was a Storekeeper and Merchant. Later he was found at Keokuk, Iowa, with our Smith Hamill (H-125) (Nathaniel Hamill's (H-1) descendant). In Keokuk he was also a Merchant and Retail Grocer. He died at Garden Grove, Iowa, at the home of his daughter, Mrs Dodd, (Sarah ("Sallie") Hamill). Some of this family were later at Monmouth, Illinois, where one descendant was a photographer.

Data Page on JOHN LOWRIE HAMILL-MARTHA STUART.

JOHN LOWRIE HAMILL, (H-B), first appears at MONROE, Ohio, (Cincinnati suburb), where he was a Merchant (probably General Store or Retail Merchant). There are Family Legends of Xenia, Ohio, which, if proven, would show that he had lived among, or was acquainted with, the descendants of Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2), who went to Xenia, Ohio, from Big Cove, Penna. Later, John Lowrie Hamill was found at Keokuk, Iowa, where he was a Retail Grocer, and where he knew the descendants of Mathaniel Hamill (H-1), for the Compiler's Grandfather, Smith Hamill (H-125), lived in Keokuk, Iowa, and founded the S. Hamill Co (Wholesale Grocers), there in Keokuk. Later, John Lowrie Hamill lived in Garden Grove, Iowa, with his daughter, Sarah (Mrs. --- Dodd), and there he died and is buried.

John Lowrie Hamill married his 2nd wife, Martha --- Stuart, in Monroe, Ohio, so it is very possible that his first wife (Eliza ---) died there in Monroe, Ohio, and that later her grave can be located there.

Preliminary and brief search of records in Hamilton, Ohio, (County Seat for Monroe, Ohio), located only Deeds for John Lowrie Hamill. No Will giving data, or any data as to antecedents, etc., was found. Searches should also be made at Xenia, Ohio, and also further searches at Monroe, Ohio, which might turn up a Will of his father, or further data. Also more complete searches at Hamilton, Ohio. Also, other known descendants of John Lowrie Hamill should be written to, endeavoring to locate old Bible or other records of him, or old Family Legends which would indicate his father's and Mother's name, and where he and his parents came from, etc. These latter would give a clue as to where to look further - and what the parent's names probably were.

Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61), daughter of Eleanor Nancy Hamill (Mrs. Albert McCalla) (H-125-3) says she remembers hearing Mother speak of a visit from a "Calvin" Hamill. This would probably be Ebenezer Calvin Hamill (H-B-3), or it might be John Calvin Hamill (H-B-25). This was while Mother was a girl, living in Keokuk, Iowa.

Among the Xenia, Ohio, Hamills, (Descended from Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2), there was a John Hamill (H-23) (Born: 10/8/1771), who was marked: "Never Married", and who died (date unknown) at the home of his brother, Hugh (H-27) at Xenia, Ohio. Then the Hugh (H-27) just mentioned, who lived in Xenia, Ohio, (Born: 7/13/1781, Big Cove, Penna. - Died: 9/26/1847, Xenia, Ohio), and who married a McKnight, had a son John Hamill (H-275) who was marked "Never Married". There are no dates of birth-death on any of Hugh's children, except that his youngest child, Lydia, died in 1882 and is buried at Sugar Creek, Ohio. There is a possibility that this John Lowrie Hamill (H-B) might be fitted in on this descent of Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2), but more information will have to be obtained.

It is also possible that this John Lowrie Hamill might have been a descendant of Mathaniel Hamill (H-1), or John Hamill (H-3), who are other original brothers. And it is possible that he might have become associated with the descendants of Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2) at Xenia, Ohio. All this will have to be discovered later - when we have more facts at hand.

The data on this Family H-B was first given on 12/27/1939 by Mrs. Alice Hamill Hancock, (widow of Prof. C.S. Hancock) (H-B-24), of 3054 W. Franklin Boulevard, (Phone KAdzie 5075), Chicago, Illinois.

Data: (12/27/1939) The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65) - 2520 Cottage Grove Ave (Apt 3) - Chicago (16), Illinois, (then living in the old family home at 2316 Calumet Avenue).

Data Page on ALICE HAMILL-PROF.C S HANDCOCK. H-B-24.

The Compiler secured much of this information concerning Family B from Mrs Handcock, in a call made at her home 12/27/1939. There is little doubt in the Compiler's mind but that her Hamills stem off our own Family A at some point - just where to be determined later.

Mrs Handcock did not send in the supplemental data requested, and on 3/19/1943, the Compiler wrote her a letter of condolence regarding the death of her brother, Dr. Edwin Hamill (HB22). On 4/2/1943, Mrs Handcock wrote the Compiler from New York, where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs H.K. Ferguson (HB242). A copy of this letter follows:

"Dear Mr McCalla:

New York, NY - 4/12/1943.

"I cannot begin to tell you how touched I was by the kind letter of sympathy in our bereavement, from you and Miss McCalla. There now remain in our family, of this generation, but a brother and myself. It is terribly sad and we feel it deeply. I was under the impression I had sent you the few fragments I was able to obtain of our branch of the Hamill family. But perhaps not, as I left hurriedly on a call to Michigan, and later to New York - where I was last winter, and have been this winter, during the absence of my daughter and her husband, on defense work for the Government. In a week or two I expect to return to Chicago for a short time, and will try then to look up the data and send it to you. But I can understand your time is too much taken up, during these disturbed days, for work of a private interest. When the Peace comes - Ah When? - we may hope to resume our orderly ways of life. Thanking you so very much, and with warmest regards to your sister,

Most cordially yours,

ALICE HAMILL HANDCOCK."

New York City: 455 East 51st St (Apt A) April 12th, 1943."

Concerning Evelyn S Handcock (Mrs H.K. Ferguson) (HB-242):

"She inherited, from her Handcock line, an estate in Galway, Ireland, the address of which is: Carantrilla Park, Dunmore Tuam, County Galway, Ireland (Major Gerald Handcock). The address of the Agent or Solicitor is: Colonel Maurice Moore, 5 Seaview Terrace, Ailesbury Road, Dublin, Ireland." (Data-12/27/1939) from Mrs C.S. Handcock (Alice Hamill) (HB-24).

"Big Joe" was large and husky. Later moved to Alton, Ill - where was said to have been a whol. Grocer. He had at least 1 daughter, who married a Mr. Perry. Mrs Perry (2nd wife of Big Joe), was a widow and had 2 children of her own, Malcolm "Doc" Perry, and Kate Perry. "Big Joe" had NO children by 2nd wife, and these by 1st wife are unknown. "Big Joe" was a close friend of Mrs Albert McCalla's (H-125-6) brother, who was Major David B. Hamill (H-125-4), Keokuk, Iowa, who later was Pres. of S. Hamill Co (whol. Grocers). There is a discrepancy here - the first time (7/1924) Mother gave this data she referred to "Big Joe" (HC21) as having the 2nd wife, etc. But when rev- (SEE NEXT PAGE). (9/10/1946).

viewing it years later, she referred to "Old Joe" (HC2) as having the 2nd wife (Mrs Perry). So the Compiler is writing this record to show the 2nd wife, etc., as referring to "Big Joe" (HC21).

HC22-Samuel Hamil. (supposedly never married).

Born: / / at / / at / /
 Was said to have been a friend of Mrs Albert McCalla's (H-125-6) sister, who was Miss Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8), of Keokuk, Iowa.

In July, 1924, Eleanor Nancy Hamill (widow of Rev. Albert McCalla, DD, PhD, FRMS (H-125-6), of Chicago, gave such data as she could remember, of this Family C, who lived in St Louis, Mo. Among her children were Helen Wayne McCalla, (H-125-61), and Big-Compiler-Paul Hamill McCalla (H-125-65), both of Chicago. This Family C were closely intimate with Mother's Smith Hamill Family (H-125 of Keokuk, Iowa - whom they called "Cousins." Joseph "Old Joe" (HC2) and Samuel ("Old Sam" - HC1) were brothers, (their father's name unknown), and were prosperous wholesale Grocers of St Louis, Mo. One (or both), married Maryland women, from the "Eastern Shore." Joseph ("Old Joe" - HC2) was educated in St Louis, as was his brother, Samuel ("Old Sam" - HC1) - but their sons were all said to have been educated abroad.

"Young Sam" Hamill (HC12), a very handsome and loveable young man (never married and died young of "TB"), was "Best Man" at the wedding, in Keokuk, Iowa, on 5/16/1871, of Eleanor Nancy Hamill (H-125-6) and Rev. Albert McCalla. Another guest at the wedding was Ernest A. Hamill (H-262-5) of Chicago.

Ann Hackney (wife of "Old Sam" Hamill - HC1), came from the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Her sister was the wife of Mayor Thomas, of St Louis, Mo. This Family C is sometimes spoken of as the "Hackney-Hamills," and also spoken of as the "St Louis Hamills."

There is a Family Legend that this Family C claimed that they were descended from the Original 4th Brother (the "Missing 4th Brother"), whom we now know to have been Joseph Hamill (H-4), and they claimed that this portion of their family came back North after the Revolution. They spoke of this Original 4th Brother as "Joseph" Hamill. This Original Joseph Hamill (H-4) left the other 3 Original Brothers in Pennsylvania, supposedly about 1770-3, and went South to Newberry, SC, and became lost to the family records. This Family C might have come North to St Louis, and there have become acquainted with the Keokuk Hamills. This Legend concerning Family C is unproven - and is included here as a possibility.

Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61) of Chicago, sister of the Compiler, reviewed these facts (9/8/1946) and said: the McCalla Family of Chicago (Mrs. Albert McCalla (H-361-5), who was Eleanor Nancy Hamill (H-125-6), knew the Hackney Family of Chicago. They came from St Louis, and were Cousins of the Ann Hackney who married "Old Sam" Hamill (HC1). All these Chicago Hackneys now are dead.

Edward Hamill, 5408 Page Street, St Louis, Mo.

INFORMATION ABOUT FAMILY C:

The Compiler's sister, Miss Helen Wayne McCalla, (H-125-61) attended a State Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution, on 4/14/1941, at the Stevens Hotel, in Chicago, Illinois. There she met a Miss Amelia J. Flynn, of No. --- Street, in Alton, Illinois.

This Miss Flynn told Helen that Joseph Hamill, Jr. (H-C-21- "Big Joe") and his daughter were both dead, and that his wife had gone to live with her son-in-law, but that this wife was now also dead. She gave the name of a Mr McKinney who could give information. This Mr McKinney's SISTER was a sister of Mrs Joseph Hamill, Jr. (H-C-21). His Name-Address-is:

Mr. George A. McKinney, No. --- Grove Street, Alton, Illinois.

The Compiler has not had an opportunity to write for such information as Mr McKinney could give. The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65). (4/14/1941 - Chicago, Illinois).

PS - All these Hamills are now supposedly dead.

(From Autobiography of Rev. Albert McCalla, DD, MA, PhD, FRMS. (See Data Page H-125-6):

"During Spring vacation in April 1867, David Hamill, Aaron Hamill, and I visited Mrs Annie Hamill, at St Louis (Mo), at 1318 Washington Avenue."

(Compiler's Note: My Father, Albert McCalla, was then a student at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill. David Hamill was H-125-4, of Keokuk, Iowa. Aaron Hamill was H-C-11, of Family C, and the son of Mrs Annie Hamill. Mrs Annie Hamill, was H-C-1, the mother of Aaron Hamill and the wife of Samuel Hamill ("Old Sam") (H-C-1), of St Louis, Mo. Aaron Hamill (H-C-11) frequently visited the family of Smith Hamill (H-125) at Keokuk, Iowa.

• A Family of HAMILLS, owning property in Chester County, Penna., as early as 1724. Thought to be of our same Hamilla, who were in the Irish Wars of 1680-90.

Data:

(1899) Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8), of Keokuk, Iowa. Her Correspondent, a Mr Cope, of Chester County, Pennsylvania, located records of such a Hamill Family, in or previous to 1899 - who had lived in Chester Co, Penna., in 1724.

They may be the same as Family G, and Family A.

HAMILLS IN CHESTER CO, PENNA, AS EARLY AS 1724:

COMPILER'S NOTE: It is thought that Hamilla owned property in Chester Co, Penna., as early as 1724. This is the earliest record of Hamilla so far in America - except "William Hamill (1682), Master Mariner of Virginia," as explained in Item #24, "Misc. Hamill Data," in the "Historical Section."

Unfortunately, we have absolutely no record of these Hamilla of 1724 in Chester Co, Penna. Such fragments of information as we have are gathered here as Family D. These Hamilla of 1724 might later be proven to be the same as Hamill Family G - but this will have to await further investigation.

The Mr Cope, mentioned hereafter, who in 1896-99 first gave this data to Miss Carrie S. Hamill (H-125-8), Keokuk, Iowa, is identified as follows: Mr Gilbert Cope, West Chester, Penna., who in 1896, was one of the Editors of "History of Chester Co, Penna." He is said to have Edited the records of Robert Hamill, (Hamill Family G), of Fallowfield, Parkersburg, Penna. - which sketch was written (1896) by Mr Israel Hamill, (Family G), of Cochranville, Penna. (See Other Hamills Section - Family G - "Addenda to Family G" - (Page 1)).

It would be most interesting and helpful if some Hamill would undertake to search out the records of these Hamilla of 1724 - and add that Data to our records. The Compiler - PAUL HAMILL, McCALLA. (H-125-65).

(From Item #44): "....Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill (H-15), according to this Carrie S. Hamill (H-125-8) had written that during those terrible days of the Sieges in Ireland, one of her Ancestors was a prisoner there because of his activity in the war. "Aunt Sally" (H-15) had a picture of this Castle, which later came into the possession of Smith Hamill (H-125), the Father of Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8)."

(From Item #45): "Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8) also wrote in 1899 that it was her belief that the Hamilla came to this country in 1710 to 1730-40. When she was trying to trace in Chester Co, Penna., her correspondent there, a Mr Cope, located Hamilla in Chester Co, Penna., who had owned property there in 1724. Carrie Hamill's Father, Smith Hamill (H-125) always said that his ancestors, or at least one of them, was in the Irish Wars - in the Battle of the Boyne, with King William in 1680-90. These Hamilla, it was said, were very brave, but lost their property because of loyalty to the King for 30 years, and that they somewhat later came to America. However, until the date of this emigration is verified, we are assuming that they all came together in 1761, as mentioned in the Introduction, and in the records of John Hamill (H-3)."

(From Item #55): Mrs. Capt. G. Horn (the Sarah Hamill H-125-5) wrote in 1896 to Mrs. Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Emma Crawford H-124-12): "....I wanted to say to you that in the story: "The Siege of Derry and Bunkskillen" you will find the names of Hamilla who are prominent - one Colonel Hugh Hamill, and his brother William. They fought long and bravely. There is a (SEE NEXT PAGE).

out something of interest. I rather think they are the ones who afterward came to America...." (The previous 3 items copied from: Items #44, 45, 53,

"The above Louis R. Hamill, (H-121-51) also states that he has 3 letters written by William Hamill in the years 1702, 1717, and 1722, stating in the last letter that he is 75 years of age, therefore born in 1647, asking for back pay for services for himself, officers and men at the Siege of Derry, (Londonderry). Louis R. Hamill (H-121-51) goes on to say: "If he was our ancestor, he would be about our Great (3) Grandfather." (Copied from

"This same family, or other Hamills of another day, were in the Irish Wars, Hamills, it was said, were very brave, but lost their property because of their loyalty to the King for 30 years, and somewhat later they emigrated to America. A friend of Carrie S. Hamill's (H-125-8) located - probably - this same family who had owned property in Chester Co, Penna, as early as 1724. This is the earliest appearance of Hamilla in America of which we have record - except the probability of a Hamill in a very early Colony of Virginia. It would prove interesting for some modern-day Hamill to undertake the tracing of the Chester Co, and the Virginia Hamills. (See Histor-

"Legend #10: An early-day Hamill of North Ireland was in the Siege of Lon-held prisoner a long time in Carrickfergus Castle. (See Historical Section - "Misc. Hamill Data" - Items #44-45). (Copied from Legend #10 - "Old Hamill Legends" - "Hamill Beginnings" Sub-Section - Introductory Section).

(Item #15): "Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8) stated in a letter written in 1899, after her return from that trip to Ireland, that it was possible that our Hamills came from Bushmills, County Antrim, and from the Hamill Family of that place that is listed in Other Hamilla Section - Family E (Robert Hamill of Bushmills, whose descendants came to Norristown, Penna, in 1798). All the members of that family at Bushmills were dead when she was there in 1899. Bushmills is near Carrickfergus Castle. Sarah ("Aunt Sal-that during those terrible days of the Sieges in Ireland, one of her Ances-

HAMILL GENEALOGY-OTHER HAMILLS SECTION-FAMILY E:

H - E.

FAMILY E.

ROBERT & JOHN HAMILL, with 2 Brothers, and FATHER (Name Unknown) came to America, supposedly in 1770. ROBERT died in 1911 in Tennessee. were at Grayville ("Grayville"?), Blount Co., & at Brownsville Tennessee.

Many of this Family spell the name as "HAMIL".

Data: Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD (Eliza Jane Davison) (H-262)-Chicago, visited Brownsville, Tenn., in 1852.
(1899) Adam Lickett Hamill (Eliza Turnbull-Laney A. Campbell) (H-263)-Biggsville, Illinois.
(1930) Other Various Descendants (See following Data Credits)
(6/12/1930-1/26/1947)-The Compiler-Paul Hamill McCulla (H-125-65)-Chicago

(SEE ALSO FAMILY H-4 and FAMILY "G")

There have always been persistent legends among our own Family "A" Hamills about a "Missing 4th Original Hamill Brother", who went South, and was never heard from again. The name Joseph Hamill, (and very occasionally the name of Hugh Hamill), are associated with this legend.
(See Page H-4 and Page H-46).

(See Introductory Section-Hamill Beginnings-"Hamill Legends"-Legend #25).

(See Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Item #29).

(See Other Hamills Section-Family C - Note their claimed Descent).

In 1856, a Hamill of Greensboro, Alabama, wrote that he was descended from Joseph Hamill, who went to South Carolina "shortly after the Revolution," and had 6 children, a Daughter, and John, Hugh, Charles, Andrew, James. (Greensboro, Ala., is 65 miles S-W of Birmingham-65 miles N-W of Montgomery) (See Page H-4).

In 1946, Rev. M. Nash Hamill, Rienzi, Miss (H-467-67) wrote that he was descended from the youngest child, James Hamill (H-46), who was born in Newberry, SC, in 1800. He says that "they then moved to Northern Tennessee, then to the Northern part of Alabama.....A legend says that 4 brothers came together....."

In 1856, Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD (H-262), of Chicago, went to Brownsville, Tenn., on a trip, and there found a Graveyard in which a lot of Hamills were buried. (See Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Item #29) (See also (3rd Page following).

It would seem to The Compiler, that Dr. John G. Hamill, DDS (H-269-B), of Xenia, Ohio, may have written to Dr. Robert C. Hamill (H-262) of Chicago, that he had received a letter concerning the missing Joseph Hamill (H-4) - and that Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD (H-262) had decided to do a little scouting around and find out what he could. For many generations of Hamills have searched for this "Missing Brother." He is supposed to have found record of a Nathaniel Hamill buried there in Brownsville - who had raised a family. But these records of Family E show no Nathaniel whatever, so far.

Now, in this Family "E" we do not know the name of the Father. He is supposed - according to these records - to have been born in Ireland, and to have come to America in 1770. He might have been Joseph Hamill (H-4) who might have left the others in Penna about 1770, gone to Newberry, SC, where his youngest child, James (H-46) was born - but this is doubtful. This missing Father might be the oldest son of Joseph - but this is doubtful. There have been many things in the various Hamill records that lead The Compiler to believe that in addition to our own migration of 1761, there might have been also still another migration of 1770, (also probably of 4 brothers) - and this might be such a migration of 1770. All this will have to await more Research and more facts.

In any event, The Compiler believes that in seeking to piece together the records of this "E" Family of Hamills, we must also bear in mind the data on Family H-4, (the "Missing Brother" Joseph), and also on Family "C" (the (St Louis "Hackney" Hamills, who claim descent from Joseph).

Bear in mind also that there are many variations of the "Lost Brother" Legend. Some variations are:

(a) The 4th Original Missing Brother went South, and was never heard from again. The name Joseph, and very occasionally the name Hugh Hamill, is associated with this legend. The date is usually given as 1770-73, and very occasionally as "after the Revolution." (See Introductory Section-Hamill Beginnings-"Hamill Legends"-Legend #25).

(b) That an Original Brother became lost, wandered South and settled.

(c) That an Original Brother came to America later, (after 1761), could not locate the other Hamills, (Nathaniel, Sr(H-1)-Robert, Sr(H-2)-John(H-3), at Palmer's Port, Ligonier, Penna, or at Big Cove, Penna, and went South, (some variations have it to Tennessee), located, and raised a large family.

Now some say that this was Joseph Hamill, and some say this was the missing "Hugh Hamill," whom everyone has tried to trace, but none have ever located. At any rate, the legend is very strong - and very persistent - that an Original Brother did go South, and became lost to the family records.

POSSIBILITIES OF FAMILY E:

The 3 most likely possibilities about this Family E seemingly are:

Possibility #1: That another set of 4 Brothers did emigrate from Ireland, and arrived in America about 1770 (some years(9) after our own "A" Family came in 1761). They settled either at Newberry, S.C. Carolina and later came North to Maryville("Maysville"?) and Brownsville, Tenn - or else they settled first in Tennessee, without ever going to South Carolina. This then, would be a separate migration of 4 Hamill Brothers. That the children of our Joseph Hamill(H-4) of Newberry, S.C, came North and settled among these "E" Hamills in Tennessee - and later some of them went to Northern Alabama, and scattered from there as told in the H-4 records. The Compiler is inclined to believe that this will be the eventual finding in regard to these two families (Joseph(H-4) and these "E" Hamills). However, only future research will reveal this.

Possibility #2: This Father(E-1) might have been the very nebulous and legendary "Hugh Hamill" - sometimes spoken of as the 5th Brother, who some say came to America, but went back to North Ireland again. He might have come back later in 1770, or he might have branched off from our Hamills in Pennsylvania. If so, this might settle the "missing Hugh" question.

Possibility #3: This Father(E-1) might have been Joseph Hamill(H-4). He might have left the others in Penna, gone first to Newberry, S.C, (where (his youngest son, James, was born in 1800). Then most of the family might have gone to Tennessee. Note the H-4 records, showing that they moved to Northern Tennessee. However, these "E" children do not correspond with the children of Joseph Hamill(H-4), who were a Daughter, and John-Hugh-Charles-Andrew-James.

This data on Family E was gathered in 1924-1930. See the "EX" records on the last 2 sheets of this Family E - about Hugh Hamill of Maryville("Maysville"?), Tennessee.

Dr. John G. Hamill, DDS (Phoebe E. Platter) (H-269-B), a Dentist of Xenia, Ohio, was vacationing in Cape Girardeau, Kentucky. While there - on 9/23/1856 - he received a letter from Dr. Robert C. Hamill, a Dentist, of Greensboro, Alabama. The last named wrote that his people came from Ireland, that his Grandfather was Joseph Hamill, who emigrated to South Carolina shortly after the Revolution, with a Daughter and 5 sons, named John-Hugh-Charles-Andrew-James. He asked if Dr. John G. were a son of Hugh Hamill, and said that they were probably related, and that he wanted to get acquainted. (See also (Data Page H-4).)

(Adam Bickath Hamill (H-253) wrote to a Hamill Kinsman in 1899): "...In 1858, Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD (H-262) of Chicago, went to the South for his health, and was in Brownsville, Tenn. There he saw the Graveyard, with headstones bearing all family names, including Nathaniel. Nathaniel had married there, and raised a large family. The children were all dead. Some Grandchildren had moved to Ainsworth, Iowa, 25 or 30 years ago."

(Compiler's Note: We are now trying to piece together the data about this Family E, some early members of which family are buried in Oakwoods Cemetery, Brownsville, Tenn, and also buried in the burial ground at Big Spring, near Maryville ("Naysville"?), Tenn. It is possible that these connect with the "4th Missing Brother Hamills", written up on Page H-4. Many names in this Family E are also common to our own Family A - but there is no Nathaniel so far discovered. Of course, there might be another Graveyard in Brownsville, but we have no list of the names in the Big Spring Cemetery in Maryville - and also there may be many more Hamills buried in Oakwoods than the very brief list we have so far.) (See Historic al Section - "Misc. Hamill Data" - Item 122).

TOMBSTONES of HAMILLS at OAKWOODS CEMETERY, BROWNSVILLE, TENN: Mr. J. W. Murrell, Sexton of the Cemetery, wrote on 10/20/1924 to The Compiler, giving the following small list of Tombstones in his Cemetery. These dates (1842-1843) are later than the original Hamills of this Family E. It might be that some of the Maryville ("Naysville"?), Tenn, Hamills went to Brownsville and died there. This must be only a partial list, and there are probably many other Hamill graves in this Cemetery. Research should also be made at Maryville to get Tombstone of original Hamill - there is no Tombstone for Father, Wm. H. Hamill. Note spelling "Hamill" - similar to spelling of some of the John Hamill (H-3) family of Ligonier, Penna. Possibly the original Father of this family came from Newberry, SC - and died here. This Wm. H. Hamill may be E-112-2.

The names of the Father and Mother of this Family E are Unknown. It is known that Robert Hamill(E-11) was born in Ireland. This either means that he and his 3 brothers emigrated to this country alone - or that the Father and Mother brought these 4 children to America. If Robert(E-11) was born in 1760, and emigrated in 1770 - at 10 years old - it is obvious that he must have come with Parents, or with older brothers.

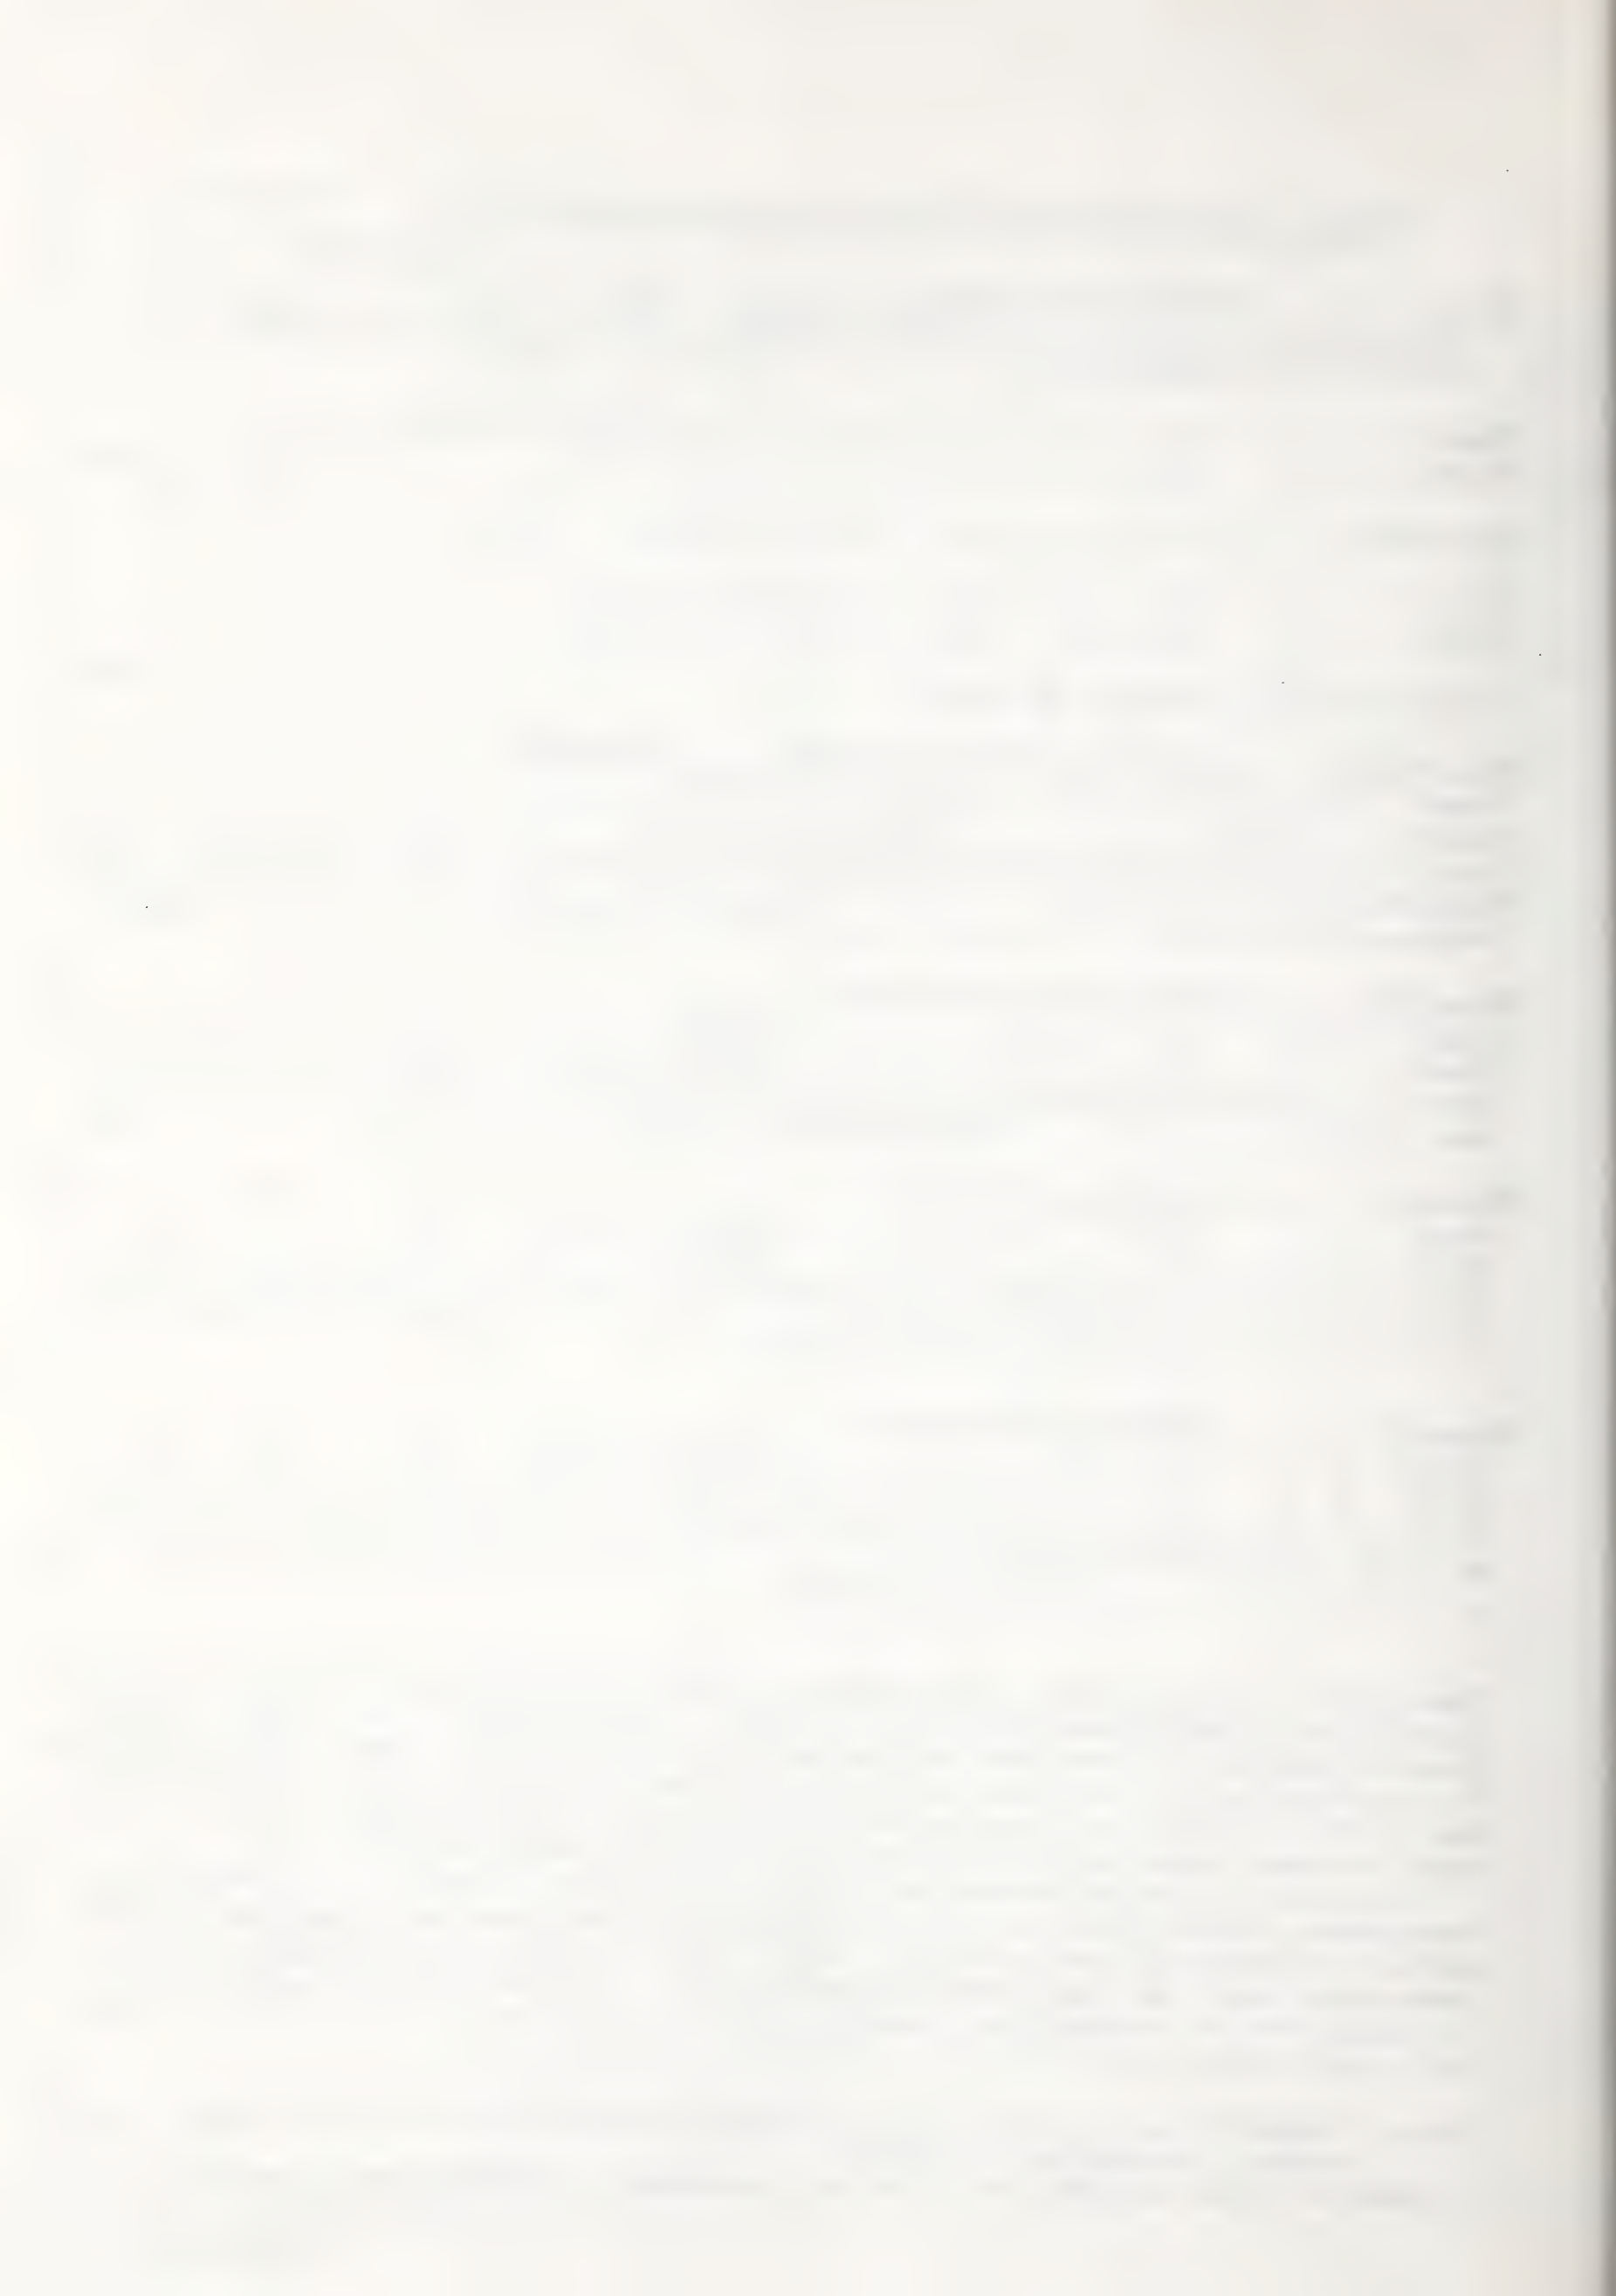

There is a burial ground at Big Springs(near Maryville), Blount Co, Tennessee, where some of these old Hamills are buried. Some also lived and are buried at Brownsville, Tenn. Many of the older Hamills from here went west to Tennessee-Ohio-Illinois. Maryville, Tenn., is about 25 miles S-W of Knoxville, Tenn. The records speak of Maysville, Tenn., but they undoubtedly refer to Maryville, Tenn.

HAMILL GENEALOGY-OTHER HAMILLS SECTION-FAMILY E:

SUPPOSED ADDITIONAL MEMBERS OF FAMILY E: Family E:

E - X.

It is supposed that this Hamill data fits in with Family E - but it is not entirely clear just now. So it is listed - for the present - as as "extra" part of Family E - under the Prefix of "E - X." It is probable that this is the family of Hugh Hamill(E-115), but that is not proven, so it is not so listed. It is possible, although unlikely, that the first 3 children, Henry, David and James Hamill, might be the same as E-112, E-113 E-114, except that the name of the Father does not agree.

This is the descent of the Allerton, Iowa, and Ainsworth, Iowa families - that of H.A.Hamil(E-X-61) of Ainsworth, Iowa, and W.A.Hamil(E-X-62), of Allerton, Iowa.

This family supposedly came from Ireland. Descendants never heard of the Pennsylvania Hamills, and they have no discernable Legends similar to our "Lost Brother" Legend. They lived at Maryville, ("Maysville"), Blount County, Tennessee, and moved to Ainsworth, Iowa, in 1853.

HUGH HAMILL, (of Maryville ("Maysville"?), Blount Co, Tennessee. E-X.

Hugh Hamill, (E-X) lived in Maryville, ("Maysville"?), Blount County, Tennessee. He died when the children were very young. The Mother died at the home of her daughter in Crawford County, Illinois. The Family Bible is probably with this daughter.

Part of this record is copied from a photo Descent record(photo pasted on card) showing descent of this family. This was sent to Mrs Albert McCalla (Nancy Eleanor Hamill(#1256) by Dr. Robert H. Hamill(F3792)
 The latter lived in Chicago for a time, practicing medicine, at the same times as Dr. Robert C. Hamill (#262) and was sometimes confused with the latter. He was a younger man and not very closely related to our own family. Later this Dr. Robert H. Hamill went back East to Pgh. or Phila, where Mrs. Albert McCalla had some correspondence with him. and he mailed her this photo copy. The actual relationship of this Hamill family with our own is not known. It is very possible that back in Colerainm Irel, our own family may have been descended from a brother of one of this line.
 This will have to be proven later. However, our own Smith Hamill(#125) visited this, and the "G" family and called them "Cousins." He referred to Wilhelmina Porter(#F321) as his "Favorite Aunt" and must have known that there was a connection.

From "Wilttochtinny Magazine," Vol 1 #2, pp 183-4:
 "For 3 generations the Ancestors of Robert Hamill were Presbyterian Elders in the North of Ireland. As early as 1704, Neil Hamill was a delegate to the General Synod of Ulster, with his Pastor; the Rev. Robert Neilson. In 1732 John Hamill was a delegate with his pastor, the Rev. John Porter. In 1743 Robert Hamill(F-1) went with his pastor, the Rev. John Orr. All of these represented congregations in the Presbytery of Colerain.
 Elder Robert Hamill was the Great-Grandfather of Robt. Hamill of Norristown.
 Robert Hamill(#1 of Bushmills, County Antrim, Ireland) had a son John(#2)

LETTERS Re. FAMILY F:

(The Compiler's Grandfather, Smith Hamill(H-125), spoke of these Hamills (as the "Norristown" or "Bushmills" Hamills. He called them "Cousins," and (was very fond of them. As far as we know, he never stated whether our (people came from Bushmills or Caleraine(or Belfast), but he regarded this (family as ours.

"Peekskill-on-Hudson, 8/9/1896.

"Miss Helen Wayne MacCalla, (Numbers in brackets added by Compiler, and) Chicago, Illinois. (refer to number of Person in Family "F")

Dear Miss MacCalla: Your letter of inquiry as to the Hamill Family history received, and I am glad to be able to send you some facts which may be of service in your research.

My Maternal Grandmother was Hannah Hamill(F-373)(born 1807) daughter of Robert Hamill(F-37) of Norristown, Penna. She married, (April 11, 1826), Rev. Charles W. Nassau, DD, (F-373) and they removed to Lawrenceville, N.J., where she lived for many years, and died in Trenton, June 21, 1878. Dr. Nassau died Aug. 6, 1878.

Hannah Hamill's(F-373) father was Robert Hamill(F-37), born Bushmills, County Antrim, Ireland, 1759. To America 1798. Lived at Norristown, Penna. died there June 27, 1838, and is buried there. He married Isabella Todd on Jan'y 26, 1802. This Isabella Todd was a relative of Abraham Lincoln's wife.

The father of Robert Hamill(F-37) was Hugh Hamill(F-3), who was born, lived and died at Bushmills, aged 94 years. He married Letitia Hamill, a distant relative. The father of Hugh Hamill(F-3), was John Hamill(F-2) of Bushmills, who married Annis Dinsmore. The father of John Hamill(F-2), was Robert Hamill(F-1), of Bushmills.

My Grandmother, Hannah Hamill(F-373), had 3 brothers, viz: Hugh(F-374), Samuel(F-377), and Robert(F-379), the last named is still living. They were all Presbyterian Ministers, and Hugh(F-374) and Samuel(F-377) were for many years Principals of a School in Lawrenceville, which has since become the "Green Foundation." (The means the famous Lawrenceville Preparatory School for Princeton University).

The branch of the family which remained in Ireland has some representatives still living in Bushmills(Ireland). Trusting that the foregoing facts may be of interest to you, I am, Yours truly, CHARLES NASSAU WELLS, (August 9, 1896)." (F-373-52).

(Mrs A.W. Kilbourne, of Keokuk, Iowa, a friend of Mrs Smith Hamill(H-125), wrote on 7/28/1896 to Miss Helen Wayne MacCalla(H-125-61) of Chicago.

"Keokuk, Iowa, 7/28/1896. My Dear Miss MacCalla! I have your letter of the 24th, and am glad to give you whatever information I can about the Hamill Family. I have an Aunt in New York - whose mother's name was Hannah Hamill. She had 2 brothers, the Rev. Hugh and Rev. Samuel Hamill, who lived themselves out at the head of the school in Lawrenceville, New Jersey, which is now called the "Green Foundation," the Princeton Preparatory School. My Aunt's son is very much given to family history, and I think he will be glad to help you. His address is: Mr Charles Nassau Wells, Esq, Peekskill, New York.(F-373-52).

You are right about the Epitaph of which you speak. ("Here all died in (the Faith") It is at Norristown, Pennsylvania, where five generations of Hamills are buried. And the last stone on the line of the graves of the old people, bears that line. They are a fine old family. Mr Smith Hamill(H-125-also of Keokuk, Iowa) once told me that he belongs to that family. (No - except as Family A are an offshoot of that family back in North Ireland). I hope this will help you out some. If I can assist you further, I will do so. I will write to my Cousin about giving you what facts he can. I often think of that pleasant afternoon I spent with your Mother (SEE OTHER SIDE).

(Mrs Albert McCalla-Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6) and yourself. And I have had many occasions to refer to that Convention and correct wrong impressions about it. I shall be glad if your mother will let me know when she comes here. I should like to see you both. Remember me kindly to her, please. Yours Cordially, (Mrs) A. E. KILBOURNE. (Mother of Mrs General Schofield).

(Concerning this above letter, Helen Mayne MacCalla (H-125-61), wrote on) (9/3/1896 to Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luoma Crawford) (H-124-12), Omaha, Neb): ".....We have had a letter from Mr Charles Nassau Wells, of Peekskill, NY, who gave his own pedigree beautifully.....and of course, we aren't in it. He utterly ignores my Tennessee (Hamill-See Family E) inquiries....."

ADDENDA TO FAMILY G. (Page 1)

(From Page 585 of "History of Chester County, Penna" - of which Mr Gilbert Cone of West Chester, Penna, was one of the Editors. This matter was prepared by Mr Samuel Hamill, who on 12/11/1826, was living in Cochranville, Pennsylvania. Mr Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luema Crawford) (124-12) of Omaha, Neb, wrote him on 1/24/1896, and his letter also follows:

"The Hamill Family-From History of Chester Co, Penna-Page 585.

"Robert Hamill was born July 22, 1801, and died 3/18/1876 in the 75th year of his age. His Father, Israel Hamill, was born 12/2/1776, and died 6/30, 1838. He was the son of Robert Hamill, who was born in the North of Ireland, 8/5/1719 (Old Style). Joan (first wife of this Robert) was born 2/11, 1721 (Old Style). They were married in 1743. Their children were Martha, Mary, Phebe, Eliezer, Priscilla and Ebenezer. Joan died 8/15/1757, and was interred in the Upper Octorara "New Side" burying ground, where most of the name have since been buried. Mary died 9/10/1759, at sea, aged 12 years and was laid in the same burying ground. This would imply that the parents came to this country about the middle of the 18th century, and had left part of their children behind for a short time. Phebe died 9/19/1779. The Father then married Jean Shields, and their children were Elisha, Ruth married John Hiders; Mary married Samuel Richmond; Jemima and Keziah (twins) died in infancy; Phebe married Mr Hogg; John Caldwell, Israel and Phineas. Martha died 8/21/1784. Robert Hamill died 8/3/1803, and Jean, his wife, died 12/1/1807, aged 72 years. When Robert Hamill came to this country, he settled in Fallowfield, now Highland Twp, one mile South of Parkersburg. Israel Hamill (the Father of Robert Hamill, the subject of this Sketch) was married to Mary Scott, a daughter of James and Hannah (Allison) Scott, who were of Scotch descent. Mary was born in June 1776, and died 1/21/1861. They had 11 children, to wit: Elisha, Robert, Hannah married James Cochran; Jane married Jacob Seltzer; James died 1836; William and Israel died 1840; the other 4 died in infancy.

Robert Hamill, Esq, married Jane Cochran, a daughter of James and Martha (Elton) Cochran, who died 3/19/1831, aged 39 years, leaving 4 children, viz: Martha (married Dr. John G. Gibson), Israel, James Cochran, and Jane, who was married to Evan Chalfant. James Cochran, the father of Mrs Jane Hamill, was a son of Stephen, one of 3 brothers (James, Stephen and David) who came from Ireland in the early part of the 18th century. James Cochran died 12/12/1812, aged 74 years. Martha, the wife of James, died 4/11, 1826, aged 75 years.

Robert Hamill then married Mary, a daughter of Samuel and Margaret Walker, who died in 1839, without children. He afterwards married Eliza, a daughter of Bethel and Catherine (Barr) Baldwin, who is now (New Year's 1881) living. By that union they had 8 children, viz: Robert Albert, Eliza Emma, Edwin A, Willard Filmore, Samuel Dale, and Addie, and two others who died in infancy.

Robert Hamill's residence was in Highland Twp, formerly a part of West Fallowfield. He was a Justice of the Peace for many years, and until he refused to serve any longer. As an evidence of the confidence and esteem of his neighbors and friends, he was called upon to fill various offices and positions of responsibility and trust. Israel, the eldest son of Robert and Jane Hamill, the contributor of the materials of this biography, is married to Mary Ann, a daughter of James and Hannah (Fleming) Pinkerton, is an adherent of the Presbyterian faith and practice, as all his ancestry have been, both paternal and maternal, and he, his Father (Robert Hamill), his Grandfather (Israel Hamill), and his Great-Grandfather (Robert Hamill) from his settlement in this country, have always had a residence within the bounds of Old Fallowfield; and what is a remarkable fact, neither of them moved from the place of their first settlement in life.

(The following letter was written on 2/10/1896 by Mr Israel Hamill of Cochranville, Penna, to Mr Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luenna Crawford) (H-124-12) of Omaha, Nebraska.

"Cochranville, Penna, 2/10/1896:

"Mr Clinton Franklin, Omaha, Neb. Dear Sir: Yours of the 30th ult. received. I am sorry I am not able to give you any light in reference to your wife's genealogy. The record that I have copied is from my Great-Grandfather's old Bible, which I came up with 15 or 16 years ago. I gave you all the record it contained. My Great-Grandfather came to this country from the North of Ireland, not far from the middle of the 18th Century. You will see by the record that Mary Hamill died at sea, being between 14 and 15 years of age, and her Mother had died 2 years before, and they were both buried in the same burying ground, about 5 miles from here, a mile and a half from the home of her Father, near Parkersburg, on the Penna RR.

I think when my Great-Grandfather came over, he must have left a part of the family in the old country for a short time. We are told by tradition that Eliezer and Ebenezer were both in the Revolutionary Army, one is said to have had a horse shot thru the neck, which carried him off the battlefield. These two went West, and were lost sight of. Priscilla, I have no account of, except her birth in the record. Elisha, the oldest of the 2nd lot of children, Ruth and Mary, all married, died in this section of the country. Phoebe married a man named Hogg, John Caldwell married, they two moved to Knox County, Ohio. John C. died between 1844 and 50. Israel, my Grandfather, died in 1838. Phineas died a bachelor. My Great-Grandfather, My Grandfather, My Father (Robert) and myself, have all been Farmers, all Blue Stockings. My Grandfather had cousins that lived in Philadelphia 60 years ago or more. I think they got over into New Jersey. I am inclined to think they would be of the Hugh family, as I have heard our present Pastor, Rev. J. M. Polk, speak of Hugh Hamill, and I think he was a Preacher. There was a Mr Davis married a Hamill of that family. I heard a son of theirs preach. His name was Robert Hamill Davis, from New Jersey. I had thought I would have spoken to Dr Polk on the subject. He would be likely to be able to cite us to someone over in Jersey who would be able to give us the genealogy of the Hamills over in Jersey. My Great-Grandmother's maiden name was Jean Shields. I could trace out the different branches of my Great-Grandfather's family quite extensively, but it throws no light on your line.

I would be glad to give you any information I may be able to come up with. I will inquire of Dr. Polk in reference to the New Jersey Hamills. Dr Polk is Pastor of Faggs Manor Presbyterian Church, Post Office is Cochranville, Chester Co, Penna. Yours respectfully, Israel Hamill."

Robert Hamill was born 8/5/1719, according to the Old Style. Joan Hamill was born 2/11/1721 (Old Style). They were married 12/8/1743 (Old Style).

Martha Hamill was born 9/28/1744 (O.S.) about 8 of the clock-AM on Tues.

Mary Hamill was born Wednesday 11/26/1746 (O.S.) at 9 o'clock PM.

Phoebe Hamill was born Thursday 1/19/1748 (O.S.) at 10 AM.

Eliezer Hamill was born on the Sabbath 5/5/1751 (O.S.) between 8 and 9 AM.

Priscilla Hamill was born on the Sabbath 5/20/1753 at about 11 o'clock P.M. (New Style).

Ebenezer Hamill was born on Tuesday 9/23/1755, about 5 o'clock in the morning in the year 1755.

Joan Hamill died on Monday 8/15/1757, at 2 o'clock P.M. (SEE NEXT PAGE). (2/9/1947).

(Letter to The Compiler-dated-10/7/1947-From Mrs O.M.Follin, (Family G), of 531 East Main St, Kent, Ohio. (In 1936 she lived in Lakemore, Ohio)

"Kent, Ohio, October 7, 1947.

"Mr Paul Hamill McCall, Chicago, Ill. Dear Sir: On our vacations this year we visited the Hamill families at Higonier, (Pa) (Family A-John Hamill, (H-3-of Higonier, Pa), and then went on to the Churches at "Octorara" (Family G), and "Faags Manor," where there was and is another settlement of Hamills. My Great-Grandfather was Robert Hamill (1719-1803) (Family G), buried at Parkersburg, Penna, Chester County. Mr J.S. Hamill, (probably H-361-13, of Higonier, Pa), gave me your address and said you might be able to tell me how to take the line back further. Thanking you, I remain, MRS. O.M. FOLLIN, 531 East Main St, Kent, Ohio." (In 1936 she lived in Lakemore, Ohio).

(Letter to The Compiler-dated 11/17/1947-From Mrs O.M.Follin (Faye Eleanor Bell) (of Family G-also D-117-552-Family D-Stewart (Stewart) Section), 531 East Main St, Kent, Ohio.

"Kent, Ohio, 11/17/1947.

"Dear Mr McCall: To say that I was very glad to receive your letter and information regarding the Hamill family, hardly expresses it. I know that my Mother, some years before her death, had some correspondence with a Hamill descendent, who lived further West, but she wasn't able to go very far in her search. Now, when my own 5-children do not occupy so much of my time and I can do some searching for the records, most of the older members of the family have passed on. There are 2 members of my generation working on this, the daughter of Thos. Madison Anderson, (D-117-53-Family D-Stewart (Stewart) Section), and myself. Some of the information you sent is very helpful and I would very much like to have a copy of the Book you speak of - "Hamill Beginnings." What is the price of it? (She means The Hamill Genealogy, of which the "Introductory Section has a Sub-Section called "Hamill (Beginnings.")). Also would like a copy of that letter of John C. Hamill's. I will send you all the information I have on the Hamills and Stewarts, which I have collected, and will continue to send other information as I collect it. I've been working on this only a short time, but I know there is much material to be found at Parkersburg and Cochraville. That is the most beautiful farm country I was ever in, beautiful farm homes, well kept old Cemeteries and Churches, and fine roads. My time was so limited when I was there that I merely located the material, so to speak. I have the "History of Octorara" Church, published in 1870, and covering the period from 1720 to 1870. It gives the names of all who are buried there before 1870. Also, I have a letter written to my Grandmother, Hannah (Hamill) Anderson, (Stewart D-117-5) from Des Moines, Iowa, to Mt Vernon, Ohio in 1863, saying that the "History of Octorara Church" is the history of their family. I'm sending all the information I have, in case there might be some of it which you do not have.

I also found all these in the Cemetery: --

Mrs Jane Hamill, August 15th 1757, Aged 35.

Martha Hamill, August 21st, 1784, 40 Years.

2 Children, 1759, 10 Years and 12 Years.

- Mary Hamill, 1759, 10 Years.
- Elisha Hamill, 1840.
- Jane Stewart Hamill, 1757, 35 Years.
- Martha Hamill, 1784, 40 Years.

.. I also went to Faggs Manor Presbyterian Church and Cemetery. They still hold services there and the grounds are very well cared for. The Church bears this plate: "Presbyterian Church, Faggs Manor, Founded A.D. 1730, Remodelled 1821."

From the Cemetery I copied these:

- 1 - Jane Hamill, 1809, 80 Years.
- 2 - Robert Hamill, 1801 - 1876. —
- 3 - Eliza Baldwin Hamill, his wife, 1815 - 1885.
- 4 - Archibald Hamill, 1852, 90 Years.
- 5 - Israel Hamill, 1825 - 1906.
- 6 - Mary Ann Hamill, 1829 - 1906.
- 7 - Mary Louise Hamill, 1841 - 1844.
- 8 - Adda, daughter of R. & E.B. Hamill, 1845 - 1899.

All 8 inscriptions are on this one marker and on the 4 sides of the marker.

I stopped at Idgonier, (Fenna) briefly. The original Hamill there had a Land Grant from the Fenna and this is still in the family. He gave the land for the School House, Church and Cemetery. Both buildings are there as well as the old Hamill home. The Church bears this inscription: -- Idgonier Presbyterian Church, Built 1730.

Rebuilt 1800 and 1891."

There are 2 Hamill heroes of the "revolutionary War buried in this Graveyard, but I could not get the inscriptions, as the grass was so high, and it was raining. Mr James Hamill, (probably H-361-13) said he would get them for me but I have heard no word yet. He was called away that day by the death of a neighbor. You may have all this, but I am sending what I have.

You will note the correction: Thomas Madison Anderson, (Stewart D-117-53) was the Hamill descendent, and not Mrs Anderson. Mrs T.M. Anderson was Letitia Elder. I have a letter dated 1844: "Penningtonville, Adamsburg Town, ship, Chester Co, Fenna," written by Andrew Stewart, (probably Stewart D-114 to Mr John C. Hamill, - Vernon, C. He says: "Hannah Boyd lives at Uncle McCaughey's. R.S. Hamill lives at Parkersburg, and have another son, Edwin Jeffries. Stewart Hamill is Engineer on R.R." Speaks of Uncle Enoch Stewart sold Uncle James Boyd's real estate to "M. Whiteside."

I also have a letter written by John C. Hamill, (probably Stewart D-117) (SEE NEXT PAGE). (2/14/1943).

"ADDENDA to FAMILY G" to his wife, Nancy Hamill: "Baltimore, Friday, Sept. 23rd, 1814." Says he is in the Service of his Country. "Your brother James, (which would be James Stewart) is in the same Company." The letter is folded square, sealed with wax and these names are written on the outside: Wm. Stewart, Robt. L. Hamill, William Honiger.

I will send extra records under the Stewarts as soon as I can get them typed. With kind regards to all your family and all the Hamills out there. MRS. O.M. FOLLIN, 531 E. Main St, Kent, Ohio. (Family G - and Stewart D-117- ) (552 - Family D - Stuart (Stewart) Section).

(Letter also from Mrs O.M. Follin dated 3/12/1948):

(Madison Anderson-Letitia Sebring Elder, see also Page D-117-53, )

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

By HENRY ADAMS
Author of "The Education of Henry Adams"

Published by THE CENTURY CO., New York 1907

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES, by Henry Adams, is a work of profound scholarship and literary genius. It is a history of the United States as it is, not as it should be. It is a history of the United States as it was, not as it is. It is a history of the United States as it is, not as it should be.

The author's style is clear, concise, and powerful. He writes with a sense of purpose and a sense of direction. He writes with a sense of history and a sense of destiny. He writes with a sense of the past and a sense of the future. He writes with a sense of the present and a sense of the future.

(Letter of 2/27/1943): ".....I have received a letter of inquiry from Mrs.
 Carl S. Enrich, RFD 10, Box 419, (5920 N-W 58th St), Oklahoma City (7), Okla.
 She is trying to find some information on her Grandmother, Sarah Hamill, who lived in Butler Co, Penna. There were two Hamill daughters that she knows of, she says, and that there may have been, and probably were, more. Rachel Hamill married William Valentine Evans, Oct 2, 1834. Rachel died in 1872 and is buried in Tarentum, Penna. Sarah Hamill married Daniel C. Boggs on Jan 27, 1848. She died in 1877 and is buried in Evans City, Butler Co, Penna.

Mrs Enrich writes that she thinks these Hamills lived in or near Butler County for many years, and were probably Presbyterians. Says she found my name in the D.A.R. Lineage Book.

I have spent two whole evenings looking through the two volumes of The Hamill Genealogy, and while I found many Rachel and Sarah Hamills, especially in the John Hamill (A-5) section, none of them married husbands whose names were Evans or Boggs. Do you remember having written up pages on these Hamills? If so, and you will tell me where to find them in "the Books" (The Hamill Genealogy), I will write to her shortly.....

(Letter of 4/5/1949): "....The same mail brought another letter from Mrs. Enrich. So last night I got out some old letters and in them I found some material and data on the same family of Hamills, so I wrote Mrs Enrich last evening and sent her the information contained in Mrs Stout's letters, written in 1941 and 1942 from Colorado Springs. I sent her Mrs Hollin's

(Letter dated 6/7/1942): "Oklahoma City(7), Okla. June 7, 1942. Mrs Sylvia W Caven, 1620 Nevada St, Wering, Neb. My Dear Mrs Caven: I noted in the DAR Lineage Book that you are a descendant of Samuel Hamill, who lived at one time in Lawrence Co, Penna. I am trying to find some information on my Grandmother, Sarah Hamill, who lived in Butler Co, Penna. Since those names are the same, I thought it possible you might have some history records of the Hamill family, which would include my Grandmother. There were 2 Hamill daughters that I know of, maybe more. Rachel Hamill married William Valentine Evans October 2, 1854, she died in 1872 and is buried in Warentum, Penna. Sarah Hamill married Daniel C. Boggs, January 27, 1848, she died in 1877, and is buried in Evans City, Butler Co, Penna. I think these Hamills lived in or near Butler County(Pa) for many years, and were probably Presbyterians.

I have done considerable research and have proven my line back through the Boggs side, but just can't seem to find anything on the Hamill side. If you have any records that seem to link Sarah Hamill with your ancestors, I will be very grateful for any information that you may have on her. Sincerely, Mrs Carl S. Enrich, (Corean B.), RFD 10, Box 419, (5920 N-W 58th St), Oklahoma City(7), Oklahoma.

(Letter of 3/21/1949): "Dear Mrs Caven: I want to thank you for the interest you have shown in my problem, and the time you have taken to try and help me. I have had numerous leads since writing you, but have really made very little progress. From a query published in "Your Family Tree" a new genealogical magazine dealing with "Western Pennsylvania, I contacted a man in Denver who has a Hamill ancestor. Steven Hamill is the emigrant, and he came from Scotland to Maryland, and had 5 sons, anyone of whom might have gone into Pennsylvania. (Compiler's Note: Maybe same as Family "1"). He was Hugh, and I found a Hugh Hamill in Westmoreland Co, Penna. (Compiler's Note: Probably our Hugh(1-36). This man's (from Denver) ancestors used both the Hamill and Hamil spelling. He offered any other information he had if I thought I could connect it up with what I had. There were also Sarah's in his line.

Just lately I have decided perhaps I have been on the wrong track entirely. In the various items I have on my Grandmother, I note her name spelled Hamill, Hamill and Hamell. I didn't give much thought to the various forms as I noticed so many different spellings of the same names in different works I have examined. However I have overlooked the fact that her name appears "Hamel" in places and even "Hammel". So I have begun a search on "Hamel" and did find a "Charles Hamel" in Pitt Township, Allegheny Co, in 1790 and later. This might be the family I want.

The reasons I placed my Hamells so definitely in Butler Co, Penna, are: My Grandfather was born and raised there, and even when he lived in Pittsburgh, visited so often in Evans City that I just naturally supposed he married there and he could very well have married after he went to Pittsburgh. Then, too, the Evans family was from Butler Co, and since an Evans also married a Hamel, I was more certain they were from Evans City, or the nearby Scotch colony of Connoquenessing, where William Valentine Evans is buried in the Church yard of a very old Presbyterian Church, the "White Oak Springs Church. Perhaps in time I will learn not to be so positive. I am new at this Genealogy.

So it may very well be that from Pittsburgh I can get the information I need, just how I do not at the present moment know. I may just be on the wrong track again. I found various "Hamells" in other counties in Penna. I do appreciate very much the trouble you took to help me and will keep in mind that you have the Hamill(1) Genealogy, with information I may need if the name turns out to be "Hamil" after all. Thanks again. Sincerely, Corean B. Enrich (Mrs Carl S.), RFD 10, Box 419, (5920 N-W 58th St), Oklahoma City(7), Oklahoma.

It will mean a great deal to me as my Great-Grandmother was Diana Crawford, (of) Washington County, Penna, or nearby, who married my Great-Grandfather, John Hamel or Hamill. Their son, Crawford Hamel, (Born Butler Co, Penna, 1820-1898), married my Grandmother, Prudence Sisler, (Dec 12, 1813-1895) (bn) Oct. 1847 at Altoona, Penna. John Hamel's sisters were: Jesse Critchlow, Bradock, Penna; Margaret Martin, Rachel Evans, Nancy Smith, Sarah Boggs, Magdalene Graham. Sons: Crawford Hamel, James Hamel, Vance Hamel, who was my Uncle. You see, the names Vance and Crawford are in my family, my oldest brother's name was Harry Crawford Lafferty. I am leaving for the Gulf next Wednesday, and will go to Old Mexico while down there. My daughter lives in Corpus Christi, a very delightful place to spend a vacation in winter. (Letter to Mrs A.J. Caven (11-124-1134) - From Mrs Weyant E. Morris, PO Box 3)
(Elburn, Kane County, Illinois)

(Letter of 12/13/1941): "Mrs Weyant E. Morris, PO Box 3, Elburn, Kane Co., Illinois. 12/13/1941. Mrs A.J. Caven, Gering, Neb. My Dear Mrs Caven: I was told by another Crawford descendant (Annoeth Davidson-now in Army), that you were interested in the genealogy of the Crawford family. Also that of Hamel (Hamill-Hemphill). Since I had recently had an inquiry from a woman who also is trying to find such a family history, I thought I'd drop you a line also, and tell you I gave your name to this woman, and maybe she has written to you already, and maybe you know her, and are related. She is Mrs Emma Stout, Colorado Springs, Colo. (Address her at Antlers Hotel).

Crawford Hamel, born near Butler, Penna, son of John Hamel and his wife, Diana Crawford Hamel. Crawford Hamel's parents were: John Hamel and Diana Hamel, and their children were: Crawford Hamel (b: 1820-d: 1895), James Hamel and Vance Hamel.

Crawford Hamel (1820-1895), married 1847 in Altoona, Penna, Prudence Sister (1818-1895), and they had 1 daughter, Mary Amanda Hamel (1848-1933).

Mary Amanda Hamel (1848-1933) married William Lafferty (1846-1916), and they had as children: Harry Crawford Lafferty, Mary Amanda Lafferty, and Belle Lafferty (Stout), of Colorado - and others.

The John Hamel (named first) was buried in White Oak Springs Church, at Connoquenessing, Butler Co, Penna. Do you know anything of this lineage? Is it the one you are interested in?

Now, I'll tell you how I have been working on trying to sort out some of the Vances and Crawfords, too, because of our relation to them. But we have the connection first, to the family of Col. William Crawford (of Sandusky note), and my husband's ancestors (Cooks, Tunns and Adams) from Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, went up into Western Penna about when the Vances and Crawfords did, and they all lived right together there, in Washington Co, Penna. By 1790 all were listed in the Census, and then in early 1800's and even in the late 1790's, some of them began to leave Western Penna, and try for new lands, either in Ohio, or to the South, Kentucky, etc. So that when we come to a Crawford connection in Ohio also (this time to Morris), when a Christine Crawford, born 1801, married a Henry Morris, born 1801, it is hard to say which line of Crawford this Christine came from as yet. Could be the first named one, and could also be some of the Virginia-Kentucky ones, who also moved into Ohio. From Ohio whole groups came over into Illinois in the 1850's.

Will you please drop me a line and let me know if you are really working on Vance-Crawford lines? I've just finished a transcript of the very early Goshen Baptist Church records in Western Penna, 1769 to 1801. Many old "names" in it. Mrs W.E. Morris, PO Box 3, Elburn, Illinois.

(POST CARD dated 12/17/1941): "Mrs A.J. Caven, Gering, Neb. 12/17/1941. Dear Mrs Caven: Hope you received my recent letter and will have time to answer it soon. I received my "Genealogy & History" (which is a monthly magazine published at Box 1717, Washington, DC, at $2. a year), and in it I note that an Alexander Hemphill, a -altster, of Sc. (Scotch) descent from Co Derry, Ireland, arrived in Delaware County, Penna, about 1740, with sons James and Joseph, and daughter Mary and her husband, John Fox, etc. Goes on to say where they emigrated, etc, and lists other children and occupations. Do you suppose that is the progenitor of your Hamel-Hamill-Hemphill? I consider this magazine well worth the $2. a year, because you always get in touch with others who are really working on same lines, and when you subscribe, you may send in your main problems as a query, and after that, you get one publication for every answer you send in to some one else's queries. Do drop me a line soon. Yours truly, Mrs W.E. Morris, PO Box 3, Elburn, Ill."

( Letter of May 25th, 1949: - "Dear Mrs. Caven: (A-124-113-Family A): 5/25/1949.

"I am enclosing a copy of the letter from Mr. James of Denver, listing the sons of Steven Hamill. He evidently is a descendant of the Sarah Hamill and William Poston you have in your genealogy. Perhaps you would like to contact him for further information. You may tell him that I gave you his name, etc."

It was very kind of Robert W. Evans, (Davidson A-121-311-1) to take time to look in the Butler Co, (Penna) History for me. Please thank him for me. The information that John Hamill was from Washington Co, Penna, may prove quite helpful. I had an answer to my letter to Mrs (O.A.) Pollin, (Stewart D-117-552 of Kent, Ohio, and while she didn't have anything right now to help me, she is writing some relatives for data and is doing considerable work on early Washington Co records for an ancestor, Robert Poll, who died in Wheeling in 1839. So it may well be she will run across my Hamills there. Her Hamills settled in Chester Co, Penna, some later came to Pittsburgh, Westmoreland and Venango Counties, later some to Ohio.

The "Petersville" in Butler Co and Connoquessing, (Penna) seem to be one and the same place. As I understand it, Petersville was the old name, altho why they would change it to the "jaw-breaker" they did puzzles me. Squire Robert Boggs was my Great-Grandfather. In the "History of Butler Co, (Penna), published by R.C. Brown & Co. in 1895, it states: "Robert Boggs located in 1796 on a tract of 400 acres of land and built his cabin in the midst of a wilderness..... He opened a tavern for the accommodation of settlers and immigrants looking for homes..... Some years later he erected a grist-mill, a very necessary improvement for that period. It was a log structure and he operated it continuously until 1836, when he sold the mill and 200 acres of land to Thomas B. Evans, who laid out the borough of Evans City, then called "Evansburg."

Two of my Grandfather's sisters married into the Evans family as did Rachel sister of Sarah Hamill. I have a Cousin, (third, I believe) in Pittsburgh, who I contacted in this search, Olive Evans. The Evans were Welch, and on one of her European trips she visited the beautiful old Evans home in Wales and saw the old family records at the church there. I am the only one of the family that ever visited it. So it could very well be that she and Robert Evans are connected way back there. She could be a great help to me, being in Pittsburgh, so close to material, and all, but she just isn't interested in genealogy. I find people fall into two classes, those who are and those who aren't interested in genealogy. Those who aren't think it all very silly. Also she is considerably older than I, she never married, and since the death of her father and brother has given up travelling, of which she did a lot, and is very interested in politics and is a "rabid" Republican. That keeps her busy.

My letter to Mrs Stout at Pueblo, (Colo), was returned, and the one to Colorado Springs hasn't come back, so either it was lost or she isn't going to answer. Of course there may be many reasons why she hasn't, poor health, etc. Perhaps she had no data further back than John Hamill and his sisters. I enjoy your letters and hope I have not burdened you too much with my problems. Perhaps little by little I will collect the needed information. Sincerely, MRS CORRAN B. BIRCH, (Mrs Carl B), 5020 N-W 30th St, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Leonardstown, St Mary's County, Maryland, at a date I estimate to be about 1740-1750. The children of Steven Hamill, the immigrant were, according to the Will (5 Maryland Wills 150) of John Hamill:

- (1) John; (2) Nail (son); (3) William; (4) Sarah; (5) Catherine;
(6) Hugh; (7) Stephen.

I know nothing further about these children except that Sarah Hamill married William Poston "early in life" and removed to Smyth County, Virginia. It may be that one of these 5 sons may have moved into Pennsylvania. Good luck! If you find that Sarah and Rachel Hamill are descendants of my Steven Hamill, please let me know and I will give you what further data I have on his line. As late as 1916 my Grandfather, John Hamill Poston, of Memphis, Tennessee, spelled his name as did Sarah and Rachel Hamill. Very sincerely yours, J. COLIN JAMES, JR.

(Letter of June 27, 1949): "Dear Mrs. Eaven: I recently had an answer to my letter to Mrs. Stout, and am enclosing a copy of the material she sent me. I don't know how interested you are in this, but thought you might like this different and supposedly correct version."

After I found out that John Hamill was a veteran of 1812, I wondered about his being the brother of my Sarah Hamill. My Grandfather was born in 1813 and my Grandmother perhaps later than that, which would have put John Hamill a much older brother. So this new data fits in better, his being her father. Since he was from Washington Co, Penna, and that part of the state was one time a part of Augusta Co, Virginia, I plan, as soon as I find time, to examine records of Augusta Co, of which we have quite a lot in our historical library. Also this new angle does give me a Crawford line it seems.

Mrs. Stout is still at the Antlers Hotel, Colorado Springs, Colo, and still has the Cameo Shop. She wrote that she was quite busy at this time of the year. I am very happy at this discovery of another generation, and do hope I can go on from there, little by little. It is getting very warm in Oklahoma, but we are somewhat accustomed to it, and then we do have a breeze and cool nights. Sincerely, MRS. CORA E. Their Family Bible Record says: "Sarah Hamill was the daughter of Stephen Hamill, who emigrated to St Mary's Co, Md, from Scotland. He settled on a farm which had descended to her in Charles Co, near "The Hill Top," where he resided until I was about 8 years old. He then removed to Washington Co, Va. #Signed# by his son, John Hamill Poston, in 1822."

"The Poston Family intermarried with the Dent Family in Charles County, Md - the Hatch-Dent Family. This is all I know of the Hamills, though the name is still in our family. (Mrs J. Tucker Bowen - May C. Bowen)."

FAMILY Y:

A CANADIAN FAMILY OF HAMILLS - IN HAMILTON, ONT, CANADA.

MR. FELIX HAMILL, of Hamilton,
Ont, Canada, was born in 1862 in Ballymena, Co. Antrim, Ireland.
He Emigrated in 1878, at 16 years of age.

Date: (10/23/1946) Mrs Mary Hawkins, 1333 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago(10), Illinois.

(Mrs Mary Hawkins of Chicago, wrote to The Compiler on 10/23/1946. She (had seen an old copy of The Hamill Genealogy, (Edition of 1930) in the (Newberry Library of Chicago. The Compiler was hard at work in recopy(ing The Hamill Genealogy for this Revision of 1947 - so did not have an (opportunity to write Mrs Hamill, or to answer Mrs Hawkins. This letter)
(is filed here as Family Y - for purposes of record.)

"Mr Paul Hamill McCalla, 2320 Cottage Grove Avenue,
Chicago(16), Illinois.

"October 23, 1946.

Dear Sir: I read with interest today your MSS "Hamill Genealogy" at the Newberry Library. Among all the descendants listed, I found no Canadian named.....I have in mind one who I think belongs to the branch of the family which is the subject of your MSS - namely, Mr Felix Hamill, 142 Catherine Street South, Hamilton, Ontario(Canada).

Mr Hamill is now 84½ years old, having been born in June 1862, in Ballymena, County Antrim, Ireland. He came to this continent from Belfast at the age of 16, and has made his home in Hamilton for the greater part of 60 years, having resided for a time in Sarnia, Ontario. For 56 years he has been a member of the 13th Royal Canadians (now Royal Hamilton Light Infantry), and still takes an active part in all their band activities, regular Friday night "band night" and parades. He is regarded as the oldest living active cornet player on the North American Continent. He has played the cornet since he was 10 years old.

In addition, Mr Hamill is an active gardener. Each Summer he gardens a plot 50"x125". In 1945 the seed alone cost $20. He raises vegetables for himself, claiming fresh vegetables keep him fit, and the surplus goes to the neighbors. During the war he worked two gardens, one in the city, the other on the Mountain, and daily climbed the 520 steps up the Wentworth Street encline, carrying his tools. He was then past 75!

Mr Hamill is in possession of all his faculties, and is a very loveable character. He has been the subject of repeated press notices, one of note being that covering the "blowout" given him by the R.M.L.I. band on "Felix Hamill Night" March 21, 1945, in the Hamilton Spectator. Another that of May 25, 1946, featuring his garden work Centennial year.....
He seems to run true to form, as to character and tastes, as I note another Hamill of Ireland, Henry, born 1845, son of a professional gardener and forester, was prominent as a seed merchant in Toronto, (died 1887?)

The subject of this letter is a credit to the family, and a visit to him by any of the American branch would prove of great interest to them.
Mr Hamill is independent and self-supporting - at 84½ years of age! His one son has a responsible connection with the Steel Company. Yours very truly, MRS MARY HAWKINS, 1333 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago(10), Illinois."

HAMILL GENEALOGY - OTHER HAMILLS SECTION - FAMILY 2:

FAMILY 2:

A BRITISH FAMILY OF HAMILLS - IN ENGLAND,

GERARD L. HAMILL of London, and his brother; MAJOR EDGAR HAMILL, of the Isle of Man, have a Father living in Taunton, Devonshire, England.

Date: (4/27/1943) Mr Gerard L. Hamill 19 Laleham Ave, Mill Hill, London,
N-W 7, England.

(This Gerard L. Hamill, of London, England, wrote The Compiler on 4/27/1946) (inquiring for Hamill information. He had seen a copy of the "Hamill-McCalla Handbook" in the British Museum, London, Eng. The Compiler then) (wrote this Mr Hamill, outlining some of the history of the Hamilla - as) (we know it - and requesting him to send further data as to his descent, etc. The Compiler never heard further from him. They apparently know) (very little of their own family history.)

"Paul Hamill McCallan, Esq,
(Or Relations) 2316 Calumet Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois.

" 19 Laleham Avenue, Mill Hill,
London, N-W 7, England.

Dear Sir: The other day I visited the British Museum in search of some information and, whilst seeking my subject, quite accidentally noticed a reference to the "Family of Hamill." I requested the attendant to get me the book, as I bear this name and have often speculated on its origin. I read the volume with the greatest interest and was grateful to the Compiler of the work for taking such pains to trace back the family history. It is my intention to bring it to the notice of other members of the Hamill "Clan" in this country. I am sure that they will be equally interested and grateful.

One thing that struck me was the remarkable facial resemblance which all Hamills seem to share. The bust of (Dr) R.C. Hamill (MD-H-262-of Chicago) is exactly like my Father, and the other photographs remind me very much of our own family album. It is not so much the facial construction, as the eyes and general expression. My little daughter, aged 1 year, is quite unmistakable in this direction already. We originally hailed from Liverpool where, as you are probably aware, there are a number of Hamills, all of whom seem to have the Irish characteristics predominant.

My Father's business took him to Manchester, where we lived for a while until my Mother's death, when the family behaved somewhat atomically, exploding so to speak, and flying off in all directions. My Father, to Taunton, Devonshire. My Brother to the Isle of Man (and I believe is the only Hamill on the Island), and I to London. The diversity of our places of residence is only equalled by the differences in our occupation. My Father, being in the Restaurant business (with a little photography on the side). Brother Edgar excels in the mechanical line and was a Major in the 8th Army for 3 years, returning some weeks ago to a very prosperous little business in the Isle of Man (wholesale news agent for the Island. (petrol sales - removals - car hire, etc, etc). By the way, emulating his Crusader Ancestor, he was mentioned in dispatches for gallantry under fire.

I was in the fruit business before the war, but later joined the De Havilland Aircraft Co, in London, where we were repairing Merlin engines during the Battle of Britain, and here I should say that, despite the transatlantic name-calling which our respective statesmen seem to indulge in, we thanked God for the Packard Motor Co's efforts in manufacturing.
(SEE OTHER SIDE).
(5/22/1947).

the Merlin engine. At that time our factory was littered with engines waiting for spares, a crankshaft was worth its weight in gold and so was a connecting rod. Then a lucky German bomb hit the shop at Rolls-Royce works where these parts were made, and things really looked black. You can imagine how we greeted the beautifully made packing cases crammed with spares from the US, and later whole engines in thousands. Not only were the contents top quality, but the packing cases made darn good hen-houses!

However, I digress a little, regarding the family origin, there is a widespread belief that we are descended from a French General who distinguished himself in the Napoleonic wars. My Father used to tell me that his Father frequently recounted the tale, but I always doubted it and now realize that the old Sire had probably got his dates wrong and mixed his wars up a little.

I am writing to my Father and relations as I know that they will be very interested indeed in your book. I wonder if you have a spare copy? If so I would be very grateful for it, and with your permission, would have it copied for members of the family. Please let me know if you are agreeable to this. It occurs to me that there may be an American Hamill or other relations in this country, perhaps serving in the forces. If so, my wife and I would be glad to see them, and put them up if necessary. We always boast that we 'never close the door on a Hamill.' This is hereby amended to read 'Hamill, McCallan, Stuart, Elder, Scott & Davidson.' Long may they prosper and honour the record which you have compiled.

Best wishes, CERARD L. HAMILL.

(The Compiler answered this letter from Mr G.L.Hamill on 5/20/1946, giving data about the Hamill Genealogy and the Hamills, and requesting more data about Mr Hamill's family, descent, genealogy, etc. He never has answered)

SUSAN DUNCAN HAMILL, Daughter of JAMES KING HAMILL, of Tampa, Florida.

(From Chicago Daily News-11/14/1944): "Nathan Osborne, Jr., to wed Eastman-er. Now that he's in Milwaukee, Nathan G. Osborne, Jr.'s, engagement is of even greater interest here. His fiancée is Susan Duncan Hamill, daughter of Mrs Herbert Henry Melcher, of New York, and James King Hamill, of Tampa, Florida. Young Nate, a graduate of the Boy's Latin School, is the son of Mrs Henry Sprague Sturgis, of Cedarhurst, L.I., whom Chicagoans will always remember as the popular Kate Bartholomay Osborne. His Father is Nathan G. Osborne, of Evanston, and he is a Grandson of the Henry Bartholomays and Mrs W. Irving Osborne."

(From Chicago Daily News-11/30/1946): "Nathan Osborne, Jr., and his Eastern fiancée, Susan Hamill, will probably be married in February.....and probably live in Milwaukee, which is good news to his relatives here. Susan is a product of Miss Hall's School, Dobb's Ferry, and the University of New Hampshire.....and Nate attended Andover and Harvard (for 2 years) before entering the Navy Air Corps."

(From Chicago Daily News-2/23/1947): "Society in Chicago-Kin Go East to See Nathan Osborne and Susan Hamill Today. Bartholomay Cousins to Attend Groom; Service in New York City. (by Mildred Bulger). Members of the Bartholomay and Osborne families are converging in New York City for the wedding of Nathan Greene Osborne, Jr., to Susan Duncan Hamill. The ceremony's to be read at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Chapel of the Church of the Heavenly Rest. The groom's father, Nathan Greene Osborne, and his Uncle, W. Irving Osborne, are there for the event, but his paternal Grandmother, Mrs W. Irving Osborne of Evanston, remained at her winter home in Santa Barbara. Mr and Mrs Henry Bartholomay, L.I., cousins of the groom, who are to be best man and bridesmaid, have gone East with the junior Henry Bartholomays. The senior Henry Bartholomays are interrupting their holiday at Vero Beach, Fla., to attend their Grandson's wedding, and Bill Bartholomay left his classes at Oberlin College to attend as an usher in his cousin's wedding party. The bride is the daughter of Mrs Herbert Melcher of New York, and James King Hamill of Tampa, Florida. Mrs Henry Sprague Sturgis, mother of the groom, lives in Cedarhurst, L.I."

My daughter received your letter today, and as she is unable to answer it, I will do the best I can. We know so little of the Hamill Family that I am afraid it will be of little use to you. My husband's name is Charles C. Hamill, and his father's name was Joseph (Hamill), and his grandfather's name was Joseph (Hamill).

We think he has a brother, Michael Hamill, living in Quebec now. He often spoke of his father as being full-to-do, and being a shoe manufacturer, and that he made shoes for the Revolutionary War. I could probably find out a little more, but nothing authentic. We would be pleased to hear from you again as to whether we are of the same family. Yours respectfully, Mrs Charles C. Hamill."

MISC. HAMILL DATA:

(ITEM # 1): "Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill(H-15) said in a letter that two Original Brothers (probably Nathaniel(H-1) and Robert, Sr(H-2) received 2000 acres of land each. (Compiler's Note: Legend says they owned in all (some 2000 acres - Penna Archives show much smaller holdings for each man)

(ITEM # 2): Helen Wayne McCalla(H-125-61) says: "Our Hamills always had the Legend of The Palm Tree Coat-of-Arms, but did not have it verified until they got in touch with the Baltimore Hamills." (These Baltimore Hamills are Unknown - but there were some Baltimore Hamills who married into (the Conant Family). "It is possible that the Hamills landed at Baltimore or in Chesapeake Bay."

(ITEM # 3): Helen Wayne McCalla(H-125-61), and her Mother, Mrs Albert McCalla(H-125-6) both say: "Miss Spellman, Mrs John D. Rockefeller's Cousin lived in Keokuk on the Bluffs, not far from the home of Smith Hamill, (H-125). The day that Smith Hamill(H-125) died, a Mr Davidson, who had been upstate in Iowa, stopped in Keokuk, and met Dr Maxwell, MD, at the Station, and said that he had stooped to look up a relative by the name of Smith Hamill(H-125). This Mr Davidson was supposed to have been John D. Rockefeller's Mother's brother, and was written up in the Keokuk, Iowa, newspaper." (Compiler's Note: The Davidsons of the Smith Hamill(H-125) family were supposed to be closely related to the Davidsons of Rockefeller's Mother, who was a Davidson.).

(ITEM # 4): John Hamill was Governor of Iowa. There were some Hamill in Seattle, Washington, and they are in the Commission Business.

(ITEM # 5): Nathaniel Hamill(H-1) is said to have been one of 4 brothers who served in the Militia in the Revolution. There is a John N. Hamill listed in Revolutionary War records in the Penna Archives, Series 3-23-235 -National 35813 -27307.

(ITEM # 6): Mrs Thomas Hamill, McConnellsburg, Penna (It is not known who (she is), wrote on 10/16/1924: "Fulton County, (Penna) has only existed since 1850. The First Court was held in 1851 in an old Methodist Church. The Court House was built in 1851, and before that Fulton was a part of Bedford County, (Penna). Old records are probably at Bedford, Bedford Co, Pa."

(ITEM # 7): Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) says Lloyd Homer Hamill(H-121-52) wrote her on 9/29/1924: "The Hamills, Davidsons, Smiths all came from County Tyrone, North Ireland, taking Boats at Belfast, in years 1760-5. First Hamills of our branch to come over as far as we can learn are 4 Brothers, John, Joseph, Robert & Hugh. My forefather is Robert. I have no record of the other 3. These 3 settled in Ligonier Valley(now Fulton County). They later moved to Bedford County about 1770, and then to Western Penna(about 1800) to Westmoreland County, which at that time included what is now Lawrence, Mercer, Little and Big Beaver, Erie, and some others Lying East of these."

(ITEM # 8): Mrs Robt. G. Harne (Martha Sarah Hamill-H-125-5) wrote on 10/19/1924: "Look up the Ligonier Valley Hamills (See means H-3). They are all Father's (Smith Hamill-H-125) Cousins. "Aunt Sally" (Sarah Hamill-H-15) said in her letter that she had stayed with them before going to Lawrence County (Shon Valley, Pa). Look for Davidsons around Carlisle, Penna. Yes, both Grandfather Hamills were in the War of 1812, and both received payment in Land. John Hamill(H-12) was in the Military District of Illinois, somewhere about Galesburg (It was at Ottawa, Ill). Grandfather gave it to his youngest son, Dr Thomas Hamill, MD(H-129), who never took the trouble to look it up, and John MacCandless (See MacCandless Section) gave his to his youngest son, James MacCandless. His lay in Ashaska County, Iowa, and was never claimed, as it was too far out in the wild and wooly west. They sure made a mistake in not keeping their claims. Look up the prisoners of Ft Washington, and you will find the names of William and John Young (See (Young Section). Mother(H-125) used to say that they were Revolutionary Prisoners at one time."

(ITEM # 9): Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) wrote: "I believe that the woman who had the old Black Bible(of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr-H-1), was Cordelia Hamill(H-121-6), who lived with Rosanna Hamill, who is now in San Diego. Later she came West to John Hamill's, and Aunt Martha McKean (H-124-4) writes me that she must have had the old family Bible. I do not believe that she ever went into the Black Hills country. She did go to Kansas, where Uncle John(probably H-121) was living near Leavenworth, and she married and lived there between Leavenworth and Kansas City. I believe she had an adopted son by the name of James White(Compiler's Note: Others say it was James Glen), who lives in the same spot somewhere(between Leavenworth and Kansas City), and who has all her things."

(ITEM # 10): Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) wrote: "Aunt Rose (probably Rosanna Hamill-H-124-2), who lived much of her life with early life with Grandmother Rosanna Davidson, writes that Nathaniel Hamill(H-1) said that he heard a pack of wolves. He took his Gun, went out, and was never seen again. Years later, the gun stock and powder horn were found and identified." Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) later again wrote: "Body never found, only gun-stock and powder horn, at Big Cove, Pa, 1790-5 (It was 1799). His widow, Martha Beckett(H-1) moved to Lawrence Co, Penna, in 1798-1900. Nathaniel Hamill, Jr(H-11) died and is buried at Beth-el Church Graveyard(4 miles N. of Enon Valley, Pa)."

(ITEM # 11): The Records of Hamills, McCallas, Youngs, etc(the Palatine-Records) were burned in the Fire of the Albany, NY, State Library. These records contained one out-of-print book showing the records of Hamills, connecting us directly with Ireland. They covered the early history of America. They spoke also of John Smith's North Virginia Colony(which was before the Mayflower). Then there were also Parchments, printed in the old fashioned way, mentioning Hamills, Youngs, etc. The records burned in the Harrisburg, Penna, State Library fire included those on Hamills, Youngs, Elders, Stuarts(Stewarts), Waynes, etc - and also including some Kinfolk on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

(ITEM # 12): Miss Carrie Hamill(H-125-8) visited Belfast(and probably also Bushmills and Coleraine), North Ireland, when abroad shortly before her death. She saw a large Church in Belfast, which had a window dedicated to our Crusader Hamill Ancestor("The Palm"). (This Stained-glass window may have been at Bushmills or Coleraine - but is believed to have been at Belfast). This Church was afterwards burned. The Sacristan of that Church told her that there had been a number of Hamills emigrate to America, and that one of the emigrations was in 1760 - when several had gone to join others who had been there much earlier. This would seem to connect with our Hamills. There are also beautiful windows in Scotland to various Davidsons.

(ITEM # 13): The Penna Archives has no listings as a Soldier, although there are 3 listings as to Taxes. John Hamill, (either H-3, the brother of (Nathaniel, or son(H-12), or son of Robert, Sr, (Robert's son John(H-23A) was (born in 1771), is listed as follows: 6-3-44 list of Inhabitants of Turkey Foot Twp, Bedford Co, Penna, subject to Military Laws, 2/6/1789. 6-4-454, was listed as Ensign in Rifle Co, Bedford Co, 8/15/1794. 3-5-117 Ensign Rifle Company, 3rd Regiment, Bedford County, Battalion 8/15/1794, (Penna Militia). Bear in mind that Robert Hamill's(H-2) son John(H-23A) was born in 1771, and would therefore be 23 in 1794. Nathaniel's(H-1) son John(H-12) was born in 1777, and would therefore be 17 in 1794. There was another John at the same time with Nathaniel, who was probably his brother (H-3) or possibly his father. Charles Hamble, Private in Garrison at Fort-Bedford, Penna, (Col. Lloyd's Company), Lt-Col. Joseph Shippen, 1/24/1760. This may have been one of the Fallowfield(Penna) Hamills(See Other Hamills Section-Family C), or one of the Shippensburg Hamills(See Other Hamills Section-Family A).

(ITEM # 14): (An old Statement - Source unknown - says): Re Nathaniel Hamill(H-1): Supposedly 4 brothers came from County Antrim, North Ireland, (John, Joseph, Robert & Hugh - or Nathaniel, Robert, John and Joseph), and settled at Big Cove, Penna., 1764-5. Some say a 5th brother went back to Ireland. Sarah("Aunt Sally") Hamill(H-15) wrote of a mud fort she lived, (probably with a William Hamill(Unknown), who built a mud fort at Billingsport, Penna). "Aunt Sally"(H-15) also wrote of Uncle John Hamill(H-3) who had a daughter Rachel(H-35) who married John Hope(It was James K. Hope), and moved to Enon Valley, Penna, in 1800. This John(H-3) was a brother of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr(H-1). "Aunt Sally"(H-15) also said that Uncle John(H-3) had 5 girls and 2 boys(Hugh(H-36) and Robert(H-37)). His girls all married. John Hope's(It was James K. Hope) sister Hannah lived in Cleveland. The Penna. Dept. of Internal Affairs says that no Hamill ever served as Surveyor General of Penna, and if he was ever appointed, he never served. We might write the US Surveyor General and see if any Hamill ever served the US Government.

(ITEM # 15): Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) wrote: "The Brothers supposedly settled in Big Cove about 1750-5(?). A Mrs Allen of Westmoreland County, Penna, is a Great-Grandchild of the Hugh Hamills(probably H-36). Also, an old couple, descendants of Robert Hamill(probably H-37) are living in Indiana County, Penna. John was the father of Robert(H-37) and Hugh(H-36), the Revolutionary Soldiers, and did accompany his sons to this country. The "Hist. of Fulton County, Penna" names Robert Hamill of Ayr Twp, between 1766-9, who owned property there, also at Licking Creek Twp. She claims that a John Hamill was the Father of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr(H-3), who married Martha Beckett. He had 5 Children: Nathaniel, Jr, John, (2nd), Jane, Martha and Sarah(No such child as Sarah is listed - also he) (had 7 children instead of 5)."

(ITEM # 16): Once it was thought that James Hamill was the Father of Nathaniel, Sr, and had married a Mary Dunham, and that the children were John Nathaniel Hamill and Robert Hamill. That John Nathaniel Hamill had married Martha Beckett, and that Robert had married Mary(Janet) Beckett. That they supposedly had 12 children. That the Dunham book in the Library would show that this James Hamill married as his 2nd wife a Miss - - - - Moore(of the Dunham Genealogy). (The Compiler can locate no such trace) (of a Hamill-Dunham intermarriage).

(ITEM # 17): Lord Macaulay's History of England, Volume 3-Page 155: Refers to a Pamphlet called "A View of the Danger and Folly of being Public Spirited" by William Hamill, 1721.

(ITEM # 18): Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) wrote in 1930: "Rosa Hamill(which Rose or Rosa Hamill is unknown) wrote in a letter that Nathaniel's(H-1) Father was Nathaniel, and his wife a Clendenning." (Possibly the Rosa Hamill mentioned was H-124-2).

(ITEM # 19): Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) wrote: "In all places where Enon Valley, North Beaver Twp. is mentioned, this should read simply North Beaver Twp, Lawrence Co, Penna. Enon Valley is in Little Beaver Twp, and is the RR Station on the Penna Railroad for that section of the country. Our Hamills are all buried at Bethel Church, North Beaver Twp, which is 4 miles North of the town of Enon Valley, Penna. They are not buried at Enon Valley, Penna."

(ITEM # 20): Sarah("Aunt Sally") Hamill(H-15), daughter of Nathaniel Hamill(H-1), wrote of visiting an Archibald Hamill, in or near Ligonier Valley, Penna. - and she visited an Allan Hamill. We do not know just who these were. But the Allan may have been Allan S. Hamill(H-371-C), and the Archibald may have been his son, Archibald M. Hamill(H-371-C1). Both Allan S. and Archibald M. were supposed to have lived in or near Ligonier Valley, Penna.

(ITEM # 21): Copy of an old Memorandum found among the effects of Rev. Albert McCalla, DD, MA, PhD, FMS (H-125-6), in his handwriting: "About 1882 there was a family legend that the British Crown was searching for Hamill descendants in America, as there was a fortune of several million dollars waiting for the descendants of certain Hamills who came to the US at or about the time of the Revolution. So far as known, the Norristown Hamills (Family F), and no one else." Rev. Albert McCalla (H-125-6) also had the following Memo: "A fortune of $2,000,000 is waiting the nearest of kin to Archibald Hamill, formerly of this city (Pittsburg, Penna), in Ireland. Archibald Hamill was the son of Rev. Hugh Hamill, a Presbyterian Minister of Donaghadee, County Tyrone, Ireland, and also came to this country to make a fortune. When last heard of in 1850, he was living in or near Pittsburg Penna, and had 4 sons and 5 daughters. Since then, all trace of himself and his family has been lost, and the strictest inquiry has failed to find any of them." (Compiler's Note: The only Archibald we have is H-371-C1, (who is not likely to be the one mentioned above).

(ITEM # 22): Copied from Evangelical Depository-Volume 10-Page 139-List of Acknowledgements-Issue of August 1851: Miss R. Hamill, Hillview, Penna (Westmoreland County, mail Ligonier). John M. Hamill, Xenia, Ohio (could this be H-23A). Smith Hamill, Keokuk, Iowa (H-125).

(ITEM # 23): Just as the McCallas built an Estate at Chester, SC, called "Hazelwood," the Hamills or the Youngs had a house in Baltimore, on or before the Revolution, called "The Lindens," because they had Linden Trees in the Old Country. Plaids: MacAuley Plaid (Lord MacAuley). Stuart Royal Dress Plaid. Mary Young was a daughter of Mary Elder, daughter of a Stuart and daughter of a Scott. Stewart-Grandfather Hamill. Elder was the elder branch of the Stuart. The Youngs came from Arg, Scotland. Scott. Argyle Campbell (McCalla-MacCallum More). Davidson (Davisson)-MacCandless. Hamill (O'Hamill) (O'h Aghmaill)-Lord Eyre, Milesian Chiefs. Hunting Lodge in Scotland-Home at Ellerslie, Scotland.

Kate Hight (McCalla Genealogy-H-367-A2) of Bloomington, Ind, sent to Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61) a bright red poplin MacAuley Dress Plaid, and a Green Plaid. Helen (H-125-61) is said to look like a portrait of Lord Macauley. The Jacobbeans stood by the Stuarts, and the twisted candle (screw shape) always indicates the Stuarts. Marshall Field & Co (Wholesale) have Scotch woolen Plaids at $3.50 per yard (4 neck pieces to yard), or about 80¢ each. MISC. HAMILL DATA - Continued.

(ITEM # 24):

There were two old Gravestones in a Cemetery near Boston, which are of great interest to all Hamills. There has always been a rumor of some Hamill who was in a very early Expedition to the Southern part of the US - about the time of the Mayflower. Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61), with her Mother, Mrs Albert McCalla (Eleanor Nancy Hamill) (H-125-6), with a friend, Miss Della Brown and the latter's Mother, were on a trip to the Boston, Mass., region, in 1906. The party visited many quaint old Cemeteries, and in some such burial ground, somewhere from Plymouth, to Cape Ann, Salem, etc - they saw these Gravestones - but they cannot remember the exact location. The Inscriptions on the Headstones, as she remembers them, were as follows:

William Hamill,

Master Mariner from Virginia.

off Cape Cod." (?)

William Doughaday.

1638.

Master Mariner from Virginia.

off Cape Cod." (?)

The Doughaday mentioned was an Ancestor of Mrs Tracy Drake, whose husband, is a brother of Miss Helen Drake of Chicago - builders of the famous Drake and Blackstone Hotels of Chicago. Mrs Tracy Drake's father was Hamilton Doughaday, of St Louis, Mo. This Hamill, who was a Master Mariner, was possibly on his way from the Jamestown, Virginia, Colony (Founded 1607) to England, or else to Plymouth, when both he and Doughaday lost their ships in some storm, and were buried side-by-side in this graveyard. Helen says the stones were very old, quite dark, side-by-side at the end or side of the graveyard, and as she remembers it, were set up against something, either a bank or fence of some sort. Helen did not think that the Drakes-Doughadays would be interested in these, but she mentioned the matter to them that winter. They were greatly interested, however, and made personal search, and hired searchers, but without a clue as to the name and location of the graveyard, they never found the stones. It is also possible that relic hunters may have taken the stones, as they have done from many very old graveyards.

It is hoped that some day these old stones may again be located. They probably refer to the Hamill who was in some old, early-day Expedition to America - and this may be the Hamill, or his brother or son. Search could be made from Plymouth, up the coast to Salem. Also look for old graves of Hamills in the Plymouth Colony burial ground - to see if buried there. Also look for Dunhams and Smiths. Also, search should be made in histories of old Expeditions to Virginia - for Hamills who were members.

(ITEM # 25): Smith Hamill (H-125) had a Grand-Uncle Coffin or Cotton, (possibly Father of H-125) who had a store in Pittsburg, Penna, about 1838. There Smith Hamill went to receive his mercantile training. Mr Coffin (or Cotton) was supposed to be on the Dunham side, and some who believe that Nathaniel Hamill, Sr's (H-1) father was James Hamill, think that James married a Mary Dunham.

(ITEM # 26): The Family of Ernest A. Hamill (H-262-5) of Chicago, have always been able to trace their records back to Joseph Hamill, Sr (H-26) - and have always admitted that he was the Grandfather of Ernest A. Hamill (H-262-5). The Will and Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) definitely prove that Joseph, Sr (H-26) was the son of Robert, Sr (H-2). So the direct descent from Robert, Sr (H-2) is now definitely proven. However, before the Bible & Will of Robert, Sr, were located and entered into these records, some Genealogist offered the following incorrect descent line to Ernest A. Hamill: (1) Joseph, (2) Giles (?), (3) James (?), (4) Robert (?), (5) Hugh (?), (6) Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD. The Hamills can all disregard this incorrect record - and stick to the Bible and Will of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2). Another Genealogist tried to connect him with the Hannibal Hamlin family of Massachusetts, which is also incorrect.

(ITEM # 27):

Anna Hamill Kyle (H-252-1) wrote: "My Great-Grandfather, Robert Hamill (Sr-H-2), of Ayr Twp, Bedford Co, Penna, was an Uncle of your Grandfather (?) John Hamill, (Sr-H-12) of Lawrence Co, Penna, or rather your Great-Grandfather (?) Nathaniel Hamill, (Sr-H-1) (?), the one who was eaten by wild animals. Aunt Mattie, (Probably H-254) does not know any more. Cousin Lydia Bigger (H-275) sends her love to you. Also to Aunt Mattie, (H-125-5-Martha Hamill Horne). Anna Hamill Kyle (H-252-1)." (Compiler's Note: )
( No - Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) was the brother of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr (H-1), (and was Uncle of John (H-12)).

(ITEM # 28): Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill (H-15) wrote: "Robert (H-2) had 8 boys and 2 girls." (Compiler's Note: This does not agree with our records so far. Robert's Will and Bible list only 8 children. Possibly we will learn later of 2 more children - who may have died young).

(ITEM # 29): Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253) claimed in a letter written on 1/4/1893: "Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) and 2 brothers came to America some time before the Revolutionary War. The brothers were John and Hugh. Nathaniel - another brother - was left in Ireland. He came during war, went hunting bears in mountains, and was lost. That was last heard of him for 30 years (?). (Compiler's Note: Nathaniel (H-1) was definitely proven by the Penna Archives to have been in Big Cove, Pa, in 1773. This brother, who came later, might refer to Hugh, as another Legend says a 5th brother (came to America, but later returned to Ireland)).

Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253) continues: "In 1858, Dr Robert C. Hamill, MD, (H-262) of Chicago, went to the South for his health, and was in Brownsville, Tenn. He saw a graveyard with headstones bearing all family names, including Nathaniel. Nathaniel had married there and raised a large family. The Children were all dead. Some Grandchildren had moved to Ainsworth, Iowa, some 25 or 30 years ago." (Compiler's Note: We are now trying to piece together the data about Family E (See Other Hamills Section - Family E), early members of which family are buried at Oakwoods Cemetery (in Brownsville, Tenn, and also buried in the burial ground at Big Spring (near Marysville (Maysville), Blount County, Tennessee. Some descendants (also live at Friendsville, Tenn. It is possible that these connect with the "4th Missing Brother Hamills" written up as H-4. However, a list of many names of this family, lists many names common to our Family A - but (there is no Nathaniel as far discovered.) (See also following Item).

(ITEM # 30): Colonel Lee A. McCalla, (H-125-64), Brother of the Compiler, and Originator of The McCalla Genealogy, was on a vacation trip, in 1909, to Mackinac Island, at the head of Lake Michigan, and near the Straits of Mackinac. There he saw an old Ledger of the Astor Fur Co, kept as a souvenir in the Hotel Astor there. The hotel people have claimed since that this Ledger was burned in the fire which destroyed the old Nail Smelter, and that they now have only the records from 1816 on. In that old Ledger Lee definitely saw an entry of Supplies, or "Crubstake" issued to Nathaniel Hamill, about 1800-09 (as Lee remembers it), in order that Nathaniel Hamill could go fur hunting and exploring in the "Chicago Country" (now Chicago). The item was marked "Unpaid," and also marked "Killed by wolves." Thus far, no Hamill has been able to explain this strange matter of history. (See Nathaniel Hamill - Page H-1).

(ITEM # 31): Mrs Robert G. Horne (Martha Sarah Hamill-H-125-6) wrote: "John Hamill (H-12), who was supposedly my Great-Grandfather (Father was Smith (H-125), Grandfather was John, Sr (H-12), Great-Grandfather was Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) - so John was her Grandfather), had a son John and several brothers and sisters. One sister married a Pollack, and Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack was a son of his. One married a Mackenzie. John married a Bickett." (Compiler's Note: John, Sr (H-12) married Rosanna Davidson - it (was Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) who married a Seckett. It was Robert Hamill (H-37)

(Item 31 - Continued): who married (2nd) a Jane McKelvie (not MacKenzie) and (his daughter Elizabeth (H-371-A) married John Pollack and they had a son, (Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack.)

(ITEM # 32): Alan Bickett-Hamill (H-355) claimed: That Mrs Lydia Bigger was his Sister. (Compiler's Note: Actually they were Cousins, as Lydia (Hamill Bigger (H-275) was the daughter of Hugh (H-27), and he was the son of Robert, Jr (H-25). If she was his sister, there must have been another first name, a family mistake, and Lydia (H-275) must have been the daughter of Robert, Jr (H-25) - which is not according to our records).

(ITEM # 33): Joseph Randless Hamill, (H-252) of Xenia, Ohio, claimed that Robert Hamill, Sr's (H-2) father died in Ireland. He also claims that Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) was born in North Ireland, and came to America about 1770. (Compiler's Note: The Brothers, including Robert, Sr (H-2) came to America in 1761).

(ITEM # 34): The Penna Archives, (Series _____) mentions the following Hamills as having been at Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford County, (now Fulton County), Penna, with the years also given:

Charles Hamble, Private in Ft Bedford, 1760. (He was probably a Hamill, (but is Unknown).

Nathaniel Hamill, (1773-1785). (Probably our Original Nathaniel (H-1)).

Robert Hamill, (1773-1794) (Probably Sr - and Probably H-2, brother of (Nathaniel (H-1)).

Robert Hamill, Jr., (1794). (Probably H-25, son of Robert, Sr).

John Hamill, (1773-1801). (Unknown - might possibly be Original brother (John (H-3), but he died supposedly in 1794-5. Note that John (H-12) (was not born until 1777, and John (H-23A) was only born in 1771).

James Hamill, (1794). (He is Unknown).

William Hamill, (1794) (He is Unknown).

Samuel Hamill, (1789). (Probably H-21, son of Robert, Sr).

George Hamill, (1794). (He is Unknown).

Note that Robert, Sr (H-2) may have had 2 more children, so 2 of these may belong to that family. Also note that the Legendary Joseph Hamill (H-4), who supposedly went to Newberry, SC, had among his children, a John, Charles and James - only the James was born in Newberry, SC, in 1800. So at present, many of these are simply unknown. John Hamill (1773-1801) might possibly be the Father of the 4 Original Brothers - but this is very unlikely.

(ITEM # 35): There is an old Hamill Legend that the Hamills were ship owners, and were here in the earliest days, especially at Jamestown, Virginia, Colony. (Compiler's Note: This more likely concerns the Young Family (See Young Section), who were Ship Owners, and settled in Baltimore. (However, there undoubtedly were one or more Hamills who came to Virginia (with the earliest Colonies - one of whom possibly was the "m. Hamill (mentioned previously in Item 24. The McCallas (See McCalla Genealogy) also (had 2 McCallas in a very early Expedition, who nearly died of smallpox, (but who returned to Scotland alive.)).

(ITEM # 36): "A black-haired Beckett (or Bickitt) was the Grandmother of Smith Hamill (H-125), and Rosanna Davidson" said Mrs Robert G. Horne (Martha Sarah Hamill-H-125-5-also called "Aunt Mattie", of Keokuk, Iowa. This "Aunt Mattie" (H-125-5) was the image of Grandmother Beckett Hamill (H-1). The Becketts (so a Genealogist said) have changed their names to Bickit, Pickett, Bigger, Becket and Piggott, so look for them under those names. Miss Helen W. McCalla (H-125-31-sister of The Compiler) gave to Theophilus W. Hamill (H-262-3), who was Ernest A. Hamill's (H-262-5) elder brother, all her Letters from the Beckett Grandmother (H-1), and relating to her family. These were given to Theophilus before his death, and he never returned them."

(ITEM # 37): In connection with the previous Item (#36), note that another description of Martha Beckett on Data Page H-1, describes her as a "young widow with red hair." However, there were at least 3 supposed Beckett sisters, Martha(H-1), and Mary and Jannetto(H-2). So these may have been descriptions of two different women.

(ITEM # 38): Re "Other Hamill's Section" - Family C: Mrs Albert McCalla, (Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6) stated: There was a family of St Louis Hamills who were closely intimate with Smith Hamill(H-125) of Keokuk, Iowa, and were related. Joseph and Samuel Hamill, brothers, were prosperous Wholesale Grocers in St Louis. One - or both - married Maryland women. Joseph was educated in St Louis, and their children were educated abroad. Old Samuel Hamill married Ann Hackney, who came from the Eastern Shore of Maryland. She was a sister of the wife of Mayor Thomas of St Louis.

(1) The first child was Aaron Hackney Hamill, who married a Miss Drake. He died prior to 1871, with no children.

(2) The second child was Samuel Hamill, Jr, unmarried, a very handsome man who was "Best Man" at the wedding of The Compiler's Father & Mother (Albert McCalla and Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6), 5/16/1871 at Keokuk, Iowa).

(3) Joseph Hamill ("Little Joe") was the 3rd child, who married and went to Globe, Arizona, where his family were living in 1905, and where he published a newspaper. He was short in stature, married an Arizona woman, who had 1 daughter who married a German Catholic surgeon in San Francisco, and went to Germany just before World War 1.

Old Samuel Hamill, father of the above 3 children, had a brother, called "Old" Joseph Hamill. The latter had 2 children by his 1st wife, one a son - spoken of as "Big Joe," and a daughter (or was it a Granddaughter) who married a Barnum. Old Samuel Hamill (It must have been "Old Joe") married the 2nd time a Mrs Perry, who had 2 children of her own, Malcom and Kate Perry (not related to the Hamills). He had no children by his 2nd wife. (We have this 2nd Wife shown as of "Big Joe.")

This "Big Joe" Hamill, son of "Old" Joseph Hamill, was a close friend of Major David B. Hamill(H-125-4), of Keokuk, Iowa. "Big Joe" afterward moved to Alton, Illinois. These Family C Hamills spoke of the Smith Hamill (H-125) family as Cousins, and claimed to be descended from the Original Joseph Hamill (See H-4), who came to this country.

(ITEM # 39): Mrs Albert McCalla (Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6) stated: "There was a Hamill Legend that Nathaniel Hamill, Sr(H-1) was wanted "dead or alive" by John Dunham during the Revolution, in order to go on a Surveyor in ahead of the Soldiers. Nathaniel, however, had been sent on a special mission, and never knew of the tempest at home." (Compiler's Note: (This is doubtful - but there is a mystery in Nathaniel's disappearance. ) (He was supposedly killed by wolves, and his Gun and Powder Horn were (found long after. Also records of a Nathaniel Hamill were found(1809) ) (at Mackinac Island(See Page H-1). Also it was stated that a Nathaniel Hamill, who married and raised children, was found buried at Brownsville) (Tennessee(See previous Item # 22)).

(ITEM # 40): Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) Claims: "Aunt Rose (H-124-2) of Los Angeles, Cal, wrote her that: "The Father of Robert, Sr, (H-2) and Nathaniel, Sr(H-1) was Nathaniel Hamill, and that he married a Clendinning."

(ITEM # 41): (See also Item # 13 - as this is apparently a similar (Memorandum)). The War Department claims that it has no record of Nathaniel Hamill(H-1), or John B. Hamill. Their records show that John Hamill was in Capt. David Wilson's Co, 5th Sn, Chester Co, Penna, Militia, Col. Richard Thomas. Name on Co. Muster Roll from Dec 18 to 24, 1776. No further record of service. This was contained in a letter from the US War Department, dated 8/29/1924, to The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla(H-125-65). The US Bureau of Pensions also writes that it has no record. (SEE NEXT PAGE).

(Item # 41 - Continued): John H. Hamill listed as Revolutionary Soldier (no Regt. given) in the Penna Archives, 2-13-91.

Nathaniel Hamill listed as follows in Penna Archives: 3-4-240, Private Bedford Co. Militia. 1-603, General List of Soldiers in the Revolution (no date or Regt. shown). 3-23-235, listed as Ranger of the Frontier, 1778-1783.

Robert Hamill, (no listings as a Soldier, although 9 listings re Taxes).

John Hamill (either brother of Nathaniel (H-1), or Son of Robert, Sr (H-2).

- Robert's son was born in 1771) is listed as follows in Penna Archives:

6-3-44, List of Inhabitants of Turkey Foot Twp, Bedford Co, Penna, subject to Military Laws, 2/6/1789. 6-4-454, listed as Ensign Rifle Co, Bedford Co, 8/15/1794. 6-5-117, Ensign of Rifle Co, 5th Regt, Bedford Co. Battalion 8/15/1794 (Penna Militia). (Bear in mind that Robert Hamill, Sr's (H-2) son) John (H-234) was born in 1771, and would therefore be 23 years old in 1794. (Nathaniel's (H-1) son John (H-12) was born in 1777, and would therefore be) (17 years old in 1794. Then there was John (H-3).

Charles Hamill, Private in Garrison at Ft Bedford, Penna, (Col Lloyds Co, (Lt-Col Jos. Shippen), 1/24/1760. (He is Unknown, but also might be one of the Fallowfield (Penna) Hamills, (See Other Hamilla Section-Family G), (or one of the Shippensburg (Penna) Hamills, (See Other Hamilla Section-Family L).

(ITEM # 42): The Father of the 4 Original Brothers was said to have been James or John; but this again is unverified. Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8) and also Rev. Thomas Lawrence Sexton (H-125-1) believed that the Father was John. Smith Hamill (H-125) believed that James was the Father, and said that he died in Penna, also that the Hamills came in the very beginning, owned ships, and went back and forth. (Compiler's Note: This last may refer to the Youngs, who were ship owners of Baltimore. (See Young Section-Family A).

(ITEM # 43): Letter to The Compiler, dated 7/16/1938, from Louis R. Hamill, (H-121-51) says: "Do you remember several years ago I told you the story as told me by Aunt Minerva Hope (Minerva Sophron Hamill-H-124-5) about the first to come over was a widow with 2 sons, and you said it sounded like a Davidson. Now I have several reasons for believing it was a Hamill. We know that the Davidsons came over in 1785-6, so it could not be them. If our Great(2) Grandfather Nathaniel Hamill was born 9/7/1747 in Big Cove, Bedford (now Fulton) County, would deduct the following - that his parents had 2 children in Ireland, the father died, then the widow (who was with child) came to America. What do you think of this? Uncle James Hope (H-124-5) always told me that one of his Grandmothers was a Hamill. Now John Hamill (H-5), whose wife was Eliz. Gibson (Gibson), came to America in 1761, settled near Phila (it was at Magonier), had a daughter married John Hope (See H-35 - it was James K. Hope). (Compiler's Note: He refers to John (H-3) who married Eliz. Gibson, and who settled near Magonier, Pa. His 5th child was Rachel Hamill (H-35) who married James K. (or John?) Hope. We think Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) was born in Co Antrim.)

(ITEM # 44): Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8) stated in a letter written in 1900, after her return from that trip to Ireland, that it was possible that our Hamills came from Bushmills, County Antrim, and from the Hamill family of that place that is listed in Other Hamilla Section-Family F (Robert Hamill of Bushmills, whose descendants came to Norristown, Penna, in 1793). All of the members of that family at Bushmills were dead when she was there in 1900. Bushmills is near Carrickfergus Castle. Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill (H-15), according to this Carrie S. Hamill (H-125-8) had written that during those terrible days of the Sieges in Ireland, one of her ancestors was a prisoner there because of his activity in the War. "Aunt Sally" (H-15) had a picture of this Castle, which later came into the possession of (See Hamill Page). (12/9/1943).

(Item # 44 - Continued): Session of Smith Hamill(H-125), the Father of Carrie Sherman Hamill(H-125-8). (See Historical Sect-"Old Introductory Pages"-#15)

(ITEM # 45): Carrie Sherman Hamill(H-125-8) also wrote in 1899 that it was her belief that the Hamills came to this country in 1710 to 1730-40. When she was trying to trace in Chester Co., Penna., her correspondent there, a Mr. Cope, located Hamills in Chester Co., Penna., who had owned property there in 1724. Carrie Hamill's Father, Smith Hamill(H-125) always said that his ancestors, or at least one of them, was in the Irish Wars - in the Battle of the Boyne, with King William in 1680-90. These Hamills, it was said, were very brave, but lost their property because of loyalty to the King for 30 years, and that they somewhat later came to America. However, until the date of this emigration is verified, we are assuming that they all came together in 1761, as mentioned in the Introduction, and in the records of John Hamill(H-3). (See Historical Sect-"Old Introductory Pages(1930)"-# 16).

(ITEM # 46): Data in a letter dated 7/22/1896 from William Hamill(H-37) (?) of Indiana, Indiana Co, Penna, a Grandson of Robert Hamill(H-37) (This Wm. Hamill was probably Sm. Trimble Hamill(H-373-1): "My Father spoke of a Lawrence County Cousin, John Hamill(H- ) (?) who, when he came to America, stopped with Grandfather(H-37) and cropped his place for 2 years, and he was a son of the Rev. Hugh Hamill of Ireland. But I never heard of his coming to this Country (probably speaking of Hugh). I ought to have said that in regard to the above, that Great-Great-Grandfather's name was John (H-3), and he had 2 brothers that came to this country. For I often heard Father(H-373), who was born in 1805, say that he rarely met a Hamill that he could not trace back to one of the 3 brothers that came from Ireland." (CON- (PILER'S NOTE: This seems strange, as John Hamill(H-12) of Lawrence County) (was the son of Nathaniel(H-1), one of the Original Brothers. Could he be (confused with John Hamill(See Family F-31), who was one of the Norristown, Penna. Family, who came to Norristown in 1804, and who was the son of Hugh (Hamill of Ireland?)(See Data Page H-37).

(ITEM # 47): The Milesian Chiefs: In 1917, Ernest A. Hamill(H-262-5), and family, of Chicago and Lake Forest, Ill, took a vacation trip to the Ham- ill country in North Ireland. The only Hamill he could find was a short, stout, very jolly and friendly Hamill, in Coleraine - who was a Roman Cath- olic Priest. This Priest told Ernest that he was the last of the Hamills in his locality. He said that nearly all the Hamills had gone to America - and had done well - and some had gone so long ago, in the early days of America. He stated that he should have gone to the US also, and that those who had remained in his locality were all dead, except himself. He also said that most of the Hamills were tall, well-built and handsome, like Ernest(H-262-5) - but that he (the Priest) was short and fat. "Oh, you're the true Hamill" he said, speaking of Ernest's tall, husky figure.

This Priestly Hamill confirmed to Ernest(H-262-5) the Legend that the Hamilla - who were originally the O'Hamilla - were Chieftains. He said that they came from Iberia (Portugal) with Queen Clotus. She brought a picked lot of Chieftains - tall, physically well-built men, who were civilized and well educated - and their duty was to rule Ireland. This jolly Priest died shortly after Ernest visited him in Ireland in 1917.

Helen Wayne McCalla(H-125-61) recalled this on 12/10/1946 and said that she had a friend, Mrs Arthur J. O'Neill of Chicago, who was a Past-President of Chicago Chapter of the D.A.R. - who had also confirmed this Legend. Mrs O'Neill further stated that the O'Neills, at one period of Irish history, were the leading Chiefs or Kings - and that the O'Hamilla lived near the O'Neills.

(ITEM # 48): Helen Wayne McCalla(H-125-61) stated 12/10/1946 that the various older Hamills said that Big Cove, Penna., was exceedingly wild, and infested with murderous Indians. The hunting (SEE NEXT PAGE). (12/12/1946).

(ITEM 48 - Continued): there was exceedingly good - but it was surrounded by rugged country, and in the Pioneer days was a very wild place to live. The Hamills of later days wondered how the Forefather Hamilla could have stood it to live in such a place as Big Cove, Penna.

(ITEM # 49): One of those Genealogists who "sold" the family of E.A. Hamill (H-262-5) a Family Tree, gave the following-remarkable descent line: Joseph Hamill, Giles Hamill, James Hamill, Robert Hamill, Hugh Hamill, Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD. The actual correct descent is very simple, and is as follows: Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), Joseph Hamill, Sr (H-26), Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD (H-262), Ernest A. Hamill (H-262-5). The Giles Hamill was never heard of before, and is probably taken from a "Giles Hamill" of New England - who has nothing whatever to do with our Hamills. There were a lot of James Hamills in various parts of the family, but none in this descent line. The Hugh Hamill may have been H-27, a younger brother of Joseph Hamill, Sr (H-26).

(ITEM # 50): THE CRUSADER'S HYMN: The Crusaders of the First Crusade, - in which our Hamill ancestor, "The Palm" was a member - had a "Crusader's Hymn" which they sung as they marched against the Saracens. It was that old, melodious song of simple Faith:

"Fairest Lord Jesus, Ruler of All Nations....."

It might be well for all Hamill Kinsmen to also learn and sing in their own homes, devotions and Churches, this beautiful, ancient Hymn of simple Faith, that strengthened our Forefathers of a thousand years ago.

There is another modern-day Hymn of simple Faith, which might also be adopted by all Hamills, to go with it. It is the famous US Navy Hymn:

Eternal Father, strong to save.....

The US Navy long since placed its simple Faith in the Father to whom that Hymn appeals. We all know what that Faith did for the Navy, when danger threatened in World War II. The Navy grew unbelievably fast, to a staggering size, to become the Scourge of God to teach predatory Nations "not to make war any more."

Then for a Hymn of patriotic Christian Faith, the beloved song supposedly written by, and intimately connected with our Young Kinsmen:

The Star-Spangled Banner.

The 4th stanza of this well-beloved Hymn is especially appropriate. The song was written by Francis SCOTT Key. And that famous flag was made by Mary YOUNG Pickersgill, daughter of William Young. It is not yet proven that she was of our Youngs, but they were of Baltimore and Penna - as were ours. And for hundreds of years - clear back into Ayr-Paisley-Millerslie, Scotland - the YOUNGS-Elders-SCOTTS-Stuarts (Stewarts) have been intermarried, and associated, and doing team-work together, and buried side-by-side and row-on-row in old graveyards. To anyone familiar with Young history, this looks like merely another example of the usual connection and team-work of these 4 associated families. Thus we feel that someday these particular Youngs-Scotts will be proven to be of our blood. It isn't unusual that Francis SCOTT Key should have poetic ability, for in our Scott Family was Sir Walter Scott, of Ayr, Scotland. So we have a double interest in this famous and well-beloved American Hymn. (See Introduction to Young Section).

Then there is another song of simple Faith - which later became adopted as the Official Hymn of the US Daughters of 1812 - which was a favorite Hymn of my Grandfather, Smith Hamill (H-125), of Keokuk, Iowa. It was so often sung in his home, and my Mother, Nancy Eleanor Hamill (Mrs Albert McCalla-H-125-6), also loved it, and we sung it often. It is:

"God of our Fathers, whose Almight Hand, leads thru the Heavens
All the starry host of shining worlds....."

(These hymns suggested by my sister, Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61).

(ITEM # 51) There is the following old memo - source unknown - "Robert Hamill - Died 12/23/1826 - 6 Years Old." This was undoubtedly taken from a headstone in Bethel Cemetery (Enon Valley, Pa) - and this will be found in the Misc. Section - "Bethel Cemetery Enon." This Robert is buried beside Nathaniel Hamill, Jr (H-11) and Catherine Mackey Hamill, his wife. Very probably he is H-127 (Robert Hamill - son of John Hamill, Sr (H-12), who did die at 6 years of age. If he is someone else, and died at 60-odd years of age, he would have been born in 1766 - or before.

(ITEM # 52) A LITTLE HAMILL JOKE - concerning the housing shortage after World War II. (Enon-Chicago Sun-10/20/1946 - "My Gardner's Reminiscence"): "In Lawrence Co, Penna, the Enon Valley Jail was offered for sale to Veterans as an emergency housing unit. "Our Clink hasn't had a 'Guest' in ten years," explained an official. "Besides, it's in a good neighborhood!"

(ITEM # 53) Mrs Robt. G. Horne (Martha Sarah Hamill-H-125-5) wrote in 1894 to Mrs Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luema Crawford-H-124-12): "....I wanted to say to you that in the story: "The Siege of Derry and Iniskillen" you will find the names of Hamilla are prominent - one Colonel Hugh Hamill, and his brother William. They fought long and bravely. There is a book entitled: "Hamill Memorials," also a Pamphlet with a title something like this: "What the country owes to a man who has been true to its cause. Now if you could get these books and read them, you could find out something of interest. I rather think they are the ones who afterward came to America....."

(Same Letter dated 1/20/ (about 1896): "....John Hamill (H-12), Smith Hamill's (H-125) Father, was in the war of 1812, and received Grant of Land for service. John MacCandless, Mrs. Smith Hamill's Father, was also in the War of 1812....."

(Same Letter dated 3/1/1915): "....Hamill (Horne-H-125-51) living in Philadelphia, Pa) says there are Hamilla living in Trenton, New Jersey, who are very nice people, and come into his office occasionally, and claim relationship. They say that one of the original brothers remained there - when they came from Ireland - while the others went into Penna. Hamill (H-125-51) says that he found one Nathaniel Hamill was a Government Surveyor - probably that was ours - and that was why he went into the woods - and was not eaten by big, bad bears - did they sure find his powder horn and gun?.....I have a copy of an old letter of "Aunt Sally's" (H-15) - but it is lacking in dates, although she mentions the fact that she was in her 81st year. She speaks of her father being Nathaniel Hamill (H-1). The letter was written to some Menia Hamills. I will send a copy of them to you if you want them. I copied them from some Carrie (H-125-8) had....."

(ITEM # 54) From Memos. of Mrs Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luema Crawford) (H-124-12): "....Cumberland County, Penna, was established in 1750. Bedford County, Penna, was formed on 3/9/1771, out of what was formerly part of Cumberland County. Fulton County, Penna, was formed out of Bedford Co. Penna, on 4/19/1850....."

(ITEM # 55) Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61) wrote on 7/1/1896: "....Did I tell you of that William Hamill (H- ) of Billingsport, Penna, who wrote for permission to build a mud fort? He was the earliest recorded one (among the Hamills) before the Revolution, except that very early John (H-3)....." (Compiler's Note: We have never found out who this "m." (Hamill was, or where he fits in.)

(ITEM # 56) Dr. Wm. H. Egle, MD, Librarian of Penna State Library, and Editor of the Penna Archives, Harrisburg, Penna, wrote 1/18/1896 to Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luema Crawford-H-124-12) of 512 1st Nat. Bank Bldg, Omaha, Nebraska: "Dear Sir: In answer to your inquiry of the 8th inst. I would beg leave to state the 7th Regiment of the Continental Line was chiefly raised in that ~~valley~~ Cumberland Valley; and Captain John Alexander's Company was raised in that valley. The John H. Hamill of Volume 13, of the (Penna) Archives should be, in reality, JOHN HAMILL. The "H" is a misprint. (SEE NEXT PAGE). - (3/8/1947).

(ITEM #56-Continued), he was a Soldier of the Penna Line and received Depreciation Pay from the State of Penna for services to January 1st, 1781; and at the present it is impossible for me to give his accurate Revolutionary history....." (See Items #41, #13, #57).

(ITEM #57) Clinton Franklin (H-124-12) wrote on 1/31/1896: ".....The John N. Hamill you refer to in the "Second Series of the Penna Archives" happens to be only plain John. He was a Soldier in the Penna Line and received Depreciation Pay from the State of Penna to January 1, 1781..... Do not get the Penna and Continental lines mixed. The former were State Soldiers and the latter Government troops.....McConnellsburg is almost in the center of the Great Cove, at the time the Hamills went into that part of the country. It was Bedford County, and I am not sure but that part of it lay in Franklin County...." (See Items #13, #41, #56).

(Letter dated 1/24/1896): ".....Sylvia (H-124-12) remembered seeing an old Bible that was the property of "Aunt Sally" (H-15), in which was the record: "Set sail from Belfast, Ireland, Oct 30th, 1790".... (Compiler's Note: Remember that she was quoting this from memory, and we believe that she remembers the date wrong, and that it should be 1780). "At the time of her sailing, she must have been 10 years old." (Compiler's Note: "Aunt Sally" (H-15) was born in 1778 at Big Cove, Penna, so she could not have been on that boat, but her father, (Nathaniel, Sr-H-1), probably was). (See Item 41).

(ITEM #58) Mrs Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luenna Crawford-H-124-12) wrote (to The Compiler on 10/15/1924) (She was speaking of our Hamilla) "....They came from the North of Ireland, and landed at what is now Baltimore, or somewhere along that line, and then moved up into Southern Penna, and our first record of them is in Magonier Valley - Big Cove - Milton Co, Penna, etc"

(ITEM #59) Mr Clinton Franklin (H-124-12) wrote Rev. T. L. Jamieson (H-371-C27) on 7/2/1896: "....Tradition says that two of the Brothers, John (H-3) and one other, (presumably Robert, Sr-H-2), emigrated to Western Penna about 1765, one stopped in the neighborhood of Philadelphia, and the other went South to Tennessee, but of the last two we have no record, nor even a trace" (See Letters Section - "The Rev. T. L. Jamieson (H-371-C27) Letters.")

(ITEM #60) Concerning the Bible of "Aunt Sally" Hamill (H-15), mentioned in Item 57 above: Two Generations have searched frantically for that "old black-covered Bible" - without results. Clinton Franklin and his wife, Sylvia Crawford Franklin (H-124-12) searched for it in 1896, and they and many others have searched for it since. It was supposed to have been in the possession of James Glen (H-121-61) of Basehor, Kansas, the adopted son of Cordelia Hamill (H-121-6), daughter of John Hamill, Jr (H-121) but James Glen said that he knew nothing about the Bible - and there the matter rests. If we had that old Bible we would have absolute proof of Nathaniel, Sr's (H-1) family, as it was probably his Bible, or at least the Bible of Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill (H-15), his daughter. It undoubtedly contained many entries about their family, with dates, etc. (The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65) - 3/8/1947).

(ITEM #61) Clinton Franklin (H-124-12) wrote 1/28/1896: "....Talking the matter over with Sylvia (H-124-12-his-wife) last night, she mentioned a Preacher, I think his name was Brown, whom she first met when she came to the West. This gentleman married a Hamill (probably H-272, who married a (Rev. Thomas Brown), from the neighborhood of Cadiz, Ohio. He stated that there were 4 Brothers, John, Nathaniel, Robert and Hugh. Robert settled near Philadelphia, presumably Chester County, John and Hugh in the Great Cove, Milton County, Penna, and Nathaniel went to Tennessee" (See Letters Section - "Misc. Hamill Letters" #1).

(ITEM #62) Louis R. Hamill (H-121-51) wrote on 7/16/1938: "Re the undecipherable grave: (See Misc. Section - List of Graves in Catholic Sanctuary): The Hamill grave not decipherable, I would say, was of William Hamill (H-121-51) (SEE NEXT PAGE). (5/8/1947).

HAMILL GENEALOGY:

who was either a first cousin of our Grandfather (H-121), or a first cousin of our Great-Grandfather, John Hamill, Sr. (H-12), for the following reasons: No William Hamill is listed, and when I was 12 years old, I lived with Aunt Minerva Hope (nee Hamill) (H-124-5) a daughter of James Hamill (H-124), and she told me about an old William Hamill, who was a cousin, and who lived with them.....more about why I think the Hamill grave not decipherable is William Hamill. In 1892, I saw in a newspaper from Lawrence County, a list of soldiers buried at Bethel, and there was one of William Hamill, a Veteran of the War of 1812. The newspaper was dated May 30, 1892. I remember asking Aunt Minerva (H-124-5) about this William Hamill, as the name was spelled, "Hamill"......(Compiler's Note: I do not think this particular grave is William Hamill. In the light of what we have since learned, it is more likely that of another child, David Hamill (H-129-5) who died as a boy in 1848. He is buried beside his baby brother (Robert Hamill-H-127. To The Compiler this would seem a more likely theory. But this letter of Louis R. Hamill's is helpful for record purposes - and may lead later to the identification of this William Hamill's grave, and placing his record in this Genealogy.)

(ITEM #63) Mrs Robert G. Horne (Martha Sarah Hamill-H-125-5), of Keokuk, Iowa, wrote in a letter that was not dated, but probably about 1900-1910 - stating that her husband had learned the names and addresses of two ladies in North Ireland, by the name of Hamill, and who could be written to about Hamill genealogy. This letter was addressed to Miss Helen Wayne McCalla, (H-125-61), of Chicago. These two ladies were: Missess Rebecca and Anna Hamill, Temple Patrick, County Antrim, Ireland. So far as known, no one ever wrote to these ladies, and there is no known data from them.

(ITEM #64) RE: FAMOUS BETHEL CHURCH: "Enon Valley, Penna, December 20, 1944. To the Friends of the Old Bethel Cemetery. Dear Friends! It is some time since you have heard from your Committee in charge of the Old Bethel Cemetery. During the last year we have, by the generosity of Dr Fred W. Dixon of Cleveland, Ohio, at an expense of $650.00 straightened up and put under the headstones a cement base to hold them in place. There are in the Old Cemetery 388 stones or monuments. Of these there are 43 monuments and 345 headstones. There were only 67 of the above number that did not need attention. Some of these stones were upset and Mr Charles Albright had to use a chain block to hoist them onto their bases.

Our annual expense for mowing and minor repairs is from $48.00 to $75. depending on the season. Our Trust Fund now amounts to the sum of $1186.12 We would like to increase this fund to an amount sufficient to keep the Cemetery in proper condition without the annual solicitation of money each year from the people living in the vicinity of the Old Cemetery to make up the difference between the trust interest and the amount of our expenses.

Do not think because you cannot give a large amount that you will not give anything. Small gifts are always welcome.

Our present trust fund is mostly made up of small gifts and many small subscriptions will make a large fund.

Hoping you will be able to help us,

We remain, yours respectfully,

Chas. L. Dixon,

R. M. Kolac,

Wilbur F. Patterson,

Enon Valley, Pennsylvania."

The BECKET-BECKETT-BICKETT-FICKER FAMILY.

These are supposed to be merely different spellings of the same name, which was probably originally spelled as "Beckett". This family is supposed to be, according to legends in the Hamill family, descended from the family of Thomas a' Becket, the famous martyr Archbishop of Canterbury, the Episcopal Lord-Primate of England. He was a martyr to his faith.

The Family Legend is that these Becketts and Hamills have been intermarrying for 200 years or more, clear back into North Ireland. This is similar to the Young Family, (see Young section - Introduction to Family A), where the Youngs-Bleders-Stuarts-(Stewarts)-Scotts have been intermarrying for hundreds of years, in this country, and back into Ayr-Paisley-Elferslie, Scotland.

Some of the Hamill-Beckett intermarriages noted in this Genealogy are:

H-1 - Nathaniel Hamill married Martha Beckett.

H-2 - Robert Hamill, Jr., married Mary Beckett, and after her death he married Jannetie Beckett as his 2nd wife.

H-25 - Robert Hamill, Jr., married Elizabeth Bickett.

H-263 - Evelyn Hamill married James Bigler, and after her death, -

H-275 - Lucia Hamill married this same James Bigler as his 2nd wife.

H-264 - Elizabeth Hamill married Samuel Bigler, and after her death, -

H-274 - Margaret Hamill married this same Samuel Bigler as 2nd wife.

Copied here are various Notes, Letters and Comments concerning these "Becketts" - with their various spellings. We know very little about them - but such facts as we do know are assembled here as an aid to any Kinamar attempting to trace their records further. Especially interesting data on the "Becketts" is given on the H-25 page, which is likewise copied on this record. See also to Notes on the H-26 Data Page.

NATHANIEL HAMILL, SR., Married: MARTHA BECKETT, 6/13/1775, Mercersburg, Penna.

Born: 9/7/1730, Co. Antrim, Ireland. Born: 1740 at -----

Died: 1/6/1799, Big Cove, Penna. Died: 4/20/1817, Union Valley, Penna.

(Married by Rev. John King at Upper Conococheague Presby. Ch, Mercersburg, Pa)

This Martha Beckett, who married Nathaniel Hamill, Sr (H-1), was a sister of the Mary Beckett who married Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2). Thus, two of the Original Brothers married two sisters. See also note on these "Becketts" on Page H-25. See also Pages H-2, H-25, for other "Beckett" intermarriages. See also Pages H-263, H-264, H-274, H-275, for "Bigler" intermarriages.

Martha Beckett was a "young widow with red hair" when he married her. .... After Nathaniel's death, Martha Beckett Hamill and her family.... moved on west to the Union Valley, Penna, neighborhood..... This was in 1800. Martha's gravestone in Bethel Church Cemetery reads: "Martha Beckett Hamill, born 1740, died 1817 - 77 Years." She, and also her daughter Sarah (H-15), lived on the 2nd old Hamill Farm, which in 1929 was owned by William B. Hamill (H-124-7), .....

Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill (H-15), wrote 9/5/1864 to Cousins (who were Grandchildren of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), in Genia, Ohio: "I am the daughter of Nathaniel Hamill (H-1), a brother of your Grandfather (H-2), and my Mother a sister of your Grandmother." (This means that Nathaniel (H-1) and Robert, Sr (H-2) were brothers, and that their wives were sisters). ....

"Grandmother Martha Beckett Hamill (H-1) came across the mountains about 1806 from Wagonier Valley (?) and Big Cove, Penna, to Union Valley, Penna, .... (Letter from Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin (H-124-12).

ROBERT HAMILL, SR. Married: MARY BECKETT, / at -----
(and) JANNETTE BECKETT, / at -----

The Given of Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2) was the 1st wife, and she was the sister of Martha Beckett, who was the wife of Nathaniel (H-1). But the Family Bible of Robert, Sr. (H-2) lists Jannette Beckett as 2nd wife, and mother of the later children. It is possible that Jannette may have been a 3rd sister of Mary and Martha.....In those 18 years, Jannette might have died, and he might have married a 3rd wife. Or possibly, Jannette might have had a middle name "Lenore" and might have been called by both names. We need further research on this point, and inspection of gravestones, etc., at Big Cove, Penna, and Xenia, Ohio.

See Data Page H-25 for Note on "Beckett-Bickett-Bigger." See also Historical Section in the back of this Hamill Genealogy for an Article on "The Becket-Bickett-Bickett-Bigger Family."

Note that the will of Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-1), made on 4.6/1799, names his wife as "Lenore." However, the Bible lists: "Robert & Jannett Hamill's family, - of Bedford Co, Pa."

Re: Beckett-Bickett-Bigger: George Benwick Hamill (H-252-2) said in 1930: "I do not believe that the Martha Bickett who married Nathaniel Hamill (H-1) is any relation to Elizabeth Bickett who married Robert Hamill, Jr. (H-25)." However, Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253) wrote in an old letter: "In Scotland 200 years ago there were Bicketts and Hamills, who had a strong affinity, and who intermarried. About 1760 they started coming to America from Ireland, (in Ireland there were several intermarriages), and they landed at Big Cove, and there were several intermarriages there, so that every Hamill was a Cousin to every Bickett." George Benwick Hamill (H-252-2) also says: "The Elizabeth Bickett family came from Ireland, and lived near Lewistown, Penna, and moved to Greene County, Ohio, early in 1800, and they probably were a branch of the same family left there in Ireland, who came over later." Another Hamill version of this Elizabeth Bickett is this: "Elizabeth Bickett's father was Adam Bickett, who did not come to America until 1790, and probably joined the other main Bickett Family, who had come over before. Went to Big Cove, Penna, first, and then to Stoney Valley (Strong Valley), where he died in 1816-1817."

See also "Historical Section" for Article on this Becket-Bickett-Bigger Family. See also Page H-1, H-2 for Becket-Bickett intermarriages. See also Pages H-263-264, and H-274-275 for two "Bigger" intermarriages.

(NOTES FROM DATA PAGE H-26):

(Concerning Elizabeth Hamill (H-264) who married Samuel Bigger, who after her death, married Margaret Hamill (H-274), as his 2nd wife).

The Bigger-- Becket-Bickett-Bickett Family:

Evelyn Hamill (H-263) married James Bigger as his 1st wife, and after her death, he married Lydia Hamill (H-275). (See H-275, as these two are sons men). It is probably this James Bigger who is referred to as having a son named Henry J. Bigger, (probably a different spelling of the same original Becket-Beckett-Bickett family who have intermarried with the Hamills so many times). She had a son, Henry J. Bigger, who lived in Xenia, married a Miss _____ from Pittsburgh, Penna, and then went west. His present (1924) address is: 317 Mohawk Bldg, Portland, Oregon. (From Letter (1924) from Mrs Nettie (Hamill Moore (H-261-2), of College Springs, Iowa). Mrs Moore, at that time, furnished considerable data for this H-26 page. It is not known whether James Bigger's 1st wife or his 2nd wife was the mother of this Henry J. Bigger). (See Page H-275. See also "Historical Section" for Art-) (icle on "Becket-Beckett-Bickett-Bigger Intermarriages").

Elizabeth (Eliza) Hamill (H-264) married Samuel Bigger, as his 1st wife, and after her death, he married Margaret Hamill (H-274). (See H-274 page as (those two are Bigger). The above James and this Samuel Bigger were supposedly brothers. Old data, from various Hamill sources, mostly prior to 1924 and 1930, has claimed that this Samuel Bigger had 2 children: Julia Bigger, who died as a girl 7 years old, and a son, Thomas B. Bigger, who lived and died in Xenia, Ohio. That these 2 children were by his 1st wife Elizabeth (Eliza) Hamill, and that later, after her death, he then married Margaret Hamill (H-274). (See Page H-274. See also "Historical Section") (for Article on "Becket-Beckett-Bickett-Bigger Intermarriages").

Samuel Bigger, (H-274 & H-264), and James Bigger, (H-275 & H-263) are believed to be different spellings of the same "Becket-Beckett-Bickett" family who have intermarried so many times with the Hamill Family. (See Pages H-1, H-2, H-25, H-26, etc).

son" said Mrs Robert G. Horne (Martha Sarah Hamill) ("Aunt Mattie") (H-125-5) (of Keokuk, Iowa). This "Aunt Mattie" was the image of Grandmother Beckett Hamill (H-1). The Becketts (so a Genealogist said) have changed their names to Bickitt, Bickitt, Bigger, Becket, and Bigger, so look for them under those names. Miss Helen Wayne McGilla (H-125-31) (sister of the Compiler) gave to Theophilus W. Hamill (H-262-3), who was Ernest A. Hamill's (H-262-5) elder brother, all her letters from the Beckett Grandmother (H-1) and relating to them. These were given to Theophilus before his death, and he never returned them.

In connection with the previous item, note that another description of Martha Beckett on Data Page H-1, describes her as a "young widow with red hair." However, there were at least 3 supposed Beckett sisters, Martha (H-1), and Mary and Jannette (H-2). So these may have been descriptions of two different women. (See Historical Section - "Misc. Hamill Notes" - (Items #36 and #37)).

Regarding THOMAS A' BECKETT, MARTYR, ARCHBISHOP of CANTERBURY (Buried in Canterbury Cathedral, England).

(Article in LIFE Magazine-10/1/1945-Page 123):
(Caption under picture): "At the Altar, where Priests had led him for safety, Thomas (a' Becket) is slain by Knights who believe the country could best be served by his death."

"MURDER IN THE CATHEDRAL."

Students at Hobart College, Geneva, NY, last month achieved the distinction of presenting Poet T.S. Eliot's murder in the Cathedral for the first time in its natural setting, the Church. Audiences occupied churchgoer's pews in the College Chapel.

Eliot wrote the play in 1935 to aid restoration of Canterbury Cathedral in England, where the murder of Archbishop Thomas a' Becket actually occurred in 1170. Thomas, who fought for the Church against royal encroachments, had to flee England in 1164. Returning 6 years later, he resumed his disputes with Henry II, was killed by a band of armed knights. Thomas was canonized and his tomb in Canterbury became goal of Europe's great medieval pilgrimages.

Eliot's play opens with Thomas' return to England. The women of Canterbury chant a warning of death and destruction which will follow his homecoming. Uncertain about the course he will follow, Thomas listens to 4 tempters who offer him in turn, easy living and good times; temporal authority, which he once enjoyed as Chancellor; leadership of a titled group out to overthrow the throne; and, finally, martyrdom. An egomaniac, Thomas has secretly desired martyrdom as an end to his flamboyant career, and he gives himself into the hands of the fanatic knights who have come to kill him. The play's climax is the dramatic murder scene at the Altar.

(These old sheets have been rechecked here for purposes of record. They were the original introductory pages for the edition of 1930 of the Hamill Genealogy).

"DATA ON EARLY HAMILLS:

(1) The Hamills are supposedly descended from the Irish Milesian Chiefs. One such Chief, who owned nearly all the present Protestant County of Antrim, was known as "the O'Hamill." ("Irish Pedigrees," by Dr O'Hart-Volume (1-Page 857: "Ancient form of O'h-Achmell has been modernized to Hamill")

(2) The Hamills have been very definitely Christians from the earliest times. The Smith Hamill(H-125) family has always used as a Coat of Arms, the Palm Tree. This Hamill was so clean, tall and straight that he earned the name, "the Palm" as he was first to sight an Oasis on the desert during a retreat from the Saracens. He rescued many survivors, carrying them to the Oasis. He was thereafter called by that name, and given the right to use "the Palm" as his crest, or as a quartering. This was verified to Smith Hamill(H-125) by some of the Baltimore Hamills.

(3) "Amer. Genealogist," Volume 1-Mar 1899 Feb'y 1900: "Scotch Planters of Ulster, Ireland, principally 1606-1650. A large number of Scotch-Irish settlers of America were descended from the men whose names are given.

List compiled from records not accessible to the General Public, Page 18:

Robert Hamill, Naturalized 6/22/13. James I. (Probably 1613).

Matthew Hamill, Naturalized 6/22/13. James I. (Probably 1613).

(4) There was a Church near Belfast, (possibly at Colerain), which was seen by Carrie Hamill(H-125-8) when she was on a trip abroad in 1899, where the Hamills worshipped in the early days. It had several windows dedicated to our Hamill ancestors. Shortly after her return to this country the Church was burned. The Sacristan of the Church said that there had been a number of Hamills emigrate to America and that several left in 1760, and that they went to join others who had been there much earlier. It is said that there are other windows in Churches in the British Isles dedicated to the Crusader Hamill. There are also beautiful windows in Scotland to various Davidsons.

(5) The Family Legend is that there were 4 Original Brothers who came to America about 1761, who were Joseph, John, Robert & Hugh (also that a 5th brother went back to Ireland, or else came over later). So far, nothing has been found to definitely prove Joseph or Hugh. However, we have located Nathaniel Hamill(H-1), Robert Hamill(H-2) and John Hamill(H-3) who probably set sail from Belfast about 1760 and appeared in the Ligonier Valley, Penna, about 1761, and where at least John(H-3) settled about 2 miles South of Palmer's Fort, and not far from what later became Fairfield Penna. The records are very clear on John at that place, and it is assumed (borne out by Family Legend), that the others settled there also. John(H-3) and descendants remained there, at Indiana, Indiana Co, Penna, and at Ligonier, Penna. About 1770-3, Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2) and Nathaniel Hamill, Sr(H-1), moved on west to Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford Co (now Walton Co), Penna, a place just south of McConnellsburg - where they supposedly had 2000 acres of land, according to Family Legend.

(6) Family Legend also has it that the Hamills and Bocketts were married and intermarried as far back as 200 years ago in N. Ireland, and again in America (according to Adam Bickett Hamill(H-253) in 1899). The Hamills, Davidsons, and Smiths probably came together from Belfast. It is not known at the present time where they landed, but possibly at Newcastle, Del, or at Baltimore, Md.

(7) About 1882 there was a family story that the British Crown was searching for Hamill descendants in America, as there was a fortune of several million dollars waiting for the descendants of certain Hamills who came to America about the time of the Revolution. So far as known, the

Page 21

Morristown Hamills (Family F) shared in the estate, and no one else. Albert McCulla (H-125-3) had the following memo:

"A fortune of $2,000,000 is waiting the nearest of kin to Archibald Hamill formerly of this city (Pittsburg) in Ireland. Archibald Hamill was the son of the Rev. Hugh Hamill, a Presbyterian minister of Donaghadee, Co. Tyrone, Ireland, and also came to this country to make a fortune.

When last heard of in 1850, he was living in or near Pittsburg, and had 4 sons and 5 daughters. Since then all trace of himself and his family has been lost, and the strictest inquiry has failed to find any of them."

(8) Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill (H-15), daughter of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr (H-1) was said to have often visited a "Cousin Archibald" living near Shen Valley, or somewhere in Penna. It may have been this one.

(9) It is highly probable that the Hamills were in this country from the very earliest days, and the statement of the Sacristan of that Church near Belfast to the effect that the Emigrants of 1700 went to join others who had been there before, bears this out. At any event, there are definite printed records of our early Hamills, as shown on various sheets, and in addition, there is specific mention of the following (principally Nathaniel (H1) and Robert, Sr (H-2) and their descendants) as having been at Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford Co, Penna, in the Penna Archives:

Charles Hamill, Private in Ft Bedford, 1780.

Nathaniel Hamill, (1773-1783) (Probably H-1)

Robert Hamill, (1775-1794) (Probably Sr - Probably H-2, bro of Nathaniel)

Robert Hamill, Jr (1794) (Probably H-25)

John Hamill, (1773-1801) (Unknown).

James Hamill, (1794) (Unknown).

William Hamill, (1794). (Unknown).

Samuel Hamill, (1789) - (Probably H-21, son of Robert, Sr).

George Hamill, (1794) (Unknown).

(10) Dr. Wm. H. Egle, the great Genealogist at Harrisburg, Penna, said that the Hamill records as he found them, were very beautiful. One book, he said, quoted: "The Hamills gathered their families about them, went forward into the wilderness, built homes, gathered a community about them, and lived at peace with God and man." He had quite a collection of data on the Hamills, which was probably burned in the Harrisburg fire. Also the Palatine records in the Albany, NY, Library were destroyed by fire.

(11) After the death of Nathaniel Hamill (H-1) his widow's family, with the Davidsons and some others who had intermarried with them, moved on to North Beaver Twp, Lawrence Co, Penna (this was about 1798-1800), to a place between what is now Mt Jackson and Shen Valley, Penna. About the same time the family of Robt. Hamill (H-2) with some Smiths (the others went to N. Beaver Twp) and the Locketts, moved on to Xenia, Ohio, where their descendants, including the Kyles, now live.

(12) It is very possible that our Hamills are descended from the same Hamills in N. Ireland as the Morristown Hamills (Family F) (Robert Hamill - Isabella Todd, who settled in Morristown in 1798, and also John Hamill, with son William, the latter marrying Wilhelmina Porter, and settling at Morristown, Pa, in 1804). For record of their descent, see Other Hamill Section - Family F. (NOTE: Smith Hamill (H-125) spoke of Wilhelmina Porter as his "Favorite Aunt." The exact relationship is unknown. Note also that William was born in the same year - 1759 - that our Robert Hamill (H-37) was born, (also in Ireland).

(13) These 2 families just named are splendid Christian Families of the highest type who have given a great many men to the Ministry as Missionaries, and to Christian Education in Schools and Colleges. One descendant founded the famous Laurenceville School at Laurenceville, Va, (Preparatory School for Princeton University).

General Historical Data on Hamills

(14) Thus far (1950) we have no definite records of the earliest Hamills in this Country. Family legends, especially in the Smith Hamill (H-125) Family are to the effect that the Hamills were here from the very earliest days

Some were said to have been at Jamestown, Virginia - but this is unverified. They were said to have been shipowners, and to have gone back and forth, and to have brought over their own people. This is also said to have been true of the Swidsons.

(15) Carrie Sherman Hamill(H-125-8) stated in a letter written in 1899, after her return from that trip to Ireland, that it was possible that our Hamills came from Bushmills, County Antrim, and from the Hamill Family of that place that is listed in Other Hamills Section-Family F (Robert Hamill (of Bushmills, whose descendants came to Norristown, Penna, in 1798). All the members of that family at Bushmills were dead when she was there in 1899. Bushmills is near Carrick Fergus Castle. Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill, (H-15), according to this Carrie S. Hamill(H-125-8) had written that during those terrible days of the sieges in Ireland, one of her Ancestors was a prisoner there because of his activity in the war. "Aunt Sally"(H-15) had a picture of this Castle, which later came into the possession of Smith Hamill(H-125), the father of Carrie Sherman Hamill(H-125-8).

(16) Carrie Sherman Hamill(H-125-8) also wrote in 1899 that it was her belief that the Hamills came to this country in 1710 to 1730-40. When she was trying to trace in Chester Co, Penna, her correspondent there, a Mr. Cope, located Hamills in Chester Co, Penna, who had owned property there in 1724. Carrie Hamill's father, Smith Hamill(H-125) always said that his ancestors, or at least one of them, was in the Irish wars - in the Battle of the Boyne, with King William in 1690-90. These Hamills, it was said, were very brave, but lost their property because of loyalty to the King for 30 years, and that they somewhat later came to America. However, until the date of this emigration is verified, we are assuming that they all came together in 1761, as mentioned on the next page, and in the record of John Hamill(H-5).

(17) Smith Hamill(H-125) spoke of Wilhelmina Porter, wife of William Hamill(See Other Hamills Section-Family F) of Norristown, Penna, as his "Favorite Aunt," and regarded all of that family as "Cousins," and visited them occasionally. So it is highly probable that there is some relationship there. That family came over in 1798 and 1804, long after our people landed here. (See Family F-No. F-321).

(18) Smith Hamill(H-125) also spoke of Robert Hamill of Fallowfield, (Parkersburg), Penna, as "Cousin," and he visited that family, as he did with nearly all the other Penna Hamills. That family emigrated here in 1759. There may have been some relationship there (See Other Hamills Section-Family G).

(19) There was also said to have been a "William Hamill, Master Mariner" of Virginia in 1638 or 1733, who is supposedly buried, after losing his life in a shipwreck, in some graveyard near Boston. Whether this man was really our Hamill or was a member of the "Hamlin" family of Massachusetts and Connecticut, is not known. It is probable that he was a Hamill, as the Hamills, it is believed, did not go South to Virginia. A member of the "Hamlin" family who is well known, is "Giles Hamlin." His family were English, while ours are Scotch-Irish Presbyterians. The William Hamill above mentioned died in the same storm that took the life of Capt. Daughaday, also a Master Mariner of Virginia.

(20) Anyone who has any data on the early Hamills is requested to forward it to The Compiler, so that it may be added to this book.

The Original Four Brothers!

(21) There were four brothers (later a 5th brother came), who came first to America. Of these we have definite records of Nathaniel, (H-1), Robert, Sr(H-2), and John(H-3). There was supposedly a Hugh, whom we have not been able to trace definitely, and also a Joseph, who has not been definitely traced. The main part of this book is given over to these first three, and their descendants.

(22) HUGH: Hugh Hamill (H-27) was "named for an Uncle" (who would be the missing brother Hugh). Also, Mrs. Father S. Hamill Campbell (H-371-652) says she "often heard her Father say that a boy by the name of Hugh, of the original settlers, wandered away and was never heard of again. Thought to have been killed by Indians or wild beasts. He might have been one of the 4 brothers who came here." (NOTE: Nathaniel (H-1), we know, was killed by wolves, and this legend is probably confused with his case. There evidently was a Hugh, however).

(23) JOSEPH: There are persistent legends about a Joseph, but no definite facts except the following: 9/25/1856, John G. Hamill of Xenia, Ohio (H-269-B) (who was temporarily staying at Georgetown, Ky) received a letter from Robert G. Hamill, a Dentist, living at Greensboro, Alabama, saying that his people came from Ireland, that his Grandfather was Joseph Hamill, who emigrated to US shortly after the Revolution, with a daughter and 5 sons, named John, Hugh, Charles, Andrew and James. He asked if John G. was the son of John Hamill, and said that they were probably related, and that he wanted to get acquainted. This may be a descendant of the legendary Joseph, whose family legends say did move South. (See Page H-4).

(24) Carrie S. Hamill (H-125-8) as a result of her researches, believed that the original brothers were: Nathaniel, Robert, Sr., John and Hugh. (She sent this on a Chart to Allan W. Hamill (H-269-B2)).

(25) There is also a legend that there were 12 children in this family, which may be pure legend, and has never been substantiated.

(26) There is also said to have been a written statement in the possession of Martha McDaniel Hamill (H-254) of Xenia, Ohio (who later moved to Bigsbyville, Illinois) which statement was possibly drawn up by Carrie S. Hamill (H-125-8), which stated the following: There were 2 brothers who were with Washington at Valley Forge, one of whom was supposedly one of the known 3 brothers, and the other was an ADAM Hamill. (NOTE: If this is true, Adam is a new one to the Compiler. This original statement has been lost. But (Hugh Hamill (H-36) was at Valley Forge).

The Father:

(27) The Father was said to have been James or John, but this again is unverified. Carrie S. Hamill (H-125-8), also Rev. Thos. L. Sexton (H-125-1) believed that the Father was John. Smith Hamill (H-125) believed that James was the Father, and said that he died in Penna - that the Hamills came in the very beginning, owned ships, and went back and forth.

(28) The Sacristan of that Church in Coleraine (or Belfast), Ireland, told Carrie S. Hamill (H-125-8) that several Hamills left about 1759-60 for America to join others already here. So this seems to fit the case of Nathaniel, Robert, Sr., and John, who appeared at Palmer's Fort, Logonier Valley, Penna, in 1761. (See John Hamill (H-3)). There are many traces that some Hamills were here from the very earliest days.

The Known Facts:

(29) At any rate, we have definite records of the following Hamills, who were supposedly brothers, and who lived in Pennsylvania:

Nathaniel Hamill (H-1), Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2), John Hamill, (H-3), These supposedly appeared first at Logonier Valley, Penna, about 1761, where John (H-3) and his family remained, (also at Indiana, Pa). Nathaniel & Robert Sr went to Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Pa, about 1770-5 or thereabouts. On the following pages (in the main part of the Genealogy) are definite facts about these 3 brothers!

SOME IMPRESSIONS OF A VISIT TO ENON VALLEY, PA.: 7/7/1939.: PAUL H. McCALLA.

The Enon Valley (N. Beaver County) is right on the Ohio-Penna State Line. Its four towns occupy the corners of a square, with the main line of the Penna Ry. (45 miles from Pittsburgh) running across the bottom. In the SW corner is East Palestine, the largest town (where some trains stop) Almost due north 6 or so miles, at the N.W. Corner is Petersburg, Ohio. About 5 Miles East, at the N.E. corner is Mt. Jackson, Pa. Neither Mt. Jackson or Petersburg are on the RR. Then about 6 miles or so South of Mt. Jackson, down to the S.E. corner and on the RR is Enon. Bethel Church and the old Hamill farm lie in the East center of this rectangle, due North from Enon. N.W. from Petersburg about 20 miles is Youngs town, founded by our Youngs. North of Mt. Jackson about 15 miles is Newcastle and New Wilmington (Neshannock Cemetery) where the Youngs and McCandlesses held forth. I arrived at East Palestine, Ohio (the nearest large town on the Pa. Ry. where the trains stops) at 4 AM, and the bed looked mighty good in the Lincoln Hotel across the tracks. At 9 AM the hotel keeper woke me up and said I must be oversleeping. A friendly farmer drove me up the road and over as far as Petersburg, Ohio, where I stopped a few moments to see a Mrs Grice, who is a Young, but her information is very scanty as she knew more about the Taylor relatives than about her Youngs.

A few miles East, in a hired automobile, we stopped at the home of Alexander McCalla, on the shoulder of the same hill that has the William B. Hamill place. Mr. McCalla's father came from County Antrim, and of course he knows nothing of the other McCallas in this country, but he is among our Hamill-Davidson-McCandless-Young kinfolk and in good hands. Then on to try to get to Mt. Jackson to attend Rev. Robert Hamill's church before the Sunday service should be over. Here, everything is on a high hill. You nearly have to climb a telegraph pole to get to the place you want. Going into Mt. Jackson is no exception. The hard road is so steep that they have to pave it with bricks, as cement would be too slippery. It's quite a frantic operation to come down this hill in a rain. But we climbed the hill and reached the church just as the last man was locking the door. Then we went over to visit a moment with Rev. Robert Hamill, who lives 2 blocks West in the town of Mt. Jackson. He had been reading the copy of the Hamill genealogy which Mr. Wm B. Hamill had, and had just received a copy of the Hamill Crest, which had been sent out to be pasted in the book. So I promised to send him another copy of this crest for his own use. This is the first glimpse of the wonderful, kindly smile that the genuine Hamills and Youngs have. That up-tilted head, the quizzical gleam in the eyes, the wonderful, kindly, Christian, friendly smile that was so marked a characteristic of my Grandparent family and that I remember so well on Grandmother Hamill, Aunt Carrie, Laura, Uncle David and the rest, and have so often noted on genuine Young descendants like Dr. Young and his brother, D.A. Young (the interior decorator) of Lake Forest, Ill., who are descendants of John Young (brother of our William) and whose people lived for a time in Washington, Iowa. You can always tell a genuine Hamill or Young of our line of descent by this wonderful, friendly, twinkling-eyed, up-tilted smile.

Rev. Robert Hamill and his wife both have it, and even without knowing that he was a descendent of John Hamill of Palmer's Fort, Pa. I would have known him as a kinsman. Some of our Hamills in the big cities do not have it, but here they have it unimpaired. After a brief visit with Dr. Hamill, we travelled a mile East to find the Mt. Jackson cemetery--also on top of the highest hill they could find. I copied all the names and dates that looked familiar. Then back and South on the hard road for a couple of miles to Westfield U.P. Church, which is set out in the bare country with no houses whatever around it. Also copied every familiar name on the gravestones. Then on South to where Wm B. Hamill's road branches off to the east, back toward Petersburg, Ohio. As you start to climb this large hill, there is an open pit family coal mine (where they shovel up coal on wagons like loading sand at the sea shore. Nobody buys coal here. They scrape off a little earth and dig their own. Wonder if they ever heard of $18.00 per ton hard coal in Chicago? On the other side of the coal pit is a small home-made saw-mill, where a neighbor is harvesting some of the splendid oak trees that cover many of the hills. We pass on thru the aks, thru a gate and finally on top come to the old fashioned farm house and large old-fashioned barn. The the back, down in a little glen, is a tiny log cabin housing the old Spring House.

Mr. Hamill and his wife proved to be delightfully kindly and hospitable with the same typically Hamill-Young smiles that would have instantly identified them as being genuine. Only sorry that I could not have remained longer and found out more about the old kinfolk and just where they had lived and so on. There is an older Hamill farm, which was pointed out to me by Mr. Wm Crux, the man who very kindly drove me around, but all the buildings have long since gone and I did not have an opportunity to stop and look it over. Sorry that I missed the rest of the family, who were evidently away for the afternoon. After a while we left and drove on down the hill and into the valley and climbed another "telegraph pole" to get to Bethel Church. All you can see in the distance is a little school house on the bare shoulder of the hill. The church and grave yard are in the oak trees. The church itself is on the west side of the road, rectangular, with the pews in circular shape around the pulpit. In the rear of the church, on the shoulder of the hill and under the oak trees, are the graves of our immediate Hamill-Davidson-McCandless ancestors. I copied everything that looked interesting, and with the rain dripping down by neck. I do so wish that I could have met more of these fine people, and that I could have been here in time for church or else at Mt. Jackson.

Next, on back down the hill to the hard road which runs thru the valley from North to South, and we hit a 40 mile-an-hour pace thru the rain South for 4 Miles to Enon, Pa. on the main line of the Penna Ry (5 Mi. East of East Palestine, Ohio). In this small town a man told us that there were a lot of Youngs buried in the town cemetery, so we ran out there at about 6 PM. A fine young storm came up but I managed to copy off a few of the Young and Scott tombstones. You always find Scotts, Elders, Stuarts or Stewarts with our genuine Youngs--it's a sort of trade-mark. The Youngs intermarried with the Royal Stuart line in Scotland and with Sir Walter Scott's people and they've been doing it ever since. So if you do not find a Scott, Elder, Stuart or Stewart buried with or nearby a Young---well, it's a miracle, that is all I have to say. None are genuine without that trade-mark. So the minute I found about 20 or so Youngs all in a row, with a Scott in the center, I knew that I was among our own Youngs. Unfortunately, the intermarriage of the Youngs, Hamills and McCandlesses occurred so long ago that the people here have forgotten it, and there apparently is no longer any acquaintance between them. Most of the McCandless family are at Newcastle and New Wilmington, Pa., 15 or 20 miles North.

I copied as hard as I could in the rain, but it stormed so and grew so dark that we had to give it up and I covered only a few graves at Enon, Pa. Sometime again this cemetery should be thoroughly covered. I so wanted to go North to Newcastle and New Wilmington (Neshannock Cemetery) where some of our Youngs are known to have been buried. But it was too late, too dark and too near train time. So we drove South toward New Galilee, and went West on the Lincoln Highway to East Palestine, Ohio, to the Hotel Lincoln, and I caught the train to Chicago. A few Penna main line trains do stop at East Palestine, but darn few at Enon. After I reached home I was surprised to find that Uncle Sexton came from this country, having been born at Poland, Ohio, nearby, and knowing President McKinley at East Palestine when they were at some camp. So Palestine, too, is familiar country to some of our folks.

The other way to visit this country is to go in via B. & O. or Penna Ry. to Newcastle, Pa. If you have plenty of time you can go via Youngstown, and if you have good luck, catch an occasional bus over from Youngstown. There are quite a few Hamills and McCandlesses in Newcastle. The whole place is a delightful little valley, rich in the history of the past and very beautiful.

ENON CEMETERY (At Enon, on Penna Ry Main Line, about 4 1/2 M. N. of Pittsburgh, and very close to Penna-Ohio state line. Cemetery lies 1 M straight N. of town, and slightly to

This cemetery was only partially copied, and should be covered very thoroughly as it is full of graves of the YOUNG family; some few of which are shown below. Also, at Reckmann-some of our Youngs are known to be buried.

Also Wm Scotts list at Enon Valley.

New Galilee Cemetery is only 5 M South and should be covered some time. Chas Hadden, of Enon Valley, is Secretary of Enon Valley Cem-

An article about the old Bethel Church, which the Hamills, McHandlouses, etc. attended at Raon Valley (4 mi. N. on Raon, Penna., on Main Line Branch Ry, 45 mi W. of Pch. This old Church is on a high hill, overlooking all the valley, and looking across West about 2 miles, you can see the high hill on the top of which was perched the old Wm Hamill (John Hamill) farm. This article was copied from the Western Inquirer, of 9/7/1903 (Greentown, Penna.), and was in the possession of Mrs Alexander J. McCauley, R.F.D. #2, Raon, Penna., who are next door neighbors to Wm B. Hamill. Mr. McCauley's father came from N. Ireland and they settled there.

BETHEL CHURCH A CENTURY OLD.

Impressive Centennial Services Held During Wednesday.

History of the Church.

The First Church was a Tent, and this was succeeded by an Octagonal Log Bldg.

The centennial anniversary of the founding of Bethel United Presbyterian Church, N. Beaver Twp was held on Wednesday at the pretty little church in the beautiful grove surrounding it. About 500 people were in attendance during the various exercises of the day. The members of the congregation, former members and friends of Bethel and visiting pastors, began to arrive at about 10 o'clock in the morning and at 10:30 the opening exercises were commenced at the church Rev F.W. Fister of this city presiding in the absence of the moderator, Rev. J.W. Birney. After the devotional exercises and a few words of welcome, Col Oscar L. Jackson of this city made the opening address. His address was devoted largely to words of advice to parents and young men. Col. Jackson claimed that no community is so well fitted to the production of strong, sound, intelligent men as the district in which the religious influence is strong, and said it to his personal knowledge the leading men of the nation have sprung from such communities. "Nearly all of our really great men are members of the church," said Col. Jackson. It is seldom that an oath can be heard during a conversation between men of high authority, and their good breeding is shown by the absence of all harshness in demeanor. During the time I served in Congress I had the pleasure of a close acquaintance with Mr McKinley, now President of the United States, riding out several times with him to Pittsburgh or Harrisburg as we came home. On one of these trips General John A. Logan accompanied us, and I listened with pleasure to their conversation. No an oath was used, although the discussions were warm and not a word that might not have been spoken in a ladies drawing room was uttered. In all my knowledge of President McKinley, I have never known him to use a profane expression. Men who led the Army and Navy in the late war were as a rule church men and moral men who had such a training as is given to young men of Bethel congregation."

Col Jackson closed with words of good advice to the younger people, advising them to care for the interests of the Bethel Church as well as their ancestors have done. The congregation was then dismissed for dinner. Bethel church stands in a grove of trees magnificent oaks, interspersed with tall, broad maples. Beneath these trees long tables had been built and they were covered with viands prepared by the good ladies of North Beaver. Three times the tables were occupied, the first time by 150 persons, the second time by an equal number and the third time by nearly as many. On reconvening at 2 o'clock, a carefully prepared and comprehensive history of Bethel Church and congregation was read by Rev. J.F. Rice, who has been pastor of the church for nearly a quarter of a century. Among the facts that he set forth were the following:

The church was planted in America in 1793. 45 years later Bethel Church was organized. The altar of Bethel as at first set up, was located at a point 3 miles South and was known as Little Beaver. It was on the farm now owned by James McCauley. The excellent Spring Water in the glen near the present church no doubt recommended the location of the church there. Bethel was to occupy a territory bounded by the Allegheny on the North, the Beaver on the East, the Little Beaver on the South, and the Ohio line on the West. The present church is in the center of the territory. A gentleman named Lackey presented an acre of ground for the church. Just above and East of the spring, the first Gospel tent was built. This tent was set up in the shady grove, with an elevated platform for the minister; a board nailed against a tree supported the Bible, a few rude benches were placed for seats, and there were boards overhead to protect the minister from the sun and rain. In this tent the congregation would worship for nearly all of a Sunday. In due time a tent was supplemented with a round log house, 12x20, covered with clapboards, lighted by paper windows, and provided at one end with a large fireplace. This doubtless was used when the weather was inclement, as a service room. It was also used as the first school house and later as a storehouse for saddles, blankets and riding skirts. There were few roads, and people came in by way of the most convenient path. This is the philosophy of our crooked highways.

The first church proper was of hewn logs. Soon this became too small, and the South end was taken out and an addition made in about 1816. The entrance was from the South, and the pulpit was on the West. An ascent of several steps led to the door. The shape of the pulpit was octagonal, with panel work. It was high enough to be a shield against curious eyes. The preacher or leader of song sat with the minister and when they were sitting, nothing could be seen but the top of their heads. On one occasion, a block had to be provided for the diminutive visiting brother, for he was short of stature. For the most part the seats were puncheon benches with 2 slats for a back and high enough for the feet of the children to swing clear of the floor. There were a few better seats at the back, next the wall, raised on blocks and constituted brotherly skill or at the expense of the families occupying them. This church served for about 30 years. After a time the preacher left the pulpit and two men stood in front of it, reading and singing two psalm lines alternately. When books multiplied it was a trial for old members to do away with the custom.

The first frame church was built in 1837 and was 40x56 feet in size. At the "raising" Rev. Hopper was so seriously hurt that he died shortly afterward. The door was on the South and the pulpit was on the North. Floors and glass were used, and the house was oiled and supplied with pews in the best fashion of the day. Much of the timber used in its construction is a part of the present church. In this church the congregation denounced slavery. In the cemetery of Bethel Church there is buried Patrick Dixon, a Revolutionary Soldier. In 1803 this man Dixon bought of John Hamill 106 acres of land, now the Marion Sulsher farm, paying $400.

The following soldiers of the War of 1812 are also buried in Bethel Cemetery: John Auchenbough, David Clark, Wm H. Dixon, Father Kennedy, James Robison, John Witherspoon, David White, George Aughton, Nathaniel Hamill, Thomas Hogg, Hugh Padon, Nathaniel White and John White. The cemetery also contains the dust of 24 soldiers of the Civil War. The present church building was dedicated 12/22/1870. The specifications for the building of the church provided that the door should be on the South, but on the day of the "raising" James Brown of Hitched his horses to one of the sides, and pulled it to a position which placed the door on the North, facing the road. Brown was a man who never had much to say, but he was the current vernacular, what he said or did "went" and the church remained as he placed it. The names of 14 families have continued in the congregation during the century. They are McCoshan, Hogg, Leslie, Gilmore, Robbins, Hamill, Padon, Dabrie, White, Finney, Dixon, Clark, Smith and Witherspoon. Of those born and baptized in the congregation, Mrs. Rachel Robbins, now aged 83 is the oldest. Next to her is Mrs. Cynthia Hamill Patten, aged 73. Of the men, Wm H. Leslie has the honor. Darlington, Bethel and Unioning was the first pastorate of the denomination North of the Ohio River. Bryce McCoshan, Thomas Hogg, and Charles Horro were the first elders chosen by the church. McCoshan was a leading spirit in the new country and was often visited by prospective settlers looking for land. It is said his first question would be: "Are you a seceder?" and if the answer were in the negative, he would know of no land to be obtained in the neighborhood. He located on the farm now owned by Philip H. Swisher.

Charles Horro, with his brother and two sisters, came to this region about 1766, and settled settled East of the Beaver, opposite the Jenkins farm. They established a ferry and a road was cut through to Petersburg. Thomas Horro came from Donagel to Washington Co. then coming to E. Beaver Top about 1796. The first pastor was the Rev. James E. Dean. He was a prominent member of the Associate Presbytery of Penna, and was moderator of the organization of the Presbytery of Chertiers in 1801. His parents were Scotch Covenanters. In 1800 he was ordained pastor of Unioning, Bethel, and Darlington. In 1808 he was released from Bethel and Darlington.

The Rev. David Lurie, the second pastor, was born 8/28/1771, on 9/3/1806 he preached was made pastor of Bethel and Darlington, remaining in charge until his death. For a few years Big Beaver was a part of his charge. On Sunday morning, 6/13/1842, in company with his daughter he drove to preach at Bethel. Arriving there, he was seized with syncope and sank down in his buggy in the presence of his congregation. He was removed to the house of Nathaniel Hamill, passing away at midnight in the 65th year of his age. His last sermon was preached at Darlington on the First Sunday in June. The pastorate of Bethel was then vacant for 2 years and 3 days, when on June 16th, 1844, Rev John W. Harsha began his labors as pastor, with a stipulated salary of $350. per year. He was born 3/2/1803, in Artyle, N.Y. As a result of an attack of quinsy he lost his voice, but his congregation was unwilling to give him up and it was not until 1852 that he resigned to take the chair of Latin and English Literature in Westminster College. He resumed his professorship in 1856. At about that time he was attacked with inflammation of the brain, which unfitted him for any active or public service. Sometimes a social call was followed by weeks of suffering. He died at Artyle, N.Y. 8/18/1892. The Rev. Samuel Alexander was ordained as pastor on 8/21/1855. He was pastor 16 years and 8 months, resigning 2/21/1872. He afterward moved to Lyndon, Kan., where he died several years ago after a pastorate in which he greatly endeared himself to his congregation.

After a vacancy of 2 years the congregation doubled their subscriptions and on 9/29/1873, called the present pastor, Rev. John Smith Dine. It was accepted 2/17/1874 and he was ordained and installed on 1/21 of the same year. He was born near Poland, O. 11/1/1841. He graduated at Westminster in 1869, and from the Allegheny Theological Seminary in March 1873. He was licensed by the Presbytery at Sharon in August 1872. He preached his first sermon at Sharon. He filled appointments in the Presbyteries of Boston, Stamford, Canada, and Keokuk, and is now in his 25th year of his pastorate at Bethel. Up to the present his pastoral record is as follows: Received on profession, 131, removed on certificate, 95, adult baptisms, 24, infant baptisms, 125, dismissed by letter 132, deaths 40, dropped out 13, total number of sermons preached, 2175 of which 1377 were at Bethel and 802 at other places. He has performed 75 marriage ceremonies and attended 135 funerals. At the conclusion of the reading of the history, Rev. Hugh Sturtevant delivered an address on "The Congregation 1793-1898". Rev. W.A. Brown of this city delivered an interesting and instructive address on "The pastorate 1798-1898". Dr. Brown gave an excellent advice to the people and his address was well received. Addresses were made by Rev. J.A. Bailey, Rev. Small, Rev. Dr. W.M. Taylor, and Rev. D.T. McAlmont. Five minute speeches followed, after which supper was served. The evening program comprised an address on "The Sabbath School" by W. Ibric Clark, and an address on "The United Presbyterian Church, What it stands for and what it is doing" by W.S. Owens, D.D. During the afternoon an original poem was read by Miss Lydia Ibric, a great-grand-daughter of the Rev. David Ibric, second pastor of Bethel.

The name Hammill appears to drop out of existence in Bedford County after the year 1804. In the Assessments for the first 3 years, the name appears to be spelled "Hamble" as you will notice in the Transcript. I did not give you valuation of property and taxes on same for the different years, as that matter would be of no consequence for your purpose.

"In the name of God, Amen, I, Robert Hamrill, of Air Township, Bedford County and State of Penna, Yeoman, being weak of body but of sound mind, memory and understanding, blessed be God for the same, but considering the uncertainty of this transitory life, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, Viz: principally and first of all I commend my immortal soul unto the hands of God who gave it me, and my body to the earth, to be buried in a decent and Christian like manner at the Discretion of my Executors hereinafter mentioned, and as to such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life I give and dispose of in the manner following, to wit: I give and devise to my beloved wife Anovel, the dark bay bald faced mare and her choice of any two cows on my plantation. I desire my personal estate to be put to sale as soon as convenient after my decease, and as soon as my younger son Hugh comes of age, I desire my plantation to be sold, and sooner if opportunity serves, and out of the first payment of the land I bequeath to my wife the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid to her by my Executors to use and dispose of as she thinks proper, and one hundred and fifty pounds exclusive of the hundred pounds aforementioned when the estate is all settled. I desire her and my daughters Sarah and Margaret to live with my sons Robert and Hugh and the aforementioned sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to go along with my said wife to any of her children she sees proper to dwell with, and if she sees proper, to any other of her children then in whose hands the money is must pay interest for the same during her life and at her death the said farm is to remain in the hands she lived and died with.

Likewise I give and bequeath to my oldest daughter Martha, the sum of fifty pounds to be paid in the manner last mentioned, when the price of my plantation is all collected. I give and bequeath to my son Robert the sum of fifty pounds when everything is settled of and my daughters Sarah and Margaret the sum of twenty-five pounds each, and after my just debts are discharged, after the aforementioned bequests, the remainder of my estate I allow to be divided in six equal shares and distributed among the legatees of my second son-

(The following two letters are self explanatory. They were written by the man who made the above transcripts, Mr John T. Shaffer, Clerk of the Commissioner's of Bedford County, Bedford, Penna., to Mr Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Emma Crawford) (H-124-12), of Omaha, Nebraska - who had this Research done.

"Bedford, Penna, Aug. 17, 1896. Mr Clinton Franklin, Esq, Omaha, Neb. "Dear Sir: Your letter of the 12th instant came by my hand duly, and note what you say. I have no means of knowing what became of the 190 acres of land assessed to Nathaniel Hamill in 1798, as no deed appears to be put on record. I am sure it never was assessed in name of Martha S. Hamill. I gave you all the various assessments I could find in name of Hamill. In order to satisfy your mind that there is no deed on record in name of Nathaniel Hamill, I have had our reg. sec. to search for same, and give me a Certif., which I herewith enclose. I am extremely sorry I could not discover what would have been good news to you, but when such a thing does not exist, then the goods cannot be produced. At any time I can serve you, I will do so with pleasure. I am, yours most resp'y, J.T. SHAFER."

(The signed and sealed Certificate accompanying letter is as follows): "State of Pennsylvania, County of Bedford, ss. I, Wm.S. Linsinger, Recorder of Deeds, &c, in and for said County, do hereby certify that I have carefully examined the records of Deeds and Mortgages on file in my office, and that I find no deeds of record in the name of Nathaniel Hamill, nor do I find the name of Nathaniel Hamill appearing on deed records in any way whatever. In witness whereof, I have herunto set my hand and affixed my official seal at Bedford, Pa, this 17th day of August, AD, 1896.

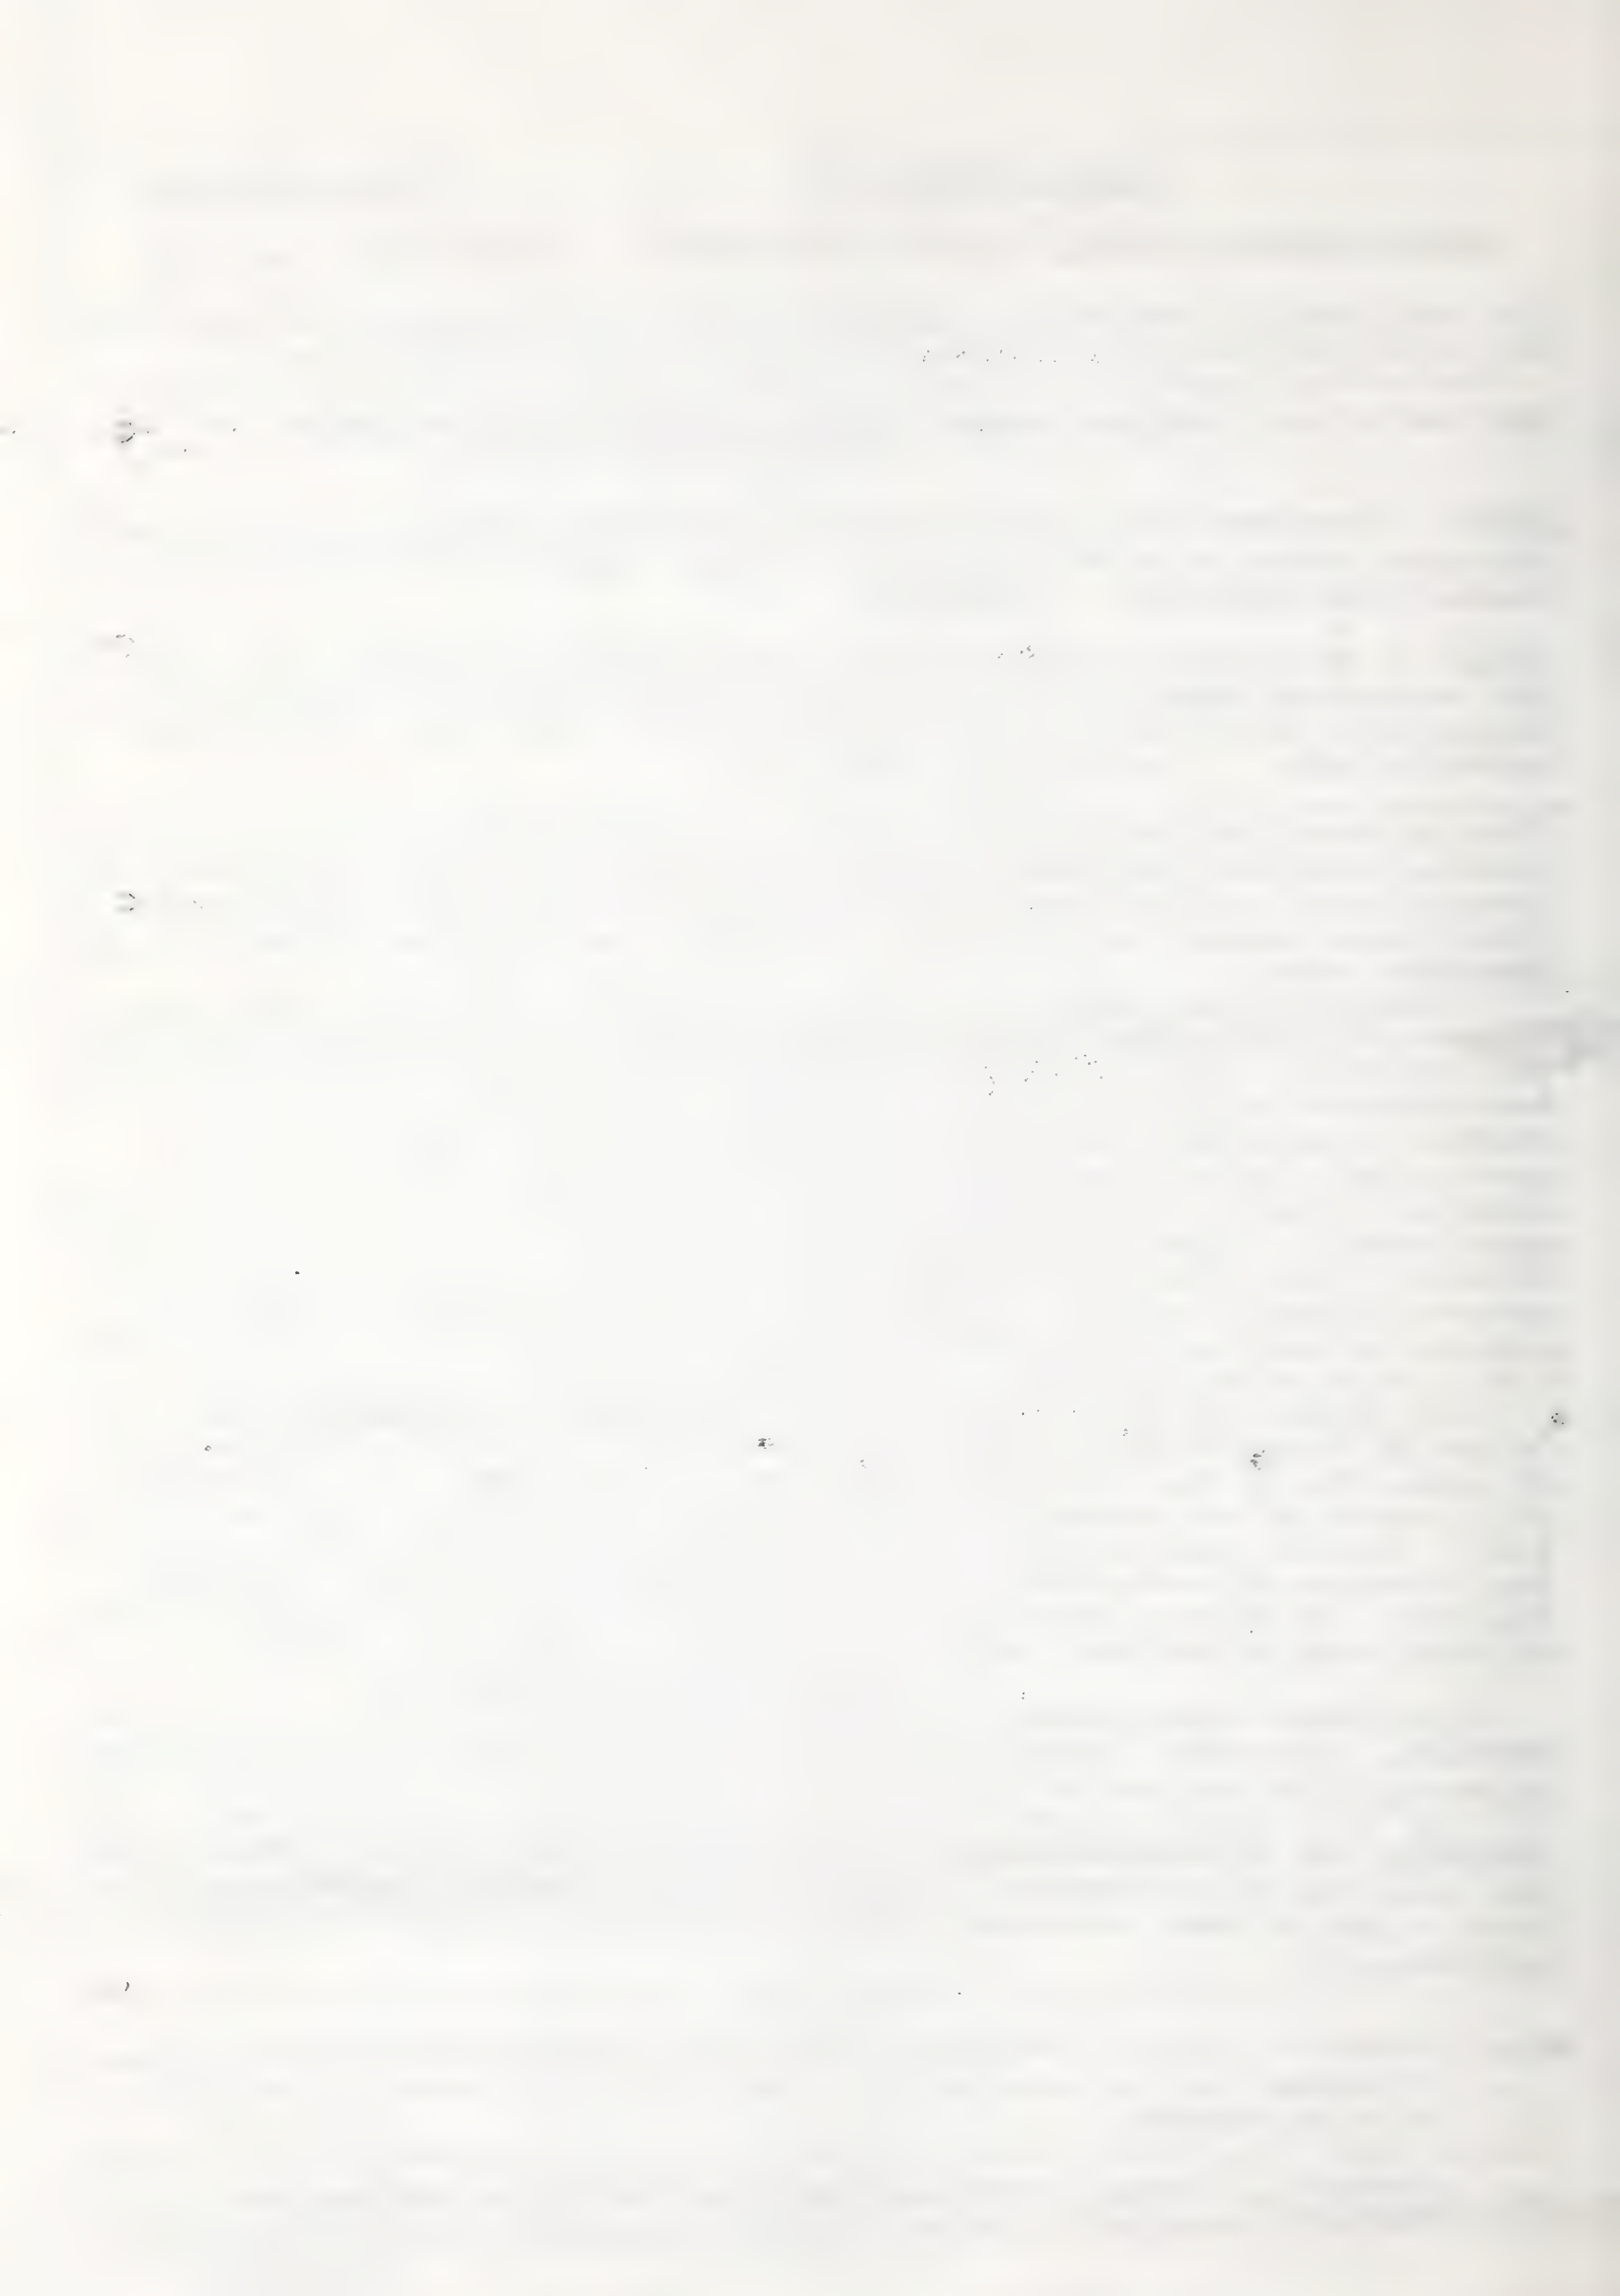

W.S. LINSINGER, Recorder.

(Subsequent letter reads): "Bedford, Penna, Aug. 24, 1896. Mr Clinton Franklin, Omaha, Neb. "Dear Sir: Your letter of a recent date at hand, and in reply would say that I have examined the deed as recorded in Deed Book "1" (or "J"), Page 556, and there is no mistake as to the name being "SUSANNA", as it appears occurs in the deed at least four different times, but according to the records, she never signed the deed, as the space is blank opposite seal, where she should have signed, I am, yours most resp'y, J.T.  (Gering, Nebraska:

"I am wondering if you have data on the family of Nancy McClellan (MacCandless), who was born 1782. (See MacCandless A-5).

My earliest known Crawford ancestor was Robert Crawford, born about 1765 or 1766, (we do not know where, for sure). This Robert Crawford married Martha McClelland, who was born 1780 when her people, who were of North Ireland, were on their way to America. Martha's birth on the ocean is not established by any record evidence, and one of her granddaughters says she never heard the story at all, but other relatives who know anything of Martha at all are quite positive that they were told of her birth on the ocean, by their parents. We do not know where Martha lived during her childhood, and before she came to Beaver Co, Pa. We do know that Robert Crawford was in Big Beaver Twp., of old Beaver County, Penna, by 1802, for he is listed as a Taxable in that year. Their first child, David, my Ancestor, was born 1802, and the tombstone of their 2nd child, Margaret, recites that she was born in Big Beaver Twp. in 1803.

Robert McClelland, who was a brother of Martha, married Rebecca Crawford, who may have been a sister, or some other relative of Robert Crawford. This Robert McClelland's tombstone shows that he died 4/16/1841, 62 years of age, so he must have been born about 1779. Robert McClelland's Naturalization Certificate is in existence in Beaver Co, and I have a copy of it, which is quite interesting. It is dated Oct. 3, 1803, and says he was "a native of Ireland." We know of 9 children of Robert McClelland and Rebecca Crawford: Pergus; Rebecca Hughes; John; Alex; David; Nancy; wonder if she could have been named for her "Aunt Nancy McClelland MacCandless (See MacCandless A-5); James; Thomas; and George.

Robert Crawford and Martha McClelland had 11 children: David; Margaret; Sarah; Mary Ann; Nancy; Robert; Jane; Martha; Elizabeth; Rebecca; and James.

Your Nancy McClellan, (1st wife of John McCandless) (See Page A-5-McCandless Section), was born in 1782 in Phila, Pa, and I notice her only child was named Robert. Could she have been named for the above Robert McClelland, (husband of Rebecca Crawford), who may have been her brother? The above is rather intriguing, don't you think? It may be just a similarity of names, and again it may not be.

In the old days, there were a number of McClellands in Beaver and Lawrence Counties, Pa. One of them, Dr Robert McClelland, was a pioneer Doctor, and married Mary Woods, a Cousin of the Davidsons. We do not know whether Dr Robert McClelland was himself related to us.

I have condensed the data on the two Crawford-McClelland alliances above mentioned. Of course, I realize you are not descended from the Nancy McClelland above. Sylvia W. Caven, " (H-124-113).

"REMINISCENCES of the SETTLEMENTS of ROBINSON'S RUN, (Penna), By ISAAC WALKER.

(The following Article, plus the Clipping from a 1947 Church Paper, was contributed - 2/13/1948 - by Mrs Albert James Caven (Sylvia Ellen Walker) (H-124-113) - then living at 1625 Nevada St, Gering, Nebraska - who is to move on 4/1/1948, to 2415 N-E 41st Street, Portland, Oregon.

"Gabriel and Isaac Walker were born in Lancaster County, Penna; Gabriel in 1744 and Isaac in 1746. They emigrated West in 1772, and purchased land adjacent to the West of the Ewing Tract.

Gabriel built his cabin on Robinson Run, at Hay's Crossing, and Isaac built his near the confluence of Scott's Run and Robinson's Run. For several years after settlement, Isaac travelled back and forth to Lancaster County in the Fall and Spring for lead, tinware, axes, etc, which at that time were much in demand, the country being an unbroken wilderness. The only means of conveyance was by pack horse, the road only a trail over the mountains and through the valleys. Col. Thomas Manton has said the Buffalo and Elk were the first Engineers in the art of road making. In 1799, Isaac married a Mrs Mary Richardson, whose husband had been killed by the Indians on the Loyal Hanna. He brought his new wife to his western cabin, where they settled down to the joys and hardships of pioneer life. Shortly before this the Revolutionary war had broken out, and the Indians were incited by the British government to make war on our white settlers. A reward of $8. apiece was offered for every scalp taken. This barbarity continued to the close of the war, and was a disgrace to the English nation.

In September 1782, a band of Indians, about 25 in number, approached the cabin of Gabriel Walker. They concealed themselves near by, intending to surprise the family at dinner. An intervention by Providence saved them from destruction, two travellers with guns on their shoulders, came just at this time. Indians are a cowardly race, and these waited to do their bloody work until the travellers and extra guns had taken their departure. Before this occurrence, however, the younger members of the family, including the bound boy, called Bill Harkins, were sent to home hoe Timothy in a field near the house. After seeing the strangers leave, Mr Walker started to the field, and while on his way, saw the Indians creeping towards his children. He called to them to run as the Indians were coming, and they started to run but were soon captured by the Indians. Five children were taken prisoners, but Mr Walker made his escape. The Indians pursued Bill Harkins, but he being swift of foot, ran to a corn field and through it to Robinson Run, which stream he followed down to the Ewing Fort, over two miles away, where he spread the alarm.

Mrs Walker was in the house when the alarm was given. She started to make her escape, snatching up her baby to run, but the other child said: "Mother, (2/23/1948).

"The McClellans - Crawfords and Walkers."

Don't leave me for the Indians!" so she grasped them both, and under cover of the high weeds back of the house, she managed to conceal herself, and so made her way to the fort. Young Harkins, in his flight, also gave the alarm to Isaac Walker, who also with his family, made their way to the fort.....

The Fort was built by James Swing, (with the help of the Walkers), who was born in Cecil County, Maryland, and emigrated West in 1770. His claim, situated on Robinson Run, extended from the western boundary of what is Chartier's Borough to Walker's Mills, a distance of 2 miles, back to Thornburg line, embracing in this one tract over a thousand acres. The site of the Fort was pointed out to the writer of this article by his Father, who was in the Fort at the time of this attack, and was located near Robinson's Run.

The Indians pillaged the cabin of Gabriel Walker, ripping open the beds, and taking such things as they wanted, set it on fire and burned it to the ground. Then they assembled for a general attack on the Fort, which had just been started, when Providence again intervened by the timely arrival of several men from Miller's Run, among whom was Capt. Joseph Gasnet. The Indians, after a consultation, murdered the two youngest boys, eight and twelve years old, in sight of the Fort, and left their scalped and bleeding bodies upon the ground. They then departed in a North-westerly direction, with their captives, two young women and a boy. After going a short distance, they set fire to a cabin on the Brockenridge Farm, now owned by Miller and McBride. They continued their journey single file, and they were extremely careful to cover up their tracks so that the white men could not follow them. They cut the young ladies' clothes off at the knees to expedite travelling. In this way they journeyed on, camping that night at the headwater of Robinson's Run; where they feasted on green corn, which was visible to the settlers who followed their trail the next morning. Continuing on, they reached the Ohio River at or near Logstown, where their canoes were hidden. All North of the river at that time was called Indian Country, and few men had the courage to explore its virgin soil, always going to it in a body, and taking care to be well armed.

The news of the massacre and capture spread among the Settlers. Messengers were sent far and near to the inhabitants, who gathered next day at the Fort. A band numbering between 40 and 50 men was organized, among whom were John Henry, James Swing, Peter Hickman and John Connors. After a consultation, they appointed John Henry their leader. They then appealed to the bereaved Mother, who told them: "Go bring them dead or alive."

They followed the trail with caution for fear of an un-looked for attack. But finally they reached the Ohio at Logstown, when they saw the Indians crossing the river, they fired upon the last canoe, killing one and wounding another Indian. The prisoners could tell after their return home, that they were not all over the river when their rescuers came to it, but were hid in the brush and tree tops. The Indians with uplifted tomahawks threatened death should they make the least outcry. Some times the white men were so close they could almost touch them. The scalps of the two little white-haired boys were carried along by the Indians, and at night, while sitting around their campfires, the prisoners were compelled to scrape the flesh from them in order to dry them. Not being pursued after they crossed the river, they travelled at their leisure toward Canada, and in about two weeks reached Detroit. They were kept until the war ended, when they were exchanged for British prisoners. They were sent by sea to the port of Philadelphia. From there they crossed the mountains on their way homeward in rough road wagons, until they reached their parents, from whom they had been separated for 2 years, and who had given them up as dead. The joy of this meeting surely can only be imagined, not described, by either tongue or pen.

Young Walker, while with the Indians, often accompanied them on their expeditions with their ponies and horses. On one occasion he was leading a horse belonging to a Chief, when by some mischance, the horse stepped on the foot of the Chief. Startling with pain, he turned and hit the boy on the head with his tomahawk, knocking him senseless. The boy soon recovered sufficiently to walk, but, always afterwards talked through his nose. He died on his farm near May's Crossing, about the year 1844."

From: "United Presbyterian Magazine - / / 1947):

"ELDER JOHN JAMES WALKER, Rennerdale, Penna.

"J. J. Walker, an invalid for the past six years, was tireless in his activities for 20 years. Wherever he was found, there was something doing.

It was something good. He was a Christian trying to follow his Master. He loved his Lord, his Church, his Home, and his Community.

Mr Walker left his imprint on three United Presbyterian Churches in Western Pennsylvania. In Nobles town, he was active as a Trustee and in the Bible School. Spending some time in the Carnegie congregation, he inspired it with his enthusiasm and efforts. When a congregation was organized in Rennerdale, the Church was erected on a spacious lot donated by Mr Walker. He was an Elder of this Church since its organization in 1903, and clerk of session for the past 40 years.

In his affliction he was always happy - more interested in the welfare of others than in his own ills. His counsel was wise, his spirit was warm and his faith was strong.

When God called he was ready. His faith was rewarded. God gave the victory. On September 29, (1947?), the Rennerdale Church was filled with those who loved him and would honor him. His body rests in the Oakdale Cemetery. He leaves two daughters and two sons - all members of the Rennerdale Congregation - and two grandchildren.

Mr Walker was a good man, a godly man, and his works do follow him.

"IS IT WORTH WHILE TO CLIMB YOUR FAMILY TREE?"

By Mrs. Albert James Gering, ("124-113").

A SPEECH

GENEALOGY.

(This Speech was Contributed 2/18/1948 by Mrs. Albert Gering, (Gering, Nebraska) ("124-113"), of Gering, Nebraska. She delivered this Speech in September 1947, before her own Katahdin Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in Scotts Bluff, Neb. (across the river from Gering). The Chapter sent this Speech on to the "Lending and Filing Bureau," who doubtless made a permanent record of it.)

"Is it worth while to climb your family tree? We are admonished to do so, for in the Book of Joel, in the Old Testament, we read: 'Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? Tell ye your children of it and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.' In Proverbs we find this quotation: 'A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches.' Macaulay, the English author wrote: 'A people who take no pride in the noble deeds of remote ancestors will never achieve anything worthy to be remembered with pride by remote descendants.' And Daniel Webster wrote: 'There may be, and there often is, indeed, a regard for ancestry, which nourished only a weak pride; as there is also a care for posterity, which only disguises an habitual avarice, or hides the workings of a low and grovelling vanity. But there is also a moral and philosophical respect for our ancestors, which elevates the character and improves the heart.'

Once, when I was a little girl, my Mother, in a rare moment of exasperation because I questioned the truth of a romantic but somewhat vaguely authenticated incident in our family lore, called me a "doubting Thomas." Since that day I have, if anything, become more credulous, but I am still a doubting Thomas in matters where family tradition is involved.

The family traditions of America are precious legacies in which we too frequently have shown an unforgettable lack of interest. By failure to write down the reminiscences of the older members of our families, most of us have allowed to slip into oblivion historical and family data that America as a nation cannot afford to lose. Every possible scrap of family tradition should be gathered and preserved, but it should be documented as family tradition, and not as family history, until it has been painstakingly investigated and proved.

Perhaps the most amusing error occurs when some person very seriously makes a statement about genealogy, and by the tenor of the statement shows that he does not know a thing about it. This is especially true in some family histories wherein the author claims descent from some noble family.

Some of the motion picture celebrities are descended of old and worthy families. A glance over the star's names, and a brief personal study of their families, will convince anyone of their honorable heritage. Yet even in so famous a place as Hollywood, where money abounds and technical experts can be found by the score, some of the motion picture folk have been sadly misled with regard to coats of arms. An actual instance is that of a prominent star, who had on a beautiful automobile, a coat of arms in gorgeous colors. Naturally this was proudly displayed, until it was pointed out by a genealogist that this motion picture star had been parading a "bar sinister," which means in heraldic language that the parents or other forebears had not been married.

Pride should arouse in anyone a desire for knowledge of his or her family history and descent. The principal argument of those lacking interest in such, is that it is not worth while; that a man is the architect of his own character, and that his forebears have no part in his success or failure from any point of view. It is said, too, that in the course of several generations rations, whatever of merit that might have been inherited from an illustrious ancestor will all but have disappeared by division through marriage. All of this is strong argument from a purely physical standpoint, but conceding it all, a careful examination of the subject largely dissipates the force of it. If such arguments present a controlling reason for having no interest in one's family history, on such basis one could as well have no interest in his own children, except such as might arise from association, and all societies that depend upon heredity for eligibility to membership are purely fantastic. It is true, as the realist will say, that there is no blood of the mother in the child's veins; that the child forms its own blood. But the use of the word "blood" in such connection is metaphorical. Whether we refer to it as blood or anything else, medical science recognizes the fact that certain diseases, and predisposition to others, are transmitted by inheritance. It is also true that life adheres, in its reproduction to general forms - like begets like.

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

So whether we call it blood or whatsoever, by some mysterious means there is a strong likeness transmitted by descent in the physical forms of life, animal and vegetable, and while scientific research has not pretended to determine how far such things as character and ideals may be influenced by descent, it is true that it has its part. We know that long continued habit, from one generation to another, has made wonderful changes in certain animals, known as domestication, and has given us the dog, cat, horse and several domestic fowls, whose lives and the lives of man are almost inseparable. Is there reason to doubt that character and ideals, the principles of which are taught the children by their parents, may be handed down from one generation to another, and thus influence the human race as domestication has the animals? No animal can be fully domesticated from its wild state except through many generations by the process of descent. Of course, within certain limits there is variability to be found, just as people have different facial appearance, different tastes, etc, and there is no way to account definitely for these. Everything is the result of a cause, whether we can discern it or not, though as the race grows older it learns more.

The circumstances under which people live contribute to their interest in, and knowledge of, or lack of these, their family history. The closer the association the greater the knowledge they have of each other, and their consequent interest in the family history. Pioneering in this country has rendered impossible in some instances the tracing of the history and genealogy of a family, and has made it very difficult in many. The lack of communication facilities in an early day has caused silence between the members of a family living a great distance apart, that has made them all but strangers to each other, and caused interest to largely die out. The lack of records of births, deaths, and marriages, particularly in sparsely settled sections, and destruction by fire, war, etc, have made it hard to establish the facts as to descent, creating the necessity of using more remote and less reliable proof. By checking such proof from various sources, many of the errors therein may be discovered, and at least fairly reliable conclusions reached.

For many, genealogy is an interesting study, and if evidenced by complete, unbroken records, much of the interest would disappear. Certainly a compiled history of the family is of great interest to every member of it. Once the genealogy of a family has been compiled and records made of it, most likely some other members, from generation to generation, will have enough interest in it to keep it up. It is a worthy distinction that the generations of a family are well known. Usually it is just a matter of people not knowing their family history that keeps down their interest in it. The honorable, patriotic and otherwise distinguished achievements of our ancestors are a matter of pride to us. It would be a great thing for families, and for the country historically, that as complete record of their histories as possible be kept, and contribution to this public interest, in the effort to keep them, is an entirely worthy public service. The ways are too numerous and the range too great in which such effort will benefit the family and the country at large for us to undertake discussing it here, and you will understand and appreciate this without discussion.

Regardless of the arguments as to the inconsequence of descent, there are quite a lot of people in all civilized countries who attach much importance to it, and the more highly civilized, cultivated and educated the people, the more important they hold descent to be. I, personally have received genealogical communications from nearly every state in the union, and from the Philippines, Cuba and the Canal Zone. It is a strong argument that, with enlightened people, outside of the matter of biological transmission of physical characteristics, ideals of conduct and character, if not transmitted by descent, are handed down by precept from the father and mother to their children. People of high ideals and dominant character prize these qualities and teach their importance to their children, and these were the stimuli for the achievements of their ancestors, their patriotism, courage, fortitude - all that goes into the character of the great.

A family record of them will instill in succeeding generations a pride and incentive to emulate them. None should want to drag the family name in the dust, but rather to sustain it by worthy deeds of their own. All hereditary societies are glad to have and make record of honorable achievements of the ancestors of their members. They make investigation, as to the eligibility of persons thus for membership, and the record thus formed, in the course of time, may become the most reliable source of historical information. The members of these societies consider that their descendants will be proud of such favorable record of their family history, and that it will be a strong incentive to them toward more worthy lives. A man so low that he will not feel a pride in the honors and achievements of his progenitors can hardly be found, and it tends to arouse in him a desire for a better life. The influence of knowledge of the honors of our ancestors is great. It increases our pride and inspires us to higher, greater effort in worthy endeavor.

Americans may establish and boast of royal descent. But that means nothing in a Democracy. Let it does evaluate historical evidence. The explorers, romancers, adventurers, religious enthusiasts, refugees, seekers for political and religious freedom who came to the American Colonies were not all of the ancient orders of nobility. Few were old world aristocrats. Nevertheless, they laid the foundations of our government. They transmitted to their descendants a marvelous heritage. He who can establish a lineage from one of these makers of our nation, whether his ancestor was rich or poor, distinguished or unknown, powerful or impotential, is contributing not only to his own lawful pride and satisfaction, but making a valuable contribution, lasting and permanent in behalf of his family surname, and a gift of ancestry to the children of his house for many generations to follow.

The glories and honors of the past were definite recognitions bestowed upon the recipients and bearers of the standards of progress and civilization. All historical research and publication, more or less, preserves the annals of the famous and distinguished. Those whose names are not to be found upon the rolls of honor can only be memorialized by the relation of descendants to them, to be evidenced in genealogical establishment. No person can emulate the character and virtues of an honorable ancestor unless he enroll his own name upon the proud family banner. Then his name, place and reality will forever reveal his identity. At least as long as any man-made history shall endure. This is what genealogy does for the family loyalty, and makes good citizenship even more genuinely patriotic.

Family pride is justified, even in those who know that their ancestors were the obscure, substantial, sturdy yeomanry, who in all ages are the salt of the earth, the backbone of solid social progress.

The family history one unearths in tracing down one's family tree, that you knew naught of before, is in itself compensation. I have found in old published histories and in private files, many interesting family stories, several of which I will relate. I have a Lyle family line.

The seat of the Lyle family in Renfrewshire was Muchal Castle, some distance southwest of the city of Glasgow, Scotland. Sir Robert Lyle was ennobled by King James II, and the title Lord Lyle remained in existence until the return of King James IV of Scotland, when the Lyle estates were declared forfeited and the family was forced to leave Renfrewshire. Some of the Lyle refugees settled for a time in Ayrshire, Scotland; others established a bleach green for linens in Larne. Later the Ayrshire Lyles also migrated to Ireland and the Lyle families got together and settled on lands of Sir Randall MacDonnell near Larne. Sir Randall was a Roman Catholic, but nevertheless he extended a generous welcome to the Scotch Presbyterians who went to Ireland. One of these Lyle Scotch refugees was a direct ancestor of mine, Robert Lyle. According to family traditions, John Lyle, the Scotchman and father of Robert Lyle, not only clung to his religion but retained to his death his Scotch dress.

On one occasion, going to pay his rent to the Lord of the Manor, he was required to remove his Scotch cap, stand uncovered and await his turn for admission. The traditions are that he was bald headed, and this exposure at his advanced age brought on a severe illness. His son Robert who had accompanied him, was so indignant at the treatment to which his father had been subjected, that he resolved and declared that he would not remain in a country where citizens were subjected to such indignities.

When Robert Lyle had made preparations for emigration to America, the younger brother, John, expressed a desire to go also. This delayed the departure for a time. In the latter part of the year 1741, the two brothers set sail from Belfast and, after a tedious and dangerous voyage landed in New York in the Spring of 1747. They sailed in company of James Patton, who crossed the Atlantic 25 times. This Patton was a regular shipping agent and he was the means of attracting many immigrants to America by his glowing accounts of the New World. The capital of the immigrant brothers is described as: a little money, good health, strong hands and brave hearts."

Mrs Albert James Caven (Sylvia Ellen Walker) (11-124-113).

"AN IRISH SONG - By Robert Lyle. This poem was composed while the author was harrowing in oats, in the Spring of 1741, before he and his brother, John, left Ireland for America. It was jotted down, a verse at a time, as they occurred to him, while his team was resting:

"All you my friends and neighbors near,      Which in Ireland doth remain,
It fills my heart with grief and care,      To think I must leave you behind.

For I must sail on the ocean wide,      To some plantation lately found,
For in this land I cannot abide,      Oppression doth so much abound.

Our landlords they do still increase,      In wickedness and cruelty;
They put the poor all in distress,      And on the needy have no pity.

Likewise our Tithers, both great and small,      Take from us that which is not due,

With catch-poll taxers and collectors,      And all the rest of the accursed crew.

Ireland was once a blessed isle,      Free from all beasts that were unclean;
But now, alas it is defiled,      By such vermin as I have named.

Which makes us leave our native land.      May some destruction on them be cast,
For such oppression cannot stand;      An alternation will come at last.

"Some do tell us we have no call, To go and leave our native land;
But we fear some evil yet to come, To fly from which we have command.

Like as Adam at God's command, To replenish the earth with man, Therefore we, his posterity, Are obliged to do the same.

This has been done in Africa, In Europe and in Asia,
And now I think it lies on us, To replenish America.

Which in a wilderness remains, Without inhabitants therein;
Where we expect for to erect, A Church therein to worship Him.

All you that doth not know my name, And yet desire the same to find,
I will in letters here describe, Which letters will begin the lines;

So that you may for our safety pray, When we are on the roaring main -
Both passengers and mariners - So here my lines I now begin:

Rather than we will in bondage be, Or under such taskmasters as those,
By God's assistance we will withdraw; Europe we will no more come near;
Rely we will on the Almighty, To send us safely over the sea.

Like as to Israel, So may He,
Yield us relief in the wilderness;
Leaving ourselves in all His care,
Even these few lines conclude my name.

The time draws near when I must away, No longer here I can remain;
No ease of mind I here can find, But will seek it across the briny deep main.

And that which adds unto my grief, Is the many sins which here abound,
Of which I think Pride is the chief; For which we have evidence all around.

So fare you well, my parents dear, Since it is so that we must part;
Farewell my bretheren and sisters too, And you that young and tender art.

Farewell to all in general, That are my consanguinity;
To everyone, both old and young, That are of my affinity.

You County of Antrim, fare you well; My blessing ever dwell on you;
For here I nevermore shall dwell; To Ireland's shore we'll bid adieu,

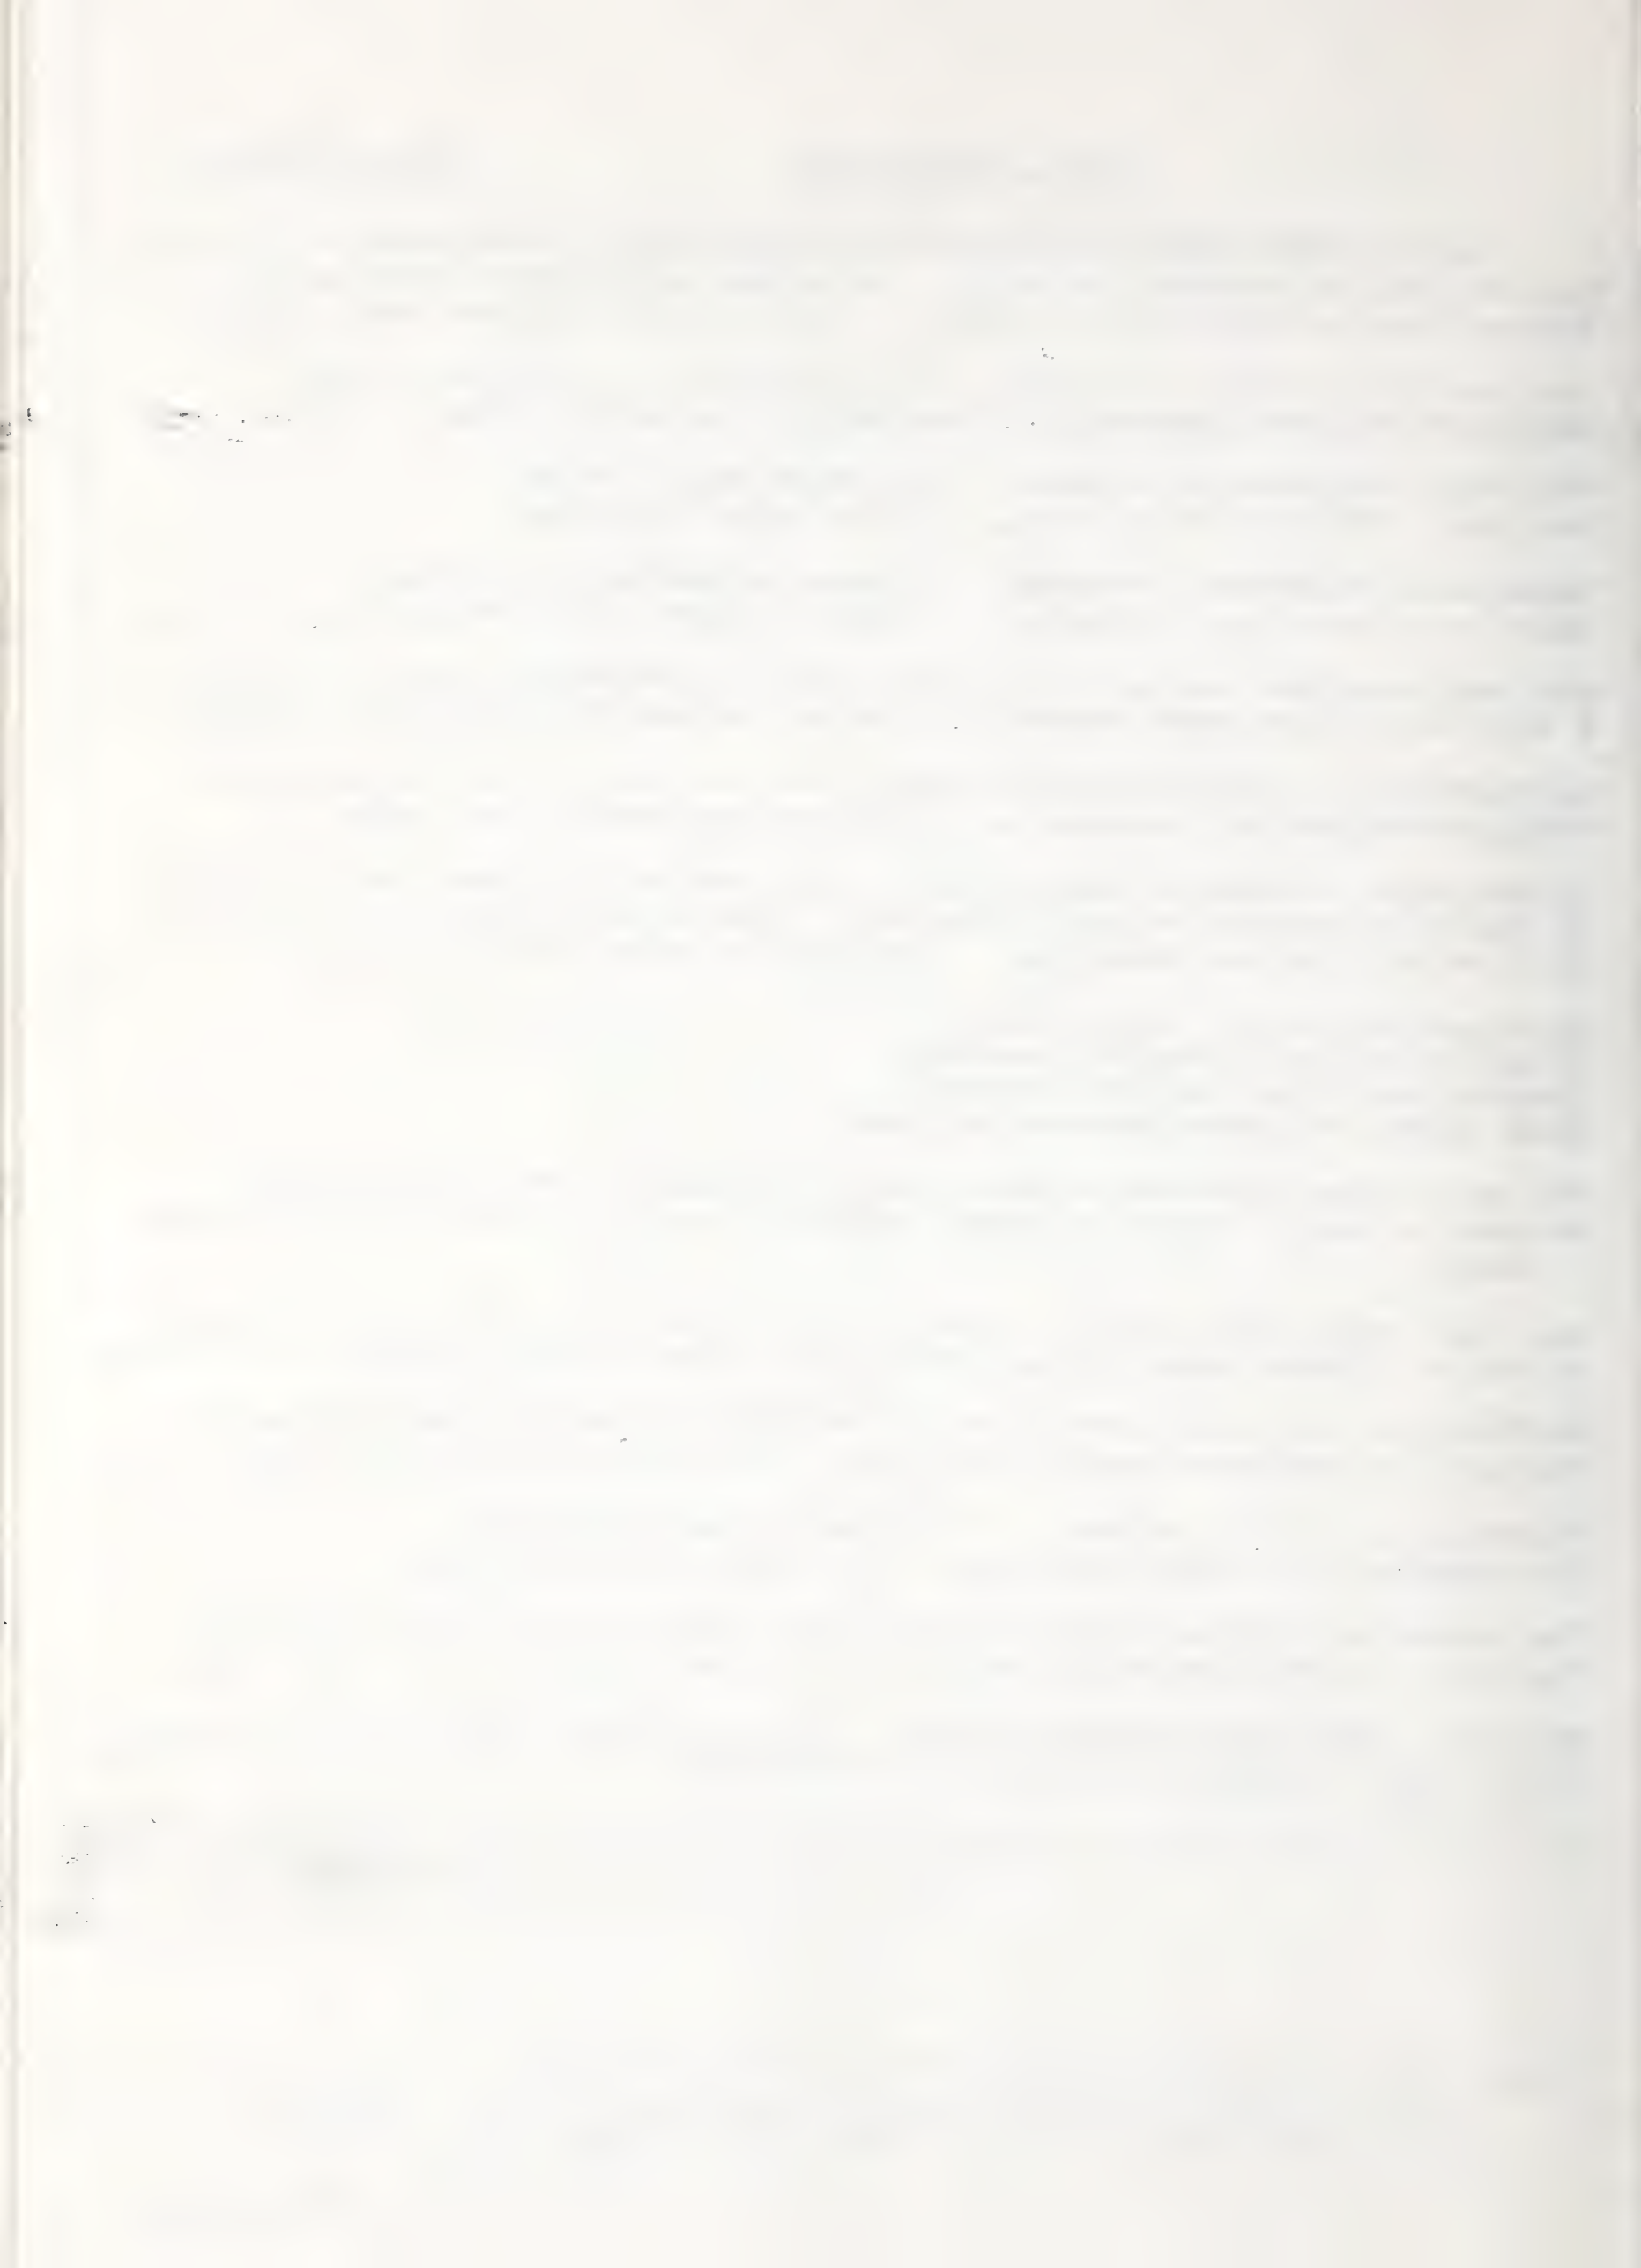

And sail away o'er the briny deep, To that far off land across the sea;
And though friends may mourn for us and weep, We'll put our trust, Oh God, in Thee.

"Dr. Alfred W. Davisson, Prosector of Anatomy, Rush Medical College.
When the original faculty of Rush Medical College was organized, Alfred W. Davisson was Prosector of Anatomy. He was born at Xenia, Ohio, May 31st, 1815, his parents being Andrew W. and Rebecca (Todd) Davisson. He attended two courses of lectures at Ohio Medical College, but it has not been possible to learn of his graduation. During his student days he supported himself by making wooden bedsteads at night.

After practicing medicine in Indiana for a time, he came to Chicago in 1842. The next year he was County Physician. He served 1 year as Prosect or of Anatomy in Rush Medical College and with the aid of his negro servant took an active part in securing material for dissection.

Davisson soon became actively interested in business and dropped medicine In 1852, in conjunction with his brother-in-law, Thomas McCalla, he established the Bank of Commerce, a banking firm composed of Davisson, McCalla & Co. Of this firm he was President. The bank was first located at the present site of the Sherman hotel, but in 1854 was moved to Lake & Clark Sts., the heads of the bank erecting a new 5 story brick building there,
"the first of that height in Chicago." Later in life he lived in New York and finally at Atlanta, Ga., where he died in 1895."

(Commerce.)

(NOTE: 12 W. Van Buren St, where Clarendon Davisson Lived, was afterward owned by Thomas McCalla, and is the site of the Athnaeum Bldg., just behind the Chicago Club. 77 Clark St., where A.W. Davisson lived and practiced, and where he first helped start the Rush Medical College, was one of a row of 2 story bldgs. on E side of Clark, opposite City Hall, and adjoining Thomas Mc-Calla's later 5 story bldg (see ante-fire pictures) on NE Cor Lake & Clark & Washington. In the 1890's A.W.D. lived at 2421 Indiana Ave, then bought Broughton Island, Ga (from heirs of Lord Broughton) where he died. He still have the Great Seal and ribbons attached to the Royal Warrant for this Island.

The Tribune of February, 1929 speaks of the son of this Lord Broughton as receiving special honors from the English government, and speaks of him as President of the Virginian Ry, and a great giver to charities, etc.

99 Washington St., listed as the home of Thomas McCalla, was the present site of the Chicago Title & Trust Bldg., and is the home in which Thomas McCalla died. It was next door to the Methodist Church (as at present) and across the street from the 5 story bldg (now the Prager Block) which he owned. After his death, Grandmother McCalla moved to next door to the 1st Presbyterian Church, N.W. Cor Congress & Wabash, and later to 1302 Wabash Ave, next door to Dr. Robert Hamill at 1200 Wabash Ave.

50 Clark St., was probably the present site of the Sherman Hotel, which was sold out to them shortly after. Thomas McCalla also owned at least one house across the alley N. from the Sherman hotel (and 1/2 block South of his solid block on Lake Street.

24 Clark St. was probably a later location in the Davisson Block (owned originally by Dr. A.W. Davisson) at N.W. Cor Lake & Clark. This whole block on the N. side of Lake St., between Lake & Clark, was later owned by Thomas McCalla and A.W. Davison, and was shown in the picture of that block being raised by George M. Pullman.

Kinzie & Dearborn Sts. was where Thos McCalla lived when he first came to Chicago, supposedly with, or near Dr. Robert C. Hamill

LETTER NO. 1.

(LETTER FROM DR. THOMAS HAMILL, MD (H-129): Mr Clinton C. Franklin (Sylvia Lue-(Emma Crawford) (H-124-12), Omaha, Nebraska, first wrote Dr. Hamill, MD, as-follows: "SLO. First Nat. Bank Bldg, Omaha, Neb. June 11, 1896. Dr. Thomas Hamill, MD, Olathe, Kansas. My Dear Sir: Sylvia (H-124-12), Helen McCalla (H-125-61), Mattie Hamill Home (H-125-5) and myself are digging into bye-gone days to unearth a Revolutionary Ancestor of the Hamill-Davidson alliance, and naturally anyone that we think will be able to give us any information will hear from us. I might say me, as all the correspondence has fallen on my shoulders, the others advise and feel hurt if their advice is not followed. Talking the matter over with Sylvia (H-124-12) last night, she mentioned a Preacher, I think his name was Brown, whom she met when she first came to the West. This gentleman married a Hamill, (possibly (H-272, who married Rev. Thos. Brown), from the neighborhood of Cadiz, Ohio.
He stated that there were 4 Brothers, John, Nathaniel, Robert & Hugh. Robert settled near Philadelphia, presumably Chester County, John and Hugh in the Great Cove, Milton County, Georgia, and Nathaniel went to Tennessee.

I believe you were present when the assertion was made, and know the gentleman well. If he is still living, can you give his present whereabouts?
We had quite a discussion regarding the relationship that existed between John Hamill (H-12), (who was) your Father, and Aunt Sally (H-15).
Uncle Smith's (Hamill-H-125) people contend that they were brother and sister, while Sylvia (H-124-12) thinks they were Aunt and Nephew.

Aunt Sally (H-15) died in 1872, aged 92 years (?). This would place her birth in 1780 (?). Sylvia (H-124-12) remembers seeing an old Bible, the property of Aunt Sally, in which she made the following entry: "Sailed from Belfast, Ireland, October (or November) 30th, 1790 (?), thus making her 10 years of age at the time she sailed. Grandfather James Hamill, (H-124) always asserted that she was 94 at the time of her death. Unfortunately, this Bible has disappeared.

John Hamill, (Sr. H-12), your Father, was born in the Great Cove, Milton Co., in 1779 (?). He is supposed to be the eldest of five children, and Sarah (H-15) was the 4th or 5th child. Assuming for the sake of argument that she was the fourth, when and where were Nathaniel (H-11) and Martha (H-13) born, these two being between John (H-12) and Sarah (H-15). You, as a Physician, can appreciate the miracle that must have happened to make the thing possible. Sylvia (H-124-12) and I have come to the conclusion that Aunt Sally (H-15) was an Aunt (?) to your Father (H-12), and not his sister.
What do you think? Will be glad to hear from you, and any information that you have that you will transfer to us will be appreciated. Sylvia (H-124-12) sends love and begs to be remembered. Yours Sincerely, Clinton Franklin. (H-124-12-husband of Sylvia Emma Crawford Franklin).

(Dr. Thomas Hamill's (H-129) reply): "Olathe, Kansas. (Not dated, but probably written in February or March, 1896): "Dear Friends: Your letter received some time ago. I am ashamed that I did not answer sooner. When I was up to Neokuk at Brother's (H-125-who died in 1895) funeral, I gave Miss McCalla (H-125-61) all that I knew about the Hamills. The Preacher Sylvia (H-124-12) mentions is dead. Aunt Sally (H-15) was my Father's (H-12) sister. There were three sisters (H-13, H-14, H-15) and two brothers (H-11, H-12) of my Father's (H-12) family. So that Miss Mc-Calla (H-125-61) has got all that I can give.

My Father (H-12) was the oldest of the children. I do not think any of my Father's family was born in Ireland. I think they were all born in the US. On my Mother's side (H-13), she was born in Ireland. I think she was 7 years old when she came to this country. I do not know where to place the births of the family. As near as I can recollect, Father (H-12) was the oldest, then Martha (H-13). The others I can not place. I believe I have given you all that I know of the family history. We are having some fine weather here. The Rev. McCord of Olathe will occupy one of the Methodist Churches of Omaha for the next year. He is a fine preacher. If you have an opportunity, you must go and hear him. Give our love to Sylvia, (H-124-12). We are all in our usual health. Come down and see us. Love to all from your Uncle, Thomas. (Dr. Thomas Hamill, MD-H-125-Olathe, Kansas)

LETTER No. 2.

(LETTERS FROM MRS. REV. THOMAS L. SEXTON (Rosa Davidson Hamill) (H-125-1) of Seward, Seward Co, Nebraska, dated 5/13/1892, to Mrs Clinton Franklin, (Sylvia Luenna Crawford) (H-124-12), of Omaha, Neb.): "...The Tennessee Hamills, or those of Winsworth, Iowa, (See Family E), have been at Father's (Smith Hamill-H-125-Keokuk, Iowa). They were there (at Keokuk) during the War - some of them were in the war of the rebellion. They could not tell how they were related to Father (H-125)....."

(From Letter dated 7/4/1892): "...Carrie (H-125-8-She was on a trip to Belfast, Ireland, where she found the "Crusader Hamill Church") is having a lovely trip, from her published letters in the Keokuk (Iowa) papers, which Lee (H-125-9) sends me. I wanted greatly to hear from you before writing the final account of our ancestor to Dr. Wm. H. Egle, MD, of Harrisburg, Penna. (Librarian of Penna State Library - Editor of Penna Archives - See Note at end of this letter). I told him all I knew - "Tradition" and the "Bickett Story" - which I sent you - barring all that. He found our Great-Great-Grandfather to be Nathaniel Hamill (Sr-H-1) - of Ayr Twp, Bedford Co, Penna, now Fulton County - comprising the "Big Cove." He was marked "Single" from 1773 to 1776. "Had in 1723, 190 acres of land." Later his family consisted of seven persons. Five children and the parents - just what they had. He gives me the full record of Robert and John of the same locality. Their family and record would not suit our ancestor at all. Robert (H-37) and Nathaniel (Sr-H-1) were both in the Revolutionary War. He could find no record of John's service. I accept Nathaniel (H-1) as my ancestor. Dr Egle is publisher of the Penna Archives, and is the highest authority, they told me. ~~See the Bickett Story~~ The "Bear Story, Nellie (H-125-6) says, is told about the Davidsons too. I expect our Great-Grandfather sleeps in a quiet grave, in some Churchyard, obscure now from lapse of time. I have learned to pay no attention to "hearsay" tradition. I have Dr Egle's Certificate, and will believe in it, until someone contests it, which I think cannot be done..... Robert Hamill's (probably H-2) family consisted of 10 persons. Those Tennessee Hamills (Family E) were often at our house during the War, or descendants, and certainly Father (H-125) would have known who they were, if related closely....." (Compiler's note: The Penna State Library, at Harrisburg, Penna, was afterwards burned, destroying all those fine records and others of Dr. Wm. H. Egle, MD, the Librarian - and those our Hamills (had sent to be published in the Penna Archives).

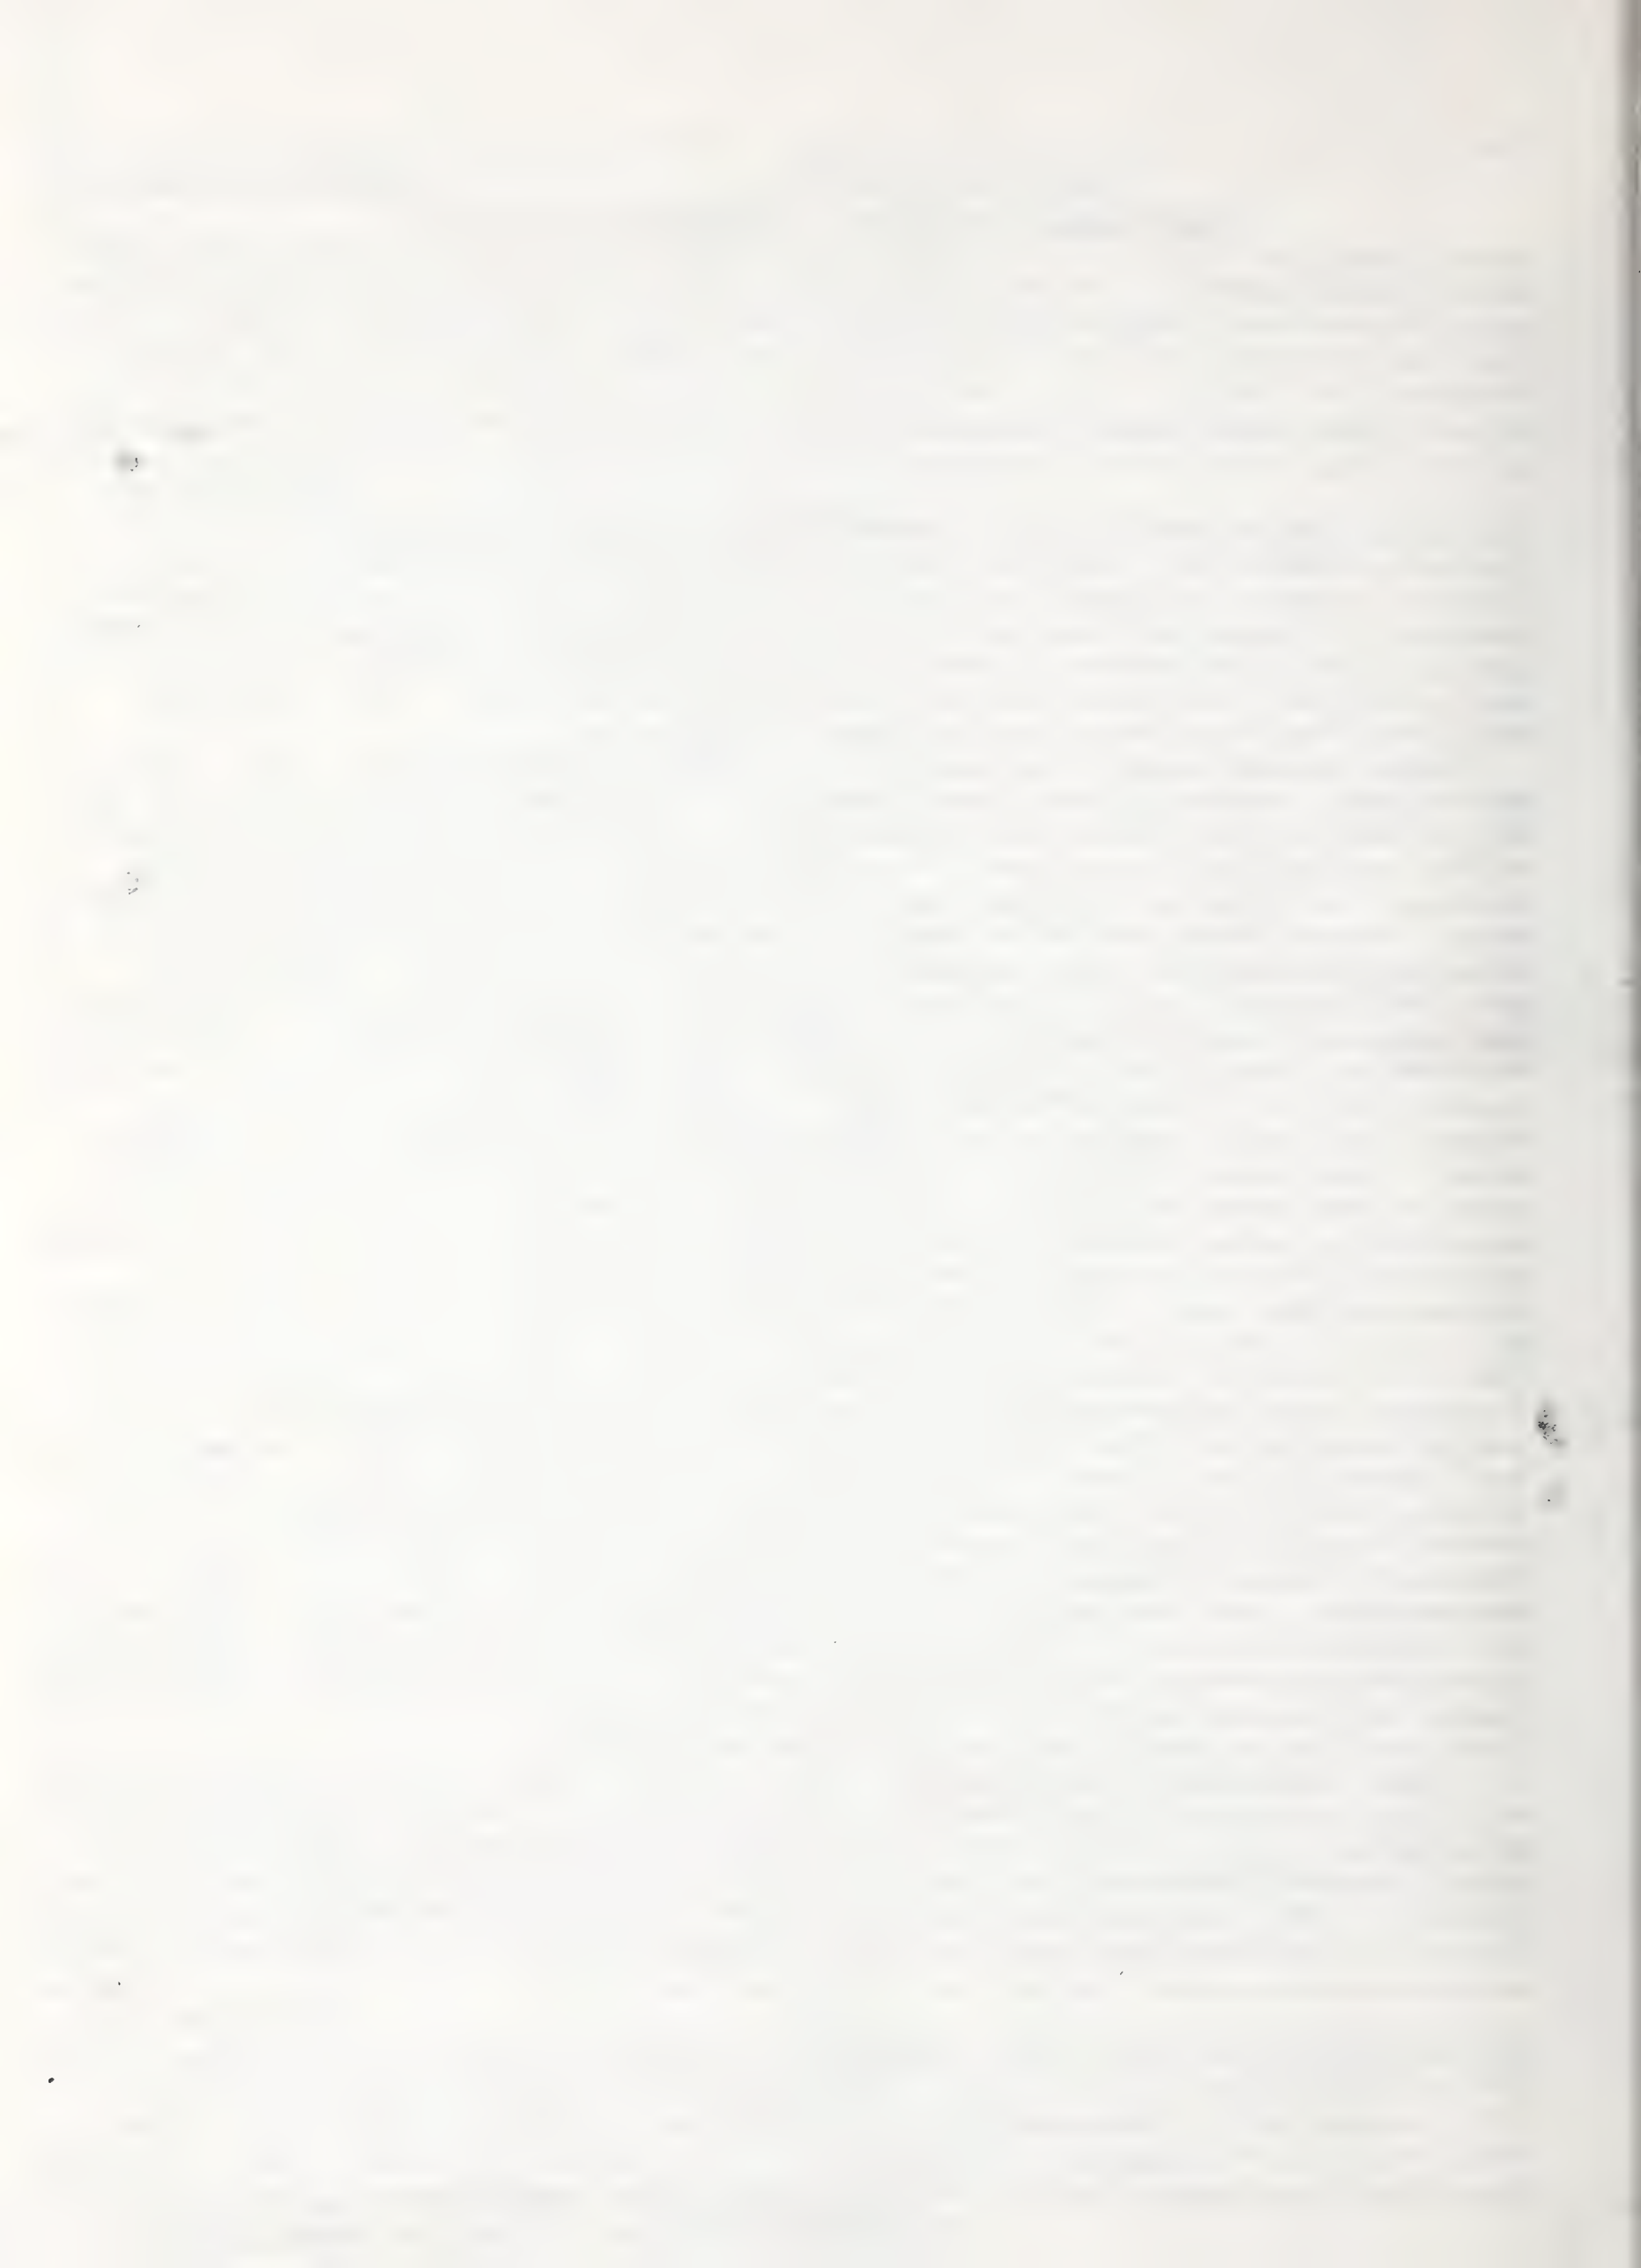

(From Letter dated 8/5/1892): "...The Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack (H-371-41) has been at Father's (H-125) several times. Then the Rev. David Goodwillie (H- ) and Rev. Thomas Brown (H-272), brother of our old Father at Keokuk, were married to Hamills. Mrs Goodwillie's name was Frances Hamill. Now I do not know what relation these people were to each other. Father or Mother knew, and you will be able to find out among the friends!

LETTER No. 3:

(LETTER FROM WILLIAM FRANKLIN HAMIL (H-373-1) of Indiana, Indiana Co, Penna, dated 7/22/1896, to Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luenna Crawford) (H-124-12), of Omaha, Neb): "Indiana, Penna, 7/22/1896, Mr Clinton Franklin, Omaha, Neb. Dear Sir: Your favor received. I know nothing about Martha Biggott, or any of the name. Robert Hamill (H-37), the Soldier you speak of, was (SEE NEXT PAGE).

HAMILL GENEALOGY:

(Letter #3-Continued): my Grandfather, and he had 17 children, 12 of which grew to manhood and womanhood. Four of these were by his first wife, whose name was Ann Gageby, to wit: Elizabeth, Allen, David and Mary, and the rest by Jane McKelvey, whom he married in 1802.

Hugh Hamill (H-36) was his brother, and they had a brother John (??-Who could this be??) who lived a Bachelor. Whether he was a Soldier or not I don't know. But I think he died at his brother Hugh's.

I remember to hear Father (H-373-Robt. McKelvie Hamill) and some of the rest talk about the Lawrence County Cousin, John Hamill (H-23-A), that when he came to this country (??), he stopped with Grandfather (H-37) and cropped his place two years, that he was a son (??) of Rev. Hugh Hamill of Ireland (??). But I never heard of him (probably meaning Rev. Hugh) coming to this country.

I ought to have said above that Great-Grandfather's name was John (H-3), and he had two brothers that came to this country. For I often heard Father (H-373), who was born in 1805, say that he rarely met a Hamill that he could not trace back to one of the three brothers that came from Ireland. I do not know if they all came at once, or where the two located. Great-Grandfather (John Hamill-H-3), came in 1762 (??) to Ligonier. He left a while during the war, but came back when it was over.

I am 65 years old, and still have one Uncle, Ebenezer Hamill (H-375) living 86 years old. He at least, had a good memory and perhaps could tell some things if I could see him, but he is 18 miles away, and I don't think he could write. I am sorry I can tell you so little. But it will clear the discrepancy about Grandfather's (H-37) marriage, and Uncle Allen's (H-371-C) birth, and if I can learn anything further, I'll let you know."

(Letter not signed - but from Em. Trimble Hamill-H-373-1).

(Letter dated 1/1/1897): "Indiana, Penna, 1/1/1897. Mr Clinton Franklin, Dear Sir: I have waited for a convenient time to go and see my Uncle, Ebenezer Hamill (H-375) and Aunt Sarah Laneroux. But have done it. They both remember John Hamill (H-23A), the Lawrence County Cousin of Grandfather's (H-37). He was a son of Robert Hamill (Sr-H-2), that lived in the Big Cove. But they remember nothing about his Father, only the name and residence. They both mind of hearing the people talk about Martha Biggett, but that is all. They also mind to hear their Mother talk about their Cousin Sarah (H-15) living with Grandfather (H-37), and that she went to Lawrence Co, but as it was before they were born, they can tell nothing more.

They remember that Robert (Sr-H-2) of the Big Cove had a brother (??-was a son) Joseph (H-26 ?) who had 2 daughters that were both married to Preachers, to wit: Fannie (H-___) to Rev. David Goodwillie, and Jane (H-___) to Rev. ___ Alexander. But as they had not thought of them for many years, they have no trace of them now. Uncle has no doubt but Robert (Sr-H-2), father of Big John (H-23A), the Lawrence Co. Cousin, is the man you want to know about. He often heard the Biggets talked about, but thinks he never saw any of them. Rev. I. L. Grove is the Pastor of the Congregation called "The Cove" and his address is McConnellsburg, Penna. I remember to hear my Father talk about Davidsons and Smiths as outside relations, but did not mind to ask Uncle or Aunt about them. I guess I have told you all I can about our Ancestors and will close by telling you I have been married twice and have 5 children living and 3 dead. One, a well loved son and Preacher (H-373-15) died on the 3rd of October last, aged 31 years. If you get a history satisfactory to yourself, please send me a copy, as I like to think of the old people. Em. T. Hamill, Indiana, Penna. ("Sara was Grandfather's Cousin)."

THE REV. T. L. JAMIESON LETTERS: (H-371-C27)

(On 3/14/1896, Mr Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luemma Crawford) (H-124-12) of Omaha, Neb, first wrote to Rev. T. L. Jamieson, D.D., of Ligonier, Penna-- (seeking information concerning the Hamilla there, who are descendents of John Hamill (H-3). ~~Rev. Jamieson is~~ a Hamill descendent - but letters to Hugh Charles Hamill (H-361-1) of Ligonier, Pa, did not produce results, so Mr Franklin wrote to Rev. Jamieson, who knows all the Hamill descendents there, and was willing to secure the information, and write it on to Mr Franklin. So pertinent parts of the correspondence are copied here for purposes of record.

(Rev. T. L. Jamieson to Mr Franklin-3/19/1896): ".....Hugh Hamill (H-36) was married, probably, in the early 90's of the 18th Century to a Miss Sample. She was an ancestor of the late Wm. Sample, Merchant, of Allegheny, Pa. Their children all lived and died here (Ligonier Valley); most of them here in the Valley, Westmoreland Co, and some over the Ridge in Indiana Co. Robert Hamill (H-37) was married, (probably), in 1793 to a Miss Gageby, and after she died, to a Miss McKelvey. There were children by both marriages. The same spend their lives in the location noted above, with two exceptions, Joseph Hamill (H-376-B) and Anna (Hamill) McClain (H-376-A) died in Illinois.....Allen Hamill (H-371-C), the first child of Robert Hamill (H-37) was not married until 1825. My informant tells me that she remembers in her girlhood, of a Mr John Hamill (Probably H-12, but more likely H-23A) visiting her Grandfather, Mr Robert Hamill (H-37). He came from "out North" in Mercer County, (which at that time included ~~Marshall~~ Co), and was a Cousin of the said Robert Hamill's (H-37), although considerably younger than he.....the lady who informs me is a direct descendent of one of the two original men, viz: Robert Hamill's (H-37) oldest child was a son, born in 1794. His name was Allen Hamill (H-371-C). Allen Hamill's oldest child was a daughter, and it was she (Letter of 6/12/1896 says she was Mary Hamill Lytle (H-371-C2), who gave me an account of the whole family history, beginning with the two men first mentioned (Hugh (H-36) and Robert (H-37)). An account of all their descendents, births, marriages, place of living, deaths, etc, I have not burdened you with this, thinking the results above given were all you wanted. At a convenient opportunity I will examine the questions you submitted to Mr Charles Hamill (Hugh Charles Hamill H-361-1) of Ligonier, Pa), and if anything known has been omitted here, I will take pleasure in sending you anything additional. Yours truly, T. L. Jamieson."

(Rev. Jamieson to Mr Franklin-6/12/1896): He mentions Robert Hamill (H-37) as born in 1758 (instead of 1759 as we have it), then mentions Allen Hamill (H-371-C) as Born 1791, Died 1867. Mary Hamill Lytle (H-371-C2) he mentions as born in 1826, and still living in 1896, and that she was the first child. In turn, he says Mary's 5th child was Matthew Lytle (H-371-C24) and he gives his birth date as 1858. He also says Mary Hamill Lytle (above) gave all this information. He speaks of Allen Hamill's (H-371-C) house being destroyed by fire, (in the 1830's), and all family records lost, and says that Allen was Clerk of the Church-Session, and so the Church records were also lost.

(Mr Franklin's answer to Rev. Jamieson-7/2/1896): ".....Tradition says that two of the brothers, John (H-3) and one other (presumably Robert (H-2)) emigrated to Western Penna about 1765, one stopped in the neighborhood of Philadelphia, and the other went South to Tennessee, but of the last two we have no record nor even a trace....."

(Mr Franklin's answer to Rev. Jamieson-7/15/1896): "....Hugh Hamill (H-36) enlisted at Fairfield (Penna) in August 1776, and from that date until May 1777, he served as a private in the company commanded by Capt. Samuel Miller in the 8th Pa. Regiment, commanded by Col. McCoy; then transferred (SEE NEXT PAGE).

to the regiment commanded by Col. Daniel Morgan (company not stated), participated in the battles which terminated in the surrender of Genl. Burgoyne, and passed the winter of 1777-78 at Valley Forge; again joined the 8th Pa., then under the command of Col. Brodhead and served therein until Sept. 1779, when he was honorably discharged.

He made application for a Pension Feb. 26, 1833, and claimed Westmoreland County as his residence. He married Jane (maiden name unknown) March 1792 and died April 21st, 1836. Was born in County Antrim in 1758, and was 18 years of age at the time of enlistment.

Robert Hamill (H-37) enlisted December 1776 as a private under Capt. John Pomeroy for two months, reenlisted for the same periods in September 1777 (Capt. John Kingston) April 1778, (Capt. Knox), and Sept. 1778 (Capt. Samuel Shannon); reenlisted for three months under the same Captain in April and September 1780, and for two weeks in June 1781 (Capt. J. Gonoway) and Sept 1781 (Captain not stated) under Col. Paxton.

He enlisted at Fairfield (Penna) and claimed that place as his residence May 27th, 1833, when he made application for a Pension. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, Nov. 25th, 1759, and was 17 years of age at the time of his first enlistment. He married Jane (maiden name unknown) July 20th, 1802, and died April 9th, 1841. During his term of service he acted as substitute for his father, John Hamill (H-3).

In April 1775, he, Robert (H-37), moved with his parents to Bedford County, where he remained until sometime in December of the same year, when he returned to Fort Mifflin on business for his father, and remained in that vicinity until he learned that two deserters (who were then supposed to be spies) had broken jail at Hannahstown. He volunteered to apprehend them, which he did with the assistance of Robert Laughlin and a man named Daugherty, but the prisoners escaped and took with them two guns belonging to their captors. He then pursued them alone from the neighborhood of Ft Mifflin to a place called Denan's Creek, below Bedford, where he apprehended them with the assistance of a man named Lafferty, and brought them back to Hannahstown. This occurred in the months of February and March 1780.

John Hamill (H-3) was a soldier of the Pennsylvania Line (State Militia) and received Depreciation Pay from the State of Pennsylvania for services to January 1st, 1781, but unfortunately further record of his Revolutionary service is not obtainable at this time.....

".....The history of Fulton County gives the name of Robert Hamill (H-2), who lived in Ayr Township between 1766-69, owned property there and also in Licking Creek Township, but the author states that neither record nor tradition from which to collate either incident or tradition exists. This is unfortunate, as it makes the chase longer. Bedford County was formed in 1771 out of Cumberland, and Fulton in 1850 out of Bedford....."

".....Sarah (H-15), the third (37) child of Martha Bickett, lived to the age of 92 (he means 94 years), died in 1872 at the home of my wife's (H-124-12) Grandfather (H-124). Mrs Franklin (H-124-12) was a girl of about ten years old and distinctly recollects the old Aunt (H-15) telling about Cousin Robert (H-37), Hugh (H-36) and Archibald (H-371-C1), altho as yet the latter has not appeared. She also talked of Licking Creek (Penna) and Mifflin Valley (Penna), as she lived there prior to joining her Mother (H-1) in Lawrence Co. in 1800. Since connecting the name of Robert Hamill (H-3) with Licking Creek, and talking the matter over with Mrs Franklin (H-124-12), the names are quite familiar, tho doubtless the Robert (H-37) she has heard her Aunt (H-15) mention, was the son of John (H-3), and not her father....."
